OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER ROBERT P. CURLEY REFUTES CHARGES OF COUNCILOR MADDEN IN CONNECTION WITH GARBAGE AND ASH CONTRACTS—STATES THAT CHARGES ARE WITHOUT ANY FOUNDATION WHATSOEVER—AVERAGE NUMBER EMPLOYED SEEN TO BE AROUND 200—OTHER ALLEGATIONS ALSO CHALLENGED BY CITATION OF THE FACTS.

Public Works Commissioner Robert P. Curley, on December 31, issued a statement refuting the charges made by Councilor Edward C. Madden in connection with the handling of garbage and ash contracts. He stated in his letter to Mayor Curley that the charges were without any foundation whatsoever. His letter reads as follows:

The charges made against me by a member of the Boston City Council are without any foundation whatsoever.

The amount paid in 1946 for rubbish and garbage removal in the City of Boston was $1,354,440, not $1,267,063, as the gentleman stated. This amounts to an average payment of $26,047 per week.

The councilor is grossly in error in his statement that about 100 men are employed in the work. While the volume of collection fluctuates with seasonal and weather conditions the average number of men employed is over 200. From the most recent figures for the month of December, 1946, which are before me, I find that the number of men, exclusive of drivers, engaged in rubbish and garbage removal was 218. At $1.10 per hour for a 48-hour week, these men were paid $11,510.40.

During the same period the contractors provided 90 trucks with drivers, figured at $3.50 per hour for 48 hours these trucks would cost $15,120. For this particular period therefore, the contractors provided labor and vehicles worth $26,630.40, as against the average weekly contract prices of $26,047. I have taken no account of overhead, workmen's compensation, insurance and social security, which also must, by the provisions of the contract, be provided by the contractors.

The figures I have used above are substantiated by daily reports of foremen of this department and, as to pay rolls, by weekly affidavits of the contractors, as required by each contract.

The contracts for the year 1947 call, in the average, for an increase of 18 per cent over 1946 contracts. That increase is attributable to higher labor costs and higher costs of rental and maintenance of equipment. In my best judgment the proposed 1947 contract prices fairly take into account the general increase in costs and are the best prices obtainable by the city for that type of service.

An important part of the high cost of rubbish and garbage removal under present conditions is attributable to the scarcity and poor location of dumps, which renders inevitable long and costly haulage of refuse. In view of this I have given serious consideration to the proposal of replacing dumps serving certain areas by strategically located incinerators. On September 4, 1946, I recommended that the Mayor request of the Council a loan order of $200,000 to construct an incinerator in Brighton, the area from which haulage is most expensive. That money was provided by the Mayor and City Council in November of 1946, and arrangements for construction of the incinerator are going forward as rapidly as possible. In view of the imminent change in the method of disposal, each 1947 contract expressly reserves to the city the right to cancel on 30 days' notice when incinerators are available.

In themselves, the charges made by the councilor are so ill-informed and so completely baseless as to merit no reply. The citizens of Boston, however, have a twofold interest in the problem. As householders, they are vitally concerned with rubbish and garbage removal. As taxpayers, they must pay the bill. I welcome this opportunity to lay the facts before them. It is unnecessary to say that the records of this department are open at all times to the Boston Finance Commission and to any other officials charged by law with the power to investigate.

Mayor Curley's New Year Greeting to Boston Citizens.

A GLAD AND JOYOUS NEW YEAR TO ALL

The old year is passing — let it go,
It had its faults, as all years do,
It had its blessings and its joys
But now we face again the new.

With faith regained, with courage high
Let us resolve to see it through,
To keep our friendly ties of yore
And with kind hearts, we'll test the new.

May happy days before you lie,
Achievement your endeavors crown,
Felicity and health at home,
Fortune's smile, but not her frown.

May New Year's be a cheery time Around your hearth and in your heart;
May peace and good will reign supreme Where'er men play a manly part.

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene, Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

FIRE COMMISSIONER RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR., REFUTES CHARGES MADE THAT DEPARTMENT HAS HIRED WOMAN PUBLICITY AGENT AND MEMBERSHIP OF DEPARTMENT WAS TO BE ASSESSED TO PAY FOR HER SERVICES— TERMS CHARGES UTTERLY UNFOUNDED AND WITHOUT JUSTIFICATION.

The following is a copy of the letter received by Mayor Curley, December 27, from Fire Commissioner Russell S. Codman, Jr.:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—With reference to statements made by Councilor Scannell at yesterday's meeting of the City Council where it was alleged that the Fire Commissioner had engaged the services of a lady publicity agent and that some sort of an assessment would be made against the membership of the department to pay for her services, if they were so made, are utterly unfounded and without any justification.

Prior to the beginning of National Fire Prevention Week last October, Miss Esta Barr, a resident of Boston, who at that time was appearing in weekly radio broadcasts, on Station WBZ, voluntarily offered her services to Chief Boutlier through the press and radio stations on matters pertaining to fire prevention. During that period and subsequent thereto, Miss Barr has given unstintingly of her time in obtaining press releases and radio broadcasts informative to the public on the activities of this department. She has been particularly helpful to the Chief of the Department in preparing radio scripts which were used not only during Fire Prevention Week but particularly during the pre-Christmas season, when we tried to call to the attention of the public the many special hazards existing during that season. Furthermore, Miss Barr arranged for radio transcriptions, both for myself and the Chief of the Department, for which I am extremely grateful.

I have had a conference this day with Miss Barr, the Chief of the Department, and Mr. William H. McClellan, President of Local 718, International Association of Fire Fighters as it seems that prior to the city election last November the so-called 48-hour committee, consisting of representatives from all the organizations within the department had requested Miss Barr to assist them in furthering their campaign to obtain a 48-hour week. It was my understanding that Miss Barr voluntarily contributed her services and received no remuneration whatsoever.

In recognition of her services to this department I authorized the Chief of the Department to extend to her the privileges of his office in order to facilitate the carrying out of work done by her.

At no time up to the present has there been any consideration or question given to remunerating Miss Barr for her public-spirited services. So far as I know, no attempt has been made by any organization within the department to request contributions or assessments for providing a salary for Miss Barr. At the present time, however, I understand that there is a discussion between the department organizations to retain the services of Miss Barr on a permanent basis. In the event that this relationship should materialize, personally I can see no objection therein, providing that there is no violation either in spirit or in fact, of the department rules and regulations.

I can assure your Honor that it has been a pleasure for me to have Miss Barr associated in an unofficial manner with this office, and, if as a result of an understanding between the different organizations, they wish to retain her in an official capacity I believe it to be within their just rights.

Respectfully yours,
RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.,
Fire Commissioner.

MAYOR CURLEY VETOES LICENSE TO SUTCLIFFE TRANSPORTATION COMPANY.

To the City Council.

GENTLEMEN.—I return herewith without my signature and disapproved the vote of your Honorable Body of December 16, 1946, granting a license to the Sutcliffe Transportation Company to operate motor vehicles between the Airport and Copley square.

The law (General Laws, chapter 159A, sections 1 and 2) authorizing the City Council and the Mayor to license the use of the streets for the carrying of passengers by motor vehicles provides that such vehicles shall operate only over a specific route set forth in the application and license and the route cannot be varied by the licensee except in an emergency.

This is one of the most important provisions of the law, and it is evident that it was enacted to enable the licensing authorities to take into consideration the traffic problems involved before approving any particular route.

The application of the company and the proposed license specifies no particular route and authorizes the operation of motor buses over practically all of the through streets in the most congested traffic sections of the city from Copley square to the water front.

Whatever may be the ultimate object of the company, the license proposed amounts to a franchise to permit the buses of this company to roam at will over the streets of downtown Boston picking up and discharging passengers; and there is no limit set to the number of vehicles which may be used.

This non-compliance with the plain terms and intent of the statute is sufficient reason to require my disapproval of the license.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

III. HIGH COMMENDATIONS.

At 4.43 a. m., December 25, 1946, the department responded to an alarm from Box 1557 for a fire in a dwelling house at 141 Worcester street, City. On arrival of the department at the scene, fire was bursting out of the three windows of the first floor and had possession of the only stairway.

Upon receiving information that persons were trapped on the third floor a ladder was raised and Ladderman Roy E. Burrill, Ladder 12, proceeded over the ladder and carried a woman down over the ladder. Ladderman Thomas F. Prendergast, Ladder 13, then went over the ladder and carried the woman's husband down over the ladder to the street.

Inasmuch as both these men took great risk and were subjected to intense heat and smoke in effecting the rescues of the man and woman, the Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend them highly, and their cases are referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

At 9.56 a. m., December 20, 1946, the department responded to an alarm from Box 2251 for a fire in a dwelling house at 2495 Washington street, Roxbury. Upon arrival the fire was found on the fourth floor of the building.

Upon receiving information from a letter carrier that there were three persons in the apartment, Hoseman Thomas McGrath, Engine 14, went over the stairway and into the apartment on his hands and knees and heard a woman groaning. He took her out unconscious and passed her to Hoseman Hoban of Engine Company 12. He went into the room and took out a child and passed her to Hoseman DeStefano of Engine 14. He went into the room a third time and carried out the remaining child. The woman and the two children were revived, and the two children were taken to the City Hospital.

Inasmuch as Hoseman McGrath took great risk and was subjected to intense heat and smoke in effecting the rescues, the Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend him highly and his case is referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 12, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR.—Under the General Equipment Loan of $1,500,000 authorized by the City Council, $13,000 was allocated to the Fire Department, Electrical Equipment. Three portable lighting plants which were to be placed on new trucks were ordered by this department. The new portable lighting plants will replace two old lighting plants which are now out of service.

Inasmuch as the trucks and the lighting plants had to be ordered separately, the cost of the lighting plants was charged to Fire Department, Electrical Equipment, in the General Equipment Loan. However, at the present time there is not sufficient money in this item to pay for the plants. Your Honor has already signed a contract for delivery of the three lighting plants, and the Fairbanks-Morse Company is ready to deliver them.

Your Honor's permission is therefore requested to allocate the sum of $3,948 from the reserve of the Departmental Equipment Loan, Non-Revenue, to the Fire Department, Electrical Equipment, Departmental Equipment Loan.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF BRIGHTON.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR.—Will you kindly make the following transfers in the budget:

From Brighton Court, B-4, $100; Brighton Court, C-10, $75; Insanity Cases, $626.98, to Brighton Court, A-2, $880.32; Brighton Court, B-13, $13.28; Brighton Court, D-1, $101.45; Brighton Court, F-7, $6.93.

By far the greater portion of the above is by reason of the presiding Justice sitting in the Superior Court causing us to obtain special justices to sit in his place and consequently creating a further expense from the figures originally allowed. The city will, of course, be reimbursed by the state.

Other than this there are a few small amounts overdrawn by virtue of the increased cost of printing and the increase in pension.

Yours truly,

DANIEL F. CUNNINGHAM, Clerk.

PROPOSED SALARY INCREASES

The following statement was ordered spread upon the records:

The School Committee has given careful consideration to various petitions for salary increases for teachers and other employees and has arranged for early hearings on such petitions.

The School Committee is in complete accord with the nationwide movement for salary raises and will exert every effort to convince the Legislature of the imperative need for favorable and early action.

The School Committee has authorized the filing of a petition for increased appropriating power again this year. It is on record as favoring in principle the single salary schedule.

In reference to the recent proposal of His Honor, Mayor Curley to make the E. C. A. permanent and to grant an additional $200 to all city employees, the School Committee is confronted with certain legal difficulties and is requesting an opinion from the Corporation Counsel as to whether it may make the E. C. A. permanent, and whether it may without legislative authorization grant salary increases to become effective Jan. 1, 1947.

It goes without saying that substantial salary increases in the Boston School system are dependent upon favorable action by Committees of the Legislature and by the General Court itself. It appears to be acknowledged generally that additional state aid in some form from some source will be needed for local education. United effort on the part of the entire citizenry will be required. The outlook not only in Boston but throughout the entire Commonwealth seems most promising.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The order laid over at the meeting of Nov. 12, 1946, amending Section 80, Paragraph IV of the Rules, and Section 303 of the Regulations, to establish the rank of senior instructor (Physical Education), Brandeis Vocational High School, was taken up and passed.

The Committee adjourned.

Attest:

LOUISE KANE,
Secretary.

HIGHWAY AID.

The Federal Works Agency has apportioned to the states the $500,000,000 made available for this year under the Federal Highway Aid Act of 1944. This appropriation recognizes that the major traffic problems are in and adjacent to urban centers and is therefore to be spent in large part ($125,000,000) for removing traffic bottlenecks and connecting principal cities with express highways. A total of $100,000,000 is being made immediately available for planning, surveying, engineering, acquiring rights-of-way, and for construction.

TRANSPORTATION STATISTICS.

A recent analysis of surface transportation by John A. Beeler, transit engineer and consultant, reveals noteworthy performance by trolley coaches in comparison to other public transportation vehicles. Comparison of results of operation of trolley coaches with those of street cars on four different lines in as many different cities, shows, according to Beeler, that trolley coaches are eight times as good.

The analysis shows that in 1942, 25,449 street cars carried 5,171,000,000 revenue passengers; 3,363 trolley coaches carried 765,000,000; and 42,458 motor coaches carried 5,427,000,000 revenue passengers; the average fare being 6.66 cents, 6.89 cents and 6.72 cents, respectively; and the revenues being $344,600,000, $52,700,000 and $365,000,000, respectively. Average revenue passengers per street car was 203,191; per trolley coach 227,475; and per motor coach 127,820.

MAYOR CURLEY DELIVERS ANNUAL ADDRESS AT ORGANIZATION MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL TO START SECOND YEAR OF HIS FOURTH ADMINISTRATION—POINTS TO DIFFICULTIES FACED ONE YEAR AGO AND TO HIS SUCCESS IN MEETING AND OVERCOMING THEM AMONG ACHIEVEMENTS ARE TAX RATE BELOW THAT OF 1945, LOWERING OF NET FUNDED DEBT, OUTSTANDING TAX TITLES PAID OFF, REDUCTION OF CASH DEFICIT—DEMORALIZED MUNICIPAL SERVICES RESTORED TO HIGH ORDER OF EFFICIENCY, AND OTHER ACCOMPLISHMENTS THAT COMBINE TO MAKE YEAR NOTABLE IN MUNICIPAL HISTORY.

In his annual address to the City Council at its organization meeting on Monday, January 6, Mayor Curley spoke as follows:

Gentlemen of the City Council.

The problems that have confronted us during the past year, that have tested our ingenuity, intelligence and courage, while appearing monumental have in reality been infinitesimal as contrasted with the greater and all-absorbing problems confronting our beloved country and the world.

In two other periods like the present one, the prayers of the people of America went out to the individual filling the most important position in the gift of the nation, the Presidency of the United States, one, General George Washington, and the other, Abraham Lincoln. No individual studying the lives of these two great men can arrive at any other conclusion than that they were inspired by Almighty God and were in reality the instruments of a divine purpose,— one, the freedom of the people of America, and the other, emancipation of all people, regardless of race, creed or color, not only in America, but throughout the world. Despite their exalted mission and devotion to their ideals they were the subjects, too frequently, of the venom, malice and hatred of those who did not understand or refused to understand the motives prompting their action.

At the present time, in our National Capitol, we have a man serving as head of this nation, perhaps better fortified with legislative experience than either Washington or Lincoln, and animated and actuated by the same ideals that prompted Lincoln and Washington to fight on, regardless of criticism or condemnation until success crowned their efforts.

For thousands of years good women and men representing every race, creed and clime have labored unceasingly, but unsuccessfully, for the establishment of a system through which the shedding of blood for the settlement of international differences might be at an end. This plain American, who now presides over the destinies of our nation, has dedicated his life to the solution of the problem that has baffled the ablest, wisest and most powerful forces from the beginning of the world, namely, a permanent peace based on spiritual and economic justice for all the people of the world.

World Calls For Peace.

I have an abiding faith in the belief that the peoples of the world, as a whole, favor permanent world peace, and the accomplishment of this great objective is far more desired by President Harry S. Truman than his reelection as President of the United States. I, likewise, am firmly of the belief that, in the event of permanent peace becoming a reality through his leadership, courage and persistence, he will not only be re-elected President of the United States, but will take rank in the history of our country and in the hearts of the peoples of the world as a worthy associate of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

The stupendous character of the accomplishment to which he has dedicated his life and best efforts, through the Providence of God, is destined to become a reality and every individual in America and throughout the world may well say a prayer to Almighty God for the success of his efforts.

I recall discussing with Admiral Chocheprat, Commander of the French Navy, how it was possible to win the Battle of the Marne, during the first war, thereby bringing to a halt the mad march of the victorious Army of Kaiser Wilhelm. Admiral Chocheprat stated to me that he discussed this question with Marshal Joffre on the morning of the Battle of the Marne, just before the drive of the allied forces began.

MAYOR CURLEY APPROVES COMPENSATION SCHEDULE OF HOSPITAL TRUSTEES FOR INSTITUTION'S WORKERS AND THOSE AT SANATORIUM — RECLASSIFIED AND GRADED SO AS TO MAKE WAGE SCALES EQUITABLE AND DEVOID OF POSSIBLE INJUSTICES — PLAN INTO EFFECT JANUARY 1.

Mayor Curley approved the following compensation schedule submitted by the Hospital Trustees for hospital workers at the City Hospital and Sanatorium Division:

BOSTON, December 13, 1946.

To HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

From DR. JAMES W. MANARY, Superintendent.

Subject: Proposed Salary Schedule for Hospital Workers.

The employees in the Labor Service of the Hospital Department have recently been reclassified by the Department of Civil Service in accordance with chapter 31, section 2-A. As a result, the workers have been classified into four groups, namely, Hospital House Workers, Hospital Kitchen Workers, Hospital Medical Workers and Hospital Laundry Workers. Within each group three grades have been established, namely, Hospital Workers, Senior Hospital Workers and Principal Hospital Workers.

Chapter 31, Section 2-A, obligates the city to establish a Compensation Plan in connection with the classification mentioned above.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees held December 6, 1946, it was voted to approve the following Compensation Plan for Hospital Workers at the Main Hospital and the Sanatorium Division, effective January 1, 1947, subject to your approval:

Male Employees.—Hospital Workers: $25, $27, $29 and $30 per week. Senior Hospital Workers: $31, $33, $35, $37, $39 and $40 per week. Principal Hospital Workers: $41, $43 and $44 per week.

Female Employees.—Hospital Workers: $24, $26 and $28 per week. Senior Hospital Workers: $29 and $31 per week. Principal Hospital Workers: $32 and $34 per week.

All employees, temporary or permanent, will be brought up to the minimum salary provided in their respective classifications, effective January 1, 1947.

The lowest or minimum rate in the schedule for any class shall be the entrance rate payable to any person, on the first appointment to a position allocated to the class.

The rate of pay of an employee receiving more than the maximum prescribed for his class shall not be reduced during his incumbency, but the rate of pay of his successor shall conform to the schedule.

Advancement in compensation from the minimum to the maximum rate shall be by successive steps, after completion of a period of service, at the next lower rate of not less than twelve months. Salary advancement within a class shall be limited to one increase a year.

The rate of pay of an employee now paid at a rate between the minimum and the maximum of his class, and which does not correspond with any intermediate rate, may be adjusted to the next higher rate, effective July 1, 1947.

Your approval of this plan would be greatly appreciated.

JAMES W. MANARY, M. D.,
Superintendent.

MAYOR CURLEY'S ANNUAL MESSAGE TO CITY COUNCIL.

The Admiral stated that he knew Marshal Joffre had been estranged from his church for a period of seven years and he said to him, "Have you done everything that can be done to win the battle?" The reply of Marshal Joffre was, "Everything, men, munitions. We are stopping the central empires here or Paris will be taken and the war will be lost." Admiral Chocheprat said to him, "Have you said a prayer to Almighty God for the success of allied arms?" Marshal Joffre replied, "I have not prayed in seven years, I will pray now." He knelt in the mud which was almost knee deep, for several minutes in a reverential attitude, then arose and gave orders for hostilities to begin. It was not the esprit de corps of allied arms, it was not the superior character of our arms, it was the fact that a simple prayer from a great man on earth had been heard at the Throne by a Greater Man on High, and it represented to my mind an exemplification of supreme faith unequalled in the history of the world.

That same faith is today exemplified in the leader of our nation, President Harry S. Truman, and those associated with him, and a simple prayer by all who are listening in may yet be heard and permanent peace become a reality.

OVERCOMES PROBLEMS.

Our local municipal problems appeared almost insurmountable one year ago. Yet, today, with faith in God and faith in ourselves, they are gradually being overcome. Fortunately or unfortunately, it has been my lot to take over the destinies of this fair city during four periods of great stress and to have succeeded by that same simple faith in accomplishing what appeared a difficult, if not impossible task.

First, in the period from 1914 to 1917 marking the first world war; second, in 1922 to 1926, when the streets were thronged with those who had gone forth for the preservation of liberty in the world and who were without opportunity for employment other than that of the most menial character, and who were threatened with the possibility of permanently becoming mendicants. In that period, public works were instituted to provide them with employment and the difficulties which appeared insurmountable were overcome.

In 1930, I again became Mayor at a period when, to preserve the economic security of our nation, it became necessary to close all the banks and to leave every American city without soup kitchens and bread lines. Happily, in our city, due to courage and vision, we emerged at the end of the period of the financial debacle with the proud distinction of being the only city in America that had neither bread lines nor soup kitchens during the period of depression, and without any measurable increase in the tax rate which would have imposed an added burden on those already overburdened.

I returned to the office of the Mayor in 1946 to find a city that, due in some measure to reconstruction and reconstruction made necessary by the greatest war in the history of the world, plus the incompetence and inefficiency of those charged with the responsible duty of administering public affairs for the welfare of the people, was in a worse condition than at any previous time in its history.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN YEAR.

The first year of my fourth term as Mayor has ended and as the New Year opens, we can point with pride and satisfaction to these outstanding accomplishments of 1946:

1. A tax rate below that of 1945.
2. The net funded debt of the city reduced to the lowest level since 1925 despite liberal provisions for veterans' housing and plant reconstruction and expansion.
3. All outstanding tax title loans paid off and the temporary debt of the city reduced from eight million dollars as of December 31, 1945, to two million dollars as of December 31, 1946.
4. The accumulated cash deficit of the city, which reached a record high of twenty-three million dollars on December 31, 1937, reduced as of December 31, 1946, to below two million dollars.
5. The best record of tax collections achieved in the history of the city.
6. A substantial surplus realized in the operations of the water service despite a twenty per cent reduction made in water rates.

7. The highest surplus achieved in the thirteen years of operation of the Summer Traffic Tunnel.

8. The demoralized municipal services inherited from my predecessors restored to a high order of efficiency and economy.

In the light of these definite achievements, I come before you at your opening session in the New Year to state with certainty, that provided we have faith in God, faith in ourselves, and faith in our city, we are destined to achieve a higher destiny, industrially and commercially, than ever before realized in the history of our fair city.

Today I am asking your cooperation in the establishment of advanced scales of compensation for all employees whose salaries and wages are regulated within the city and county budgets. In every age, the "Little People" have always been the principal sufferers from economic upheavals and inflationary spirals. With a view to relieving the "Little People" in the city and county service, I am providing in the 1947 budget a general compensation advance in keeping with the increase in living costs as well as the financial limitations of the city. Due to the vicious circle in which we are enmeshed it must be apparent to every fair-minded individual that this course was necessary, if an honest day's work is to be given by the employees of the city. I have always contended that persons receiving a wage that is just, can be relied upon to return a fair equivalent, which can never be secured from an underpaid officer, or the individual that labors under the impression that he has been dealt with unfairly and unjustly. I subscribe to what has been so well said by Victor Hugo in "Les Misérables," when he stated, "I weep with you for the princesses murdered in the tower, but you weep with me for the children of the people, they have suffered longest." And so with the "Little People," as well as the great ones, I have given equal consideration in the matter of salary increases, confident in the belief that it is not only a just, but a wise measure to take.

FACES RISING COSTS.

As we stand at the opening of a new municipal year, it is apparent that every unit of government in this great Commonwealth faces rising costs, additional budgetary requirements, increased salaries and expansions in governmental functions. Prominent officials have been quoted in the Public Press as stating that substantial increases in local tax rates will be required to meet these increased costs and that many communities face the possibility of $50 and $60 tax rates. These predictions may be realized if our local subdivisions are afforded no measure of relief by the state. I am hopeful, however, that the new administration on Beacon Hill will take heed of action initiated by Governors in other states of this Union and thus assure the enactment of laws and measures which will produce substantial relief for real estate.

In at least fourteen states of the Union, non-partisan and non-political commissions have been appointed by the Governors to consider among other matters the place of the state in aiding local units of government. In the reports of these commissions filed to date, there is a general agreement on the conclusion that the state, with its greater resources and greater taxing powers, is in a far better position to raise the additional revenues required to meet post-war rehabilitation and reconstruction costs. The outstanding accomplishment in this respect has undoubtedly occurred in the neighboring State of New York where early last year the Legislature accepted the report of the commission appointed by Governor Dewey in 1944 and enacted legislation stabilizing the distribution of state-collected taxes and revenues to local communities on a per capita basis as well as providing for the reimbursement to local communities of all welfare disbursements in excess of twenty per cent. Under these two measures, twelve and one half million dollars in additional revenue were distributed by the State of New York to its local communities in 1946 and the local welfare burden throughout the state was reduced twenty-one million dollars. In the State of Maryland, the recommendations of the Governor's Commission on distribution of tax revenues, if adopted by this year's Legislature, will result in an estimated increased distribution of roughly twelve million eight hundred thousand dollars, in state revenues to local communities.

PROBLEMS IN OTHER STATES.

In other states, notably New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Maryland, cities and towns have been given the right to originate revenue-producing measures other than taxation upon real estate. New York City, admittedly a democratic stronghold, was authorized last year by a Republican Governor and Legislature to establish for a three-year period a four-point new revenue program with an estimated annual return of sixty-seven million dollars of the city of New York alone. Philadelphia, since 1939, has levied with legislative approval an earned income tax, generally called the Wage or Pay Roll Tax. In 1945, actual receipts from this tax were slightly in excess of twenty-two million four hundred thousand dollars and it is estimated that for 1946 the receipts from this one item of revenue will exceed twenty-four million dollars. Baltimore, which last year was granted blanket power by the Maryland State Legislature to levy any new taxes it deemed necessary during the current emergency, has recently adopted four new revenue measures, the estimated receipts of which will yield four million five hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Toledo, in April, of last year, adopted an earned income tax which it is estimated will yield annually in excess of four million dollars.

Local government is the bulwark of democracy. In Massachusetts, where the spirit of democracy was cradled and nurtured, it is imperative in these uncertain times that the state exercise its sovereign rights and powers to establish a system of state aid which will provide in an equitable manner for the needs of all units of government within the state. I am confident that under the leadership of the new Chief Executive of our beloved Commonwealth an intelligent and comprehensive program will be developed for augmenting the revenues of Massachusetts municipalities and thus relieve local officials of the necessity for imposing confiscatory levies on real estate.

It is gratifying to state that before this message was submitted to the printer on Friday, his Excellency, the newly-elected Governor, Honorable Robert F. Bradford, in his inaugural message, set forth that it was his purpose, as Governor, to recommend the appointment of a commission similar to those now functioning in fourteen states of the Union, for the relief of the cities and towns of the Commonwealth, and I am quite certain that the members of the General Court will be found supporting this constructive and forward-looking program so essential to the salvation of the cities and towns of Massachusetts.

RESTORING CITY'S CREDIT.

When I took over the office of Mayor last January, it was to discover what I had anticipated, namely, a colossal and apparently almost insurmountable task of restoring the city credit and correcting the mistakes due in large measure to absolute disregard for the safety, security and welfare of the people by my predecessors during a period of twelve long years. It is not my intention to burden you with a general outline of what has been accomplished, as it is my purpose that each department head of the city shall submit a report as to actual conditions existing on January, 1946, in their respective departments, and what has been accomplished to the present time.

Suffice to say that the Health Department has been reorganized for the welfare and protection of the people and that the good work already under way shall continue unabated until Boston once more becomes the most healthful city in the world in which to labor and live.

The Fire Department, due to neglect and petty politics, from being one of the best departments of its kind in the world had reached the stage where obsolete apparatus not only frequently failed to reach the fire to which it was called upon to respond, but upon reaching the fire was unable to render the service it should render. The fire quarters in which the men were housed were in a condition of decay, a menace to the health and safety of the men in the service and unsuited either for men or apparatus.

To overcome these glaring deficiencies, orders were placed during 1946, for fifty-four new pieces of apparatus involving an approximate expenditure of five hundred and fifty thousand dollars. In addition, appropriations totaling seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars have been provided for repairs and alterations to eight existing stations and for the construction of three new fire houses. In my 1947 budget recommendations to be submitted to your Honorable Body at a later date, an initial appropriation of roughly one million dollars will be provided to permit the employment of five hundred additional members of the Fire Fighting Force of the department so as to carry out the mandate of the people expressed at the election of last November that the working hours of the members of this department shall not, on the average, exceed forty-eight hours per week.

CONGRESSIONAL PAY DONATED TO HOSPITAL.

In order to meet the ever-increasing demands of the Boston City Hospital, a program was initiated during 1946, calling for the ultimate expenditure of five million dollars to provide for the construction of a new surgical building and a new nurses' home. With a view to providing a small measure of relief to persons on the dangerous list and not in a position to receive proper nursing care, I assigned my congressional salary, amounting to over ten thousand dollars to the City Hospital to provide this nursing care for those unable to pay and who were in need of specialized nursing service.

At Long Island, certain buildings had been abandoned because of the condition of the structures due to absolute neglect and disregard for a period of twelve years. Buildings have been restored and provision has been made for the establishment of a hospital for chronic cases which will greatly relieve the Boston City Hospital at present overburdened with chronic cases, thus preventing acute cases from receiving the attention they should receive.

New boats have been purchased, for use by the Fire Service and by the Long Island Hospital, from the Federal Government at a cost of ninety-three thousand dollars, and which represented a cost to the Federal Government in the vicinity of two million dollars.

The primary functions of a city are the care of its sick, the prevention of disease and the protection of lives and property from the ravages and ruin of conflagration, and to these matters I have directed my first attention.

I am reminded in this connection of what was so well said by the emancipator, Abraham Lincoln, at a trying period in the life of the nation:—"If I were trying to read, much less answer all the attacks made on me, this shop might well be closed for any other business. I do the best I know how, the very best I can; and I mean to keep on doing it to the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me will not amount to anything, if the end brings me out all wrong, ten angels swearing I was right would make no difference."

The work of reconstruction, reconversion and rehabilitation upon which we embarked at the beginning of 1946 must continue, and as the custodians of a glorious past and great heritage, it is clearly our duty to so work and achieve, that when our labors are ended, all may in truth say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servants."

MAYORS OF BAY STATE CITIES JOIN BOSTON'S EXECUTIVE IN PROPOSED FINANCIAL RELIEF LEGISLATION.

His Honor the Mayor, on January 3, received a letter from Mayor Daniel E. McLean, of the City of Beverly, in which Mayor McLean set forth a proposed legislative program which is listed below:

[The basic purpose of the proposed legislative program of the Mayors' and Selectmen's Association of Massachusetts provides:

1. To increase State financial aid to cities and towns.
2. To stabilize city and town finances:
 - a. By placing State aid for school, highways, and welfare on a guarantee basis.
 - b. By eliminating the State tax on cities and towns.
 - c. By eliminating tax distributions (income, corporation, highway fund) which fluctuate from year to year.
3. To promote higher municipal service standards.
4. To apportion State aids to cities and towns on a simpler and fairer basis.

In response to Mayor McLean's letter, Mayor Curley sent the following letter:

BOSTON, January 3, 1947.

HON. DANIEL E. McLEAN,
Office of the Mayor,
Beverly, Mass.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your communication of recent date has been directed to my attention, and I find myself in agreement with many of the recommendations contained therein. I do believe, however, that there is a much simpler and better method of securing all the money that may be required, through the adoption of the plan as proposed by Richard H. Long of Framingham.

I am quite certain that a meeting to be held at the latter part of next week, either Friday or Saturday, January 10 or 11, 1947, with an invitation extended to Mr. Long to be present and to some individual representing the Governor's Planning Committee, would be productive of the character of results which are absolutely vital at the present time to meet the unfortunate situation in which the cities and towns find themselves, due to the reconversion and reconstruction period in which we are living.

Trusting that the meeting will be called at the earliest possible date, and the invitation extended, I remain,

Sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF LETTER CARRIERS THANKS MAYOR.

His Honor, the Mayor, on January 6, received the following letter:

BOSTON, December 31, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
11th Congressional District,
Boston, Mass.

DEAR CONGRESSMAN CURLEY,—You are about to conclude a great public service. Because of that service, letter carriers and other government employees are finding life just a bit more pleasant. They will be everlastingly grateful to you for the beneficial legislation enacted into law during your tenure of office.

On the eve of your departure from the Congress of the United States, the National Association of Letter Carriers salutes you. May the future bring you an abundance of God's choicest blessings.

Sincerely,

W. C. DOHERTY,
President.

D. R. SULLIVAN,
Vice President.

JEROME J. KEATING,
Secretary.

K. B. KREMERS,
Assistant Secretary.

THOMAS G. WALTERS,
Director, Rural Department.

MAYOR CONTRIBUTES FINAL CONGRESSIONAL PAY CHECKS TO CITY HOSPITAL.

His Honor, the Mayor, on January 6, forwarded the following letter:

DR. MARTIN J. ENGLISH,
President of Trustees.

MY DEAR DOCTOR,—I beg to forward herewith final checks for the year 1946, forwarded from the Federal Government covering my Congressional salary for the month of December, amounting to $907.96, making a total for the year in the vicinity of $11,000.

These checks are to be used for the providing of nurses to persons unable to pay for nursing service, and for those on the dangerous list at the Boston City Hospital.

Wishing you a Happy New Year, I remain,

Sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR CURLEY PRAISES GOVERNOR BRADFORD'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

On January 3 Mayor Curley issued the following statement:

The inaugural message of Governor Robert F. Bradford should give encouragement and hope for a relief from the conditions that today envelope every city and town in Massachusetts, due to the necessity for reconversion and reconstruction resulting from the period of the war. It was courageous, forceful, and timely.

The appointment of a Commission similar to that which is now operating in fourteen states of the Union, and which has been too long delayed in the case of Massachusetts, should provide the same beneficial results that were obtained in New York State as a result of the recommendations of the Commission appointed by Governor Dewey in 1944.

As a result of the Committee's recommendations, there has been a greatly increased distribution of money by the state for welfare relief, for educational requirements, and for highway maintenance, to all cities and towns of New York State.

Provided similar recommendations are obtained here in Massachusetts as a result of such a Commission's work, it would mean relief for every city and town, and instead of being confronted with the prospect of a $50 or $60 tax rate in every city and town in the State, it would mean a reduction of from $5 to $10 in the present tax rates.

Long, the municipal golf course at George Wright Golf Course was very well patronized during the year 1946, and thus evinced its popularity. City Hospital for the year 1947, in the sum of $974 a month or $11,688 for the entire year.

Due to the increased cost of labor and materials, as well as to the fact that two additional elevators are to be serviced, the 1947 price exceeds that of 1946, in the sum of $179 a month or $2,148 a year.

In spite of this increase in price, the trustees feel that nothing can be gained by advertising, and therefore recommend the award of this contract to the Consolidated Elevator Company, Inc., at the above-mentioned price.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES W. MANARY, M. D.,
Superintendent.

BOSTON, December 19, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—The Fire Marshal has requested that additional sprinklers be installed in the Medical Building, also in the X-ray storage room.

Sprinklers for the Medical Building will cost $1,059 and those for the X-ray storage room will cost $455. I believe that these are reasonable prices.

The Viking Automatic Sprinkler Company is the firm that has furnished our inspection on the sprinkler system at the hospital for many years and has done most of our work. I believe that there is little to be gained by advertising.

I am requesting your Honor to grant us permission to proceed with this work without advertising.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES W. MANARY, M. D.,
Superintendent.

OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

BOSTON, December 20, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR.—Your approval is respectfully requested to the awarding of a contract without advertising to the

A. & A. Lunch Company, 194 Merrimac street, Boston, for furnishing meals to recipients of assistance from this department, effective December 1, 1946.

This department maintains the Wayfarers' Lodge at 30 Hawkins street, Boston, at which lodgings are provided for homeless men. It has been customary also to allow breakfast and in certain instances other meals where necessity requires it. The A. & A. Lunch Company have been providing these meals satisfactorily for a considerable period of time. However, due to the greatly increased number for whom meals must be provided, the amount of this service will be in excess of $2,000 a year.

Because of the nature of the services rendered, it does not seem advisable to publicly advertise.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM G. O'HARE,
Secretary.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 27, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your permission is respectfully requested for this department to dispense with advertising and to enter into a contract with the Lawyers' Building Corporation whereby said corporation will lease the entire tenth floor of the Lawyers' Building, No. 11 Beacon street, Boston Proper, for the term of one year beginning January 1, 1947, at the annual rental of $19,000, for the purpose of providing suitable quarters for the Law Department.

The Law Department has occupied quarters in the Lawyers' Building, 11 Beacon street, continuously since 1924. At the present time there are no available and suitable quarters obtainable for occupancy by the Law Department in city-owned property or within the immediate vicinity of City Hall, the Court House and other public buildings.

Very truly yours,

JAMES S. KENNEY,
Acting Superintendent.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 9, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—On September 26 of this year a contract was made with the American Service Company for lighting, extinguishing, servicing, and maintaining on our streets the gas lamps which became the property of the city on October 1. The period covered is from October 1 to December 31, 1946, inclusive, and the company has carried on the work in a highly satisfactory manner.

It is provided in Article VI of the present contract that "The City of Boston, through its Commissioner of Public Works, may extend this contract at the terms herein stated, for a period of twelve months beginning January 1, 1947, and ending December 31, 1947," and I feel that it is to the city's benefit to take advantage of this provision, in view of the increased costs of labor and material which are common knowledge.

I have discussed with the president of this company the renewal of this contract for the coming year, and he has agreed to do the above-mentioned work from January 1 to December 31, 1947, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the present contract. Since this is the only firm in a position to carry on a contract for this type of street lighting and servicing, I feel that it is to the city's advantage to accept the offer, and, under the conditions which exist, nothing can be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

When the city became the owner of the gas lamps on October 1, 1946, it also assumed the direct responsibility of maintaining the equipment and of paying for the gas consumed. If the contract had been awarded to the Welsbach Street Lighting Company as had been done for many years, at its proposed price of $33.60 a unit, the estimated cost for 1947 (upon approximately 9,000 lamps), would have amounted to $302,400. With the arrangement now in effect and to be continued during 1947, the city will pay approximately $128,000 to the American Service Company for its work, approximately $86,000 to the Boston Consolidated Gas Company for the illuminating gas required in accordance with rates filed by that company with the Department of Public Utilities, and about $43,000 for glassware, mantles, and other equipment required. The total estimated cost of doing the work in the manner outlined is $257,000, resulting in a saving to the city of about $45,000 in its lighting bill for the coming year.

In view of the conditions which exist, I respectfully request the permission of your Honor to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to the American Service Company of 253-255 Adams street, Dorchester, for lighting, extinguishing, servicing, and maintaining gas lamps during the year starting January 1 and ending December 31, 1947, at an estimated cost of $128,000, chargeable to the departmental appropriation for the year 1947.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, December 16, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—The annual contracts for the collection, transportation, and disposal of garbage and refuse covering thirteen districts or sections of the city will expire on December 31, 1946.

The work done by the contractors to whom this vital service has been awarded for the current year has been satisfactory in every way, and, in my opinion, the best interests of the city would be served if these contractors were engaged to perform the work in their respective districts for the year 1947.

All of these contractors have indicated that they will sign contracts for the coming year at an average increase of 18 per cent over the cost for the year 1946. In view of the higher rates being paid for labor and the increased costs prevailing for equipment, maintenance, and rental, I consider this proposed increase as not unreasonable.

I firmly believe that if the city advertised for proposals at this time, much higher prices than those now proposed would be received.

For the reasons stated, I respectfully request the authority of your Honor to dispense with advertising for proposals and to enter into contracts with the following-named persons for the collection, transportation, and disposal of garbage and refuse in the districts indicated and for the amounts per month stated, from January 1, 1947, to December 31, 1947:

Ward General Contracting Company, District No. 1, South Boston, $9,925 a month; Edward J. McHugh & Son, District No. 2, East Boston, $9,167 a month; Edward J. McHugh & Son, District No. 3, Charlestown, $3,907 a month; Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., District No. 4, Brighton, $20,060 a month; John J. Moore Company, District No. 5-A, West Roxbury, $9,254 a month; John J. Moore Company, District No. 5-B, Jamaica Plain, $8,614 a month; Coleman Brothers Corporation, District No. 6, Dorchester, and District No. 7-A, Elm Hill, $47,031 a month; Marinucci Brothers & Co., District No. 7-B, Dudley, $6,608 a month; Marinucci Brothers & Co., District No. 7-C, Mission Hill, $5,959 a month; Dooley Brothers, Incorporated, District No. 9-A, Back Bay, $4,922 a month; Capitol Contracting Company, District No. 9-B, Stuart, $5,689 a month; Mary C. Bryan, District No. 11, Hyde Park, $4,116 a month.

Yours very respectfully,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, December 16, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—There are at present twelve areas of the city in which snow removal is handled by contracts annually awarded. In the contracts made with the approval of your Honor on February 13 of the current year, the prices for doing the work ranged from 64 cents to 79 cents a cubic yard. I feel that steps should be taken at this time to make contracts for doing this work during the winter of 1946-1947.

Competition for the work of snow removal is restricted to those contractors who, through experience, possess the necessary ability and are in a position to supply sufficient equipment of the proper type. With that in mind, I have had meetings with the contractors who did the work under the above-mentioned contracts, for the purpose of making arrangements for this winter's snow removal. It was agreed at these conferences that, because of higher rates which will have to be paid for labor and also because of increased costs of maintaining and hiring equipment, proportionately higher prices would have to prevail in connection with the award of new contracts. It was agreed at the last of these meetings that an increase in price of approximately 30 per cent would be a reasonable allowance, after all pertinent factors had been taken into consideration. In snow removal, as I have stated, competition is restricted, and I have doubt that any lower prices would be received by publicly inviting bids. For that reason, nothing, in my opinion, would be gained if we should advertise for proposals.

Under the existing conditions which I have outlined, I feel that it is to the city's advantage to handle the matter in this manner during the coming winter, and, for the reasons given, I respectfully request the permission of your Honor to dispense with advertising and to award to the firms and individuals named, contracts for removing snow and ice from the areas listed and at the prices indicated during the winter of 1946-1947.

Edward M. Matz, Inc., Area No. 1, 83 cents a cubic yard; Walter Reed Corporation, Area No. 2, 81 cents a cubic yard; Baker & Co., Inc., Area No. 3, $1.03 a cubic yard; Hugh Nawn, Inc., Area No. 4, 83 cents a cubic yard; John Deveney Company, Area No. 5, 83 cents a cubic yard; Baker & Co., Inc., Area No. 6, 91 cents a cubic yard; John Deveney Company, Area No. 7, 90 cents a cubic yard; Coleman Brothers Corporation, Area No. 8, 92 cents a cubic yard; Ward General Contracting Company, Area No. 9, 92 cents a cubic yard; Martin J. Kelly Company, Inc., Area No. 10, 90 cents a cubic yard; M. DeMatteo Construction Company, Area No. 11, 90 cents a cubic yard; Joseph P. MacCabe, Inc., Area No. 12, 98 cents a cubic yard.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 30, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—Since February 24, 1942, with approval of his Honor the Mayor, this department has dispensed with advertising and public opening and reading of bids in the purchase of automobile tires and tubes.

The condition which necessitated this departure from customary departmental procedure is still prevalent in that the limited quantities of tires and tubes available result in hesitancy on the part of automotive concerns to enter into formal contracts for substantial quantities or covering a specified period.

Since dispensing with public opening of bids, awards have been made on the basis of informal quotations obtained at frequent intervals and this procedure has proved most satisfactory under the circumstances.

In my opinion, the best interests of the city will be served by continuing this method of obtaining bids, and your permission is, therefore, respectfully requested to dispense with advertising in the purchase of automobile tires and tubes for the period from January 1, 1947, to June 30, 1947, inclusive.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, December 31, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—On December 15, 1946, this office was in receipt of a requisition from the Penal Institutions Department for delivery on January 2, 1947, of the following:

Twenty tons Beacon battery broiler mash or equal; 15 tons Beacon battery broiler pellets or equal.

This requisition is the usual monthly requirement of this particular material and is handled ordinarily on a publicly-advertised bid, but inasmuch as the requisition was received at this office too late to advertise in order to meet the delivery requirements, the entire list of poultry dealers was canvassed and the following bids were received:

George H. Parker Grain Company, $3,076, Beacon, 2 per cent; John J. White Company, $3,062.50, Beacon, 1 per cent; William Culkeen & Sons Company, $2,969.50, Flory's.

In view of the above, I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award a contract, without public advertisement, to William Culkeen &

Sons Company for delivering poultry feed to the Penal Institutions Department, Deer Island. The total amount of the contract is $2,969.50.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

Murphy of Ladder Company 14, detailed to Engine Company 29, entered the building, and made his way through heavy smoke to the room where the woman was confined and carried her from the building. The woman was seriously affected by smoke and was removed to the hospital.

Inasmuch as Ladderman Murphy endured considerable punishment from heavy smoke, but nevertheless performed the rescue work without regard for his own personal safety, the Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend him highly and his case has been referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

V. COMMENDATION.

Capt. Jacob G. Berninger of Engine Company 9 is hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 6264, on December 31, 1946, while off duty.

By order of Fire Commissioner
RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.

NAPEEN BOUTILIER,
Chief of Department.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of December 16, with enclosure, order from the City Council that instructions be issued that when trees are sprayed on private property the owner of the property be given notice in writing for the charges at the time the trees are being sprayed.

That would be impossible; the men in charge of the spraying machines many times are laborers and they simply forward the time to this office where it is figured out.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of December 18, with enclosure, order from the City Council that a section of each playground be roped off in order that small children may be properly protected from injury by adult skaters.

I had to discontinue the roping off of these areas for children; no attention was paid to it. We could not keep the children inside of it and we could not keep the larger boys from going in there; in the event of a thaw the stakes were sunk and the ropes were pulled out.

Therefore, I do not think, after the many unpleasant experiences we have had, it would be advisable to comply with this request.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of December 5, with enclosure, order from the City Council that the Park Commission install lights in the Harvard Mall.

This matter has come up three or four times—a conduit cable could not be obtained, etc. The engineer advocates we have additional lights on the streets. The original architect who built the area also advocates that lights be placed on the street.

I am forwarding a copy of the report to Mr. Robert Curley, Commissioner of the Public Works, requesting a study relative to the rearrangement of and installation of the necessary additional lights in order to properly light the park.

COLUMBIA STATION BRIDGE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 24, 1946.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Park Department, in reply to your order of December 2, 1946, concerning the construction of pedestrian stairs leading down from the Columbia Station Bridge to the sidewalk below, etc.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, December 21, 1946.
J. Joseph Connors,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of December 5, with enclosure, order from the City Council regarding plans and construction of pedestrian stairs leading down from the Columbia Station Bridge to the sidewalk below, etc.

The proposed scheme requested in the order is worth serious consideration. In the first place, it would eliminate two dangerous highway crossings for pedestrians who live at the Old Harbor Village, if we could erect the stairway on the southerly side of the bridge. Any stairway erected at this site would mean the relocation of the Public Works Department weighing machine and the weighers headquarters. The spur railroad track would also have to be considered, and the stairway itself would have to be built on Public Works land.

The present Columbia Road Bridge needs extensive repairs that warrant us putting in the budget for next year.

I respectfully recommend that inasmuch as the proposed stairway is more of a Public Works Department project than a Park Department one, that the matter be referred to the Commissioner of Public Works for such study and action if he thinks it is advisable.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

APPROPRIATION FOR "CITY RECORD."

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 26, 1946.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I am submitting herewith an appropriation order for $5,400 to provide sufficient funds for printing the City Record for the balance of the year. This additional appropriation is necessary because of the increase in printing costs which could not be anticipated in the original City Record budget.

I recommend passage of this order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That to meet the current expenses payable during the financial year beginning with the first day of January, 1946, an additional sum of five thousand four hundred dollars $5,400 be and the same hereby is appropriated from the income of the City Record. Any excess of expenditures over income shall be met by taxes.

City of Boston.

Statistics Department, December 17, 1946.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:—An increase of more than one third in printing costs necessitates the request for an additional $5,400 for printing the City Record for nine weeks (November 2, 1946, through December 28, 1946, at approximately $500 per week).

May I respectfully request the transfer of this amount from City Record Revenue to City Record B-1.

Very truly yours,
LAWRENCE W. COSTELLO, Chairman.

APPROPRIATION FOR X RAY DEPARTMENT, CITY HOSPITAL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, December 26, 1946.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:—I am in receipt of the attached request from the Superintendent of the City Hospital for an additional appropriation of $75,000 which is required in connection with the proposed construction of an addition to the present X-Ray Department at the hospital. Your Honorable Body one year ago approved an appropriation of $100,000 for this project. During the interim, the cost of labor, supplies and materials has risen to such an extent that when bids were opened a short while ago, it became evident that the original appropriation granted was totally inadequate. In order to permit an award under the proposals received, it is now estimated that the additional amount requested must be provided. I submit herewith an appropriation order providing for securing the necessary funds from the special account, Sales of City Property, and respectfully recommend prompt consideration and action on the same.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 63 of chapter 44 of the General Laws, the sum of $75,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated from the special account—Sales of City Property—to be expended under the direction of the trustees of the Boston City Hospital for construction of buildings, etc.

City of Boston,

Hospital Department, December 14, 1946.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:—On November 5, 1945, we received information from Mr. John B. Hyatt, City Clerk, that a loan of $100,000 was available for the construction of a building to supplement the present X-Ray Department at the Boston City Hospital.

In June of 1946, Dr. Martin J. English, President of the Board of Trustees, asked for additional money, as it was quite apparent that the $100,000 would not be adequate for the work. At that time, Mr. Fox, City Auditor, wrote saying that it would be all right for us to proceed on the assumption that $130,000 would be available to the Hospital Department in conjunction with the X-Ray Department.

Now that the bids have been opened, it is very evident that the additional $30,000, making a total of $130,000, will be inadequate. We are, therefore, at this time withdrawing our request for $30,000 and we are asking for an additional $75,000 instead, making available to the hospital for this purpose the sum of $175,000.

We would be very thankful to you if you would obtain for us an additional $75,000 which we may add to our original amount of $100,000 in order that we may proceed with the work at this time.

Sincerely yours,
JAMES W. MANARY, M. D.,
Superintendent.

FINANCE COMMISSION REPORT, CLEVELAND CIRCLE LAND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Finance Commission, December 20, 1946.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

Gentlemen:—The Finance Commission has previously addressed two communications to you in regard to the proposed sale of city property in Cleveland Circle, Brighton, to one Samuel Fish. In these previous communications the Commission has emphasized, first, the well-established principle that sale of public land should be by public auction; secondly, that public auction in this instance will undoubtedly produce a much higher price than the price for which you propose to sell the property to Fish.

The first consideration mentioned needs no argument here. The second was based on information received by the Commission, from various sources, of persons or interests anxious to obtain that property, and willing to pay a higher price than that fixed by you in the authorizing order you sent to the City Council.

Now the Commission wishes to present these further considerations. The price of one dollar per foot, for which you propose to sell the land to Fish, is unacceptably low, whatever might be the eventual use of it in private ownership. The nearest privately owned land, used as a theater site and a parking area, and abutting the parcel under discussion, is valued by the Board of Assessors at two dollars per foot. Other parcels in the Circle are assessed as follows:

1 at $3 per foot; 1 at $4 per foot; 1 at $5.50 per foot; 1 at $10 per foot; 1 at $11 per foot; 1 at $13 per foot.

It would seem, therefore, that the city should receive substantially more than one dollar per foot for this parcel.

Concrete evidence of the soundness of this contention has already been given in offers of approximately $1.00 and $1.70 per foot by interests which supported their offers with certified checks for $10,000.

The City Council, in its report on the proposed sale of the property to Fish, stated that the price of $1.00 per foot was a fair price for it. It is interesting to note that the City Council, in any instance where a parcel of city property is sold, is required to set a minimum price for it. It is also required to set a maximum price for it, and to set a price for it.

The representation of an anticipated subsequent buyer that he will erect a $300,000 building thereon is, therefore, not supported by any evidence of agreement not by a street bond which would compensate the city for the direct loss of $18,000, or more, it will suffer by the acceptance of the first offer and the subsequent failure to erect a $300,000 building. It seems to the Commission to be unthinkable to give this property away for a dollar a foot ostensibly to permit a new owner to erect a $300,000 building thereon without a cash deposit or a surety bond to guarantee faithful compliance with such an agreement within a specified time.

The Commission recognizes that such an arrangement will be difficult to make and difficult to control. It is because of this difficulty, and for the other reasons herein and previously advanced, that the Commission is unalterably opposed to disposal of the land by the method you have provided in the order before the City Council, and to any method indicated to this time in published statements in regard thereto.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD F. MULLEN, Chairman,
ALEXANDER WHEELER,
LEO J. DUNN,
FREDERICK DEANE,

The Finance Commission.

ROBERT E. CUNIFF,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ORDINANCES.

Coun. COOK, for the Committee on Ordinances, submitted the following:

1. Report on the message of the Mayor and ordinance (referred December 9) relative to the establishment of a Veterans' Service Department—recommending that the ordinance ought to pass. Report accepted and ordinance adopted.

2. Report on the message of the Mayor and ordinance (referred December 2) relative to salaries of officers and members of Boards—recommending the ordinance ought not to pass without prejudice.

Coun. BAYLEY—In other words, if we vote along with the committee, we say "No."

The report of the committee was accepted. The question came on the passage of the ordinance and the ordinance was rejected.

President KELLY in the chair.

3. Report on the message of the Mayor and Ordinance (referred December 16) relative to salaries of members of the Transit Commission—recommending that the ordinance ought not to pass without prejudice.

The question came on the acceptance of the report of the committee and the rejection of the amendment. The report was accepted and the ordinance rejected.

4. Report on the message of the Mayor and ordinance (referred December 16) concerning fees for collecting rubbish and transporting garbage—recommending that the ordinance ought to pass.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, is this ordinance in regard to an increase in the contract?

President KELLY—It is an increase on transporting rubbish through the city streets.

The question came on the acceptance of the report of the committee. The report was accepted, and the question came on the adoption of the ordinance.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I would like more information on this, what it is proposed that this ordinance is planning to do.

President KELLY—The chairman of the Committee on Ordinances may wish to explain it.

Coun. COOK, Mr. President, for the benefit of the committee who asked the question and the other members, this ordinance raises the price of the commercial rubbish collector from 11 cents a barrel to 20 cents a barrel. The fee which is collected goes to the city. The other amendment raises the permit for independent vehicles who wish to collect commercial rubbish and transport it through the streets to a ramp, from $6 a permit to $25 a permit. This increase also goes to the city.

Coun. BAYLEY—Would some of these interests be taking rubbish that would be normally collected by contractors and other people?

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, contractors who contract to take commercial rubbish may refuse certain areas. The city does not have to collect commercial rubbish. It does have to collect personal and residential rubbish regardless. Heretofore, commercial people would make a contract and pay to the contractor collecting in that district by tickets which they secured from the City Hall at 11 cents a barrel. Now, in certain instances the contractor who has that district does not wish to take that job on of commercial rubbish and garbage so that an independent transporter can be hired. For instance, Harvard College, with which you are familiar, uses their own trucks to transport their rubbish and garbage. They pay $5 for a permit to transport that through the public streets. In their case they will have to pay $25 for each truck in so doing. In other parts of the city independent owners of vehicles whether they are veterans or not who wish to go into this business and compete and collect this commercial garbage may do so, but in order to be allowed to carry that through the public streets they must pay a license or a permit fee. We are raising the price from $5 to $25 a truck. These same contractors who may take commercial rubbish and garbage from commercial establishments will receive tickets from these people for which these commercial establishments will pay the city 20 cents a barrel instead of 11 cents a barrel as heretofore.

Coun. BAYLEY—Will this result in a larger fee to the householder, Mr. President?

President KELLY—Does Councilor Cook yield for a question?

Coun. COOK—Yes. I just thought I explained it thoroughly. It is not household. It is commercial establishments. They have to pay more money. The reason they have to pay more is the city is paying more. From 11 cents to 20 cents a barrel is approximately the average rise in price of labor and transportation.

Coun. BAYLEY—Thank you.

Coun. KEENAN—If I understood the distinguished councilor on the statement, if a veteran or any other person, a private party, wanted to collect garbage or rubbish, the increase would be from $5 to $25. Am I correct in that?

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, on this garbage anybody not under contract to the city and wanting to collect commercial garbage can take it, where the contractor who could take it under his contract with the city refused to do so. Anybody can come in and ask for the privilege of taking that. In order to do that the raise in the permit fee is from $5 to $25 per truck.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, I do not quite understand why the committee would ask to have the permit increased from $5 to $25 after the contractors were just given an increase of 18 per cent on their contracts. I do not see why any contractor would refuse to take ashes and garbage from that district. As I understand, Mr. President, the contractors now having contracts with the city do not take ashes and garbage away from commercial establishments.

Coun. COOK—It is my understanding they can take it or refuse it. Sometimes they make their own arrangements. In many cases they refuse to do it. They leave it open for an independent contractor. There are many who are competing for that right to do it. This raise in price goes to the city, the $25 per truck. At present there are about fifty commercial establishments that use private interests. For example, take Harvard College. They do not pay anybody 11 cents a barrel. They use their own trucks. In using their own trucks they are required to pay $5 for each truck they use so that they can transport the garbage or rubbish through the city streets to a dump. There may be other commercial establishments who wish to do that, too, instead of paying the city 11 cents a barrel or 20 cents a barrel. They say, "We will remove our own garbage. We have our own trucking concern." The city says, "It is all right. For every truck that transports garbage or rubbish from your place, you must pay $25 a year for each truck which is doing that so that they can carry the garbage and rubbish through the streets of Boston." In that case, the city does not collect the 20 cents or 11 cents a barrel from that concern. They make their own contract with some outside person. This applies only to rubbish and garbage from business and commercial establishments.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, did the committee figure over a period of years that the $25 will be more than 11 cents a barrel?

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, the answer is not figured in that way. The answer is figured in this manner. You cannot force a commercial establishment to take a truck or the contractor that the city wants it to take. By the same basis, the city is under no obligation to remove commercial garbage or rubbish. The only thing this rise in price would do would be to pay or to go toward defraying the expenses of the inspectors whom we now have to see to it that this commercial rubbish and garbage is removed and removed promptly.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, I disagree with the councilor because, as he says, it states the city cannot force private industry to take garbage and ashes away. The city can where there is a health menace.

Coun. COOK—I said they cannot require the commercial establishment to use a certain contractor. They have to take away rubbish and garbage. The city cannot say to Filene's Company, "You use the John Donkes Company," which is a city company. They cannot do that. They can say, "Take away the commercial garbage." The commercial establishment says, "Well, we will, but we will use our own trucks." The city says, "In that event, we will charge you $25 a truck for transporting the garbage through the streets of the City of Boston to a dump."

Coun. BAYLEY—Is it not possible that if the city or its own contractor will not take away the garbage and the company wants it taken away, this increase in the rates will make it prohibitive for outside private companies to take the garbage away? Nobody will take it away.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, based on experience the answer would be "No, there are plenty of people who want to get into this, and many veterans who are making their own business deals with the commercial establishments." They would be willing to pay $25 for a permit for every truck they use. They make their own deals with the commercial establishment based on experience. Based on information that the Commissioner of Public Works has given us, many truck owners, especially the veterans, are trying to get into this business.

The question came on the adoption of the ordinance, and the ordinance was adopted.

NEW ENGLAND TRANSPORTATION COMPANY.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I would like unanimous consent to make a statement.

President KELLY—Hearing no objection, Councilor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I have here before me the letter that was forwarded to the Council today from the Department of Public Utilities notifying us of the hearing on December 30 on a petition of the New England Transportation Company for a bus route from the Dedham line to the Park Square district. It further states in the letter that this originally was based on the fact that it was passed in the City Council November 18, and also signed by the Mayor. This bus permit happens to be for a bus route that goes through my district. I did not receive any notice of any hearing because I would have opposed the petition. In checking back the minutes of our meetings, on November 18, I find that the petition was brought in here that day and referred back on the same day. I hope, Mr. President, that the chairman of the Licensing Committee next year, on any bus routes that are running through the city, will notify each councilor of the new bus route. I definitely would have opposed the granting of this license because the route goes through that section of Columbus avenue from Massachusetts avenue to Roxbury Crossing, in my district. These buses are getting to be a hazard on the roads of Boston. They use that portion of Columbus avenue in my district as a speedway. Eventually there is going to be a very serious accident. I hope, Mr. President, that the new chairman of the Licensing Committee will notify the respective councilors before these petitions are granted.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, might I ask a point of information as to how the gentleman from Ward 9 (Councilor Sullivan) received his permission to speak before the Body?

President KELLY—He asked unanimous consent.

Coun. SCANNELL—I would like to ask unanimous consent.

President KELLY—Hearing no objection, Councilor Scannell.

Coun. SCANNELL—In regard to this permit, Mr. President, of the New England Transportation Company, it is very evident that the gentleman from Ward 9 does not know what he is talking about. As far as this permit is concerned, this has been a war emergency permit given by the Department of Public Utilities. I have had this in my committee for about eight months. It was to change a couple of streets in the Park Square area from one way or another so that the transportation company which has been coming from Providence, I believe, into the city, could get into their new terminal at Park square. Any of you gentlemen here, as the members of the committee and anybody in the Body knows, on anything as far as I was concerned, the Committee on Licenses has always notified a councilor. This is something that involves changing a few streets in the City of Boston. I do not think there should be any more talk about this matter. I have had this in my committee seven or eight months. It had to get out and get action. That is why it was taken out. It was not extending any bus line. It was to make sure the New England Transportation Company, which had war emergency powers and had to come into their new large terminal which they built in Park square could do so. That is all there is to that. The committee passed it unanimously.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. SULLIVAN—Relative to this petition here and the notice from the Public Utilities.

President KELLY—You ask unanimous consent to make a statement? Hearing no objection, Councilor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, that was in the committee seven or eight months. The chairman of the committee had sufficient time to notify the councilors in their respective districts. As far as this being an old petition, it is worded in the order that they are seeking a bus permit running from the Dedham line through the streets of Boston. It further states that they had another one. If it were through the power of the Department of Public Utilities, it was not through the sanction of this Body here. The war powers have gone or will go shortly. This permit had to come back in order for them to run rightfully through the streets of Boston. I as one member did not receive any notice of this petition. I will ask the councilors from Wards 20, 19, 11 and 4. I believe that is all the councilors affected if they have received any notice relative to this petition? (No response.)

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LICENSES.

Coun. SCANNELL, for the Committee on Licenses, submitted the following:

Report on petition (referred December 16) of Louis Gatenam, 118 Hutchings street, Roxbury, for driveway opening at 1891-1997 Washington street—recommending that the license be granted. Report accepted and license granted.

VETERANS' HOUSING PROGRAM.

Councilor LINEHAN offered the following:

1. Ordered, That the Boston Housing Authority be requested through his Honor the Mayor (1) to invite leading architects and community planners such as Professor Walter Gropius, chairman of the Department of Architecture in Harvard University; Professor Holmes Perkins, chairman of the Regional Planning Department, Harvard University; Professor Dravreau Bender, School of Design, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and any other leading housing experts to a conference in regard to planning for the $10,000,000 City of Boston Veterans' Housing Program, and (2) it is recommended that available sites for said Veterans' Housing Program be selected so that plans and work relative to utilities, streets, etc., may proceed quickly prior to building so that when Spring of 1947 arrives the Boston Housing Authority shall be in a position to open bidding on construction of one- and two-family houses.

2. Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the U. S. Congressman representing the City of Boston to present, if necessary, and support all legislation in Congress that will in effect permit the Boston Housing Authority to award contracts to the low bidders for construction of low-income housing developments on the Cathedral and South Boston sites.

3. Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, hereby favors the enactment of the so-called Wagner-Taft-Ellender Bill, pertaining to public housing, which is now pending in Congress; and be it further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to all of the members of both Houses of Congress from Massachusetts.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, in addition to the first two orders, I will have a third order to file later on in regard to requesting the City Council to go on record in support of the so-called Wagner-Taft-Ellender housing bill which the new Congress will consider after they meet some time the first of the year. For the information of the City Council, I have several clippings here I would like to read. We are going back again to our old housing situation which seems to have taken a turn for the worse in recent days. It was only about a week or two ago that the President ordered or, as you might say, put an order into effect which crippled the veterans' housing program that was in full swing throughout the United States. As every councilor here knows, I believe that all of you know after reading the paper in recent days, that the restriction on the type of homes and buildings to be constructed will be lifted so that in the very near future they will have office buildings and all other types of buildings in direct competition with the construction of homes for veterans and even non-veterans. The available material and lumber which is now available for the construction of homes for veterans will be available for the construction of all types of buildings. Whether that is going to have a good or bad effect on our economy in the United States, I do not know. But I do know our Archbishop said recently in his Christmas message, according to the Boston Record:

"In his beautiful Christmas message to the people of New England, Archbishop Richard J. Cushing said, 'Even here in America, homelessness has become the lot of multitudes. Young people eager to marry or having married, eager to found their own homes, are frustrated by the scandalously improvident chaotic housing situation which is becoming America's most serious obstacle to normal social progress and to Christian morality.'"

The veterans of Foreign Wars National Newspaper they send out to all of the members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has a statement to the effect that they are supporting the Wagner-

Ellender-Taft housing bill and asking legislators to vote in Congress in favor of that bill which naturally calls for the construction of thousands of homes throughout the United States. But according to the opinions of the experts on the government at Washington, the so-called experts, as to whether a bill is going to get by, it is the consensus of opinion that the bill in the coming session of Congress will be defeated. This means, unless there is pressure brought to bear by bodies such as the Boston City Council and other city and state bodies throughout the United States interested in having homes built, unless we get publicity and pressure brought to bear on the members of Congress which we all know now will be controlled by the Republican Party, it seems to me as a result of the last election, restrictions have been lifted on building materials so that you will not have it for the construction of homes as it has been up to now. There is no question in my mind or in the mind of any thinking person with common sense that we will have less building of homes due to the fact that all of the restrictions that have been in effect will now be lifted, which means that there will be just a trickle of materials down to the construction of homes. That, it seems to me, is one of the worst things that has happened since I came back from the service. I refer to the solution of the A1 problem that exists here in the United States. Everybody agrees we have a housing problem. Whether they are for or against Federal Housing makes no difference. You do not have to be a veteran. Even non-veterans need homes. Now, not even the veterans will have much chance of getting homes unless, as I say, bodies such as ours create enough public opinion in favor of building homes for veterans and even non-veterans. Now recently we had a government order issued through Washington. I suppose it was a result of the last election, considering it a mandate of the people to cut down on housing for the citizens of the United States. We have even a cut on the temporary dwelling units for veterans. I have a clipping here from one of our Boston newspapers which remarks about the fact that we had a flood in the second Vet Colony located at Columbia Village, the old Camp McKay. I keep talking about Camp McKay through the term. As a result of poor construction in the roofs of the homes, water is seeping through and making it unpleasant for the inhabitants. Even that type of home is getting restricted. Here is the Boston Post saying on December 24: "An official disclosed today the Federal Public Housing Administration has ordered a cut-back of about 12,000 units in its program of temporary veterans' housing because of rising material and labor costs." I have another article here written by Thomas L. Stokes of the Boston Traveler:

"Lifting of price and wage controls has almost wrecked the program. Since the Federal Public Housing Authority which directs this program under mandate by Congress has a limited appropriation for the Federal part of the plan, it has been compelled to reduce sharply because of rising costs of material and labor."

The war is over now. The emergency on the veterans' housing and housing for other people—well, it is not such an emergency. It seems to me Congress has forgotten the veterans did go away and fight for the country when the country needed them in the emergency. Now that they are back and the war is over for some months, the attitude seems to be, "Let us forget about the war. Let us forget about the veterans, and even about the non-veteran and his housing problem." I am up here today talking on housing because of the fear in my mind that probably as another writer, Drew Pearson, said recently, even some of the leading members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion, probably members of the First World War, I think, even they helped, you might say, to throw a monkey wrench into the veterans' housing program in Washington. You will find some of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion for housing and some against. Why they are not all for it is beyond me. Everybody agrees it is the A1 problem, but still they do not do much about it. As a matter of fact, I can safely say here, the only ones today who have done much about it are the members of the Boston City Council by voting unanimously for the $10,000,000 program for the City of Boston which I hope will get going soon. Only last week the State Board of Housing once again declared the emergency on housing still exists in Boston. The banks are now satisfied as a result of giving that hearing and voting. At least the newspapers have come out and now the bankers are satisfied. We will soon get the $10,000,000. I hope the Boston Housing Authority, through his Honor the Mayor, will get going and lay plans for housing developments throughout Boston. On these two orders I have just filed, one of them is in regard to asking his Honor the Mayor to contact the members of the Boston Housing Authority which, by the way, is pretty well shattered at the present time. I think we have now only three members. I understand one sent in his resignation. I think it is Mr. Stanbro of the Hotel Statler. That can be checked through the City Clerk. Monsignor Reynolds passed away. I am sorry to say, a short while ago. I am sorry those two men are leaving the Board. While I served with them they were real public-spirited citizens who did a wonderful job for housing. I have filed one order requesting the Mayor and the Boston Housing Authority to invite leading architects and community planners such as Professor Gropius, Chairman of the Department of Architecture in Harvard University who, by the way, has one of the most illustrious backgrounds I have ever had the pleasure of reading in regard to community planning, and why I suggest inviting these members, in fact, one of them is a lady—to go before them is due to the fact that I do not think we should have any haphazard planning in regard to the City of Boston $10,000,000 housing program. I think it should be planned carefully by leading experts in housing. When I was a member of the Boston Housing Authority, I was glad to have experts called in to furnish me with information. They might help to give us a better housing situation in Boston. Here is something new. The Boston Housing Authority never had the opportunity before on the construction of one- and two-family homes. It is not necessarily slum clearance. These homes could probably be built on choice pieces of land such as are out in Wards 18, 19 and 20, and Orient Heights, in East Boston. Before we go ahead and throw up one- and two-family houses helter skelter, it seems to me public-spirited people such as Professor Gropius should be consulted. I had a three-hour talk with him the other day. He knows something about community planning. When I say community planning, it includes building homes and any other facilities that go to make up a community. Gentlemen like he and others whom I have listed would be glad to go before the members of the Boston Housing Authority and give them ideas which might be used by the members of the Boston Housing Authority. If the members of the Boston Housing Authority do not see fit to use their ideas, well and good. Probably they will not. There is a pretty good chance their ideas are good. They are recognized as leading experts throughout the United States. I hope the members of the Housing Authority will be influenced by his Honor the Mayor to call in the best brains in the United States on our City of Boston housing program for veterans. Five years from now those homes are not only going to be available for veterans but non-veterans. I have also filed a second order requesting United States Congressmen to interest themselves in the matter, including the newly elected Congressman John Kennedy, who has been one whose main platform when he got elected, was that he would be in favor of housing for veterans and their families. We have had a lot of talk up to now. Kennedy is going to go to Congress. Let him go to the front and get action. The City Council took action when they voted for $10,000,000 for veterans' housing. Congress went to sleep last year and did nothing on the Wagner-Ellender-Taft bill but pigeonhole it. It is coming up again. We have young blood, whether it is blue or red, in the veins of the men, such as Congressman Kennedy and others who are interested in housing in the City of Boston and other sections of the United States. That bill is coming up for consideration again in 1947. This is the time to let them know the City of Boston through its City Council is in favor of housing. We did it last year. Unfortunately it did not have beneficial results. At the present time, we have the Cathedral site with no homes on it, a site which previously did have homes. They were torn down with the promise to the people who owned the homes that they would come back later if they met requirements and occupy the low income dwelling units on those two sites. Up to now, as you know, the Congressional act which permitted low income housing developments had a maximum cost of $5,000 per dwelling unit. At the present time the contractors are bidding about $7,000 or $7,500 a unit. It means in order for low income housing to again go into full swing, we must have Congress amend the present act to raise the maximum cost of the construction per unit up to $7,500. Nothing can be done on the Cathedral project and the South Boston project until that is done. It certainly seems fair and reasonable to request all of those Congressmen who are elected by the people of Boston, Congressman-elect Kennedy, Congressman Wigglesworth, Congressman Herter and Congressman McCormack, to fight for housing. Let us not ask all of the Congressmen. Let us ask our own Congressmen responsible for their election to the people of Boston, just like we are. We can at least ask Congressmen to fight hard for housing. We have done as much as we can. We cannot go and fight in the Congress. We have fought here successfully. I hope by spring we might start our City of Boston housing for veterans and make it become a reality. We have heard a lot of talk about cost. I have been going around through Massachusetts during the last three months. I have been talking to builders and architects throughout eight cities and towns. I have gone to homes that were being built, one- and two-family homes. There are two-family homes being built in Cambridge. Naturally, in the future, anybody who will pay the price can have homes built, and not only the veterans. I have heard a lot of talk to the effect that one cannot get homes built for this or that much money. They say building costs now are at their peak. I was reading a national weekly magazine put out in Washington called United States News. They predict what is going to happen to our economy during the coming year, 1947. They say that building costs for houses have reached their peak at about 145 per cent of 1940 average according to National Housing Agency officials. The prospects are the building costs will be reduced somewhat by spring, maybe as much as 12 per cent. It is a good sign to me. I hope it is so new restrictions are lifted. It means this is the first order I discussed. I remember the sites for sad veterans' housing programs so that plans and work relative to building streets may proceed quickly prior to building so that when the spring of 1947 arrives, the Boston Housing Authority shall be in a position to open bidding on the construction of one- and two-family homes. I have been talking to bankers. In recent months they all say the same thing. By April, 1947, the building costs might be on the way down. This magazine only last week predicted that. They predict a 12 per cent cut. I certainly am not going to ask the Boston Housing Authority to ask for the building of homes right now. We will pay 12 per cent higher than we would next March. It will take two or three months to get our sites ready and our plans drawn up. That is why I am asking that between now and the spring in the next couple of weeks we invite these experts on housing in for a conference so that they will not only have the use of our own plans on housing development and projects but also the best brains in the United States. I believe they are the best brains in the United States when they come from the Harvard Graduate School of Architecture and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology School of Design. At least, they are recognized as authorities. If we get to work and do the planning and laying of the pipes and sewers, we will be in a position around March or April to lay out contracts and let them to the builders throughout Boston. Probably I am repeating things I have said in the past. I am getting up here again today due to the fact in the last month or so it seems that the trend is "To hell with the veterans and non-veterans who need homes, let us get going and build big buildings such as stores and garages and gasoline stations and other things like that." You might say that seems to be the trend in everything you read pertaining to housing. Six months ago everybody wanted homes for veterans and non-veterans. Since the election you have a trend away from that. I do not know why. I do not think there is any mandate from the people to do away with the construction of homes. I simply hope that the City Council will go on record once again in favor of legislation in Washington which will tend to increase the number of homes. I sincerely hope suspension of the rule prevails and the orders are passed.

COUN. SCANNELL—Mr. President, before the close of this meeting I wish to congratulate my colleague from Ward 7 (Councilor Linehan, who has been trying to do everything in regard to housing, as the rest of the members of the Council are aware. I want to concur with the remarks of the councilor from Ward 7 when he says we should call in experts on housing so we can do the best for the least money. I refer to the housing project in South Boston, Camp McKay. I have had several complaints about conditions that exist in that place. It seems to me it is a shame to spend the city's money on building those houses at Camp McKay. One person who is a tenant says she was walking on the floor one day with a high heel shoe, she was not in there a week before the high heel went through the floor. I am wondering about the contractor or whoever it was who built these houses and what he built them out of. Another person who has two children reported just last week to me that she would have to get out of there because those houses would be rat-infested within three or four months. We got a little storm down there and they almost had to use rowboats to get out of the houses. That is a waste of money. It is a waste of the taxpayers' money. If we are going to have houses such as this, then we should stop spending that kind of money. I do not know how much Camp McKay cost. After the next meeting I am going to put in an order asking how much it cost to build and find out who made all the money building these projects. I understand the gentleman who built these projects has made $1,000,000 in the past eight months. He has been building dumps for veterans who have to move into them. That is a bad situation. I happened to visit Camp McKay the other day. I looked at the situation. Sure enough, you might as well call it a dump because within 150 feet of that section they are dumping garbage and swill. I went to one of the big men in the city and asked him to correct it. It has not been corrected. I do not think it is going to be corrected. If that is all we can do for the veterans of this city and state, then we ought to hang our heads in shame. I think it is a ridiculous thing when women and children have to occupy what is supposed to be a new project. You step on the floor and your foot goes through. I wonder what is going to happen in six months. As far as I am concerned, I am going to find out in the next few weeks.

The orders were passed under suspension of the rule.

SALARIES OF DEPARTMENT HEADS.

COUN. HURLEY—Mr. President, I have come in here rather late.

COUN. HURLEY—I have come in for the purpose of voting on a couple of measures which I thought were before the Council. You have acted on one of the matters now relative to changing an ordinance regarding the salaries of department heads in the city. I would like to ask reconsideration of that immediate subject matter.

President KELLY—Do you wish to speak on reconsideration?

Coun. HURLEY—Yes, Mr. President. As I stated, I have not been feeling well. It was an effort for me to get in here today. I was rather surprised that this has been acted upon so quickly. From what I know of the Mayor's order asking a change in the salaries for department heads, I think it was a fair order. A lot of salaries in the previous administrations have been reduced as an economy measure. Now, we all know we ought to know better than any department head the upward trend of the cost of living. If we are to have capable department heads, I think they are worth every cent that the Mayor asked in his order.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. FISH—I wonder if the gentleman would yield. I would like to have the ordinance read. (The clerk read the ordinance.)

Coun. HURLEY—As I was stating, Mr. President, when Councilor Fish asked the question, I think everything there is all right. It is just as much so as the time we tried to get our raise here in the Council. The cost of living and the expenses pertaining to being a councilor, social or otherwise, have gone up. We could not get by on our Council salaries. We endeavored to have our salaries raised. The people of Boston, of course decided against us. I still insist that the councilors are worth at least twice the amount of money they are getting. I hope that the Legislature or the people of Boston at some near time will have the opportunity of granting a substantial increase, doubling the present salary of the councilors in Boston. In the surrounding cities the councilors get $4,500 a year. They probably do not have the amount of work and detail that a member in this Body has. Therefore, Mr. President, I am asking reconsideration of this, hoping that there will be some change of mind and that we can prevail on the Council to pass this order as it is.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, I happen to disagree with what Councilor Hurley has stated in regard to giving various heads of departments increases in the City of Boston. I for one have never been opposed to anybody benefiting himself. I am not opposed to giving them an increase in salary. But I know from experience, and I have been in the Council, you go to a department head and ask for an increase for some unfortunate person getting $1,200. You have to fight like the devil to get him a 50-cent raise on a little bit of a job. We have been through Christmas. Santa Claus has been pretty good. I am quite surprised in the last week, talking to various city employees, to find that his Honor the Mayor has given an increase of $200 to various city employees. I find out now there are a lot of departments where city employees are not getting an increase of $200. I think the public has been kidded and a lot of city employees have been kidded with the understanding they are getting a $200 raise. They are not getting it. I think the Mayor has been kidding not only the city employees but the public long enough. It is about time to stop.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, this matter is of such magnitude concerning the department heads that I should like to be heard on it. Ordinarily I do not like to delay a meeting. There are two things in this order which the Mayor forwarded to us. One is the restoration of the salary to the original level of 1938. By the rejection of this order by the Body today, we are refusing to bring the employees back to the 1938 level. That is one thing. I want to go on record as opposing that anyway. I do not know anybody in the country who is back to the 1938 level and who has not gone higher except the City Councilors. If there are any other raises I would like to hear from the chairman of the Ordinance Committee, giving us in detail why he and his committee have given an adverse report rejecting this order in here. I would like to hear it.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, as a member of the Committee on Ordinances, I think I have a lot of good reasons why department heads should not get a raise at the present time. For the past couple of months I have been working hard, without avail, and with no cooperation from the Mayor's office to see if we could take care of an emergency that is existing at the City Hospital. It is not two or four months, it is five and six months. If we give the nurses more money, some of the conditions in the hospital will be alleviated. I have asked the Mayor to give these people a $600 raise. They are entitled to more to bring their wages up and standardize them at the City Hospital with some of these hospitals such as St. Elizabeth's and the Carney Hospital. I think that comes as the first question, that we take care of the people who are taking care of the poor and sick of this city. Department heads getting $6,000,—are they worrying about somebody getting $1,600 a year? They certainly are not. I cannot understand for the life of me why we are trying to take care of department heads getting $6,000 and $8,000 a year and leaving employees who are making $20 a week out of the picture. The result is there is a shortage of nurses of about 150, or two-thirds of the nursing staff of the hospital. That is my argument. We should take care of the underpaid and the underprivileged. We should take care of those nurses and employees at the hospital who have been doing a good job. The poor nurse taking care of 40 or 50 patients a day in one ward should get a $600 increase. That is why I say, and I do not care whether the man downstairs likes it or not, these people are underpaid and need more money to live. What do I care about department heads getting $6,000 and $7,000 a year? I find it hard to live on $2,000 a year. I feel sorry for those people at that hospital getting $1,600 a year and the employees probably getting $18 and $20 a week. I think the root of all evil is in not taking care first of the small, underprivileged person at the hospital who is taking care of the sick and poor of our city. I will not vote for a quarter for department heads to get a raise until those nurses and employees in that hospital get their raise. I think that a man getting $6,000 or $8,000 a year does not do as much work as some of those nurses do in a couple of hours in a day. I think it is a joke. That is why I voted to send it back until the nurses and the hospital employees and the laborers and the poorly paid people of this city working for the city get their raise first. Then we might vote for a raise for department heads.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, when the councilor was asking for reconsideration he asked that the chairman explain the vote. Inasmuch as all the committee members are standing, I think their argument will probably explain the vote. I will go no further and let them explain it.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, as a member of the Committee on Ordinances, I was very much surprised with the audacity of his Honor the Mayor in proposing these tremendous increases for department heads. Does his Honor the Mayor realize the taxpayers of Boston will be compelled to pay $7 more per year on their taxes this year? Is that economy on the Mayor's part—proposing that the householder in West Roxbury and Hyde Park and throughout the entire city shall pay $7 more per year and at the same time be granting $1,500 and $2,000 raises to men who are not entitled in many instances to half the pay they are drawing today. Mr. President, I have been around City Hall for ten years. You know as well as I do in most cases in City Hall your department heads spend most of their time uselessly. It is the Civil Service employees who perform the work. Your department head does very little. In many cases he is overpaid by twice the amount he is entitled to. I do not have to go into detail and point out what departments are overpaid. You know, and every member of the Body knows there are many. To those people, Mr. President, his Honor the Mayor proposes to give anywhere from $1,000 to $1,500 increase. For what? Because they are his pets. He does it at the expense of the taxpayers. They are going to pay around $47 this year, a $7 per thousand increase. I am very much in accord with what the gentleman from South Boston had to say about those nurses. I am very much in sympathy with your underpaid City Hall workers, the ones in the $1,500 and $2,000 category. As for these men drawing down $10,000, $8,000, and $9,000 a year, it is absurd for his Honor the Mayor to propose that they should be given $1,000 or $1,500 increases. I never heard of such a thing. That is one reason, Mr. President, I, as a member of your Committee on Ordinances, voted against this proposal. This is not a matter like extra compensation because of an emergency. This is not a matter which has arisen because of the higher cost of living. This is a ridiculous proposition. Do you know any man in the city that cannot get along on $6,000 or $8,000 a year and needs a $1,000 increase or a $1,500 increase? Your 22 members here are getting along on $2,000 a year in many cases. Now, Mr. President, I think that in justice to the general situation and to the condition the City of Boston is in today, faced with the highest tax rate and a $7 increase, even though these proposals did not increase the tax rate by much, nevertheless it is a step in the right direction for us to say "No" to his Honor the Mayor. This is not our money. It is the taxpayers' money. I hope, sir, that the members of your Body will not reconsider.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, there is no question but what the nurses at the hospital can use more money than they now get, and should get more money than they now get, particularly with the cost of living the way it is. There is just the same no question that other city employees need more money and should get more money than they now get because of the cost of living and other factors. That is equally true and possibly even more so of the school teachers. They need more and should get more, particularly for what they do, than they now get. But that has nothing to do with the problem before us. Two or three or four wrongs will not make one right. So far we have been given the opportunity to correct only one wrong. That is the wrong to the department heads. I hope that the chance to rectify the other wrongs will come soon. Now, we have in most instances good men who are heads of our departments.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, will the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. MUCHNICK—I should not, but I will. May I suggest that in the future the same courtesy be given me by the requestor?

Coun. CHASE—Mr. Councilor, isn't it a fact that practically all of your department heads who were appointed by his Honor the Mayor accepted the salary they received and have had no cuts since 1938 because they were appointed only this year. They knew what their salaries were going to be.

Coun. MUCHNICK—That is true of the department heads. That is true of the young men and young women who become teachers. When they take those jobs they know what the salaries are. That is true of the men who become policemen and firemen. It is true of laborers. It is true of internes in the City Hospital who go in at no pay. It is true of nurses. But that does not mean that it is right. That does not mean that when these people get their employment they should not have the right to ask for an increase if and when they need it, and if and when they deserve it. In most of our departments we have department heads who are excellent men. They are doing a good job for the city. Those men could do much better in private industry in most instances in my opinion than they do now as employees of the City of Boston. To take one example, I am convinced that the head of our Law Department could do much better than $10,000 a year in private practice. Any time he wants to quit the Law Department I will pay it to him. We are not going to keep good men. We are not going to attract good men to the Law Department or anywhere else if, under the present standard of living, we cannot pay them adequate salaries. There has been a lot of talk about the increase in the tax rate that this is going to necessitate, and that the increase for the school teachers will necessitate an increase in the tax rate as well as the increase to nurses and other city employees. Well, what I am going to say now may not be particularly good politics. I think it is time for some plain talking. If the people of Boston want their departments run properly, if the people of Boston want their garbage and ashes collected properly, and if they want their hospital to function properly, and if they want their schools to function properly, then they are just going to have to pay the freight for it. We cannot do all these things at the expense of the employees. I think that we should not be too concerned with the tax rate from that point of view and also from the point of view of the value of a dollar today. It is pretty generally accepted that a dollar today is worth roughly 75 cents as compared to the dollar of eight and nine years ago. Now, by simple arithmetic, if a dollar is worth 75 cents to 80 cents today, then if we are getting $40 or $42 as a tax rate today, it is similar to a tax rate of $35 or $34, seven or eight years ago. If our tax rate today were to become $50, on the value of one dollar, if my statements are clear, $50 today would be roughly equal to $40 eight or ten years ago. I am not too concerned even if it is not good politics with the fact that property owners will have to pay that increased rate. They are all getting—I will not say all—at least the commercial realtors are getting much more in the way of rents now than they were eight or nine years ago or even five years ago. Those who own living quarters properties in this city, while their rents have been frozen, there are very few of them spending any money in the way of repairs for maintenance of property. Whatever repairs are being made are being made in a great many instances by the tenants, and they are glad to do it because of the apartment situation as it exists today. It seems to me that if all these people who can afford to pay an increased tax rate for the various reasons given, and want to have the services rendered that should be rendered by the city, should be willing to pay an increased tax rate to get the proper people at the proper salaries to perform the necessary functions.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, at the outset I would like to say that I personally believe Councilor Hurley is to be commended for reviving this matter by way of a request for reconsideration. I heard the ordinance as it was referred to the Body, and the riders attached to it without prejudice rather threw me off the track. It is indicative of some deep-rooted plan of the committee to entertain suggestions along the same line probably toward different amounts. However, I am not trying to read the committee's thoughts. I would like to say in extenuation—

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, will the gentleman yield?

Coun. KINSELLA—Yes.

Coun. COOK—It is not a question. I would like to explain that the committee's report, which was that it ought not to pass without prejudice, was shorter than the report we wished to submit. We could not add on the other words. May I tell the councilors the words now? The full report would have been, it ought not to pass without prejudice, but with a recommendation that a new schedule be resubmitted more in conformity with raises given to all employees of the City of Boston.

Coun. KINSELLA—At any rate I anticipated some other tactics that the committee had thought of. I suppose some of the things I am going to say will not be politically wise. However, I am not concerned with the political wisdom of my statements. I hold myself as a representative of a district where primarily the demands are on the time of the councilor for his personal services. You have heard me say often in this Chamber that certain wards of our city are peopled by persons who are trying to better themselves individually. Other wards of the city are peopled by persons who think more or less along community lines of civic betterments for the district and so forth. I hold myself individually and collectively as one who has fallen into the habit of trying to help a person individually. I cannot see that the department head by virtue of the position he holds is basically any different from other city employees under his dominion. I would like to call Councilor Scannell's attention to the fact that last year we all had a valid interest in what would happen on the ballot to our request for a raise calculated to be at the rate of $30 a week or $1,500 a year. I will agree with Councilor Scannell, and he will agree with me, that the head nurses at the hospital are worth that much a year, but we cannot give them that. One of our arguments on the $1,500 increase was that there were only 22 of us. It would amount to about $33,000. It would be hardly noticeable in the cost of running the city. That was one of our major arguments. We were thinking of ourselves. If any one of us was to be plucked out of here today and given a job on a commission or bureau or made a department head, in a very short time the $6,000 or $7,000 salary would seem small to us and we would live up to every cent of it. We would want more. So let us not fool ourselves that anyone is being paid far in excess of his worth. There is a certain integrity and a certain degree of responsibility that goes with being a department head. There is not one of them personally who can vote for me. That might be well to bear in mind. Of the 44 or 45 of them, I have a somewhat personal affection for only three or four of them. I am thinking in terms of comparative justice. If they are going to take the oversight of a department involving hundreds of workers, and if they are going to be responsible, along with others, for the expenditure of millions of dollars, in some cases, in their budget, they should be paid not less than a comparable job in private industry would pay them. If I had my choice in the matter, if I had the final say, I would restore them to the 1938 level and increase them $1,000. How much expense would that be to the city? Councilor Muchnick, in speaking of the advance knowledge that city employees or prospective city employees have, of the salary maximum and minimum at the time of appointment did not go far enough. We upon election to this Body and upon close examination of the emoluments or prerequisites accruing to the office decided we would still go after $2,000. There is not one of the councilors, including myself, who has ever agreed that it is nothing better than an office boy's salary. That is why we want more money. That is why we are richly deserving of more money. We go after it. A department head has a job of much more transient character than we. He is subject to removal at any time at the whim of the Mayor. At least we are secure for two years. Who is to say that he should not, with the attendant expenses on him for the position he holds, be restored to an old level, even though he himself today is a person who never enjoyed that old level, since he was not in the position at the time the salary was more than it is at this moment. I can see myself some little damaging things in what I have said, but I told you I am not concerned with the consequences. I am concerned with the comparative justice of it. Altogether too many people in this world are satisfied with a bare minimum. That is true of city employees as well as it is of the fellow in the street who is willing to struggle with nothing because he has no ambition. He does not care until somebody leads him by the hand into prosperity. If there are those who can show valid reasons, and we with our experience of most of them will agree that the reasons are valid enough, and they ask for a salary increase, then, why shouldn't we as the instruments of that fruition, vote accordingly? Perhaps we are going to ask the people next year, 300,000 of them to validate our request for an increase more in keeping with the title of Boston City Councilor, and one of the City Fathers. Surely if we are entitled to it for one day a week aside from the fact we are busy every day in most of the lower wards in the city—if we are entitled to it—I would say that the department heads are entitled to it. I also do not forget the nurses. I do not forget the ditch digger. But why penalize the man who asks for $1,000 a year as though that figure were outrageous and out of proportion to what he can earn? We know from our experiences with them that most of them at least can command more in private industry. What is a department head, to become a little more academic about it? "He is a man who made a lucky guess when the Mayor was a candidate for office." That is about what he is. So the Mayor elevates him from nowhere into the position of department head at a substantial salary. Surprisingly some of the men we never heard of before have a background of business and training that pays the city dividends once they are in a few months. We know that. There are men occupying department-head positions in this administration today of whom I had never read a word in the paper until Mayor Curley appointed them. Yet they are competent, efficient, capable men of great personal integrity and a high sense of responsibility. You do not have to pick isolated cases of fakers because I will match them with you. Overwhelmingly the vast majority of department heads today are men who can command at least as much, if not more, than what the City of Boston is paying them. To strip it of its trimmings and all of its explanation, let me say this in conclusion, and I hope the conclusion sticks. I would not care a whit just so long as I can be part of a group that can materially better the position of any city employee, whether it be a laborer in the street or a department head in City Hall. I repeat once again I would like to see them restored to the 1938 level and then increase it beyond that.

COUN. COFFEY—Mr. President, in 1928 I was elected to the Legislature at a salary of $1,500 a year. Somebody had the good sense and wisdom to introduce a bill to increase our salary to $2,000. I worked hard on that bill. We got it through. Our salary was increased to $2,000. Since then, no matter what has come before me in the Legislature or here, I voted for it as long as it was for a salary increase for anybody. I did not care who they were or where, just so long as they are a member of the Body or any branch of the city or state government. Only this year I had a bill in the Legislature for a salary increase from $2,000 to $3,000 for the members of the Boston City Council. If I did not listen to some of the older heads who thought they could get a salary increase to $3,500 through the Legislature for us, I am positive we would be receiving $3,000 today. Many a member of the Legislature told me they would increase us $1,000 but they would not go $1,500. They would not give us $3,500 per year. The same day my bill took place there was a hearing in another room. I attended. It was for a salary increase for the Police Commissioner of Boston from $7,500 to $10,000 a year. There was only one man opposed to the increase for Boston Police Commissioner Tom Sullivan, and that was Tom Sullivan himself. Regardless of his going in there and saying he did not want the increase of $2,500, it was given to him. It was passed unanimously by the committee and sent out to the floor of the House and the Senate. It was passed unanimously without one dissenting vote. There have been some good arguments here today. Practically every argument which everybody used here has been the same. They want other employees to get increases. So do I. I probably introduced as much legislation in this Body as any other member of the Body for salary increases for other employees along with Danny Sullivan, Bill Carey, and I could mention all the names of the councilors here through the years. Tom Hannon introduced plenty of legislation for increases in salaries for employees. We have all voted for it. We have never turned it down. We have fought for it. We have taken it upon our shoulders to have meetings with nurses from the City Hospital. We had the courage to take them into the Mayor's office without an appointment with the Mayor and sit down at the round table with the Mayor and ask him to give them an increase in salary. We have done those things for all hospital employees. I have spent money out of my pocket for front page newspaper advertising for increases for the firemen and policemen. I put daily advertisements in the papers. They cost $42 an ad. I put several in asking for increases for salaries of city employees. I get a kick out of one member who got up and said the Mayor had a lot of gall in sending up and asking for these increases. That man was a member here in Tobin's closing days of his administration. In the last month before Maurice Tobin went out of the Mayor's office and went up to the Governor's office, he had courage enough to take care of his friends. I have never been an admirer of the Mayor. I think everybody knows that. I will say this about him, he had the courage to take care of his friends. He granted over $1,000,000 in salary increases the last month before he left the Mayor's office and walked up to Beacon Hill to become our Governor for the past two years. Nothing was said about that. I do not think this order will cost $1,000,000 in increases in salaries. I do not think it amounts to very much, probably $45,000 or $50,000. It is not going to burden the taxpayers too much. Let me tell you how the taxpayer feels in my ward. A few years ago there was a meeting in Mechanics Building of the Home Owners' Association of Boston. I was coming home on the street car one night and I met a woman going to that meeting. I know her. She is married and has three or four children. I said to her, "Where are you going?" She said, "To Mechanics Building to spend the evening and hear the speakers in regard to the tax rate of Boston." I said to her, "Are you satisfied with the tax rate?" She said, "No, it is too high." I said, "Have you any children loafing?" She said, "Yes, three." I said, "Supposing one of those children were to get a job tomorrow, would you go to the meeting?" She said, "No, I would be glad to pay my taxes." Of course, they would be glad to pay them. Take a family with three people loafing. Put two of the three to work. They are not thinking of the tax rate of Boston as long as sufficient funds are coming into their homes. They will pay their taxes as long as the city functions and gives them services for the taxes they pay. As far as the new department heads are concerned, I know only one of them personally, a member of the Board of Assessors. I have never been into his office or met him in the office since he has been there. Jimmie Miraglia is from my town. I do not know one department head outside of the old timers here previous to Mayor Curley's coming in as Mayor. Because Mayor Curley wants to give an increase, we here ballyhoo. Not one word was said here today or any other day about the $1,000,000 increases that former Mayor Tobin gave in the closing days of his administration. I do not think it is fair. I would like to make a general overall increase to everybody. I have been yelling it for years. I think the majority of you feel the same as I do. If I go to a department head when I have any business to do with him, the department head is going to say, "What do you want?" I do not bother with him again. I go to the stairs and say, "I want a yes or no answer. It is yes, I want it within a week. I want it. If it is no, I am satisfied to go outside the door and say to the fellow, 'The answer is no.' I have found out from my experience you can make an enemy by being honest yourself and telling the other fellow he is not going to get what he is looking for. I say let us give them the salary increases. As the councilor brought out they earn their salt. Many a man in the last eight years that I have been in this Body has resigned to take an outside job. They can make more money on the outside. If we have some good department heads here, and I think we have, let us keep them. I do not think we are giving them too much. As far as the salary increase is concerned, I want one. I am going to 'holler' if the Legislature does not give me one this year. At least we are entitled to as much as they are getting. They were smart enough to vote themselves a salary increase with all kinds of traveling expense and secretarial expense. That is something we never got when I was up there. There was a scrap when we increased our own salaries from $1,500 to $2,000. These fellows in the Legislature were smart enough to get what they thought they were entitled to. Let us not hold any increase back for anybody whether it be department head, nurse, schoolteacher or ditch digger.

COUN. HANNON—Mr. President, as a member of the Committee on Ordinances, it is nice to be in here today and realize that the 22 members of the Council are not very far apart in their views. This is not a report of the committee opposing increases. This is merely a report of the committee suggesting that this matter be given back to the Mayor in order that he might make subsequent amendments. After the Mayor sent this up to us, he himself made another change in it. He sent us another ordinance increasing further the proposed salaries of the members of the Transit Commission. This committee is not against people getting an increase in salaries. We believe they should be given it. We believe the Mayor is to be commended for recommending that these increases be produced. Likewise, we feel that there is only so much money to be expended for increases in salaries. This money should be distributed proportionately and fairly. The committee spent a lot of time on this ordinance, of course, if this matter came before the Body on an individual vote, each department head would get the increase as recommended or more. Certainly he would not get less. Nobody up here is going to carry the fight and recommend the abolition of an increase or a decrease of a proposed increase to some department head. We agree they should get an increase. The only question and the only problem is—How much of an increase should they get? The committee wrestled with this for three or four weeks. We had various breakdowns made of the proposed increases. We had various studies made of comparisons. Certain recommendations were made. Practically every member of the committee had a different point of view. Each of us was proud that his Honor the Mayor had recommended a $400 increase for every city employee. I think that with unanimity the committee believed that every employee should receive a $400 increase. We were surprised when we found out that some department heads were interpreting this proposed $400 increase to mean $400 less any increase that had been given in the previous four years. So many cases were brought to the attention of the Budget Commissioner that finally a flat letter came out from the Budget Commissioner to each department head that these annuities or these increases that had been granted since 1942 were to be deducted from the $400 increase, and the result is instead of the city employees getting a $400 increase, I dare say that no more than 10 per cent or 15 per cent of them will receive a $400 increase. Now, we have the problem of the schoolteachers. What is going to be done about them? That money, too, is coming out of the city treasury. How are we going to justify our position in saying this man's salary can be raised $1,000, or $1,500, or $2,000, and yet we have not got enough money to give a greater increase to the city employees? We believe these salaries should be adjusted. One member of the committee suggested that they be restored to the 1938 level. That has been given serious thought. Another member of the committee favored each department head receiving a flat increase of $1,000. That, too, met with some favor. Other members of the committee, however, felt that this raise is being given to department heads because of the change in living conditions. Now, living conditions are the same for the man swinging the pick as they are for the man who heads a department. A few years ago when the Emergency Compensation Allowment was given out, there was no differentiation. Everyone received $200 because of the increased cost of living. Some members of the committee had a very valid argument. They claimed that if living conditions have gone up again, a $400 increase is being given to some employees to compensate them for the increased cost of living, and therefore $400 should be given to each employee. We wrestled with this problem, talked it over and thought it over.

25 per cent in case of the "Aged, Blind, and Disabled," and in the City of Boston.

SALARY INCREASES. DEPARTMENT HEADS.

Coun. McCORMACK—Mr. President, I would like to be recorded on reconsideration of salary increases, if possible.

President KELLY—Is there any objection? (No response.) How do you want to be recorded.

Coun. McCORMACK—In favor—Yes.

MANCHESTER STREET.

Coun. KEENAN and CANTWELL offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out Manchester street, in Wards 17 and 18, as a public highway.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

INVESTIGATION, FIRE DEPARTMENT HEADQUARTERS.

Coun. SCANNELL offered the following:

Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner and the Chief of the Boston Fire Department be requested to appear before the Executive Committee of the City Council for the purpose of furnishing information in regard to certain activities which are alleged to be taking place in the Headquarters of the Chief of the Department.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, it has been brought to my attention that there have been a lot of irregularities at the chief of the department, at Engine 26. I understand, Mr. President, we have a woman in our Fire Department. The chief of the department has asked that each fireman in the city pay ten cents of his salary so that she may get a salary. I also am informed that this woman is a resident of Engine 26. This is something very irregular. I also am informed that this woman uses the chief's car to go any place in the state she wants, with a chauffeur. Well, I do not know. She is not on the city pay roll. I would like to find out from the Fire Commissioner who this person is, and what is her title in the Fire Department. It is the first time I have ever heard of a woman member of the Fire Department in any city in the country.

SNOW REMOVAL BIDS.

Coun. KEENAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to advertise for bids for snow removal in the various districts of the city, and to award the contracts to the lowest responsible bidder in each case.

JULY 4TH ORATION.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following:

Whereas, It has been the custom of Boston for years to have an annual Boston oration delivered in Faneuil Hall on July 4th; and

Whereas, This had added to the cultural development of the Athens of America; and

Whereas, Distinguished orators in the past, viz.: Daniel Webster, Edward Everett, and a host of other greats have delivered this address; be it Resolved, That it is the sentiment of the Boston City Council, the representatives of the people of Boston, that the Honorable James M. Curley should deliver the Boston oration on July 4th, 1947.

Mayor Curley has brought fame to our city by his eloquent addresses in the Congress of the United States. One of the few remaining exponents of the Websterian type of oratory, he has earned the honor of Boston orator.

Coun. McCORMACK—Mr. President, Mayor Curley is one of the best orators in the country, I think.

He never has given the July 4th Oration. He could designate himself to do this. I do not think he will. I would like to have the Council go along and have him be the orator next 4th of July.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

Coun. HANNON—May I amend that and have Councilor McCormack introduce the Mayor, July 4th?

President KELLY—I will be glad to accept the amendment.

Be it further resolved, that Councilor McCormack be Chairman of the occasion and introduce his Honor the Mayor.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SUB-RELIEF HOSPITAL ON EMERSON PROPERTY.

Coun. BRYAN, McCORMACK and CANTWELL offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor consider the advisability of establishing a sub-relief hospital on the old Emerson property since taken over by the City of Boston to take care of the residents of Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, West Roxbury and Hyde Park sections of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Is this the order under discussion last week which was withdrawn and taken from the table?

President KELLY—They had a little discussion on it, councilor, but some of the members thought it was unwise to reject it, so we are going to pass it and his Honor the Mayor will have to take final action on it.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, a point of information. Our vote at the last meeting was probably recorded. How can we rescind that vote now?

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—We did not take any vote last week.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, it was I who made the motion last week and asked for a little discussion. I withdrew the motion, and there was no vote.

The question came on giving the order its second reading, and the order was given a second reading, yeas 15, nays 0.

VETO OF LOAN FOR HOSPITAL BUILDINGS, LONG ISLAND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 30, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my signature and disapproved, the order adopted by your Honorable Body on December 26, 1946, for loan of $1,000,000 for hospital buildings, Long Island. Because there is not sufficient time in this financial year to make such loan effective, I am constrained to take this action.

Sometime during 1947, and after further studies are made concerning the Long Island situation, I will again present a loan order for improvements at Long Island to your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

Office of the Mayor, December 28, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner, relative to your order of November 27, 1946, concerning the painting of a white stripe in the center of every principal highway in the City of Boston.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Traffic Commission, December 16, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—This is in reply to blue memo dated November 27, 1946, from J. Joseph Connors, Chief Clerk, requiring consideration and report on Council order dated November 18, 1946, requesting the Traffic Commission to paint a white stripe in the center of each and every principal highway in the City of Boston at the first available opportunity.

Our highway painting program is, of necessity, a seasonal project and it has been considered for this year. In accordance with our usual procedure it will be resumed on next April. The program contemplates the painting of center lines on all main arteries.

In recent years we have not been able to achieve this objective because of our inability to secure sufficient quality paint or sufficient temporary labor. We are hopeful that conditions will permit completing the program during 1947.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

APPOINTMENT BY THE MAYOR.

SALARIES OF DEPARTMENT HEADS, MEMBERS OF BOARDS, ETC.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 30, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith a proposed ordinance, similar to the one recently submitted and rejected by your Body, adjusting salaries of department heads, members of boards and other miscellaneous officials or employees whose salaries are regulated by ordinance.

The ordinance, as proposed, accomplishes the following:

1. Restores to the 1938 level the salaries of department heads and members of boards, reduced in that year.

2. Increases, beyond the 1938 level, certain salaries for positions of wide responsibility, thus providing a more equitable salary for these highly important positions.

3. Establishes for positions other than departments heads or members of boards an increase similar to that provided for all other city employees.

The annual cost for the increases proposed in the accompanying ordinance is approximately $30,000 for department officials and members of boards; and approximately $15,000 for all others specified in the ordinance.

I strongly urge the passage of this ordinance at your meeting today, so that it may go in effect on January 1, 1947, at the same time all other adjustments are being made.

In my opinion, the proposed ordinance changes are sound and justifiable. It is important that department officials be compensated with some degree of fairness for the measure of duties and responsibilities assumed. Present rates are far below the level which should attract and hold competent officials. The passage of this ordinance will not only restore previous reductions and provide a cost-of-living adjustment, but it will also establish a balanced rate of compensation for department officials which should stand for some time to come.

I recommend prompt passage of the proposed ordinance by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

INCREASE OF CERTAIN POLICE DEPART- MENT PENSIONS.

Coun. MADDEN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to increase the pension of retired non-contributory members of the Boston Police Department to an amount equal to one-half of the 1947 salary of a member of the department holding the same rank as the retired man.

Coun. MADDEN—Mr. President and gentlemen, I have received a letter today from Mr. George Farrell, former police inspector and a gentleman I have known for a great many years. Much of what Mr. Farrell has to say in his letter is familiar to you gentlemen. However, I would like to read the letter:

"Dear Councilor,—We, the undersigned committee of the retired members of the Police Department, under the non-contributory pension, respectfully request that you present the following petition to the City Council and his Honor, Mayor James M. Curley.

"That the retired members of the Boston Police Department, under the non-contributory system, receive a pension equal to one-half the pay of the police of the City of Boston, on and after January 1, 1947."

"The principal reason for a pension equal to one-half the pay of the police on and after January 1, 1947, is due to the high cost of living. It is absolutely impossible to make ends meet on the present pension pay. A great many of the men on pension joined the force in the nineties. A large number are over eighty years old. The rest are in the seventies, or within a year or two of seventy.

"Previous to 1908, the men worked every day in the year, not excepting Christmas Day. Extra hours were worked on holidays and on many other occasions without receiving any extra pay for such work. The pay for a beginner was $2 a day until such time as he was made a regular patrolman. Then he received $1,000 for the first year, $1,100 the second, and $1,200 the third year. About 1914, they were raised to $1,300 until the 'police strike' in 1919.

"Due to the advanced age of the pensioners under the non-contributory pension system, it is fair to say that they will be on the pay roll but a few years, then they will be entirely out of the picture.

"The force is now practically on the contributory system.

"Police Commissioner Sullivan is heartily in accord with the pensioned men receiving pay equal to one-half the amount of pay of the police of the City of Boston, on and after January 1, 1947. He said he would be pleased to appear before the Legislature and recommend a bill drawn along the lines of the present petition.

"We hope, in view of all the facts and circumstances, that his Honor, Mayor Curley, and the Honorable Councilors act favorably on our petition."

I don't think it is necessary to say much more than Mr. Farrell has said. Few, if any, men can live on the pension that they received 10 or 15 or 20 years ago—the cost of living has gone up so much. I think the Council would do well to pass this order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

COLLECTION OF GARBAGE AND REFUSE.

Coun. MADDEN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor immediately relieve Robert P. Curley from his duties as Public Works Commissioner, for deceit, deception and dishonesty and that all refuse contracts now in existence be arrested and inquired into; that henceforth all refuse work be offered to the lowest bidder and that present garbage disposal districts be broken up into smaller districts capable of being handled by one truck and crew and that the city enter into separate contracts with farmers for the purchase of swill.

Coun. MADDEN—Gentlemen, this has reached the point where I think we have to take some strong action. I have been battling this same thing, as you know, all year and apparently have not gotten very far and, lest I be quoted incorrectly, I intend to follow my notes very carefully. I think there is much information here that would interest a lot of you gentlemen. First, I wish to take this opportunity to compliment the Public Works Commissioner for his intense devotion to and loyalty for the contractors' monopoly of Boston—and the thoroughness with which he seeks additional and more lucrative sources of revenue for them. If Mr. Curley ever took any oath to support and defend the people's interest in the City of Boston, it obviously don't bother him. He is seemingly heretofore of principle and gifted with an elastic conscience. During his entire tenure in office he has obviously been concerned only with perpetuating the contractors' monopoly and siphoning as much money out of the City Treasury into their pockets as is possible. Thank God, the contractors have not been able to buy or bribe Henry Brennan. This latest attempt of the Public Works Commissioner to ravish the City Treasury is a classic and it suggests that there is nothing more ludicrous than a sanctimonious con man trying to justify his thievery. The Public Works Commissioner does not ask that the faithful and badly underpaid men in his department be given decent living wages, but he supinely asks the Mayor to sanction his latest vicious abuse of authority with a ridiculous line of double talk, at which he is a master.

In a letter to the Mayor dated December 12, 1946, the Public Works Commissioner recommends that the merchants and storekeepers be slugged 9 cents more per barrel for commercial waste, and instead of paying 11 cents, which is the current price, he recommends that the price be jacked up to 20 cents. He makes no suggestion that the merchants be given their day in court and allowed a hearing on the matter. Next he suggests that there are so many people soliciting this work that he recommends that the fee be jacked up from $5, which is the present fee, to $25 per truck. This, says Mr. "C," would "be an additional income for the city." Then he forgets all about the city and turns around and asks that the monopoly now handling refuse disposal work be granted an 18 per cent increase and the snow removal contractors get 30 per cent more for their labors. Then, despite the fact that he admits that there is a great demand for this work and the truck fee be jacked up to $25, he turns around and wants to discriminate against the small truckers after clipping them for $25 and says, "I have my doubts that any lower prices would be received (for ash and snow removal) by inviting public bids. For that reason, nothing in my opinion would be gained if we advertise for proposals." Gentlemen, that's a masterpiece of hypocrisy and duplicity.

When this contemptible puppet tries to tell me that the men who tore down mountains and built runways in a week; built trails through the worst jungles in the world; braved the positive murder of beach heads and flew through miles and miles of ack-ack curtains, can't juggle an ash barrel, shovel snow or operate a snowplow, that's too much for me to stomach. I don't know where the Public Works Commissioner was when the millions of brave and courageous kids of this nation were sweating their hearts out to save our institutions and hallowed traditions, but I'll tell you one thing, Mr. Commissioner, there's damn little they can't do, if given a fighting chance. And how about the millions of patriotic men who couldn't be veterans, yet built vast fleets of ships, trucks, planes and tanks? Do you mean to tell me, Mr. Commissioner, that these men lack the intelligence to juggle an ash barrel or shovel snow?

No, gentlemen, I'm sure the Public Works puppet knows better, but as aforesaid, has resorted to this feeble and ludicrous subterfuge to throw a smoke screen over his brazen attempt to create an impregnable contractors' monopoly. I don't know how the Public Works puppet ever got into City Hall, but I do know that I was elected by the good people of Brighton, on my promise to protect their interests in here to the very best of my ability. I intend to keep my promise, gentlemen, and give my constituents something more than lip service. I've been having a lot of trouble keeping that promise, because the Public Works puppet is intent on dissipating their tax blood money, faster than the Tax Collector can bring it in, and bitterly resents my interference. I don't know who designed the Boston City Charter, but I can tell you one thing,—it wasn't designed to protect the taxpayers. This provision of the City Charter that permits the letting of contracts of less than a year's duration without competitive bids is a deliberate license to steal and a honey for unscrupulous people to exploit and abuse. And don't think it isn't being abused. In 1941 the cost of refuse disposal was $415,248. In '42 it cost $580,668; in '43 it cost $996,935; in '44 it climbed to $1,036,280; in '45 it jumped to $1,155,688; in the closing days of the Kerrigan administration these phoney private contracts soared to $1,267,063, which of course was the '46 figure, and now the Public Works puppet, while technically within the law, wants the pay-off to be $1,625,024 for '47, and if he had the guts, gentlemen, there's nothing to prevent him under this legal loophole from giving each of his pet contractors a million or two apiece,—while freezing independent contractors out of the bonanza monopoly.

You will recall some time ago, that I introduced an order in here to see if we couldn't pry into and break up these contracts, by making separate contracts with farmers to pick up the swill. The contractors flatly refused to dignify the Council by their presence and while the Public Works puppet did show up, he was very hostile, curt, evasive and uncooperative. When we put the pressure on him for facts and figures, he sought refuge in a snug air of injured innocence. He admitted that existing contracts pay the contractors for swill removal and admitted that he knew that various, if not all, contractors, were subletting the privilege of picking up the swill to various farmers and that the farmers were paying the contractors, who were making no attempt to rebate the city. He opposed the idea of the city selling the swill to farmers; opposed any disturbance of existing contracts and refused to divulge any information.

Thus, since the Public Works puppet is so reluctant to give out facts and figures, I went to the trouble of digging some up myself. You understand that the $1,267,063 that the Public Works Commissioner is currently paying the 9 favored contractors is just a part of the actual refuse disposal costs to the city. There are several other refuse disposal districts handling this work, manned by city trucks and men. And the strange and silent fact about this is that city-manned districts only cost the city a fraction of that being paid in comparable districts, manned by contractors. The Lord only knows what the merchants and storekeepers have to pay for the removal of their so-called commercial waste and the Lord only knows what the farmers pay these same contractors for the swill the city pays them to pick up.

If you divide the $1,267,063 that the city is paying the contractors' hierarchy by 52, you will note that the weekly cost of refuse disposal work this year has been approximately $24,365. The hierarchy are using some 34 trucks in the 9 contract districts, an average of less than 4 each, and that each truck is generally manned by a crew of three men. The total number of men daily engaged in this work averages about 100. The men get $1.10 an hour. Four years ago, they were getting $1.00 an hour. Thus, while the Public Works Commissioner uses the labor argument to raise the contractors' take 400 per cent the wages have only gone up 10 per cent. Truck prices have gone up about 50 per cent, but the contractors are timid about revealing whether or not they have had to buy any new equipment, and it is submitted that if and when they do put on new trucks, the 400, per cent increase allowed them will take care of the matter very nicely. Now, let's suppose that each laborer works a full 48-hour week throughout the year—which you know they don't—the total cost would be 100 (men) × 48 (hours) × $1.10 an hour, or approximately $5,280 weekly labor costs to the contractors. Deducting this $5,280 from the $24,365 plus the contractors are getting each week, you will note that this leaves them approximately $19,085 for truck hire. If you then divide the $19,085 by 34 (trucks) you get the astounding figure of $561 paid each contractor, each week for each truck, by the city—to say nothing about the additional revenue they get from merchants, storekeepers and farmers.

The top Public Works scale for trucks is $3.50 an hour for the ordinary hot polloi and this includes driver, gas, oil, and repairs. Thus, if he puts in a full week of 48 hours he gets $126 compared to the $561 paid the monopoly the Public Works Commissioner wants to perpetuate. If you subtract the honest scale of $126 from $561 you see that the hierarchy gets an overpayment—or plain graft—of $435 a week a truck. If you multiply this overpayment by 34 trucks by 52 weeks you get the astounding graft of $778,050 paid these contractors this year. Is there a man in the world who wouldn't be tickled to death to get $561 a week for his truck? Yet the Public Works puppet has the audacity to justify his freezing out of independent contractors by saying "I doubt that any lower prices would be received by inviting public bids. For that reason, nothing in my opinion would be gained if we should advertise for proposals; only the monopoly has the ability to do the work." Are any of you gentlemen so naive as to think that the contractors' monopoly are whole hog? Is any one so naive as to think that the contractors are not cutting this up with someone? The ease and simplicity with which the Public Works Commissioner connived to clip the taxpayers for over three-quarters of a million dollars in '46 had prompted him to submit a more ambitious program for '47, whereby the take will run well over a million. At the same time you will note the plaintive suggestion of the Public Works Commissioner that all of this, too, be kept in the family by denying veterans and all others the right to bid on the work. The refuse districts, contractors, trucks, men and salaries are the same for '47. Thus if we break down the $1,623,024 the Public Works Commissioner is intent on slipping the hierarchy in '47 you get these fantastic figures. The weekly cost will run to $31,212. The weekly labor cost will be $100 \times 48 \times $1.10$, or $5,280. Subtracting this labor cost from $31,212 you get $25,932, and by dividing this by 34 you note that the contractors are to get $762 a truck a week for '47. Subtracting the honest weekly scale aforesaid of $126 you note that the over-pay graft amounts to $636 a week a truck. Now, if we multiply this by 34 trucks for 52 weeks you see that the con men and contractors or somebody will get the fabulous graft of $1,124,448 in '47 for this work alone. Don't ever worry about Robert P. Curley winding up in the poorhouse. But even this is only a part of the cream the Public Works Commissioner is skimming off for the contractors' hierarchy. You recall that he is also intent on rigging up the snow removal business at 30 per cent increase for them exclusively and on top of that I think you'll find that this same monopoly have received countless contracts these past years of less than $1,000 which, like the contracts that run for less than a year, are handed out without bids.

No wonder the tax rate is due to skyrocket to $50 or $55 (true rate) in '47, and only a miracle can keep it under $60 in '48. The City Charter designers also left a second beautiful license to steal. That's the provision that contracts that involve less than $1,000 for labor and/or materials don't have to be put up for public bids. This is a very hush-hush institution and thus only the Lord knows how many of these contracts have been let this past and previous years. In any event the poor taxpayer is stuck for these, and I thought in fairness to him and the Council, that all department heads submit a sworn list of these contracts, with names of beneficiaries, dates, amounts and for what. This information will be enlightening when we consider department head raises. I understand one department head hasn't let a contract for 7 years or filed a report. That is rather a mess. I got that on pretty good authority the other day that one department head who has been buying material for a good many years has yet to offer any of the materials for bid, but hands it out to his personal friends. In searching for some report on that, I have been informed his department has not filed an annual report for seven years. Thus I have another order I want to introduce in connection with that, an order which reads as follows:

Ordered, That in view of the fact that the councilors are currently considering pay raises for department heads, and in view of the fact that it has now come to the attention of the Council that certain department heads have been handing out promiscuously contracts for less than a thousand dollars, now, therefore,

Be it ordered, That the Council defer passing on all pay raises to department heads until each has submitted to the Council a statement under oath of the names of the parties receiving such contracts this year together with the dates, the amounts involved, and the work and/or material involved in the contract.

The CHAIR—Is that a new order, councilor?

Coun. MADDEN—Yes.

The CHAIR—Are you through speaking on this order?

Coun. MADDEN—Not yet.

The CHAIR—Councilor Madden.

Coun. MADDEN—Gentlemen, this is blood money. It represents the strained resources of the small home owner as well as taxes siphoned from apartment houses, stores and buildings. It's money that's being stolen from your friends and my friends; your constituents and my constituents. It's the same rotten thievery I've been yelling about all year. No city or business can stand this graft, and I can assure you that the taxpayers will get some relief from this within a very short while. A ten-taxpayers' suit is to be brought in the Equity Session of the Superior Court next week and any citizen or attorney who wishes to join in it is welcome. When this happens, it will mean the beginning of the end for Boston's present form of government,—and perhaps it will be a very good thing for the taxpayers. This suit is being held up to give this council and the Mayor the first opportunity to clean up this rotten mess. Thus I ask this action today.

This vicious contractors' dynasty must and can be broken up, and the best way to break it up is to erect several incinerators in various parts of the city. In this way small contractors would be able to bid on the work and not worry about where they are going to dump. As matters stand, Coleman Brothers and others apparently control all dump sites and as long as they can conspire with the Public Works puppet to stall off the building of incinerators, the cost of refuse disposal will be abnormally high. In the meantime and inasmuch as 34 trucks can seemingly handle this work, I propose that instead of having 9 select districts, we break the monopoly up into 2 or 3 dozen districts so that the ordinary little fellow with a truck and couple of pals can bid on the work. Then, if the monopoly refuses to let these small contractors use their dumps, there's nothing to prevent the Public Health Department and the Corporation Counsel from taking their dumps by right of eminent domain. Then, too, in an emergency there's nothing to prevent the city from buying and sequestering tugs and barges. It's a pretty poor record when the City of Boston pays ten times the per capita cost of refuse disposal being paid in neighborhood cities and towns. Did you know that, gentlemen? It is costing the City of Boston ten times per person to pick up the refuse that it costs the people in Newton and Cambridge. Last year the Finance Commission recommended that the city build various incinerators to handle this work, particularly in the South End, and produced comprehensive figures by outstanding architects and engineers, to show that this would not only result in considerable saving to the city, but would also generate sufficient heat and light to light and heat the Boston City Hospital at no expense to the city. Several months ago there was considerable agitation to rush a $200,000 loan order through the Council to erect an incinerator in Brighton where the present refuse disposal costs run over a quarter of a million dollars a year. The Council rushed this order through; the money is available as are the plans, but the Public Works Commissioner is in no hurry to start this, the hospital, or any incinerator. None have been built, nor will any be built as long as the contractors' monopoly controls City Hall.

I have no quarrel with any man trying to get as much for his labors as he possibly can, but I do quarrel and quarrel violently with public officials who abuse their fiduciary authority. This special privilege and secret contract business is the very essence of tyranny. It's this rotten double dealing that has thrown us into two damnable wars and cost us over a million casualties—the cream of our youth. And now the Public Works Commissioner is discriminating against these men by denying them the right to bid on work. Well, gentlemen, I fought with those boys and deem it a pleasure to fight for them. And it's funny, when you try to clean up a dirty mess, what you run into. Here I was only taking exception to the Public Works Commissioner's knavery when, like birds of a feather, out pop George and Johnnie, the Administration bagmen. George, of course, is none other than Milton's gift to the Curley campaign treasury, the slick Major George Baker, and his sandbagging partner is the suave grey eagle known as Johnnie Magee. Out of deference to the Mayor, I've tolerated their abuse, vituperation and vindictive tactics all year, but now they are venting their spite on my friends and, gentlemen, no rat or rats can get away with that. This is a sorry malignant mess that's growing worse every day. They're not content with the unbridled siphoning of blood money out of the City Treasury, but now they've got their filthy hands in the pockets of my friends and, as long as they can stay under cover behind the scenes, there's no stopping them. But I've set out to stop them, and they've set out to drive Madden out of City Hall. One or the other must go, because there's no compromise with honor and decency.

This triumvirate are answerable to no one—unless it's the Mayor. They are not elected public officials, but bureaucratic opportunists who contend that special friends and campaign donors are entitled to a license to steal and sandbag. What a tragic commentary on our form of Democratic government, when men and women who have given the best years of their life in the service of the city—and this at niggardly wages—must clear through the likes of these, before they can get promotions and transfers which they richly deserve; when contracts and jobs can be held up—until the green light of graft goes on; when free men can see their life's savings in little homes swept away with confiscatory taxation—and a $50 or $55 tax rate, which is City Hall's Christmas present to the taxpayers of Boston. Gentlemen, this is nothing short of confiscation; when young men are ripped from their classrooms and jobs to suppress foreign tyrants and now are defied by tyrants who have entrenched themselves in their home town; but even more despicable than this—if such is possible—is the campaign of these loathsome hypocrites to deny physicians' licenses to attend to the sick their subservient to the contractors. These fellows have not only been in the city for years, but have 2 by 4 park out in Oak Square, and they have now held up the city for a long time. Now they want to paste the taxpayers and the children of Boston with a quarter of a million dollars a year for the next year; now they take their seats out on reference kids because I've refused to let this monopoly run by their unbridled corruption. Gentlemen, I don't like this rotten mess any more than you do, but you can't clean the rats out of this Hall as long as they can run foot-loose through the holes. There'd be no peace or quiet in this Hall as long as these coyotes are prowling around, because I'll badge them and their ilk at every opportunity. My friends didn't send me in here to give them lip service, and I intend to see that they get something more than that.

As you know, Mr. Mayor, I was with you when you were up on Beacon Hill and I was with you in Washington a year ago, when all your friends had seemingly deserted you except the good Mike Delaney—who has also tangled with George Baker. I sat with you, your son Leo and Mike on the fatal day, when the F. B. I. under oath admitted that they had failed to trace any graft to Curley, but crucified you, because you were careless in permitting fair-weather friends to capitalize on your good name and reputation. Well, Mr. Mayor, the same situation exists today in City Hall. People are talking and saying nasty things. The stench attached to the bad apples in the barrel permeates all over the Hall. When you reposed confidence in the triumvirate aforesaid, you must have been thinking with your heart, instead of your head, again, Mr. Mayor. They are causing you irreparable damage. Their depredations even now cloud the conscientious efforts of your true friends. They contend that they steal with your sanction. In your long and illustrious career, Mr. Mayor, you have left many great monuments for posterity, but you could render no finer service to yourself, your good family, true friends and the City of Boston than the knowledge that you had cleansed City Hall of these parasites and termites. And it is not necessary for you to go outside of your official family to select a very capable, intensely sincere and honest man as Public Works Commissioner, and I suggest the Honorable Patrick J. Kung, your Congressional secretary, a man with the soul of honor and an unblemished reputation. And now, Mr. President, if there's an ounce of courage and decency in this Honorable Body—and I know there is—I move that the Public Works Commissioner be removed from office and the gravetrain contracts he has given the contractors' monopoly be arrested and inquired into; that the merchants of Boston be given a hearing before we charge them double for commercial waste; that truck owners be given a hearing on the proposed fee jump from $5 to $25; that the Finance Commission be asked to handle this probe to which I ask the District Attorney and Corporation Counsel to send representatives; and then since the Public Works Commissioner contends that the contractors are losing money, I ask that they be ordered in here with their books, records and contracts; I further ask that Mr. Henry Long and Mr. Dennis Delaney, the State and Federal Tax Collectors, come in so the contractors can cry on their shoulders and, last but not least, I ask that the refuse disposal districts be broken up and that the city—not the contractors—sell the soil to farmers. Gentlemen, this is a terrific indictment. I don't mind telling you I debated a long time before I took action. I have fought like hell in two wars to protect and preserve the great traditions of this country, and like a good soldier I promised the people in my district if I were sent in here as their representative, I would try to the best of my ability to protect their interests. As you all know, I have been badgering the Public Works Commissioner all year on these contracts. It has to stop some place, gentlemen. Probably we made no substantial contribution to the campaign as did the bureaucratic office holders in many instances, but I can tell you this, gentlemen, if this Honorable Body is going to let that situation go on unchallenged, we have no alternative but to air this matter out before you. I am very reluctant to do that, but I feel that you men are just as disgusted with this rotten mess as I am. As I say, you can break it down in any way you want, it still shows the contractors' monopoly will get next year over a million dollars. This year they have over $750,000, or three-quarters of a million dollars. The truck owners in the monopoly are getting their $700 a week for every truck. I know any number of young fellows just out of the service who would be tickled to death to put their trucks to work at the prevailing scale of $126, yet the Commissioner has the audacity to tell the Mayor that these men are not capable of doing the work. Gentlemen, something has got to be done. The case is in your hands.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase, talking on the order.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. Chairman, as a member of your Council for ten years, this is about the most serious charge I have ever heard announced in our body. Mr. Chairman, if you the gentlemen from Brighton says is true, then as a lawyer I say that there shall be a Grand Jury proceeding on this matter. I say to you, Mr. Chairman, the Attorney General's office and the District Attorney's office cannot allow what the gentleman from Brighton has said to go unchallenged. Mr. Chairman, the gentleman from Brighton is a responsible citizen, he is an elected public official and he, apparently, sir, has gleaned these facts from responsible sources. There have been charges, Mr. President, of graft, there have been charges of corruption, there have been charges of administration and, yes, Mr. President, the gentleman from Brighton has even gone so far as to mention specific names of the administrative bigmen. Mr. President, this is the capital city of the Commonwealth, the largest city in New England. Are our law-enforcement agencies going to allow what has been said here today to go unchallenged? Or will they conduct an investigation of all the matters concerning the public charges made by a responsible elected official, that Boston is being victimized, that grafters are in the house, that millions of dollars are being stolen from the public treasury? I say to you, Mr. President, if the Attorney General and the District Attorney allow these remarks to go unchallenged, then they should resign. This meeting today, sir, is a matter of public record; serious charges have been made and I don't think that the Public Works Commissioner alone is to blame. I think, sir, the Chief Executive who knows more about municipal government than anyone in this room, who has superior knowledge of what is going on in each and every department in City Hall; he knows what is going on, sir, and he, too, is more to blame than some of our department heads who possibly may cringe in fear they will lose their jobs unless they follow his dictates. Mr. President, I move this order be amended to read that the Attorney General's office and the District Attorney conduct a probe of the charges made.

President KELLY—What is your amendment, counselor?

Coun. CHASE—That the order be amended so as to ask the Attorney General of the Commonwealth and the District Attorney of Suffolk County to conduct a probe of the charges made here in this Council.

The question came on the passage of the amendment, and the amendment was declared defeated.

Coun. CHASE—I doubt the vote.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, is the order now before this Body or is it in Executive?

President KELLY—Before the Body.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Didn't the Chair move the order be referred to the committee?

President KELLY—The gentleman stood up at the same time.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Still, the Chair had announced the order had been referred to the Executive Committee. In order to take it from Executive for amendment, it has to have 15 votes.

Coun. CHASE—The matter was not referred to Executive.

President KELLY—Counselor Chase has the floor. Counselor Chase doubts the vote on the amendment. Counselor Cook.

Coun. COOK—Speaking on the amendment, Mr. President?

President KELLY—There is a vote being doubted. There is no debate. Counselor Chase asked for a roll call.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—Just a minute. There is no point of information, counselor.

Coun. COOK—I would like to know what I am voting on. A point of parliamentary inquiry.

President KELLY—You are voting on Counselor Chase's amendment. I will have the clerk read the amendment.

(The clerk read the amendment proposed by Counselor Chase.)

Coun. COOK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Coun. COOK.

Coun. COOK—Now, through you or the clerk, may I ask what the passage of this amendment means? If passed, does it go to the Executive Committee?

Coun. CHASE—Mr. Chairman—

President KELLY—Just one minute, counselor. The Chair announces he will refer the order to the Executive Committee after its amendment unless the Body insists on its passage. The clerk will call the roll.

Coun. COFFEY—A point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order, Coun. COFFEY—Is it in order to further amend Counselor Chase's amendment?

President KELLY—Not now. There is a vote being doubted on an amendment.

Coun. COFFEY—If withdrawn, would it then be in order to further amend Counselor Chase's amendment?

President KELLY—If the doubt is withdrawn, it would be in order.

Coun. COFFEY—I ask the gentleman who made the doubt to withdraw, and I will make a further amendment.

Coun. CHASE—I will yield to him.

President KELLY—Counselor Chase will withdraw.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, is it possible for the gentleman from East Boston to amend after the roll call?

President KELLY—It is. He is asking you to withdraw your doubt. The clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called and the amendment was defeated, yeas 4, nays 12.

Yeas—Counselors Chase, Cook, Linehan, Madden—4.

Nays—Counselors Coffey, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Scannell, Sullivan—12.

President KELLY—The Chair will now refer the order to the Executive Session.

DEFERRING ACTION ON DEPARTMENT HEAD PAY RAISES.

Coun. MADDEN offered the following:

Ordered, That in view of the fact that the councilors are currently considering pay raises for department heads, and in view of the fact that it has now come to the attention of the Council that certain department heads have been handing out promiscuously contracts for less than a thousand dollars, now, therefore, be it

Ordered, That the Council defer passing on all pay raises to department heads until each has submitted to the Council a statement under oath of the names of the parties receiving such contracts this year, together with the dates, the amounts involved, and the work and/or material involved in the contract.

Coun. MADDEN—This is along the same line, gentlemen. It is your baby. If I have to fight these thieves all alone, it is all right with me. The people of Brighton sent me in here because they knew I had the guts to fight. I will be damned—pardon the French—

President KELLY—Counselor, please.

Coun. MADDEN—If day after day, those thieves down there can tell me what I should do and how I should vote, and tell me to close my eyes; when I asked to have a playground fixed for my district, they said, "You will do what we tell you, or it will never be fixed." Yeh? Gentlemen, if the Public Works Commissioner or anybody else in here has the guts to intimidate me, he has a fight on his hands. I will yell at every single session. If it does not bother you men how much these thieves steal from our constituents, if it does not bother you gentlemen how much taxes they pay, all right with me. But I am going to fight like hell for the people in my district, you can bet your life on that. This last order is not an attack on all department heads, gentlemen, it is directed primarily at two department heads, neither of whom, to my knowledge, have ever been Curley men. Yet they are doing everything in their power to steal dough out of the treasury so fast that they are making a chump out of Curley. I don't introduce this order to embarrass the Mayor. I introduce it to save him. As I said before, I was with the Mayor down in Washington a year ago when everybody had seemed to desert him except Mike DeLuca, little Mike, the only friend he apparently had. They crucified the Mayor down there, gentlemen. Not because he stole. Nobody accused him of stealing, because the F.B.I. under oath said no, but he was very careless in letting other people use his good name and, as I said before, Mr. Mayor, some unscrupulous, fair-weather friends are using your good name today to steal from the city treasury. We are very shortly now taking under consideration pay raises for department heads. God knows every man on this floor would like to give the department heads salaries commensurate with the work they do, but I, for one, gentlemen, don't intend to give any department head a fine salary increase when the record might indicate that some department head has been giving out these thousand and less contracts to friend after friend for friend after friend; so much so that the city treasury is being robbed, and that treasury, gentlemen, represents the life blood of your friends and my friends. It means the blood money of the people in your district and my district is being siphoned out of the city treasury so fast that we have not got enough money in there to pay the little fellows a decent wage. Only today we had a little impromptu hearing with some of the assessors. We have had hearings with men from other departments, and it is a travesty, it is a tragedy when we have to skimp on men in those low-salary brackets and cannot give them a decent salary. Yet the Public Works Commissioner and the engineer have pulled one of the greatest deals ever pulled out of the Commonwealth. It hurts a lot, gentlemen, to see some of you gentlemen sitting on your rotund fannies saying, "He is a good fellow, he sent me a Christmas card." He will have to send me more than a Christmas card, gentlemen.

President KELLY—Speaking on the order, Counselor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—I hope so. It is very obvious that that is what we are speaking on. Mr. President, I just want to let the gentleman from Brighton know he certainly is not the only one watching out for the taxpayers' money, and if there is a little smoke or some fire in these instances he speaks about with reference to garbage collection and whatever else he might refer to, he can be assured that the councilor from Ward 7 will go down the line if there are facts to substantiate the charges made against a certain gentleman here today. I can't see any harm in at least having a hearing on this matter and finding out what it is all about. That is why I voted to have it go to the District Attorney.

Before we do that, we ought to have our own Council, or some committee in our Council, see if there is anything there before we turn it over to the law-enforcement Body. I don't think I will be the only other councilor if there is something rotten in Denmark; I don't doubt every man will go down 100 per cent for honest government, and I don't doubt that many of the Council today don't feel like getting up and putting themselves on the spot. I think I speak for all of them. If there is even smoke there, we will go down the line 100 per cent. I can at least speak for myself, and I think I have expressed the sentiments of most of the councilors.

President KELLY—Counselor Hannon.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, I think the gentleman from Ward 7 (Counselor Linehan) has spoken well and said the truth when he said he was expressing the views of all of us. I think regardless of what conclusions we reach, we owe a debt to the gentleman from Ward 22 (Coun. Madden). At least, he has guts enough to come up here and say what he thinks, and I think he is telling the truth. There are 22 of us here, sent by the people of our districts, and we are supposed to be looking out for them. I would not send anything to the District Attorney or the Attorney General until we first exercise our own prerogatives, until we first make our own investigation. I think the gentleman from Ward 7 is correct when he states that the vast majority of the members here will go along after an investigation if anything is presented to show there is some semblance of truth in these charges as presented. I do believe, however, the gentleman from Ward 22 deserves great credit for his honesty, deserves great credit for the sincerity of his remarks, and I think we owe him a very, very thorough investigation and a very proper one, and I hope we reach a just conclusion.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

RELEASE OF SUGAR RESTRICTIONS.

Coun. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston, in meeting assembled, hereby records itself in favor of Congressional action which will make possible, without further delay, a release of sugar restrictions so that American homes may find it possible to purchase this most necessary ingredient now being shipped in large amounts to foreign countries.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

ORDINANCE RE SALARIES OF DEPARTMENT HEADS, ETC.

Coun. COOK offered the following:

City of Boston,
An Ordinance Concerning Salaries of Department Heads and Officials.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Section five of chapter three of the Revised Ordinances of 1925, as amended, is hereby further amended by adding two hundred dollars to each amount specified in said section for each department head, member of a board, or division engineer, but excepting members of the city council, chairman of the assessors, four principal and five deputy assessors; by adding three hundred dollars to the amount specified for first assistant assessors; by adding the following amounts to those specified for employees of the city council, i. e., assistant clerk of committees, two hundred dollars; stenographer-clerks (2), two hundred and fifty dollars; first assistant city messenger, two hundred and fifty dollars; second assistant city messenger, two hundred and fifty dollars; stenographer-clerks (2), two hundred and fifty dollars; document man, two hundred and fifty dollars; assistant document man, two hundred and fifty dollars; and by adding four hundred dollars to all other amounts specified in said section five, other than those hereinbefore specified.

President KELLY—Referred to the Executive Committee.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, I was going to suggest that ordinance go to the Executive Committee instead of the Committee on Ordinances. It is an ordinance that has to do with raises and salaries in the event that the order submitted by the Mayor is not passed. This ordinance is submitted by myself to take care of everybody so that they will not lose the $200 Emergency plus the raises in conformity with raises that are now being allowed to employees. I would like to say, too, apropos of the previous order submitted by the councilor from Ward 22 (Coun. Madden), I think Counselor Linehan and Counselor Hannon expressed my views perfectly and that of all councilors. Before we convict anybody on charges, there should be a hearing. It has been my understanding that is the American and democratic way of proceeding. There were serious charges made, and I have no doubt they were made in good faith. I would like to know what the facts are, and to have a hearing. I don't intend by my silence now, with the publicity which will be given to the ones who made the charges,—I don't intend my silence, or any other councilor's silence, to be construed as an admission any councilor will accept graft or dishonesty or stealing of the taxpayers' money in the City of Boston.

The ordinance was referred to the Executive Committee.

LEASE OF PEABODY SCHOOL TO POST.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:
Ordered, That the School Committee be authorized to lease to the William L. Harris Post, No. 196, American Legion, the Peabody School, under such terms and conditions as said committee may determine.

Coun. RUSSO—The William L. Harris Post has used these quarters for quite some time, and this is just merely a re-leasing of the school to them. I hope the order will pass.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

RECREATIONAL PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Council Committee on Parks and Playgrounds be requested to invite the members of the City of Boston Board of Recreation, the Trustees of the George Robert White Fund, members of the Boston School Committee, and the sports writers of the Boston daily newspapers, to discuss ways and means to provide a healthy recreational program for the children of Boston during 1947, and to request his Honor the Mayor to provide the necessary funds in the 1947 budget to carry out said program.

President KELLY—Councillor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, on December 7 in the Boston Traveler I read a very illuminating article written by Sara White with reference to our recreational program which it said does not exist here in the City of Boston. Going along with that particular article, I also have before me a report of the City of Boston Board of Recreation. To my mind, it is a fairly complete report and quite illuminating, and I sincerely hope the members of the council will find time to read it so that we will all be familiar with just what parks we do have and the present condition of them. Some time ago, while I was a member of the City Council, I think it was 1940 or 1941, I had quite a fight with a gentleman who then represented Ward 22 in regard to trying to get play areas and boys' clubs situated throughout the City of Boston—about using White Fund money. Up to now, the White Fund Trustees have not done much about using this money for a recreational program. Of course, the President of the Council is a member of the White Fund Trustees, and perhaps he could give us some information about what the White Fund Trustees intend to do in 1947 in reference to whether or not some of that particular money which amounts, I understand, to over $2,000,000 at the present time, whether or not some of it is going to be spent on play areas or any other recreational projects. Frankly, I don't know that we can have a full and complete hearing on the matter, but up to now I have not heard whether or not there will be anything done about the recommendations made by the Board of Recreation. The recommendations, as I said, are illuminating, and I might read from that report: "One might spend a great deal of time going into detail as to present conditions at each playground. There are general criticisms which apply to all but a few. These criticisms stem from two major faults,—the first, neglect; the second, the fact that the idea of the function of playgrounds has changed radically from that existing at the time that many of these areas were laid out, changed in fact in the last few years."

"Whether the element of neglect rests in some fancied idea of economy through the payroll end or a lack of appreciation of the requirements of the problem is a mere matter of conjecture, but the facts speak for themselves. . . . Good money is paid out to board up a field house for the winter, and much more money to repair the damage done by boys breaking in, much more than it would cost to have a trained person keep the place open all winter for the use of skaters using the rink on the playground. During this year, with the very ample funds provided, the Park Department has done a great deal to repair both buildings and grounds, but, unless proper, well-paid, carefully selected persons who know and understand children so as to make friends instead of enemies of them, who are so interested in their job that they spend at least the time they are paid for in working around the playground, are provided, all the good and expensive work of the past year will be left in ruins by another year."

I wish we could have a little less talking in the Body, Mr. President. With all the talk we have heard about juvenile delinquency not only in the City of Boston but throughout the nation, I think it is a very vital subject.

"With only some twenty-eight play instructors for seventy-five or more playgrounds, one swimming instructor for all the beaches and the two city indoor pools, and two women to look after the play program for all women and girls, one can hardly look to the Park Department to build community interest and loyalty for Park Department efforts to the degree where the residents take pride in preserving and helping care for the playgrounds."

The report goes on to say:

"The problem is big, very big, and its solution rests in the continued functioning of just such an agency as the Board of Recreation to coordinate and correlate the good work being done by such groups as the Park Department, the Metropolitan District Commission, and the City Planning Board as they touch upon, work on, and develop plans for the recreation areas of the City of Boston."

Going further into the report, on page A-44, and I am reading this because I brought my order here inviting the trustees to come before the Committee on Parks and Playgrounds;

"Through the interest and activity of social agencies and their workers and the hearty support of those in the city government who knew and understood the problem, the George Robert White Fund has developed four tot-to play areas, Pitts and Hale streets in the West End, and the one at London and Decatur streets, East Boston, and at Troy and Rochester streets in the South End, all acquired in 1942. In 1943 the lot at the corner of King and Roxbury streets in Roxbury was developed.

"These are all beautifully planned, and executed with the greatest of care, but, if the King street lot is to be taken as an example, little thought was given to the attitude of the Park Department as regards use and upkeep of playgrounds. For months upon months the King street playground gates were padlocked. Local agencies asking to be permitted to take over the lot and run a program on it were turned down. The beautiful oak gates are clear of varnish, in fact of all finish and gradually cracking apart. Neglect will soon find the place a ruin."

"We most urgently recommend that every time one of these playgrounds is constructed, that proper recreational supervision be a definite part of the planned set-up. This latter, we know, cannot be provided for under the White Fund, but such care and supervision at all times by the city should be one of the items upon which the money for construction is granted."

Finally, the conclusions are these:
"Trained educational directors of the playgrounds; a more carefully studied layout of play areas; a sufficient number of trained instructors to cover all playgrounds, both male and female; and men at the top who know recreation from a community and city-wide viewpoint are what is needed if our youth are to get the full advantage of our city-supervised recreational areas."

Also, in that report it reminds the School Committee that our school halls and gymnasiums should be used Saturdays and Sundays for the benefit of the public. That is to say, we should not close up the school gymnasiums when the children go home on Friday, and have them not in use. After all, the city is paying for the upkeep of them. Over the years that I have been a member of the Council I have heard a lot of recommendations as to what we should do to help solve the juvenile delinquency problem which exists not only in Boston but throughout the United States. It has grown to such proportions that the President of the United States, only a week ago, had a meeting in Washington on juvenile delinquency, and to it he invited leading sports writers of the nation. I understand most of them showed up, some of them right here from Boston. It was agreed at that meeting, if I remember the newspaper accounts of it, that the newspapermen would go back to their respective cities and try to create a community spirit for more healthy recreational facilities and a healthier program for the youngsters to help diminish juvenile delinquency which is in a rampant state all over the United States. In Boston we have not done much about it. The little done has been done by private agencies, and it is about time the city itself should get into this program and do something about it. Mayor Kerrigan, whether some of the councilors liked him or not, did try to do something in a big way throughout the city, but I think the present Mayor kind of abolished the program, and at the present time we have not anything much as far as a city-sponsored program is concerned. There is a football team and baseball team sponsored by such fans as myself and Councilors Bryan, Cantwell, Kelly and a few others. That is what we have in recreational facilities other than a few Halloween parties and the like carried on under the supervision of the different police stations and also private agencies which conduct parties themselves in a small way. It seems to me with all the buildings at hand and all the parks scattered through the city, more could be done, but they are not much used because we have not the proper supervision to give the children. Without leadership, the children roam all over the city but use the playgrounds only to a small extent. I think that is due to the fact that we have not the proper recreational instructors at the recreational centers. I know while I was a member of the George Robert White Fund for about four months, I did vote for recreational programs down in Ward 3, but I don't know what became of it. I don't know if the President of the City Council has done anything in trying to get the trustees of the fund to spend any of the two million dollars in the districts that have not got any. In South Boston we have the Boys' Club of Boston, but it is not sponsored by the city. We are fairly well taken care of in South Boston, but in many other sections of the city they could use a Boys' Club and they could be supplied by the moneys accumulated as a result of interest piling up in the fund. The court some years ago ruled, when I had my argument with the gentleman from Ward 22 who is at the present time a member of the School Committee—School Committeeman Ward—at that time the money could be used for recreational centers, and I sincerely hope we can get these interested parties, including the newspaper sports writers, to see if we cannot do so that before the budget comes around, has the Mayor might have enough pressure brought to bear upon him by those who have the welfare of the children at heart, to make him realize it is indeed an important function of the city. I sincerely hope the order will pass, and I sincerely hope something will come of it. That is not only the Mayor of Boston but also the trustees of the George Robert White Fund.

The order was referred to the Committee on Parks and Playgrounds.

COVERING OF THIRD RAIL ON ELEVATED.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to make immediate plans to cover the third rail of the El for the protection of life and to assure continuous service in icy weather.

President KELLY—Councillor Hannon.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, some months ago we asked the Elevated officials to consider the feasibility of covering the third rail in order that the youngsters would not step upon it and thus meet their death. Yesterday another serious condition existed because of the fact that the third rail is not covered. The trains on the Boston Elevated lines were unable to proceed. I read in the paper where it took two hours for a train to come from City Square to Dudley Street. That difficulty should be relieved or, at least, alleviated in some measure by the erection of a covering over the third rail. The cost of it would be great, but the cost could be amortized over a period of years. I think this constructive criticism is something that should be considered by the Boston Elevated.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

On motion of Councilor Bryan, the Council voted at 3.45 p. m., to take a recess subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by President KELLY at 8.20 p. m.

THE NEXT MEETING.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, due to the fact that the Mayor will go on the air next week at just 2 o'clock, I move now that when we adjourn today we adjourn to meet at 1.45 p. m. next Monday.

The motion was carried, and the Council voted that when it adjourn, it be to meet on Monday, January 6, 1947, at 1.45 p. m.

VISIT TO LONG ISLAND.

President KELLY—Councillor Russo.

Coun. RUSSO—I would like to announce now that the committee is going down to the Island tomorrow morning, leaving at ten o'clock on the wharf opposite Fleet street, so I am inviting all the members who wish to make the inspection to be present if possible.

President KELLY—Thank you, councillor.

EXECUTIVE REPORTS.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on message of the Mayor and ordinance (referred today) raising salaries of department heads, members of boards, etc.—recommending passage of the ordinance.

The report of the committee was accepted.

Coun. HANNON—There is an amendment, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Will the Clerk read the amendment?

The Clerk read the amendment presented by Councilor Hannon, as follows:

"That the ordinance be amended in the following positions:

First assistant assessors from $1,150 and $1,150 to $1,200 and $1,200;

First assistant city messenger from $3,850 to $4,000;

Second assistant city messenger from $2,850 to $3,000;

Assistant Clerk of Committees from $4,400 to $4,600;

Stenographer-clerks (2) from $2,850 to $3,000;

Document man from $3,350 to $3,500;

Assistant document man from $2,550 to $2,700;

Stenographer-clerks (2) from $2,550 to $2,700.

President KELLY—Councillor Scannell.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, I know it is very unpopular to come up and speak for a raise for anybody, especially a department head. Many of them I think are deserving of this raise but, I think the Mayor of Boston's first thought should be not to a man getting $6,000 or $7,000 a year, but to the person who is working for about $1,500 or $1,600 a year who does a good day's work. I refer to the nurses at the Boston City Hospital. For the past four months, or past couple of months, anyway, I have asked the Mayor to immediately give these girls at this institution and also the employees at this hospital a raise. We did not get action. He said that he would give a raise the first of the year. What is the result, gentlemen? The result is the people at that institution, the City Hospital, are getting neglected. The nurses have been leaving that hospital at the rate of 15 to 20 nurses a week. The condition at that hospital at the present time is deplorable, and I charge, this evening, the man responsible for the conditions at that hospital today is the man downstairs. This was brought to his attention on a number of occasions, and he has done nothing about it. Something is going to happen at that hospital, and the man downstairs and the Trustees of the hospital are responsible because in the course of the year over 150 nurses have left that institution because they would not give them enough money to live on. They are the people who should be taken care of first, and that is why I am going to vote against this pay raise for department heads. I think the person in the lower brackets should be taken care of first. The poor laborer, or the truck driver, should be taken care of, and I think the department heads would not suffer. I mean those that are getting $6,000 or $7,000 or $8,000 a year. I don't know how far I am going to get in the fight as far as these nurses are concerned, but you can bet I have not had anything in the past from the man downstairs, and I do not expect anything for the next year, but I tell you, gentlemen, he will hear from me.

President KELLY—The question is on the amendment. We are now discussing the amendment.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I am very much adverse to the question as a whole before us.

President KELLY—Wait a minute, councilor. We are talking now on the amendment that Councilor Hannon has introduced. You will have a chance later on the ordinance. The question now comes on the amendment.

The amendment was declared adopted.

President KELLY—The question now comes on the passage of the ordinance as amended.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I am very much opposed to the Mayor's proposition of granting pay raises to his pet department heads, amounting to in some cases as high as $2,500. I don't believe, sir, this is the time to be granting such huge increases. It is my opinion, sir, that the Mayor's department heads in accepting these particular jobs had full knowledge of what these salaries were. Under no conditions, sir, can we say that they figured on 1938 salaries because they accepted the 1946 salary. It is my understanding the $400 annual increases granted to all municipal employees were to be given, having in mind the higher cost of living. I submit to you, any department head now receiving $6,000 and as high as $8,000 or $9,000 should not be given any increase at this time of $1,000 or $2,500. I don't believe, sir, that the department head who enjoys such a salary —

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, would the gentleman be gracious enough to yield for one question?

President KELLY—Will you yield to one question from Councilor Muchnick?

Coun. CHASE—Yes.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Would you deny the laborer the bare price for his hire?

President KELLY—Will you answer that question?

Coun. CHASE—I don't think it is necessary for me to answer the question because it is not in point.

Coun. MUCHNICK—He said he would answer the question.

Coun. CHASE—Provided, Mr. Chairman —

President KELLY—Will you continue?

Coun. CHASE—It is on the point.

President KELLY—Continue.

Coun. CHASE—I would say in answer to the gentleman from Ward 14 (Councilor Muchnick) that the man earning $6 a day is entitled to an increase. The $400 increase he may receive is absolutely essential in order to make up for the higher cost of living which he must undergo. I say to you, sir, a man earning $7,000 or $8,000 should not receive a $2,500 increase. That is beyond the realm of reason, that it is necessary to give a $2,500 increase to make up his higher cost of living. Frankly, sir, I believe a good many of our department heads are over-paid, and I believe that they should not be given these increases that his Honor the Mayor proposes to give.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Coffey, for what purpose?

Coun. COFFEY—Will the gentleman yield for a question?

President KELLY—Do you yield for a question, councilor?

Coun. CHASE—No.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick—for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Will the gentleman yield for a question?

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick asks if you will yield for one question, Councilor Chase.

Coun. COFFEY—Will the gentleman yield?

President KELLY—Just a minute, councilor. If Councilor Chase yields, he yields the floor.

Coun. CHASE—No.

President KELLY—I am sorry.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, his Honor the Mayor said today he is treating all city employees alike, and he would have the public at large believe he is granting a $400 annual increase to each and every employee, regardless of what category they may be in. Sir, is his Honor the Mayor saying this with his tongue in his cheek, having in mind he has called upon the members of the City Council to jack up the salaries of his pet department heads? I don't think, sir, that they are entitled to these proposed increases. I think the taxpayers who would be expected to bear the brunt of this burden of salaries will not take kindly to the idea. Here we are faced with a $7 annual increase in our tax rate, and yet Mayor Curley proposes to pay some of his department heads a $2,500 salary increase. He is trying apparently to kid the taxpayers to believe that he is going to treat all city employees on the same scale. I hope, sir, this order for increases in the salaries for department heads will fail to pass.

President KELLY—The question comes on the passage of the order as amended. Councilor Coffey.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, very briefly, as the hour is getting late. As I said inside, I would go along for an increase for anybody that works for the City of Boston or for the county. I told the gentleman from Ward 4 (Councilor Chase) if he had any recommendations to give the people in the lower brackets a higher increase in salary, I would go along with him if he introduced an order. I would like to ask him a question, if he did not vote for a salary increase at the Legislature, and if he did not take the salary increase at the Legislature and $200 Emergency Compensation at the Council.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—I would be glad to answer the gentleman from East Boston, even though I think it is a frivolous question he is asking. Sir, as a member of the Legislature —

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—If it is a frivolous question, the answer he would give would be a frivolous answer; if it has nothing to do with what we are discussing, let us go on with the vote.

President KELLY—Are you satisfied it is a frivolous question? It is getting pretty late.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, even though I consider the question frivolous, I would be glad to answer it.

The ordinance was adopted.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase doubts the vote. He has no supporters.

The question came on the passage of the ordinance previously submitted by Councilor Cook re raises of salary for department heads, members of boards, etc.

President KELLY—The question is on the passage of the ordinance. Councilor Hannon.

Coun. HANNON—Has that matter of the ordinance already been covered by the acceptance of the previous ordinance?

President KELLY—I understand, councilor, one differs a little from the other, and the understanding was to have a vote passed on both.

Coun. HANNON—The only question troubling me is the fact that the attachés received a lesser amount than they received in the other ordinance. If we are going to give the Mayor a choice, he might accept the ordinance giving the lesser amount. I think, Mr. President, that should be laid on the table.

President KELLY—Do you make that a motion, councilor?

Coun. HANNON—Yes.

President KELLY—Councilor Hannon makes a motion that this ordinance be laid on the table.

Coun. HANNON—I suppose we can get the sponsor of it.

President KELLY—Councilor Cook. Does Councilor Hannon yield?

Coun. HANNON—Yes. I withdraw my motion.

President KELLY—Councilor Cook talking on the ordinance.

Coun. COOK—I understand, Mr. President, the ordinance suggested and recommended, if it be passed, is now before us, but the Mayor's ordinance as amended has passed here. I would like to point out to the councilors under the provisions of the charter that the Mayor's ordinance as amended now and passed can be changed by him so far as salaries to the attachés and assessors are concerned, and he need not send it back to the Council. So the Council in effect has passed last week's ordinance and given the Mayor power under section 4 of the City Charter which says relative to the ordinance: "If the same involves the expenditure of money, the Mayor may approve some of the items in whole or in part and disapprove other of the items in whole or in part; and such items or parts of items as he approves shall be in force, and such items or parts of items as he disapproves shall be void."

There is nothing to prevent the Mayor now from allowing the department heads to keep their salaries or from cutting the salaries of the attachés and the assistant assessors in the same manner as he did in the ordinance before it was amended. If that is the Council's wish, I am for the whole ordinance.

President KELLY—Councilor Russo, talking on Councilor Cook's ordinance.

Coun. RUSSO—A point of information.

President KELLY—State the point of information.

Coun. RUSSO—Do I understand correctly by the amendment made by the Council today on the recent order sent up here by the Mayor, it is equivalent to the same order he sent up here last week?

President KELLY—That is right, councilor.

Coun. RUSSO—If that is right, Mr. President, and while I am on my feet, I would say this, even though—may I ask this before I go any further, if the Mayor sends up an order here requesting us to do certain things and the Council approves of it, can he in turn deduct from the order that he has sent up to us and as presented to us?

President KELLY—I am informed for expenditure of money he can accept any part he wants to, and turn down any part.

Coun. RUSSO—Even though it was sent by him in the first instance?

President KELLY—That is right, councilor.

Coun. RUSSO—Certainly some changes ought to take place as far as the charter is concerned, Mr. President. Speaking now on the motion to lay it on the table—

President KELLY—There is no motion to lay it on the table, councilor. Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of parliamentary inquiry.

President KELLY—State your point of inquiry.

Coun. LINEHAN—Can we move to reconsider the last vote so that we know what we are doing, and start all over on this? I for one, and I think I speak for the twenty-two, don't want to be in a position of giving everybody a raise except the attachés. Let us start things right.

President KELLY—The Chair would state under the ordinance the membership of the Council has just passed, the employees will receive more than under the ordinance under discussion now, councilor. This ordinance we have just passed will be the one in which the attachés will receive more.

Coun. LINEHAN—Can we amend this particular order so that, as far as the attachés are concerned, it coincides with the one just passed?

President KELLY—There is no need of doing that, councilor. We have already passed the ordinance calling for it.

Coun. LINEHAN—We don't want to give his Honor the Mayor the opportunity to select the one that has the lower figures on it.

President KELLY—That is up to the wisdom of the Council as to what their pleasure is in the matter of the ordinance under discussion. Councilor Russo still has the floor.

Coun. RUSSO—Speaking on the order before us, Mr. President, I feel that there is no reason why we should adopt this other ordinance when we have already amended the first ordinance sent up here by his Honor the Mayor and approved it. I don't feel we ought to lay this ordinance on the table so that it will not take up—

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Do I understand there is a motion to lay on the table?

President KELLY—No. He is talking on the ordinance.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Under those circumstances, Mr. President, I want to raise a point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. MUCHNICK—No discussion on this ordinance is in order because its terms are contrary to the ordinance we just passed.

President KELLY—The Chair is trying to come to some conclusion as to what the members desire to do.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Rule this one out of order.

President KELLY—I am open for suggestion. Councilor Russo.

Coun. RUSSO—I believe I am still in order.

President KELLY—You are in order.

Coun. RUSSO—As I started to say before I was interrupted, I see no reason why we should lay this on the table because we don't want to have it before us every week; therefore, I move now, Mr. President, that this ordinance be sent back to the Executive Committee so that we can dispose of it in there and decide what to do with it. I move it be sent to the Executive Committee.

President KELLY—Councilor Russo moves that this ordinance be referred to the Executive Committee.

The matter was declared referred to the Executive Committee.

2. Report on order (referred today) re contracts for collection of garbage and refuse—recommending that same be referred to the Committee on Public Works and Street Commissioners.

The report was accepted, and the order was referred to the Committee on Public Works and Street Commissioners.

SALE OF LAND AT CLEVELAND CIRCLE.

On motion of Councilor Lane, it was voted to take No. 1, under unfinished business, from the calendar.

No. 1 on the calendar is as follows:

1. Order for sale of land, Chestnut Hill Avenue (Cleveland Circle), to Samuel G. Fish.

On December 9, 1946, the said order was read once and passed—yeas nineteen, nays none.

President KELLY—The motion comes on the passage of the order. Before the clerk calls the roll and the clerk recognizes Councilor Linehan, I have a letter with regard to No. 1 on the calendar which I wish to read.

(The letter was read by the President, being a statement from Coleman Company that it will occupy space in proposed building.)

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I offer an amendment.

The clerk read the amendment as follows:

"Subject to the condition that the said purchaser, his heirs, executors, administrators, successors, assignees, grantees, shall construct on said land herein described a building of first-class construction of a value not less than $250,000."

President KELLY—The question comes on the amendment. Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, ordinarily I would not vote in favor of this order even with the amendment on it, but the fact that we have some kind of information, taken for what it might be, that a store will be built there, and I have been informed that the building will cost at least $300,000; the fact that such a building will be constructed by the potential purchaser has influenced me to believe I will vote in favor of this sale without its going to public auction, if this particular amendment is adopted. The one reason I am doing it is due to the fact that it seems good business. We have already one potential purchaser who offered $55,000 for this particular site but would only agree to build a building which would cost, I think, $125,000. That means a difference of something like $22,000 in the purchase price, but it would not be long over a period of a few years that we would have that difference made up by the increase in the taxes we would receive if we had a building built at twice that cost, so that you might say in a short period of four or five years, whatever it might be, we would have that money back in the city, that is, the difference between the $33,000 and this one for $55,000 offered by some other individual. Since we have been discussing the matter for some time, we have had only three offers, one of them around $50,000 or $55,000 with no promise of building any type of building other than they will build eventually. Personally, I am not interested in that kind of proposal for the city, but I am interested in a proposal such as this one. Mr. Fish's client is interested in building a building which would cost, as I understand it, more than $300,000. I was informed that the potential purchaser, Mr. Fish and his client, would agree to such an amendment, and that is why I filed this amendment today. Certainly, if he is sincere in this matter and he has a substantial client, or a substantial prospective tenant, which I think is the Coleman Company, a specialty shop on Boylston or Tremont street, I am not just sure where. That is the type of store I believe the gentleman from Ward 22 would like to see come into his district. If this potential purchaser is honestly sincere that he is going to build such a place, I don't see where this amendment is going to cause anybody to vote against it. It simply means this to me, that if the potential purchaser wants this amendment stricken out, then they are not sincere that they are going to build a first-class building. The only way you can protect the city and the City Councilors and his Honor the Mayor is to put it in the deed. Then, as I say, if we lose the odd thousand dollars in the purchase price, that may be made up in a few years in the form of taxation, and as the years go on, it will be a worth-while proposition for the city. If the amendment itself is defeated, I will be forced to vote against it, the whole order without the amendment.

President KELLY—The question first comes on the amendment, councilor. Councilor Muchnick, on the amendment.

Coun. MUCHNICK—On the amendment. Mr. President, I have tried to give this matter a lot of thought, and it seems to me if we are going to pass this order at all, it should be passed as is, without the amendment. Originally I was opposed to this particular sale, until I started to think about it. But now I think we ought to sell the land and get the revenue rather than have the dead land on our hands. If we are going to put a restrictive covenant into this deed, it is not a restriction that applies to this particular person, but a restriction which will run with the land for all time unless it is changed by the Land Court. That to me is the major objection to putting it in the deed. Ten or twenty or thirty or even a hundred years from now if somebody wishes to grant this land to somebody else, that restriction in the deed will prevent that from being done.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Will the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Yes.

Coun. LINEHAN—I wonder if the gentleman from Ward 14 (Councilor Muchnick) has any idea that the property won't have any building for the next fifty years?

Coun. MUCHNICK—No. It is my understanding there will be a building on this as soon as the C P A gives authority for the building, once the land has been sold. There are plenty of safeguards as to the type of building that can be put up here, once the transaction has gone through. The Building Department must give permits and they have to pass on the type of construction. The Board of Appeal must pass on the zoning requirements and restrictions. The Park Department must pass on it where this land adjoins that of the Park Department, and it seems to me these three agencies are just as much interested in the welfare of the city and in this particular piece of land on Commonwealth avenue as we are, or anybody else is. If you put this restriction in the deed, it can in no way help the matter because of the other safeguards. If we look at it from a practical point of view, the person who is buying this land, if he is in any way at all telling the truth, and I believe he is, wants this land for development purposes, for the purpose of putting up a specialty shop and other kindred types of stores; the Coleman people have indicated they want one part of it. I am sure if we were to go out in the open market and shop around, from what I happen to know of the retail department store business, he could get any one of ten or fifteen companies to come in. I don't believe we should have any fears of what would happen, and I see no point in putting in a restrictive covenant that can only impair the value of the land for all time. If it became too great an impairment, Mr. President, if this purchaser or any subsequent grantee could not fulfill the requirements, they would have to go to the Land Court and show the hardship involved, and I would be willing to wager a substantial amount that the Court would waive the restriction. If that is so, there is no point in putting it in.

President KELLY—The question is on the amendment. Councilor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I am very much in favor, sir, of having the restriction imposed on this land that at least a $250,000 building be erected. I believe we should also go beyond that. We should also make sure this sale is at public auction and we should also make sure that the starting bid will be $33,000, the price Mr. Shactman offers. I have in mind, sir, we have nothing to lose by conducting a public auction under this condition, because if this Mr. Shactman is willing to buy at private sale at $33,000 with the restriction of $250,000 in the deed, he obviously will be willing at least to pay the lowest bid of $33,000 with the same restriction in at public sale. On the other hand, if other members of your general public are interested in buying this land and offer a higher price, the city will be given the benefit. I am in full accord with what our Finance Commission has to say on this matter. With that in mind, I offer an amendment to the effect that this land be sold at public auction, subject to the low price of $33,000 first bid, and a written restriction in the deed that a $250,000 building will be erected.

President KELLY—Wait a minute, councilor. We have already one amendment before the board. We have to dispose of the first amendment first. The question comes on Councilor Linehan's amendment.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I certainly have small liking for the matter when I see the councilor from Ward 14 (Councilor Muchnick) getting up and talking about oral agreements, particularly when he is a lawyer and knows any agreement pertaining to land, in order to be enforced, ought to be in writing.

President KELLY—Just a minute. Councilor Muchnick. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. LINEHAN—I yield for a question.

Coun. MUCHNICK—He yields. I would like to ask a question.

President KELLY—Do you yield?

Coun. LINEHAN—I will try to answer.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Is it impossible even in a real estate transaction to take somebody else's word for it?

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—As an attorney, I want my client to take the word of nobody in regard to an agreement pertaining to land. I would like to ask the gentleman from Ward 14 (Councilor Muchnick) a question. I still have the floor?

President KELLY—You have the floor.

Coun. LINEHAN—Thank you very much.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—He wants to ask me a question.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman who took his seat—and I will yield for his answer—what advice would he give his client?

Coun. MUCHNICK—On the question of the sale of a piece of land and if he wanted a restriction put in, if the gentleman will be present at the Registry at 12 o'clock on Thursday, he will see a client of mine buying a substantial piece of real estate, most of which was done on oral agreement.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to know is he representing the gentleman, Mr. Fish?

Coun. MUCHNICK—I am not representing Mr. Fish, never have and probably never will.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—I still doubt the gentleman from Ward 14, if I may, when he says he has had plenty of oral agreements pertaining to land. I doubt that very much. I was not born yesterday. I certainly could not vote for this matter because of the large size of the property and because so much public attention has been given to it.

President KELLY—Wait a minute, councilor. You are talking on the amendment.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I am not voting on the reason why I want the amendment.

President KELLY—Excuse me.

Coun. LINEHAN—I said a short while ago, Mr. President, I would not vote without an amendment and I am telling you why. I want to protect the city's interest by having a signed gentlemen's agreement in writing, which is the only way it can be enforced. That is the only way you can protect the taxpayers in regard to this matter. Another thing is that our Council will be protected because we have had so much discussion of this matter. I feel sure we have and the potential purchasers, at least, we have information from all of them up to this point. There were no more offers other than the $33,000, $50,000 and $55,000, and considering everything, I think the $33,000 offer with the proviso of a $250,000 building constructed on it would be best for the city; but if the $250,000 proviso is left out, I am in doubt if that is the best proposal.

President KELLY—Talking on the amendment, Councilor Madden.

Coun. MADDEN—I heartily agree with Councilor Linehan and Councilor Chase. At one time I took the floor and argued against this private sale or private contract. There are many instances where private contracts and private sales, I suppose, are necessary and probably above board and to the best interests of the city. However, in private sales and private contracts there is too much leeway for dishonesty. I am not inferring in any way that is the case in this matter. I know the councilor very well and I have a very profound regard for him and normally I would do almost anything in the world for him. However, while I can't see eye to eye with him in this matter, I still think he is a grand fellow, but I sincerely think in the best interests of the city that this amendment should be accepted and that the property should be offered at public sale. It should be offered at public sale for the protection of the members of this Council from abuse. In that public sale three factors should be considered. I don't think that price alone should be the controlling factor. I would say that in addition to the price, probably an even greater factor would be the possible revenue to the city. If the people who seem to be primarily interested, or perhaps I should say the people who originally made the offer—if they are sincere, I don't know why they would have any objection whatsoever to putting this into the deed and, as any attorney can tell you, unless it is in the deed it cannot be enforced. All agreements pertaining to real estate must be in writing. The third factor I think which should be considered is the suggestion of Councilor Lane that the property only be sold for such and such a type of building, and the building that Councilor Lane has in mind is a department store. Living in the district, I quite agree with Councilor Lane, and I think the people want a department store, but I think in fairness to ourselves and in fairness to the city and to the public, this land should be sold at public auction, and at that public auction the prospective buyer should be informed that price alone would not be the controlling factor, that the city is interested in the taxable income in years to come. Those three factors should be considered.

President KELLY—The question now is on Councilor Linehan's amendment. The Clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called, and the amendment was defeated, yeas 8, nays 12:

Yeas—Councilors Bryan, Chase, Cook, Keenan, Linehan, Madden, Russo, Scannell—8.

Nays—Councilors Carey, Coffey, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Sullivan—12.

Coun. CHASE—I offer an amendment.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase offers an amendment.

Coun. MADDEN—I would like to be joined in that amendment.

The amendment offered by Councilor Chase, in which Councilor Madden also joined, was as follows:

"That the land be sold at public auction for at least $33,000, and subject to the restriction that at least a $250,000 building will be erected."

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President—

President KELLY—Just a minute, councilor. Your motion is probably in order, up to the public auction part of it. We have defeated an amendment to have the $250,000 clause in it. Your motion is in order up to the part to sell at public auction. The Chair will accept that part of the motion.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President—

President KELLY—Councilor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—I don't know why his Honor the Mayor is so anxious to sell the property at private sale but in view of the fact, sir, that the Boston Finance Commission has on three different occasions publicly criticized this proposed sale, and in view of the fact that there have been but two bidders that have offered substantially higher prices, I believe, sir, that we have had sufficient information to make us realize that it should be sold at public auction. This is an important matter, and I, as an attorney, sir, wish to go along with what the gentleman from South Boston (Councilor Linehan) has said pertaining to oral agreements relative to land. The statute of frauds specifically states, Mr. Chairman, no agreement pertaining to land or the sale of land shall be valid unless it is in writing. Now, sir, I want each and every member of the Council, especially those who are not members of the bar to consider that the man offering to buy this property with apparently an oral promise, when he gets that property, can turn around and do anything he wants with it if it is oral. He can erect a gasoline station there, he can put anything up, a $20,000 building or a shooting gallery, or anything, and that goes, notwithstanding the fact that he has orally promised the Mayor and the Mayor has orally promised us that a $250,000 department store will be erected on that property.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of inquiry.

President KELLY—Does the gentleman yield to Councilor Linehan for a point of inquiry?

Coun. CHASE—Yes.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to know if I can amend Councilor Chase's order in reference to the construction of a $245,000 building thereon?

President KELLY—The Chair will rule that is substantially what was just defeated. It would not be in order.

Coun. LINEHAN—Suppose I raised it to $300,000, Mr. President?

President KELLY—That would be the subject of another amendment.

Coun. LINEHAN—He yielded for me to make an amendment.

President KELLY—He yielded for a point of inquiry. If he yields for an amendment, he will yield the floor.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, those are the facts, sir, which I have given to the members of your Body. This oral understanding, sir, that his Honor the Mayor has come into with the proposed purchaser for this property will not stand up in a court of law, and the purchaser can turn around and thumb his nose at the city and put up any type of building he desires. Now, Mr. Chairman, his Honor the Mayor has sold us on the idea—not me, but most of the members of your Council—that we should sell this property for $33,000 to Shactman because he will erect a $250,000 building which will thus bring in a higher revenue annually to the city in the form of taxes. Mr. President, suppose Shactman turns around and finds some excuse for putting up a $10,000 building? Then, sir, what does his Honor the Mayor say? What do you say? We were sold on the idea Shactman should buy this property for $33,000 because ultimately the city will gain from a $250,000 building erected on it on annual taxes. But Shactman does not have to put up any $250,000 building, Mr. President. Due to the pressure brought, in view of the defiance of his Honor the Mayor, in view of the very adverse reports of the Boston Finance Commission, I personally believe this land graft is another piece of graft by his Honor the Mayor, and I say to you, if you pass this measure, you will live to see the time when you will be convinced it is another piece of graft. I hope, sir, that land is sold at public auction.

President KELLY—The question comes on Councilor Chase's and Councilor Madden's amendment. Councilor Linehan on the amendment.

Coun. LINEHAN—I move to amend Councilor Chase's amendment by inserting the words "restricting the use of the land to the construction of a $245,000 building."

President KELLY—How much for the building?

Coun. LINEHAN—$245,000.

President KELLY—I am sorry, councilor, the Chair has already ruled that is substantially the same amendment which has already been defeated; therefore, it is not in order.

■ Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to ask you, Mr. President, just what is or is not a substantial change in amount? What about $300,000, Mr. President?

President KELLY—Do you want to make it $300,000?

Coun. LINEHAN—I move to make it $300,000, and while I am on my feet —

President KELLY—Does Councilor Chase agree to that amendment?

Coun. CHASE—Yes.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan, talking on the amendment.

Coun. LINEHAN—I just happened to read No. 1. It is Samuel G. Fish?

President KELLY—That is right.

Coun. LINEHAN—I thought Mr. Shactman was the buyer, Mr. President. With whom is this agreement? We have been talking about Mr. Shactman but nothing about Mr. Fish.

President KELLY—Samuel G. Fish is the purchaser. The Chair understands he is the attorney for Mr. Shactman. The question comes on Councilor Chase's amendment. The Clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called, and the amendment was defeated, yeas 7, nays 13:

Yeas—Councilors Bryan, Chase, Cook, Keenan, Linehan, Madden, Russo—7.

Nays—Councilors Carey, Coffey, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Scannell, Sullivan—13.

President KELLY—The question now comes on the passage of the order. The Clerk will call the roll.

The order was passed, yeas 15, nays 4, viz: Yeas—Councilors Carey, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Scannell and Sullivan—15.

Nays—Councilors Chase, Keenan, Linehan, Madden—4.

RELATIONS OF GEORGE BAKER AND JOHN MAGEE WITH CITY DEPARTMENTS.

Coun. MADDEN offered the following: Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to investigate the relations of George Baker and John Magee with any city department.

President KELLY—Councilor Madden.

Coun. MADDEN—Mr. President, I don't want to bore you gentlemen any longer, but the question has arisen as to who Mr. George Baker is and who Mr. John Magee is. I don't know other than they seem to have keys to the Mayor's office. I have to get in a fight to get in there every time I go, and every time I come in the building I bump into either Mr. Magee or Mr. Baker or both. I have received a lot of fatherly advice from one or the other at various times, such as unless I play ball, certain things would not be done. I would get nothing, and I must say the gentlemen in that respect spoke the truth. I have been in the Council about a year and I have received just about nothing. So I would like to have the Mayor inquire and find out what Mr. Magee and Mr. Baker usually charge to put through a playground. I don't know what they charged people in other districts, but the people in Oak square are anxious to have a playground built, and if Mr. Magee and Mr. Baker, or either one, don't want too much I can probably take up a subscription and pay them for it.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

Coun. CHASE—I move we adjourn.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase moves we adjourn. The Chair would like to make one statement.

Coun. HURLEY—Before we leave, and since this is the last meeting of this year, I want to ask the councilors to give a rising vote of thanks for the way that the President of this Body has conducted himself in the past year.

(There was a rising vote of thanks to President Kelly.)

President KELLY—I want to thank the members of the City Council. It has been a pleasure to preside over the meetings of this year's Council, the 1946 Council. When you elected me the first of this year, I made one promise to you, that I would be fair to each and every member of the City Council. I feel within my own heart I have kept my word with each one of you. If I ruled anybody out of order, I was only trying to uphold the rules of the Boston City Council. In conclusion, I want to thank each and every one of you. It has been a pleasure to have served you. I wish to all of you and the members of your families a Happy New Year.

Adjourned, on motion of Councilor Chase, at 9.23 p. m., to meet on Monday, January 6, 1947, at 1.45 p. m.

No. 11

MAYOR CURLEY REPLIES TO CRITICS OF BOSTON ON MATTERS OF RACIAL PREJUDICE AND ANSWERS GOVERNOR ELLIS ARNALL ON THE ATTITUDE OF BOSTON TO OTHER CITIZENS—HE ALSO CITES THE FACT AND NAMES MEMBERS OF THE NEGRO RACE WHO ARE APPOINTEES OF HIS AND OF OTHER OFFICIALS TO PROMINENT POSITIONS—INFORMS WRITERS WHO SOUGHT INFORMATION THROUGH QUESTIONNAIRES THAT BOSTON IS COSMOPOLITAN AND HAS NO SPIRIT OF INTOLERANCE SUCH AS HAS BEEN SOUGHT TO BE DISCLOSED.

In recent weeks Mayor James M. Curley has received several communications from various sections of the South and from New York City making inquiries as to Boston's attitude toward minority racial groups, especially members of the Negro race and the Jewish faith. His Honor has replied to these in characteristic forthright and courageous style. In his replies Mayor Curley has pointed out with a sense of pride the fact that there have been no race riots in Boston involving the Negro or any other race; that there is a spirit of tolerance pervading the City of Boston and the State of Massachusetts that many other commonwealths and municipalities might emulate.

The Mayor also has replied to a letter of a friend in Georgia who deplored the attacks on the City of Boston as contained in the book recently published under the imprint of Governor Ellis Arnall. In the replies Mayor Curley has cited the facts that Massachusetts has elected a member of the Negro race to the Legislature; that the Governor's Council has a secretary who is a member of the Negro race; that in his office is an assistant secretary of the same group, while attached to his office as Editor of the City Record is another member of the group, whom Mayor Curley first appointed when he took office for his second term in 1922, and who has held the editorial position ever since. Also in other branches of the City Government are members of all citizen groups, giving their best loyal services to the municipality.

In these instances Mayor Curley has called attention to the spirit of tolerance that pervades Boston and the fact that here everyone has the opportunities accorded to all citizens without regard to race, creed, or color. The Mayor also cites the fact that in many other public positions, state, municipal, and national, there is no distinction made against employment because of race or national origin.

The letters and their replies follow:

BROOKHAVEN, GEORGIA,
December 12, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston, Massachusetts.

DEAR SIR,— Enclosed you will find a clipping from the Atlanta Constitution dated as above.

Sir, I read the filthy remarks this so-called Governor Ellis Arnall remarked about your beautiful city, and I do very much admire you for your stand in defense of your wonderful city.

Sir, there are times in a man's life that his position "swells" one's head, and it is sometimes compulsory that we good Americans calm such "swell" heads down, just like you did.

I am 42 years of age and do not recall any instance where Boston, Massachusetts, has any so-called "Nazism" or troublemakers. One of the finest companys of them all is located right in Boston, Massachusetts, the people who control the United Shoe Machinery Corporation, some of my friends, and I do not appreciate anyone making remarks about my friends' city.

Before closing, sir, I wish to ask that you do not include me in having anything to say about Boston, a great city, full of wonderful people, and a dad-blame good Mayor.

Thanking you, sir, I remain,

J. B. SALES,

3988 Peachtree Road,
Brookhaven, Georgia.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE.

December 16, 1946.

MR. J. B. SALE.

3988 Peachtree Road,
Brookhaven, Georgia.

DEAR MR. SALE.—I wish to thank you for your letter of December 12th, and for the kindly expressions which you conveyed concerning the City of Boston and its Mayor.

We harbor no ill will against the good people of Georgia, merely because your Governor, the Honorable Ellis Arnall, may have made a few unwise remarks which cast undeserved aspersions against us.

It is our hope that we may maintain the friendliest of relations with the citizens of all our Sister Cities in this free and glorious land of ours.

A cordial welcome awaits all who visit our fair and historic municipality. Far from being a seat of intolerance, we are rather proud of our liberality, which recognizes neither race, nor creed, nor color. We try to be true Americans.

Good luck to you!

Sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MAYOR.

Boston, Mass.

DEAR SIR.—Since the war is over, I should like for you to give me some information about race riots in your city.

What caused the riots? Did the Negro or white cause the riots? How many Negroes were killed or injured? How many whites were killed or injured? Did southern white men start the riots? Or take part in it? How many people were estimated to have had a part in the riots? Negro? White? How was the riot settled?

How do the masses of northern white people accept the Negro politically, socially, and economically?

Yours very truly,

JOHN B. MASON.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE.

MR. JOHN B. MASON.

Emerson Public Schools,
Emerson, Arkansas.

DEAR MR. MASON.—I have been directed by his Honor James M. Curley, Mayor of Boston, to reply to your recent letter making inquiry concerning race riots in this city.

Happily, Boston has had no race riots and conditions are such that there is no likelihood of there ever being any.

As to the attitude of our people toward Negroes, I might add that Boston has Negro policemen, a Negro has just been elected to the Massachusetts Legislature from Boston, the Secretary of the Governor's Council is a Negro, one of the Mayor's secretaries is a Negro, and the editor of our "City Record" is a Negro.

We are rather proud of our liberality, which recognizes neither race, nor creed, nor color.

Very truly yours,

WENDELL D. HOWIE,

AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS.

Commission on Law and Social Action,
212 West 50th Street, New York 19, N. Y.

November 25, 1946.

To the Mayor of the City of Boston,
Boston, Mass.

DEAR SIR.—The Commission on Law and Social Action of the American Jewish Congress is undertaking the collection, compilation and analysis of all municipal ordinances and regulations which in any way relate to the problems of racial or religious discrimination and group tensions. Many of our cities have laws of which the country at large is totally unaware and which are used for the purpose of combating discrimination and creating better understanding between all racial and religious groups. For example, many cities have laws relating to the distribution of racist or discriminatory literature or the publication of discriminatory advertisements. Some cities have municipal FEPC ordinances outlawing discrimination in employment, either public or private. Others have laws relating to discrimination in insurance and education. Many have laws prohibiting discrimination in theaters, hotels, restaurants and other places of public accommodation, amusement or resort. In addition, many communities have committees on race relations established by ordinance, charged with the task of relieving group tensions in the community.

In order that our compilation may be complete, we respectfully request that you advise us as to any of such laws presently in force in your city and send us two copies of such ordinances. Through your cooperation we will have available a ready source of information for other communities which desire to adopt legislation similar to that presently in existence in many of our cities. We may also publish a compilation of such material for distribution throughout the country.

May we urge your prompt cooperation in this survey?

Sincerely yours,

WILL MASLOW.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE.

December 10, 1946.

WILL MASLOW, Esq.,

American Jewish Congress, Commission on Law and Social Action, 212 West 50th St., New York, N. Y.

DEAR MR. MASLOW.—I am replying to your recent letter in which you requested information relative to any ordinances of the City of Boston pertaining specifically to the problem of racial or religious discrimination and group tensions.

After receipt of your letter I instructed the Law Department to make an examination of our municipal ordinances and to submit a report to me. I have this day received a report from the office of the Corporation Counsel which discloses that our City Council has not enacted any ordinance specifically covering the above-mentioned problems.

One reason for the failure to find such remedial ordinances in this city must be attributed to the many restrictions placed upon the ordinance-making power of the City Council by the State Legislature. You will find, no doubt, that in some cities and towns which have enacted ordinances specifically covering the problems of racial or religious discrimination and group tensions are municipalities which have been granted a considerable degree of autonomy by their state legislatures. Unfortunately, the City of Boston does not enjoy such a measure of "home rule."

The Legislature this year, however, placed on the statute books of Massachusetts, An Act Providing for a Fair Employment Law, which specifies that "The right to work without discrimination because of race, color, religious creed, national origin or ancestry is hereby declared to be a right and privilege of the inhabitants of the commonwealth."

As this law is now in operation, and a Massachusetts Fair Employment Practice Commission has been set up to carry out its provisions, I am sending you herewith a copy of this statute.

With every good wish for the success of your program, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

His Honor the Mayor received the following letter, which is in answer to his letter of December 31.

January 4, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—Your letter of December 31, with the suggestion of a football relationship between Boston College and Notre Dame, I am happy to acknowledge. There are, as you know, many points that must enter into the consideration of such a suggestion. I am, accordingly, sending your letter to the Reverend John H. Murphy, C.S.C., Vice-President of the University and Chairman of the Faculty Board in control of athletics. Father Murphy will be pleased to take up your letter some time later in the month at a meeting of the Faculty Board. The matter can be discussed by the Board, and I shall be pleased to receive its recommendation.

You are very kind to take an interest in the matter and I assure you of my appreciation.

For the New Year I wish you every personal blessing and assure you of my kind regards.

Sincerely,

REV. JOHN J. CAVANAUGH, C.S.C.,

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 26, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR.—On September 25, 1946, your Honor approved a contract for repairs to the Albany Street Disposal Station to Fred J. Wallace, 13 Hinckley street, Somerville, the low bidder on a publicly advertised bid.

During the course of the work, it has been found that further repairs and work are necessary on the runways and guard rails, due to the unsafe condition of the structures, for which no provision was made in the aforesaid contract.

This work will have to be done in conjunction with that contemplated under the original contract, and it is, therefore, a practical impossibility for another contractor to do this work.

Your approval is requested to issue an extra work order to Fred J. Wallace, 13 Hinckley street, Somerville, for doing this work at a cost not to exceed nineteen hundred (1,900) dollars.

The work to be done is as follows:

Complete gap between runways, estimated cost, $800; clean out under runways, estimated cost, $300; install guard rails, estimated cost, $700; install stairs, estimated cost, $100. Total, $1,900.

Respectfully,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 12, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—Your approval is requested to purchase, without publicly advertising, four (4) White Super Power Motor Trucks equipped and delivered as follows:

Enclosed coupe type cab, 362 cubic-inch engine, additional mirror, additional windshield wipers, radiator grille, 1100 x 20 tires, single front and dual rear, air brakes, 282C heavy duty rear axle, 40 ampere generators, cab lights, Model WB-22-AS chassis.

The firm price is $5,384.55 each unit, total, $21,538.20.

The White Motor Company, 930 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, guaranteed delivery on or before January 1, 1947. Due to present conditions, it is extremely difficult to secure a guarantee for definite, delivery and quotations giving firm prices.

For these reasons and also that the trucks will be available for snow removal this winter, it is respectfully requested that I be given approval to award a contract to the White Motor Company.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, December 12, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to William C. Keliher, 34 Midway street, Boston, Mass., for furnishing 20,000 pillow cases at a price of 35 cents each, the allocation to be as follows:

10,000 pillow cases to Boston City Hospital; 5,000 pillow cases to Institutions Department, Long Island; 5,000 pillow cases to Penal Institutions, Deer Island.

There is, at the present time, a very definite shortage of these items in the various city institutions due to the inability to secure same from any source.

I respectfully request that the permission asked for above be granted me. The approximate amount of the contract is $7,000.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, December 13, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—It is requested that permission be granted me to award an order, without public advertisement, to the Harper-Wallins Corporation, 395 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, for furnishing to the Boston City Hospital the following items:

Twelve packages 14 by 17 X-ray film, $561.60; twenty-four packages 10 by 12 X-ray film, $564; total, $1,125.60.

The Boston City Hospital, due to an emergency, needed these X-ray films immediately and, therefore, ordered them direct from the Harper-Wallins Corporation.

For this reason, the above request for permission to award is made.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, December 13, 1946.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, December 17, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to Willys-Boston, Inc., 1045 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, for furnishing to the Water Service, Public Works Department, two (2) Universal jeeps, Model CJ-2A, complete with Schramm compressors, Model 60, with the following extra equipment in addition to the standard equipment at a price of $8,000 each:

The above price is an extremely low one for this type of equipment and delivery can be made to the Public Works Department within one week. The Public Works Commissioner, after thorough examination, strongly recommends the purchase of these two vehicles.

Since Willys-Boston, Inc., are the manufacturers, no advantage would be gained through the medium of public advertisement.

The total amount of the contract will be $3,987.82 net.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

SUFFOLK COUNTY (Court House).

BOSTON, December 5, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MAYOR CURLEY.—Your approval is hereby requested for the award of a contract without advertising to the Otis Elevator Company for the complete maintenance and servicing of the ten signal control passenger elevators in the Suffolk County Court House in service continuously during court house hours, for the year beginning January 1, 1947, and also including the required annual drop test, and the replacement of all parts; and in addition to include monthly supervisory inspection of three intermittently-operated passenger elevators at the Court House and of two electric book lifts; including also the annual drop test for these, at a monthly charge of $918 or $11,016 a year.

All of the ten continuously-operated signal control passenger elevators, the three other elevators used intermittently for passengers, and the two electric book lifts, were manufactured and installed by the Otis Elevator Company, and the Court House Commission believes that nothing will be obtained by advertising for the foregoing service, particularly with existing and increasing difficulties in procuring mechanical parts for repair and replacement of complicated mechanisms unless in stock by the manufacturer of the particular machines.

A similar contract for maintaining and servicing with the Otis Elevator Company has been in satisfactory operation at the Court House for the calendar year 1946.

Respectfully yours,

SUFFOLK COUNTY COURT HOUSE
COMMISSION,

ARNO I. DREW, Chairman.

BOSTON, December 5, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MAYOR CURLEY.—Because of the satisfactory service rendered over a period of years by the Federal National Linen Service Co., Inc., of Boston in supplying towel service to the Suffolk County Court House the Court House Commission believes that it would be for the best interest of the City of Boston and the County of Suffolk to continue this service with the Federal National Linen Service Co., Inc., for the fiscal year of 1947, and requests your authority for awarding a contract without advertising to the Federal National Linen Service

Co., Inc., for the calendar year of 1947, on the basis of supplying one thousand towels weekly at a monthly charge of $150 or a total of $1,800 a year.

The deliveries and collections of towels at the Suffolk County Court House have been made without bickering with employees as to replacements. The Federal National Linen Service Co., Inc., owns the towels, bears the losses and replacements, and guarantees the suitability of the towels furnished, and undertakes to save the owner from any claims arising through the performance of the service.

Respectfully yours,

SUFFOLK COUNTY COURT HOUSE
COMMISSION,

ARNO I. DREW, Chairman.

BOSTON, December 5, 1946.

The aforesaid company carries the required Public Liability and Workmen's Compensation with the Employers' Liability Assurance Company, Limited, of Boston.

The W. C. Holmes Cleaning Company, has the necessary equipment and the "know-how" to perform this service with the least possible disturbance to daily functions at the Court House.

Respectfully yours,

SUFFOLK COUNTY COURT HOUSE
COMMISSION,

ARNO I. DREW, Chairman.

(Short recess.)

Chairman LANE—The City Council will come to order.

Members of the Council, invited and honored guests, I am pleased to present His Honor James M. Curley, Mayor of Boston, who will now deliver his annual address. His Honor Mayor Curley.

ANNUAL ADDRESS OF HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, MAYOR OF BOSTON.

Gentlemen of the City Council:

The problems that have confronted us during the past year, that have tested our ingenuity, intelligence and courage, while appearing monumental have in reality been infinitesimal as contrasted with the greater and all-absorbing problems confronting our beloved country and the world.

In two other periods like the present one, the prayers of the people of America went out to the individual filling the most important position in the gift of heaven, the Presidency of the United States, one, General George Washington, and the other, Abraham Lincoln. No individual studying the lives of these two great men can arrive at any other conclusion than that they were inspired by Almighty God and were in reality the instruments of a divine purpose,—one, the freedom of the people of America, and the other, emancipation of all people, regardless of race, creed or color, not only in America, but throughout the world. Despite their exalted mission and devotion to their ideals they were the subjects, too frequently, of the venom, malice and hatred of those who did not understand or refused to understand the motives prompting their action.

At the present time, in our National Capitol, we have a man serving as head of this nation, perhaps better fortified with legislative experience than either Washington or Lincoln, and animated and actuated by the same ideals that prompted Lincoln and Washington to fight on, regardless of criticism or condemnation until success crowned their efforts.

For thousands of years good women and men representing every race, creed and clime have labored unceasingly, but unsuccessfully, for the establishment of a system through which the shedding of blood for the settlement of international differences might be at an end. This plain American, who now presides over the destinies of our nation, has dedicated his life to the solution of the problem that has baffled the ablest, wisest and most powerful forces from the beginning of the world, namely, a permanent peace based on spiritual and economic justice for all the people of the world. I have an abiding faith in the belief that the peoples of the world, as a whole, favor permanent world peace, and the accomplishment of this great objective is far more desired by President Harry S. Truman than his re-election as President of the United States. I, likewise, am firmly of the belief that, in the event of permanent peace becoming a reality through his leadership, courage and persistence, he will not only be re-elected President of the United States, but will take rank in the history of our country and in the hearts of the peoples of the world as a worthy associate of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

The stupendous character of the accomplishment to which he has dedicated his life and best efforts through the Providence of God is destined to become a reality and every individual in America and throughout the world may well say a prayer to Almighty God for the success of his efforts.

I recall discussing with Admiral Chocheprat, Commander of the French Navy, how it was possible to win the Battle of the Marne, during the first war, thereby bringing to a halt the mad march of the victorious Army of Kaiser Wilhelm. Admiral Chocheprat stated to me that he discussed this question with Marshal Joffre on the morning of the Battle of the Marne, just before the drive of the allied forces began.

The Admiral stated that he knew Marshal Joffre had been estranged from his church for a period of seven years and he said to him, "Have you done everything that can be done to win the battle?" The reply of Marshal Joffre was, "Everything, men, munitions. We are stopping the central empires here, or Paris will be taken and the war will be lost." Admiral Chocheprat said to him,

"Have you said a prayer to Almighty God for the success of allied arms?" Marshal Joffre replied, "I have not prayed in seven years, I will pray now." He knelt in the mud which was almost knee deep, for several minutes in a reverential attitude, then arose and gave orders for hostilities to begin. It was not the esprit de corps of allied arms, it was not the superior character of our arms, it was the fact that a simple prayer from a great man on earth had been heard at the Throne by a Greater Man on High, and it represented to my mind an exemplification of supreme faith unequalled in the history of the world.

That same faith is today exemplified in the leader of our nation, President Harry S. Truman, and those associated with him, and a simple prayer by all who are listening in may yet be heard and permanent peace become a reality.

Our local municipal problems appeared almost insurmountable one year ago. Yet, today, with faith in God and faith in ourselves, they are gradually being overcome. Fortunately or unfortunately, it has been my lot to take over the destinies of this fair city during four periods of great stress and to have succeeded by that same simple faith in accomplishing what appeared a difficult, if not impossible task.

First, in the period from 1914 to 1917 marking the first world war; second, in 1922 to 1926, when the streets were thronged with those who had gone forth for the preservation of liberty in the world and who were without opportunity for employment other than that of the most menial character, and who were threatened with the possibility of permanently becoming mendicants. In that period, public works were instituted to provide them with employment and the difficulties which appeared insurmountable were overcome.

In 1930, I again became your Mayor at a period when, to preserve the financial security of our nation, it became necessary to close all the banks, and in nearly every American city establish soup kitchens and bread lines. Happily, in our city, due to courage and vision, we emerged at the end of the period of the financial debacle with the proud distinction of being the only city in America that had neither bread lines nor soup kitchens during the period of depression, and without any measurable increase in the tax rate which would have imposed an added burden on those already overburdened.

I returned to the office of the Mayor in 1946 to find a city that, due in some measure to reconstruction and reconversion made necessary by the greatest war in the history of the world, plus the incompetence and inefficiency of those charged with the responsible duty of administering public affairs for the welfare of the people, was in a worse condition than at any previous time in its history.

The first year of my fourth term as Mayor has ended and as the New Year opens, we can point with pride and satisfaction to these outstanding accomplishments of 1946:

1. A tax rate below that of 1945.
2. The net funded debt of the city reduced to the lowest level since 1925 despite liberal provisions for veterans' housing and plant reconstruction and expansion.
3. All outstanding tax title loans paid off and the temporary debt of the city reduced from eight million dollars as of December 31, 1945, to two million dollars as of December 31, 1946.
4. The accumulated cash deficit of the city, which reached a record high of twenty-three million dollars on December 31, 1937, reduced as of December 31, 1946, to below two million dollars.
5. The best record of tax collections achieved in the history of the city.
6. A substantial surplus realized in the operations of the water service despite a twenty per cent reduction made in water rates.
7. The highest surplus achieved in the thirteen years of operation of the Sumner Traffic Tunnel.
8. The demoralized municipal services inherited from my predecessors restored to a high order of efficiency and economy.

In the light of these definite achievements, I come before you at your opening session in the New Year to state with certainty, that provided we have faith in God, faith in ourselves, and faith in our city, we are destined to achieve a higher destiny, industrially and commercially, than ever before realized in the history of our fair city.

Today I am asking your cooperation in the establishment of advanced scales of compensation for all employees whose salaries and wages are regulated within the city and county budgets. In every age, the "Little People" have always been the principal sufferers from economic upheavals and inflationary spirals. With a view to relieving the "Little People" in the city and county service, I am providing in the 1947 budget a general compensation advance in keeping with the increase in living costs as well as the financial limitations of the city. Due to the vicious circle in which we are enmeshed it must be apparent to every fair-minded individual that this course was necessary, if an honest day's work is to be given by the employees of the city. I have always contended that persons receiving a wage that is just, can be relied upon to return a fair equivalent, which can never be secured from an underpaid officer, or the individual that labors under the impression that he has been dealt with unfairly and unjustly. I subscribe to what has been so well said by Victor Hugo in "Les Misérables," when he stated, "I weep with you for the princesses murdered in the tower, but you weep with me for the children of the people, they have suffered longest." And so with the "Little People," as well as the great ones,

I have given—paid compensation for the salary increases—efficiently.

As we stand at the beginning of the new year, it is apparent that our city is in a position in this great Commonwealth to meet the additional budgetary requirements of increased salaries and expansions in government services. Prominent officials have been quoted in the Press as stating that substantial increases in tax rates will be required to meet these increased costs and that many communities face the possibility of $50 and $60 tax rates. These reductions may be realized if our local subdivisions are afforded no measure of relief by the state. I am hopeful, however, that the new administration on Beacon Hill will take heed of action initiated by Governors in other states of this Union and thus assure the enactment of laws and measures which will produce substantial relief for real estate.

In at least fourteen states of the Union, non-partisan and non-political commissions have been appointed by the Governors to consider among other matters the place of the state in aiding local units of government. In the reports of these commissions filed to date, there is a general agreement on the conclusion that the state, with its greater resources and greater taxing powers, is in a far better position to raise the additional revenues required to meet post-war rehabilitation and reconstruction costs. The outstanding accomplishment in this respect has undoubtedly occurred in the neighboring State of New York where early last year the Legislature accepted the report of the commission appointed by Governor Dewey in 1944 and enacted legislation stabilizing the distribution of state-collected taxes and revenues to local communities on a per capita basis as well as providing for the reimbursement to local communities of all welfare disbursements in excess of twenty per cent. Under these two measures, twelve and one half million dollars in additional revenue were distributed by the State of New York to its local communities in 1946 and the local welfare burden throughout the state was reduced twenty-one million dollars. In the State of Maryland, the recommendations of the Governor's Commission on distribution of tax revenues, if adopted by this year's Legislature, will result in an estimated increased distribution of roughly, twelve million eight hundred thousand dollars in state revenues to local communities.

In other states, notably New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Maryland, cities and towns have been given the right to originate revenue-producing measures other than taxation upon real estate. New York City, admittedly a democratic stronghold, was authorized last year by a Republican Governor and Legislature to establish for a three-year period a four-point new revenue program with an estimated annual return of sixty-seven million dollars to the City of New York alone. Philadelphia, since 1939, has levied with legislative approval an earned income tax, generally called the Wage or Pay Roll Tax. In 1945, actual receipts from this tax were slightly in excess of twenty-two million four hundred thousand dollars and it is estimated that for 1946 the receipts from this one item of revenue will exceed twenty-four million dollars. Baltimore, which last year was granted blanket power by the Maryland State Legislature to levy any new taxes it deemed necessary during the current emergency, has recently adopted four new revenue measures, the estimated receipts of which will yield four million five hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Toledo, in April, of last year, adopted an earned income tax which, it is estimated, will yield annually in excess of four million dollars.

Local government is the bulwark of democracy. In Massachusetts, where the spirit of democracy was cradled and nurtured, it is imperative in these uncertain times that the state exercise its sovereign rights and powers to establish a systematic state aid which will provide in an equitable manner for the needs of all units of government within the state. I am confident that under the leadership of the new Chief Executive of our beloved Commonwealth an intelligent and comprehensive program will be developed for augmenting the revenues of Massachusetts municipalities and thus relieve local officials of the necessity for imposing confiscatory levies on real estate.

It is gratifying to state that before this message was submitted to the printer on Friday, his Excellency, the newly-elected Governor, Honorable Robert F. Bradford, in his inaugural message, set forth that it was his purpose, as Governor, to recommend the appointment of a commission similar to those now functioning in fourteen states of the Union, for the relief of the cities and towns of the Commonwealth, and I am quite certain that the members of the General Court will be found supporting this constructive and forward-looking program so essential to the salvation of the cities and towns of Massachusetts.

When I took over the office of Mayor last January, it was to discover what I had inherited, namely, a colossal and apparently almost insurmountable task of restoring the city, and of correcting the mistakes that in long years of absolute disregard for the safety, security and welfare of the people by my predecessors during a period of twelve long years. It was my intention to burden you with a general outline of what has been accomplished as this purpose that each department head of the city shall submit a report as to actual conditions existing on January 1, 1946, in their respective departments, and what has been accomplished to the present time.

Suffice to say that the Health Department has been reorganized for the welfare and protection of the people and that the good work already underway shall continue unabated until Boston once more becomes the most healthful city in the world in which to labor and live.

The Fire Department, due to neglect and petty politics, from being one of the best departments of its kind in the world had reached the stage where obsolete apparatus not only frequently failed to reach the fire to which it was called upon to respond, but upon reaching the fire was unable to render the service it should render. The fire quarters in which the men were housed were in a condition of decay, a menace to the health and safety of the men in the service and unsuited either for men or apparatus.

To overcome these glaring deficiencies, orders were placed during 1946, for fifty-four new pieces of apparatus involving an approximate expenditure of five hundred and fifty thousand dollars. In addition, appropriations totaling seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars have been provided for repairs and alterations to eight existing stations and for the construction of three new fire houses. In my 1947 budget recommendations to be submitted to your Honorable Body at a later date, an initial appropriation of roughly one million dollars will be provided to permit the employment of five hundred additional members of the Fire Fighting Force of the department so as to carry out the mandate of the people expressed at the election of last November that the working hours of the members of this department shall not, on the average, exceed forty-eight hours per week.

In order to meet the ever-increasing demands of the Boston City Hospital, a program was initiated during 1946, calling for the ultimate expenditure of five million dollars to provide for the construction of a new surgical building and a new nurses' home. With a view to providing a small measure of relief to persons on the danger list and not in a position to receive proper nursing care, I assigned my congressional salary, amounting to over ten thousand dollars to the City Hospital to provide this nursing care for those unable to pay and who were in need of specialized nursing service.

At Long Island, certain buildings had been abandoned because of the condition of the structures due to absolute neglect and disregard for a period of twelve years. Buildings have been restored and provision has been made for the establishment of a hospital for chronic cases which will greatly relieve the Boston City Hospital at present overburdened with chronic cases, thus preventing acute cases from receiving the attention they should receive.

New boats have been purchased, for use by the Fire Service and by the Long Island Hospital, from the Federal Government at a cost of ninety-three thousand dollars, and which represented a cost to the Federal Government in the vicinity of two million dollars.

The primary functions of a city are the care of its sick, the prevention of disease and the protection of lives and property from the ravages and ruin of conflagration, and to these matters I have directed my first attention.

I am reminded in this connection of what was so well said by the emancipator, Abraham Lincoln, at a trying period in the life of the nation:—

"If I were trying to read, much less answer all the attacks made on me, this shop might well be closed for any other business. I do the best I know how, the very best I can; and I mean to keep on doing it to the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me will not amount to anything, if the end brings me out all wrong, ten angels, swearing I was right would make no difference."

The work of reconstruction, reconversion and rehabilitation upon which we embarked at the beginning of 1946 must continue, and as the custodians of a glorious past and great heritage, it is clearly our duty to so work and achieve, that when our labors are ended, all may in truth say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servants."

Thank you! (Applause.)

Chairman LANE—Thank you, Mr. Mayor, for your most interesting, enlightening and informative address.

The Mayor withdrew from the Council Chamber at this point, escorted by Councilors Scannell and Moriarty.

Chairman LANE—A brief recess will follow, until the two departed councilors return in a few minutes.

(Short recess.)

Chairman LANE—The Council will be in order. The Chair awaits the pleasure of the Body.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL.

Coun. COFFEY—I make a motion we now proceed with the election of the President for 1947.

Chairman LANE—Councilor Coffey makes a motion that we now proceed with the election of a President for 1947. Councilor Cook,—for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. COOK—Are we to be informed as to the accuracy of the city record, calling it to the attention of those who keep the account that they should be more careful? In looking over page 9 of the City Council records of the election last year, unless I have lost my eyesight or ability to count, our President was elected with 9 ballots. I would like that changed now and corrected.

Chairman LANE—The Chair will declare it was a mistake in printing. Councilor Cook, your thought is not debatable at this time. A motion is before the Chair to proceed with the election of a President, and the clerk will call the roll. Councilor Hannon,—for what purpose does the councilor rise?

Coun. HANNON—To talk. Mr. President, in aspiring to the office of councilor, there is no doubt about it but that each and every one of the twenty-two of us entered into a contest, and that twenty-two of us who are now here were successful. In that contest undoubtedly we were forced to place our qualifications against the qualifications of each and every other candidate, and each one of us thought that he had qualifications enough to offer himself as a candidate to the people, and each and every one of us assured the people of his respective district that if he was fortunate enough to be elected, he would get on his feet and fight the fight of the people of his district. Undoubtedly, most of us have carried out that promise. Undoubtedly, today, too, some will say, "Gee, I wish he would keep quiet. Can't we get this over with?" And I suppose if I was one of the lucky ten or twelve who were called down and whispered to, undoubtedly, I would do the same thing. But, unfortunately or otherwise, I happen to be one of those who goes his own way and tries to do what he thinks is best for Ward 13. Now, understand me, I have no ill feeling against anybody in the Council. I have been in politics for a long while, and I have had many victories and I have had many defeats, and whether in victory or in defeat, I have always prided myself on the fact that I could walk along with my hat on my head, and I did not have to be ashamed to speak to anybody. I don't find fault with his Honor in many respects, and I have gone along with him year in and year out, not merely here but up in the Legislature when the going was often tougher, when a vote one way or the other would cause him defeat or the passage of sums amounting to millions of dollars. I would give his Honor the doubt. He told me out and out what was what; he did not jump, he did not cringe. He told me he was going along with the man who is in there. That is good enough for me, and apparently it is good enough for him. I find no fault with him going along with anybody. The fault does not lie with him. The fault lies right up here. The fault lies with the people who are going to vote. When each of us sought election, we asked the people of the district to vote for us because each one of us professed he was the best qualified of the various candidates. We up here now are electing somebody else. We are electing somebody to represent us. There is no doubt about it, each one of the twenty-two of us is not just as capable as the other fellow, and yet, doesn't the same duty fall upon us as falls upon the common electorate? Aren't we supposed, too, to use our God-given intelligence? Aren't we supposed, too, to weigh the qualifications and the merits of each and every candidate? Let us not kid ourselves. Any one of the twenty-two up here would be proud to be President of this Body. It would not be human to be otherwise, and each and every one would gladly grasp the honor if we could reach for it, and each and every one of us is equally entitled to it. I have had the honor in the past, and I appreciate it and I remember it, and I stepped aside and nominated another man who had rendered equally good service, and I moved that he be elected to succeed me. However, we know that each and every one of us is not going to have the opportunity to be elected President and, therefore, for two or three reasons the duty devolves upon us even more so than upon the electorate itself to vote for that man who is best qualified. It is our choice. It is not his Honor the Mayor's and it is not any of his lieutenants' choice. It is the choice of each and every councilor in here, and each and every councilor has the duty and the task and the solemn pledge even of voting for the man who is best qualified. Each one of us has certain qualifications. Each one of us certainly is able to read and write. Each one of us undoubtedly is able to talk. Each one of us without any question is capable of presenting orders and of reasoning matters to a just conclusion. But this is one day in the year when we are called upon to do something that reflects credit or discredit upon each and every one of us for the ensuing 359 days. We are called upon here to pick one amongst us, one from among twenty-two who have been called by the people. We are called upon to pick one of our own today, one of us, one who will reflect credit upon us. It is a great honor to be President of this Body, and it is an honor that not everybody here is going to be permitted to share. Why should it not be passed around? Why, then, should not somebody else be given that honor? Why, then, should we not vote as we ask people to vote for us on primary and election day,—vote for the man who is best qualified? What qualifications should we look for in the President of this Body? Certainly, first of all, he should be a man of education. Everybody here has certain abilities. Everybody here has certain schooling. But there are others who have gone further, either in the business world or in the professional world. There are some here who have more special qualifications than others. I think first of all in a President we should have a man of exceptional educational qualifications, whether that education be acquired in the world of schools or in the world of business.

Certainly, the man should be of high educational standard. This year, beyond other years even, the presidency of this Council might mean far more than it has meant. Many of us, all of us practically, have knowledge of what is in the wind. What are they going to do to the City of Boston Charter? What are they going to do to the City Council? We have discredited ourselves by our wrangling, by our continued discussions, by our constant late sessions. Wouldn't it be better if we had a man in the Chair who had more legislative experience? Wouldn't it be better if we had a man presiding over this Body who had some standing in the State House? Wouldn't it be better if we had a man as President of this Council who has been in the Legislature, a man who could go up there and if possible present our case and, if possible, too, receive further and greater consideration not only for the City of Boston Charter but also for the Boston City Council?

Then, further, as in the past, I always point with pride to many men in this Council. I point with pride to the gentleman from Ward 7 (Councilor Linehan), the gentleman from Ward 12 (Councilor Cook), the gentleman from Ward 10 (Councilor Carey), men who have had experience in business; to men like the gentleman from Ward 2 (Councilor Kinsella), the gentleman from Ward 1 (Councilor Coffey), who has been in the Legislature. Men who have gone through this know what it is to preside over a body and really can bring to that position some weight both in learning, experience and prestige. Further than that, I say we have here amongst us a man whom I have always greatly admired. When I was in the Legislature, he was kind enough to nominate me to be the Democratic floor leader; when I was fortunate enough to be elected to the Boston City Council, it was my good fortune to be able to nominate him for President of this august body. I refer, of course, to the gentleman from Ward 7, Councilor Linehan. I feel honestly and sincerely that he embodies in his character, he embodies in his person every qualification that one could possibly look for in a man who is to preside over this Body. Above and beyond that, this man, unwell though he was, offered himself to the service of his country and he left here, not merely as a councilor but as President of the Boston City Council. He gave that up, and enlisted in the service of his country. You and I and every politician have thought and hollered that the veteran should get back that which he has given up, and I say to you, if we ask it for other veterans, why not do it for ourselves? He gave up the presidency and went into the service. He is back here with us now. Last year we were assured that this was only a one-year hiatus and after that the veterans were to be recognized and the man who gave up his job was going to get it back again, but this year we come in and find out the hiatus has been stretched another year. The events that had been foreseen or had been predicted have not happened last year. They might happen this year, so they want to keep the same little group in power, keep them in for another year, and then if these ill events, the forebodings do not happen this year, we will come back again. Frank will sit downstairs with James Michael and everybody will be called down and get the old "kiss of death," "yes, boys, not five minutes more but one year more."

I know John B. Kelly. Johnnie and I used to be good friends—Councilor Kelly, pardon me. We used to be good friends. Last year I voted for Councilor Linehan and that deprived me of Councilor Kelly's friendship. The gentleman has never seen fit to speak to me since except when I bump into him in the elevator, despite the fact that in politics you are supposed to take your lickings as gracefully as you take a victory. We cannot all win, and the twenty-one of us very, very seldom are going to be behind the same man. I voted last year for Councilor Linehan, and I am voting for him again this year, and I say, with all due respect to the other twenty-one members of this Body, that we cannot vote for a man who is more capable, for a man who is better qualified. I know some may say, "Well, he has differed with the Mayor." True enough, he has differed, and that is what I like about him. He is not afraid of differing with him, and the times he has differed with him I felt he has differed because he honestly felt that he was right, and his Honor was wrong. His main difference has been over veterans' matters and veterans' affairs, and it was he, and he alone, who was responsible for the city obtaining permission to borrow $10,000,000 in order to provide proper housing facilities for the veterans of the City of Boston. This fellow, sick though he might be, has been on his feet and has fought a good fight. I say if we had half his guts we would stick together. This is our election, not the Mayor's, not Frank Kelly's. My vote goes to the man who is as well qualified, if not better, than any man in here, and that man is the man who relinquished the presidency of the Boston City Council in order to enter the service. He is back with us now, and I think he should be restored to the chair he gave up, and I mean Councilor Bob Linehan.

Chairman LANE—The question now is on the election of a President, and the clerk will call the roll. Will the members respond in a clear tone as their names are called?

The clerk called the roll, and the vote was as follows:

For Councilor Carey—Councilor Linehan—1.
For Councilor Cook—Councilor Madden—1.

For Councilor Kelly—Councilors Bryan, Cantwell, Coffey, Fish, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo, Scannell, Sullivan—12.

For Councilor Linehan—Councilors Bayley, Chase, Hannon, Keenan, Lane, Muchnick—6.
For Councilor Madden—Councilor Cook—1.
For Councilor Sullivan—Councilor Carey—1.

Chairman LANE—Councilor Kelly has 12 votes, and is elected President of the City Council for the year 1947. Councilor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I yield to Councilor Linehan.

Chairman LANE—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—I now move that the vote be made unanimous.

Chairman LANE—The Chair cannot accept that motion. You can change your own vote if you wish.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman LANE—Councilor Linehan asks unanimous consent to make a statement. Does the Chair hear any objection? No objection being voiced, Councilor Linehan may proceed.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President and fellow councilors, at the outset I want to thank the distinguished councilor from Ward 13 (Councilor Hannon) for the splendid endorsement he made for me in his nominating speech. It brings back to my mind the time I actually was a candidate just prior to going into the service in 1942. At that time I can honestly say there was no Mayor of Boston in back of me for the presidency of this Body. At no time during that election had I made any request to any councilor for his vote, and I can safely say here today, regardless of the splendid nominating speech by Councilor Hannon, I never at any time was actually a candidate because I never asked any councilor in here for a vote. It has been told to me on more than one occasion in the last week it was already in the bag, and certainly, rather than that, I took it for granted it was not in the bag. Before I close my remarks, I want to say to the men who voted for me, you certainly have a lot of guts, you have a lot of courage because you all know when you vote for Councilor Linehan you are taking an awful chance with the people downstairs, and certainly for that reason alone, being a politician, I realize you had to have faith in what is being done in your own district, and you were going to have a tough time when you voted for Linehan, even though you thought he was qualified for the job. Some of us realize that with politicians qualifications do not always prevail, but I will simply say this to the members who voted for me here today and also the other members, that I will continue to fight for honest, decent government in the City Council of Boston. I will be with the Mayor when he is right, but I will be against the Mayor and with the taxpayers when I think he is wrong. In conclusion, I want to extend to Councilor Kelly the best of good luck this year. As far as I am concerned, I will cooperate with him 100 per cent to see that this city is well represented in the City Council because I know in the coming year there will be the Plan E discussions, and if we do not all cooperate and be real democratic, we don't know that we will have a Council next year; we might not have twenty-two councilors in the near future. I hope for that reason alone we all get together and be a big, happy family. Thank you very much.

Chairman LANE—The Chair will appoint Councilors Coffey and McCormack to escort John B. Kelly, our new President for 1947, to the chair.

President KELLY in the chair.

President KELLY—Ladies and gentlemen, there is one thing I have always had in my life, and that is gratitude. I certainly appreciate being up here in this rostrum for the year 1947. I want to thank his Honor the Mayor for endorsing my candidacy, and I also want to thank the man who made it possible for me to first sit in this Council Chamber ten years ago, my brother Frank, and I also want to thank the members of the City Council for their kindness in re-electing me as their President for the year 1947, because by doing so the members have shown to me that I conducted matters as President of this Honorable Body in a fair and impartial manner. I am friendly with every member in this Body and have been friendly for ten years, and I will continue to remain on the best of friendly terms. I want to say in conclusion that I shall conduct the office of President of the Boston City Council in the same manner I conducted it in 1946, in a fair and impartial manner. Thank you very much. (Applause.)

The Chair recognizes Councilor Hurley.

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President, I think it is an honor conferred upon me to make a presentation to you. I want to say, Mr. President, that I hope you wield this gavel in the same fair, just and impartial manner you have used it in the past. I have observed you over the past year presiding over this Honorable Body and a lot of times I wondered how you could be so fair, bending backwards to be fair with all men in the Body. Therefore, Mr. President, I want to present you with this gavel, and once again will say you will continue the fine, just and fair work you have done in the past. (Applause.)

President KELLY—I want to thank Councilor Hurley for his kind remarks, and I will reiterate,

I will continue to conduct the office of President in a fair and impartial manner the same as I did last year.

VETO OF LICENSE TO SUTCLIFFE TRANSPORTATION COMPANY.

The following was received:

City of Boston.

Office of the Mayor, December 31 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without signature and disapproval, the vote of your Honorable Body of December 16, 1946, granting a license to the Sutcliffe Transportation Company to operate motor vehicles between the Airport and Copley Square.

The law, General Laws, chap. 159A, sec. 1 and 2) authorizing the City Council and the Mayor to license the use of the streets for the carrying of passengers by motor vehicles, provides that such vehicles shall operate only over a specific route set forth in the application and license, and that route cannot be varied from the license except in an emergency.

This is one of the most important provisions of the law, and it is only if it is strictly followed that the licensing of motor vehicles can be considered, the traffic conditions at the Airport and Copley Square approving any particular route.

The application of the City Council and the Mayor to license the use of the streets for the carrying of passengers by motor vehicles, provides that such vehicles shall operate only over a specific route set forth in the application and license, and that route cannot be varied from the license except in an emergency.

Whatever may be the ultimate object of the company, the license proposed amounts to a franchise to permit the buses of this company to roam at will over the streets of downtown Boston, picking up and discharging passengers, and there is no limit set to the number of vehicles which may be so used.

This non-compliance with the plain terms and intent of the statute is sufficient reason to require my disapproval of the license.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE MAYOR.

Subject to confirmation by the Council, the Mayor submitted the following appointments as constables without power to serve civil process and to serve without bond for term ending April 30, 1947, viz.:

Edward F. Collins, 330 Hyde Park avenue, Boston; James Finigan, 10 Burr street, Jamaica Plain.

President KELLY—Referred to the Committee on Constables and Confirmations.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Counselor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Is the committee standing?

President KELLY—The committee stands, but no members have been appointed. What do you have in mind?

Coun. SULLIVAN—If we are not going to appoint them today, it will be delayed, and I move you take it back from the committee and lay it on the table.

President KELLY—Counselor Sullivan makes a motion that this matter lay on the table for a week and be carried on the calendar at the next meeting. Counselor Russo?

Coun. RUSSO—I wonder if I am in order. Realizing that you have not appointed new committees, could the old committees stand temporarily until you select such committees or appoint such committees?

President KELLY—I am sorry, counselor, the old committees went out of existence. All those in favor say aye, those opposed no, it is a vote and so ordered. The matter is laid on the table to appear on next Monday's calendar.

December 28, 1946.

Mr. J. Joseph Connors,

Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—I return herewith order in City Council that the Commissioner of Public Works extend the white way on Huntington avenue, from Opera place to the Brookline line, and this will advise you that a survey will be made of the above-mentioned area by the Lighting Service of the Public Works Department with a view to improving existing conditions.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Placed on file.

INCREASED ANNUITIES TO WIDOWS OF CERTAIN POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 6, 1947.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am transmitting herewith a communication received by me today from the Corporation Counsel which would seem to be self-explanatory.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, January 6, 1947.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor.—You have forwarded to me the order passed by the City Council on October 14, 1946, requesting me to draft legislation "that will permit the City of Boston to change the amount of the annuity payable to widows of policemen and firemen, from the present $1,000 to $1,500 and to change the present allowance of $200 to children under the age of eighteen, to $300."

The annuities presently provided for by General Laws (Ter. Ed.) c. 32, s. 89, as amended, are the following:

"To the widow, so long as she remains unmarried, an annuity not exceeding one thousand dollars a year, increased by not exceeding two hundred and sixty dollars for each child of such deceased person during such time as such child is under the age of eighteen or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning; and if there is any such child and no widow or the widow later dies, such an annuity as would have been payable to the widow had there been one or had she lived, to or for the benefit of such child, or of such children in equal shares, during the time aforesaid; and, if there is any such child and the widow remarries, in lieu of the aforesaid annuity to her, an annuity not exceeding five hundred and twenty dollars to or for the benefit of each such child during the time aforesaid; and, if there is no widow and no such child, an annuity not exceeding one thousand dollars to or for the benefit of the father or mother of the deceased or to or for the benefit of an unmarried or widowed sister of the deceased with whom he was living at the time of his death, if such father, mother or sister was dependent upon him for support at the time of his death, during such time as such beneficiary is unable to support himself or herself and does not marry. . . . If such deceased person was a reserve or special policeman or a reserve or call fireman of a city or town and, at the time he was killed or at the time he received the injuries or underwent the hazard resulting in his death, was performing duty to which he was assigned or called as such policeman or fireman and for the performance of which he was entitled to compensation from said city or town, the total amount of all such annuities shall not exceed the annual rate of compensation payable to a regular or permanent member of the police or fire force thereof, as the case may be, for the first year of service therein, and if there are no regular or permanent members of the police or fire force thereof, as the case may be, said total amount shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars."

Enclosed is the draft of a bill which would increase these annuities by 50 per cent in accordance with the spirit of the City Council's order.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH A. SCOLPNETTI,
Corporation Counsel.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in General Court assembled:

The undersigned, citizens of respectively petition for the passage of the accompanying bill and/or for legislation increasing annuities to dependents of certain public employees killed or dying from injuries received or hazards undergone in the performance of duty, substantially as set forth in the accompanying bill, and for such other, further or similar legislation, if any, as may be necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes and objects referred to.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-Seven.

An Act increasing annuities to dependents of certain public employees killed or dying from injuries received or hazards undergone in the performance of duty.

Section eighty-nine of chapter thirty-two of the General Laws, as most recently amended by chapter six hundred and ninety-six of the acts of nineteen hundred and forty-five, is hereby further amended by striking out the first paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:—If a member of the police or fire force, or a forest warden, of a city or town, or a member of the department of public safety doing police duty, or an investigator or examiner of the registry of motor vehicles in the department of public works doing police duty, or an inspector, investigator or industrial relations adjuster in the department of labor and industries, or a prison officer or any technical employee of the department of public works or public health, of the metropolitan district commission, or of the division of metropolitan planning, included in class twenty-seven of rule four of the civil service rules, is killed, or dies from injuries received, or dies as a natural and proximate result of undergoing a hazard peculiar to his employment, while in the performance of his duty, and it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the appropriate public authority as hereinafter defined that such death was the natural and proximate result of an accident occurring, or of undergoing a hazard peculiar to his employment, while he was acting in the performance and within the scope of his duty, and a majority of the members of a board consisting of two physicians designated by the public authority hereinafter defined, and one physician to be designated by the commissioner of public health, shall certify to the treasurer of the body politic and corporate by which the compensation of such deceased person was payable, that the death was the natural and proximate result of the said injury or hazard, there shall, except as hereinafter provided, be paid out of the treasury of such body politic and corporate, to the following dependents of such deceased person the following annuities: To the widow, so long as she remains unmarried, an annuity not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars a year, increased by not exceeding three hundred and ninety dollars for each child of such deceased person during such time as such child is under the age of eighteen, or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning; and, if there is any such child and no widow or the widow later dies, such an annuity as would have been payable to the widow had there been one or had she lived, to or for the benefit of such child, or of such children in equal shares, during the time aforesaid; and, if there is any such child and the widow remarries, in lieu of the aforesaid annuity to her, an annuity not exceeding seven hundred and eighty dollars to or for the benefit of each such child during the time aforesaid; and, if there is no widow and no such child, an annuity not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars to or for the benefit of the father or mother of the deceased, or to or for the benefit of an unmarried or widowed sister of the deceased with whom he was living at the time of his death, if such father, mother or sister was dependent upon him for support at the time of his death, during such time as such beneficiary is unable to support himself or herself and does not marry. The members of said board to be designated by the public authority and the commissioner of public health, as aforesaid, shall be so designated within thirty days after the filing of an application for an annuity hereunder, and said members shall make their report within sixty days after their appointment. The total amount of all such annuities shall not, except as hereinafter provided, exceed the annual rate of compensation received by such deceased person at the date of his death. If such deceased person was a reserve or special policeman or a reserve or call fireman of a city or town and, at the time he was killed or at the time he received the injuries or underwent the hazard resulting in his death, was performing duty to which he was assigned or called as such policeman or fireman and for the performance of which he was entitled to compensation from said city or town, the total amount of all such annuities shall not exceed the annual rate of compensation payable to a regular or permanent member of the police or fire force thereof, as the case may be, for the first year of service therein, and if there are no regular or permanent members of the police or fire force thereof, as the case may be, said total amount shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars. The amount of any such annuity shall from time to time be determined within the limits aforesaid by the appropriate public authority as hereinafter defined.

Placed on file.

I respectfully recommend consideration and adoption of this order by your Honorably Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Auditing Department, January 6, 1947.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—It is customary to submit to the City Council at its first meeting in the New Year an order authorizing the issuance, as needed during the year, of temporary loans in anticipation of revenue receipts. Last year the maximum amount of temporary borrowing authorized by the Council was $40,000,000. I respectfully recommend that an order in this amount be submitted to the City Council for consideration and adoption.

Respectfully,
CHARLES J. FOX,
City Auditor.

Ordered, That to provide temporarily money to meet the appropriations for the financial year 1947, the City Treasurer be, and hereby is, authorized to issue and sell, at such times and in such amounts as he may deem best, notes or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston not exceeding $40,000,000 in the total, in anticipation of the revenue of the financial year; that all such notes or certificates of indebtedness be made payable with the interest thereon within one year of their date and bear interest from their date until the same are made payable at such rates as the City Treasurer and the Mayor may determine. The said City Treasurer is hereby further authorized to renew or refund any such notes issued for a shorter period than one year, under the provisions of section 17 of chapter 44 of the General Laws.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR FIRST FOUR MONTHS OF 1947.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, January 6, 1947.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under the provisions of section 3-A of the City Charter, City and County officers who are authorized to make expenditures in the period after the expiration of any fiscal year and before the regular appropriations have been made by the City Council are restricted in incurring liabilities during such interval for regular employees to an amount not exceeding in any one month the average monthly expenditure of the last three months of the preceding fiscal year. This limitation would make it impossible to carry out my plan to make the Emergency Compensation Allotment a part of the permanent salary, the authority for the payment of which expired on December 31, 1946, and also prevent employees from receiving the additional general increase in compensation.

In order to make the proposed increases effective as of January 1, 1947, I am forwarding herewith an order appropriating amounts which are estimated will provide for the Personal Service requirements for the various City, County and Revenue Departments for approximately the first four months of the current year. The balance of the appropriations for this purpose will be included in my budget recommendations to be submitted to your Honorable Body on or before the first Monday in February. In order that there may be no delay in the payment of the current pay rolls, I recommend immediate consideration and adoption of this order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the respective sums of money specified in the schedules hereinafter set out be, and hereby are, appropriated for the purposes hereinafter specified, said sums to be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston, and that all orders hereafter passed by the City Council relating to appropriations, taxes and the interest thereon, apply to the appropriations and taxes herein provided for; and that the expenditures for Revenue Departments be met from the income of such departments and that any expenditures in excess of the income be met from taxes.

President KELLY—The question now comes on the passage of the order.

Coun. BAYLEY—What is the order?

President KELLY—It is a partial appropriation to take care of salaries, councilor. I understand some employees who are supposed to get their pay today will not get it until tomorrow. The clerk will call the roll on the passage of the order.

The roll was called, and the order was given its first reading and passage, yeas 19, nays 0.

SALE OF LAND AT COMMONWEALTH AND CHESTNUT HILL AVENUES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 6, 1947.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—On September 9, 1946, your Honorable Body gave approval to the sale of a parcel of land at Commonwealth and Chestnut Hill avenues, containing approximately 66,762 square feet, at an upset price of $125,000. The Park Commission has previously declared that this land is no longer needed for park purposes.

I am now informed by the Chairman of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, who conducted the auction, that no bids were received at the minimum price of $125,000. He is of the opinion, however, that a sale of this land could be consummated if the price were reduced to $110,000.

In view of the fact that the initial sale price of this piece of land is not nearly as important as the use to be made of the land with its consequent source of annual income to the city, I favor the sale of the land at the price now suggested, that is, $110,000. I, therefore, recommend the passage of the accompanying order for the sale of the land at this price, at public auction.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Whereas, The City of Boston owns in fee a certain parcel of land containing approximately sixty-six thousand seven hundred sixty-two (66,762) square feet situate at the northwesterly corner of Commonwealth avenue and Chestnut Hill avenue in the Brighton district; and

Whereas, The said parcel of land is now in the custody, care and control of the Board of Park Commissioners of the City of Boston and the said Board of Park Commissioners have declared the said parcel of land is no longer required for any public purpose; now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That the Board of Park Commissioners of the City of Boston, be, and they hereby are, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to sell at public auction at an upset price of one hundred ten thousand dollars ($110,000) the aforesaid parcel of land, hereinafter described; and it is hereby further

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of the City of Boston be and he hereby is, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to execute and deliver to purchaser at said public auction a written instrument satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston conveying all the City of Boston's right, title and interest in and to said parcel of land, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the southwesterly line of Chestnut Hill avenue, thence running southeasterly by the southwesterly line of Chestnut Hill avenue, four hundred eighty-eight and 68 100 (488.68) feet; thence turning and running southeasterly and southwesterly by the southwesterly line of Chestnut Hill avenue, and the northerly line of Commonwealth avenue, thirty-three and 78-100 (33.78) feet in a radius of fifteen (Rad-15.00) feet; then running southwesterly by the northeasterly line of Commonwealth avenue, by two measurements, eighty-four and 26-100 (84.26) feet in a radius of one hundred ninety (Rad-190.00) feet and three hundred ninety-three and 61-100 (393.61) feet in a radius of two thousand four hundred (Rad-2,400.00) feet; thence turning and running northeasterly to the point of beginning by lands now or formerly of Grace D. Allen and William S. Heath, by two measurements, forty-nine and 65-100 (49.65) and one hundred seventy-six and 96-100 (176.96) feet, respectively.

Containing sixty-six thousand seven hundred sixty-two (66,762) square feet of land, more or less. Said parcel of land and all of said measurements are shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Commonwealth avenue and Chestnut Hill avenue, Brighton, June 1, 1914, F. O. Whitney, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department." The original of said plan is on file in the office of said department, City Hall, Boston, Mass.

INCREASED SUBSCRIPTION PRICE FOR CITY RECORD.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 6, 1947.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of a communication from the editor of the City Record, in which it is suggested that the subscription for the City Record be increased from $2 per year to $5 per year. In view of the higher costs of editing this official organ of the city, as stated in the accompanying communication, I am of the belief that an annual charge of $5 for a subscription to the City Record, is fair and reasonable. For the same reasons, I am of the opinion that the price for single copies should be increased from ten to fifteen cents.

I, therefore, submit herewith a proposed amendment to the ordinances to that effect, and respectfully request its approval by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Statistics Department, January 3, 1947.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—May I make the suggestion that an order be presented to the City Council by you authorizing the price of subscriptions for the City Record to be increased from the present rate of $2 per year to $5 per year. I believe this would be eminently fair to the public and to the city because of the fact that costs of production and printing have very materially increased all along the line.

The price of newsprint paper has practically doubled since the start of World War II. Wages of printers, from compositors to pressmen, mailers and other mechanical employees have very decidedly increased. These facts make it imperative that the cost of producing the City Record be met with an increase in the subscription price as well as has been done in the matter of the cost of advertising, to the advertisers. There is hardly a publication in the entire country that has not been compelled, because of the conditions enumerated, to take the same kind of action I am suggesting to your Honor.

Very sincerely yours,
JOSHUA H. JONES,
Editor, City Record.

An Ordinance Concerning the Statistics Department.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston as follows:

Chapter 32 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 is hereby amended by striking out section 2 in said chapter and inserting in place thereof the following:

Sect. 2. The board shall publish the City Record once a week, and shall distribute and sell it under the direction of the mayor. The City Record shall contain all matters required by statute to be published therein and such other matters as the mayor may direct. The price of single copies shall be fifteen cents, and the yearly subscription price shall be five dollars, payable in advance. The price to be paid by departments for advertising therein shall be fixed by the city auditor with the approval of the mayor. The receipts shall be used to defray the expense of said publication.

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances, when appointed.

SALE OF STEAMER "MICHAEL J. PERKINS."

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 6, 1947.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of a communication from the Commissioner of the Institutions Department in which he requests authority to sell the steamer "Michael J. Perkins" at an upset price of five thousand dollars.

The acquisition by the Institutions Department of more adequate means of transportation, together with the fact that the Steamer "Perkins" has outlived its usefulness, warrants the sale of the steamer at the price suggested, or at a better price if such is obtainable at the public auction.

I recommend the passage of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Institutions Department, December 27, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—The Steamship "Michael J. Perkins," the services of which have been discontinued by the Institutions Department, is no longer of use to this or any other department of the city.

Your authority is requested to sell the "Michael J. Perkins" at public auction after due advertising in the City Record and the Boston daily newspapers at an upset price of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Respectfully yours,
G. FRANK McDONALD, Commissioner.

Ordered, That the Institutions Commissioner be, and hereby is, authorized to sell, at public auction, the Steamer "Michael J. Perkins," no longer needed for public purposes, for an upset price of five thousand dollars.

Referred to Executive Committee, when appointed.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS, WARD 20.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 17, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner, in reply to your order of December 2, 1946, to include in the Traffic Commission budget for 1947, enough money to take care of traffic lights in Ward 20.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Traffic Commission, December 16, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—This is in reply to blue memo dated December 5, 1946, from J. Joseph Connors, Chief Clerk, requiring consideration and report on Council order dated December 2, 1946, requesting the Traffic Commissioner to include in his 1947 budget enough money to take care of traffic lights in Ward 20.

Since this commission was organized in 1929 it has been standard policy that funds for all new traffic signals are made available through special loan order appropriation initiated by the Mayor. At present there are no such funds available. The yearly budget merely provides the department with funds for the maintenance of existing traffic signals.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

PETITION OF COLUMBIA BILLIARD COMPANY ALLEYS.

President KELLY—The Chair recognizes Councilor Scannell.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, this is the petition of the Columbia Billiard Company for a Sunday license, and I would like it taken from the committee and have the full body act on it.

President KELLY—The question is on taking the petition from the committee. All those in favor?

Coun. HANNON—A point of information. President KELLY—Councilor Hannon, what is your point of information?

Coun. HANNON—If this order was approved by the committee last week when the committee was functioning, why can't it be included in a report by the committee today?

President KELLY—Councilor, the committee can't report today because the committee does not exist today. This will serve the purpose, the motion to take from the committee. The motion is to take this matter from the committee. All those in favor say aye, those opposed no. It is a vote and so ordered.

The petition of the Columbia Billiard Company Alleys, Nichols J. Powlakis (referred December 26, 1946), to operate bowling alleys on the Lord's Day at 558 Columbia road was granted, under usual conditions.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PRISONS.

Coun. RUSSO—The Committee on Prisons. Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, a point of order.

President KELLY—Councilor Hannon. Coun. HANNON—How can that report come in?

President KELLY—Yes, the same conditions exist. The report cannot come in until the committee is functioning. Thank you very much, councilor. I can't accept that until the committees are appointed. If it is a report of a committee, I can't accept it.

Coun. LINEHAN—It is a resumé. President KELLY—The clerk will hold it in his possession.

Coun. RUSSO—The same goes for this one? President KELLY—The same thing.

ADVERTISING OF ASH AND GARBAGE REMOVAL CONTRACTS.

Coun. CHASE offered the following: Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to advertise for public bids on all contracts for ash and garbage removal for the year 1947 and to award the contracts to the lowest qualified bidders.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President. President KELLY—Councilor Chase.

Comm. CHASE—Mr. President, I believe all of us here are well acquainted by this time with the fact that his Honor the Mayor apparently approves of awarding ash and refuse removal contracts without public bids, especially, Mr. President, after the public charges that were made last week by a member of our Council. Mr. President, I have made some inquiry as to whether or not it is possible to have other qualified contractors bid lower than the apparently favored few whom he selected without public bids, and I find, sir, that there are a number of responsible contractors who would be willing to bid and accept the work if they succeeded in getting the bid. Mr. President, I don't know just why his Honor the Mayor has come out after the blast from the gentleman from Brighton last week (Councilor Madden). He apparently was frightened into declaring publicly he would some time this year erect or cause to be erected $2,000,000 worth of incinerators. I don't know why, Mr. President, the Public Works Commissioner failed a long time ago to erect an incinerator which was planned for and which plans cost the city some $30,000. Apparently these plans are being thrown away, but it would seem to me, Mr. President, if the gentleman from Brighton did not accomplish anything else, he did accomplish some good when he frightened the Mayor into declaring that he would endeavor to cause the erection of incinerators for the removal of ashes, garbage and so forth. However, Mr. President, I have grave doubts as to whether his Honor the Mayor is sincere in this. Time will tell, Mr. President, but it is quite possible the Mayor did this in order to put a calm on the very stormy waters of last week. Now, Mr. President, if his Honor the Mayor is sincere in his alleged endeavors to give the city economic removal of refuse and garbage, it would seem to me that he would endeavor to open up these contracts for refuse and ash removal to the public and let all contractors come in and bid. It would seem further, sir, that his Honor the Mayor would then award the contracts to contractors who would put in the lowest bids. It would seem to me, Mr. President, that the members of our Council whom, I believe, are all interested in giving economic and efficient government to the city, would most certainly go along with this order because it is a reasonable order requesting his Honor the Mayor to hold this matter open to the public and to award the refuse contracts to the lowest bidders. Mr. President, his Honor the Mayor apparently proposes to ignore this Body because it was through his efforts, sir, that your Council was unable to hold a successful hearing last week. Your Council, sir, was unable to determine whether or not there were sufficient grounds for an investigation by your local authorities as proposed by the gentleman from Brighton, simply, sir, because the Mayor thwarted the proposed hearing. I would like at this time, sir, to call to the members' attention that they have all the power in the world, sir, to stop this dictatorial gentleman downstairs. We have the power, sir, to hold up these ash removal contracts if his Honor the Mayor does not go along with the proposal such as I have suggested. We have that power, sir, when your Committee on Appropriations conducts its hearings on the new budget. We can strike out or hold up the passing of that particular budget such as ash removal contracts, and I, for one, sir, propose to put all my efforts in that direction in the event that his Honor the Mayor does not follow out my suggestion in the order. Mr. President, this is a reasonable order. It is something which is beneficial to the public at large and I hope, sir, that the Council will go along with it. May I ask for suspension of the rules?

President KELLY—Councilor Madden,—talking on the order?

Comm. MADDEN—Yes.

President KELLY—Councilor Madden.

Comm. MADDEN—It begins to look as if the Mayor stole my thunder; at least, we can say we are making progress. My charges last week, as you know, are based, most of them, on the fact that the Mayor or some parties hadn't the guts to put incinerators in. I also brought out the fact that the Finance Commission has repeatedly shown that the erection of incinerators would save the city considerable money. As you know, I threatened the Mayor with a ten-taxpayers' suit unless he did that. Now, I read in the press that he intends to do that at an early date and, as a consequence, there can be no action for a taxpayers' suit. You can't very well go into equity and ask equity to force a man to do something that apparently he is willing to do. So I am very happy to say that the Mayor, in spite of all the charges he has levied at me that the charges are untrue and that they are figments of my imagination, within a week, even within two or three days, he calls the press in, and by inference says, "I guess Madden is right. We'd better start those incinerators." It is a step in the right direction, gentlemen. It was the basis of my charges to the Mayor that if something was not done, I would have no alternative but to go to court. Now, I can't very well go to court and ask for something that the Mayor has promised to give. An incinerator near the hospital alone would save the city in excess of $400,000 a year and that, of course, represents the sum the city is paying Coleman Brothers for the privilege of using the dumps. I have not been able to understand why the city should pay Coleman the fabulous sum of $100,000 of taxpayers' money when by the erection of an incinerator they could save that money. I am very happy to say that the Mayor by inference at least agrees that I was 50 per cent right last Monday. While some people have contended that I failed to prove the charge of graft all I can say to you gentlemen, as an attorney, is that the proof of graft is a very difficult thing. However, it is not difficult to prove that we should have $100,000 more in the city treasury. Webster, the specialist in dictionaries, says that any action such as that certainly is graft. So, if there are people who take issue with the use of the word "graft," I think if they will look up Webster, they will find I was borne out. I am happy to say the Mayor at least has taken the first step, the big step, in the right direction. I have prepared a question under the authority of section 7 of the City Charter wherein I say to the Mayor —

President KELLY—Councilor, you are talking now on Councilor Chase's order. Is this a satisfactory order?

Comm. MADDEN—No, it is not a satisfactory order, sir. Incidentally, these questions, I understand, must be in writing.

Along that same line, I would like to answer Councilor Linehan's point of inquiry.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Comm. LINEHAN—Will you please inform the gentleman from Brighton if it is in proper form?

President KELLY—I understand he is not presenting it in the form of an order. He said he was not. He was talking on Councilor Chase's order.

Comm. LINEHAN—I understood him to say he was presenting it.

President KELLY—That is right, but he is talking on Councilor Chase's order.

Comm. MADDEN—On or about the 12th of December the Public Works Commissioner sent a letter to the Mayor in which he said, among other things, "The second matter to which I have referred is the transportation of rubbish through the streets. It is provided in section 14 of chapter 39 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 that no person other than employees of the city engaged in public works shall in any street carry house offal or other refuse matter or interfere with the receptacles containing the same except in accordance with a permit from the Commissioner of Public Works approved by the Health Commissioner." Then he goes on to say, "It is evident from the large number of new requests for such permits which have been and are still being received by this department, in addition to the applications for renewals of outstanding permits, that competition along this line has increased considerably." Then the Mayor received another letter from the Public Works Commissioner in which he contradicts himself and says, "Mr. Mayor, I have doubts any lower price would be received by inviting public bids and for that reason nothing in my opinion would be gained if we should advertise for proposals." In other words, gentlemen, in one letter he says, "Mr. Mayor, I have been getting a great many requests for permits from men who want to remove this refuse," and I submit, gentlemen, probably a great many of them came from veterans, and then he says, "Mr. Mayor, forget that other letter. Charge them $25," as he has been asking, and then he turns around and denies them the right to bid. I can well remember the Mayor's inauguration in Symphony Hall last January. You all remember that dramatic climax when the Mayor paraded a bunch of disabled veterans across the platform. I did not quite get the idea at the time, nor do I censor it, but now I have reason to believe that provided some of those boys in any event with a great thrill. As many of you know, I was still in the hospital myself at that time and that evening I rode back to the hospital with a kid, a sergeant, hobbling along on a crutch. I sat right beside him that evening when we went back to the hospital. I watched that little fellow sit down, and as he watched the panorama of the train going by and the lights flickering, the moon and the stars, he turned to me and he said, "You know, Major, Mr. Curley is a great guy." He did not turn, he kept looking at the stars. He said, "You know, he reminds me of my dad," and a flicker of a smile stole across his face, and he said, "Except my dad was never as famous as Mr. Curley." I saw that boy frequently after that up at the hospital, and when I left last April I called on him. He was perhaps the happiest kid in the hospital. He said, "Major, I want to show you something. Look, I can walk now, I can take six steps." I think he was able to take six steps because of the thrill of seeing Mayor Curley at that inauguration, it was medicine. He said, "Do you know what I am going to do, Major?" He said, "I got it all figured out. My brother Jim and myself are going over to the Surplus Commodities to the Whittemore Depot. We are going to buy a truck. You know, there is money in trucking." He said, "I think that is what I am going to do." I said, "Sergeant, what assurance have you you are going to have any business? Where are you going to get business?" He said, "Oh, Major, Mr. Curley and me is just like that." Gentlemen, that boy meant that. The Mayor inculcated that spirit in his heart on Inauguration Day, and by inference he sold himself to all those kids as the champion of the veterans. I am sorry to say this past year he apparently has forgotten. So I say, Mr. Mayor, for God's sake, you can't let those kids down. They think you are a champion. Isn't it about time, Mr. Mayor, you started something on that housing proposition with the $10,000,000, and isn't it fair, Mr. Mayor, that you protect these existing refuse and other contracts and give those disabled veterans a chance to bid on that work?

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan, talking on the order.

Comm. SULLIVAN—Yesterday there appeared in one of the daily papers certain remarks attributed to the councilor from Ward 22 (Councilor Madden) pertaining to last Friday's meeting in which he was quoted as saying he was ashamed of the members of the Council and that there was not a quorum present at that meeting. I have the minutes here of the meeting at which Councilors Cantwell, Bryan and myself constituted a quorum. A quorum was present and the meeting was started, and I would like to have Councilor Madden straighten out those remarks that were attributed to him, and if they were true or false as reported in the newspaper.

President KELLY—Councilor Madden.

Comm. MADDEN—I would be very happy to answer that. I am sure I never said anything to the press that would in any way suggest we did not have a quorum. The press were there, and the press certainly saw that we did have a quorum. It is true the meeting started a little late, but eventually there were sufficient members of the committee to constitute a quorum, and a quorum was in attendance. As to the other remark attributed to me by the press, all I can say, gentlemen, is that I don't quite know where the press gets all of its information or how they get it. I have been asked a great many questions and what I did say was this: I said I was a little disappointed in my brother members of the Council that they could let me fight this battle all alone. After all, I did not come in here and say this knavery affected people in Brighton only. I have tried to set forth the fact that all this unawarded contract business was affecting the pockets of every single taxpayer. Perhaps the order was a little too caustic, perhaps I was a little too optimistic, and perhaps I had no reason to think that the Council would string along with me or see the matter as I saw it, and if the press has paraphrased what I have said in some other way, I am sorry, gentlemen, but I have no control over the press.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I don't feel much in the mood today to contend with anybody on anything, but as a member of the Council, on Councilor Madden's accusation of a week ago, there are some things on which I want to be satisfied before I extend the cooperation which it has been said we all withheld. I suppose it sounds rather pat and a little apt to say something nice under any circumstances when that party is present. It sounds a little prefabricated, it sounds as though the person uttering a laudatory statement or remark is trying to curry favor with the recipient of the remark because he is present. I am stating them for what I want to say, and I want to be as brief as the proper treatment of the subject will allow me. I have stated about Councilor Madden several times that I think he is the acme of responsibility. I respect him as a person, and I must say these things in his presence. I don't know whether I can respect him as an attorney, mindful of the fact that I am not an attorney myself, but it has always been said to me that an attorney in preparing a case for trial must be able to prove beyond a reasonable doubt, if he is the prosecuting attorney, that the defendant is guilty, and if he is the defending attorney, I suppose under the ethics of the law profession he must advance some reasonable proof that his client is a wronged man. I have a valid criticism to offer of Councilor Madden in making his accusatory statement of a week ago because that touched upon me, as it touched upon everyone else in this Body. He told us, and it was in his prepared statement, that to make known the name of his informer who gave him these figures would be a breach of faith with that person and might result in certain penalties being instituted against that person. He saw fit to preserve that person's identity while making statements here in public about others whom he named, and he asked us to certify and approve his statements by calling for an investigation of charges which had their foundation in something that a clerk told him, but the identity of the clerk was to remain a secret. We had no place on which to hang our hats. Now, I am not going to say after five years in this Body that there is one-fiftieth part of the corruption and graft of which we are too frequently accused, if not as councilors, at least, as those who condone what we are supposed to know is graft and corruption in others. How can we support as a publicly elected body the accusatory statements of a member of the Body when no proof has been advanced that the statements are correct beyond a shadow of doubt and can be proved in a court of law? I stress the importance of proof in a court of law because of the councilor's warning, and he injected in this thing the authority of court action. I stress the importance of his statements because that statement which referred to an action he intended subsequently to take could find fruition only before some court of the Commonwealth. I could recant every word I have said here in the past five minutes and go off on a tangent and accuse by name any one in the official employ of the city as a bribe-taker or as a grafter or as one of low and corrupt principles and practices. What am I to do? Am I to take refuge in the immunity granted to all of us upon election to this Body? Am I to be allowed in the next three or four days to change and alter my statement in such fashion as to take out of it the sting that was in it upon first utterance? Am I to slide along on the safest possible road, that of making a charge which no one yet has forced me to prove? I ask you gentlemen here—

Coun. BAYLEY—A point of order.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. BAYLEY—Is the gentleman speaking on the order before us?

President KELLY—I think he is speaking on the general subject matter. Councilor Kinsella is in order. Continue.

Coun. KINSELLA—I am attempting to answer Councilor Madden on Councilor Chase's order.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I value the integrity and the personal honor that has been impugned, and I play ball with no man, no Public Works Commissioner, no contractor who may have been or who today may be derelict in his service to those who play ball, but neither do I lend myself as a tool to the completion of any order that seeks to investigate a shadow when no substance can be produced. If I were an attorney, I think I would be very cautious of taking shelter in the immunity that automatically accrues to me upon joining this Body, when the temptation to attack becomes great. Councilor Madden came into this Body with one of the best reputations of any man elected to this Body, and to say I was not only surprised but stunned at the technique he employed a week ago to force a point is to express it altogether inadequately. Every word I say is going into the record, and so I am measuring and straining them in order to purify them for future use by anyone. I want Councilor Madden and those on this Body and these in this city who are minded as Councilor Madden is minded, and honestly, I believe, to understand that I will support any claim for an investigation by any accredited records of a body that is not going to investigate for politics alone. It is to be proved to me that graft exists and that there is a record of the proof of it and that the investigating body is interested more in the people than in harming the Mayor. These investigations are often conducted by subterfuge and by the application of too many white lies and half truths which are worse than downright deliberate lies themselves. I am only quoting the councilor's prepared statement of a week ago in which he seeks to defend his informer, but he says in effect, if not then, at a later date he says it, he is surprised that the Council did not go along with him. On what? I want evidence that I can see as clearly as I can see the accuser. Is that too much to ask of an attorney, that I be presented evidence that is as plain to me as is the person of the accuser? I don't know, Mr. President, what Councilor Chase's order is, because I was not in the Chamber when it was read. I am going to ask the Chair if the Chair will instruct the clerk to read for me and for those who were not here when Councilor Chase's order was read, to read the order again.

President KELLY—The clerk will kindly read the order.

(The clerk read Councilor Chase's order.)

Coun. KINSELLA—That is a much more reasonable order than one which asks to investigate something when no proof has been advanced. If my memory is correct, a member of the Finance Commission was present in the Mayor's office when Mr. Robert P. Curley recommended an 18 per cent increase in the contracts for 1917 for ash and garbage collection and disposal, and Mayor Curley, if the newspapers have not misinformed me, was present, and he certified it as his opinion it was a just increase. That rules out the possibility of conducting any investigation since they had advance knowledge that the increase was going to be put in effect. A 10 per cent increase was granted a year ago by Acting Mayor Kerrigan. It elicited no criticism in this Body from those who had his interest at heart. I don't know when these attacks are going to stop. Perhaps the only way to stop them is to vote down everything that is presented in this Body which seeks an investigation, until the facts are placed before us and incontrovertible proof accompanies them. I want to repeat publicly my personal fondness for Ted Madden and everybody in this Chamber. We don't make many mistakes in five years or two years or one year, and I have a personal fondness for every man here, but not every man bothers to weigh too much the consequence of his acts. I would like to ask the councilor pointedly, why do you shield your informant and thereby deprive us of the substance we need to support your plea? You have given us shadows to fight and no substance, and from what I know of the conduct of affairs of the régime of Mayor Tobin for three years and John Kerrigan for one year, and James M. Curley so far for one year, there is little that would not have to be manufactured. You can find fault with any city department that you want to, but the Public Works being the biggest is naturally the biggest target. It is not very nice to sit here as a member of this Body, sent here by the deliberate vote of thousands of people, each one of us, and hear a fellow like Bob Curley called a "puppet." Call him inefficient, call him anything you will, but he is a human. He is not an animal, and before he was ever Public Works Commissioner he was human, and before any of us were ever councilors he was human. We would not stand up and be called puppets by anyone. It rather shows the heat of the frame of mind in which Councilor Madden undoubtedly found himself a week ago today when, by the watch, for fifty-five minutes he regaled us with accusatory statements that constituted a blanket indictment of everybody in Boston, and the implication was, if you are honest you will agree, and if you are not, may the blanket safeguard you. I want to repeat, I don't think as an attorney that Mr. Madden would take that case before any court of law here or in any other state of the Union. Now, I ask him, what have you that you are prepared to prove and let us crystallize everything into action since that seemed to be the purpose of the order in its original form.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan, talking on the order.

Coun. LINEHAN—Thank you, Mr. President. Talking on the order.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I agree with some of the remarks of the distinguished gentleman from Charlestown (Councilor Kinsella), but it seems to me we are kind of laying it too much on the councilor from Brighton (Councilor Madden). I happened to be one of the councilors present at this hearing, and I still say I agree with the councilor from Charlestown, there was no evidence of graft presented to the Council or to the committee that heard Councilor Madden. But, unfortunately, city officials, to my mind, should cooperate in such a matter as that brought up for hearing. The city officials were called down before this committee and, unfortunately for the councilor from Brighton, they did not show up. The only other witnesses the councilor from Brighton said he had were several witnesses, but he was afraid they might lose their jobs and he would not put them on the spot until he went to the Attorney General. I think it was on my recommendation when I read some sections of the City Charter that he agreed to lay the matter on the table at the request of the chairman of the Committee on Public Works, and it was laid on the table. I understand, for another week or so. The councilor from Brighton did agree to this procedure of laying it on the table in the hope that in the meantime he would have time to provide written questions to the City Council which, in turn, would be presented to the Mayor, and he was only doing what some of us in the Council asked him to do. Section 7 said—and it is about time we found out just what the hell section 7 means, and excuse my French—section 7 says that "the city council at any time may request from the mayor specific information on any municipal matter within its jurisdiction." It says "within its jurisdiction," and I am going to file an order asking the Corporation Counsel to tell us what city matters come within our jurisdiction. All I hear is what does not come within our jurisdiction, and it is about time some Council in some year found out what did come within our jurisdiction under section 7 of the City Charter. It goes on further to say that we may request his presence to answer written questions which I understand Councilor Madden is going to submit, and it goes on further, "relating thereto at a meeting to be held not earlier than one week from the date of the receipt of such questions." I ask the gentlemen of the City Council just what does that mean? According to the newspapers and quoting the newspapers again, Mayor Curley might be wrong. I don't think he would answer the questions. The City Charter, I think—and I think this matter of graft comes within the jurisdiction of the City Council—says, and get this, gentlemen, regardless of whether Mayor Curley or whether Public Commissioner Curley are charged with graft—that has not been proved, but I think the councilor from Brighton has a right to compel these gentlemen to come down and follow the City Charter and then vote on the matter. As a matter of fact, we cannot remove him, anyhow. It is within the sole jurisdiction of the Mayor, and I agree on that with his Honor the Mayor. All we can do is recommend that he be discharged because of laxity in duty or whatever we find him guilty of, if we can find him guilty. Here is an important line. After quoting this meeting to be held not earlier than one week from the receipt of said questions, which questions the councilor from Brighton plans to ask, "In which case the Mayor shall personally or through a head of a department or a member of a board, attend such meeting and publicly answer all such questions." And I think that is what the gentleman from Brighton is going to do. I am assuming that because he said he had a list of questions he is going to submit. I think in fairness to the gentleman from Brighton who so far has not produced any evidence, and I think the chairman of the Committee on Public Works agreed, and I think the gentleman from Brighton agrees that so far he has not produced any evidence, and I take issue when he said there was nobody fighting with him because I think Councilor Linehan and a great many councilors, if he produces evidence, will fight with him. I take issue with Ted if he quotes that again. I have already told the councilor from Brighton if he proves under sections 6, 7 and 8 that the gentleman in question is in the wrong, then I don't doubt every councilor here will vote in favor for the removal or the recommendation for the removal. Now, I don't know whether this matter—and I would like to ask the clerk, through you, Mr. President,—could be amended in reference to having legal opinion from the Corporation Counsel as to just what comes within the jurisdiction of the City Council order under section 7 of the City Charter, and having the Corporation Counsel advise us as to what comes within the jurisdiction of the City Charter. And I would like to see you look at section 7. I would like to see that is the substance of what I want.

President KELLY—The gentleman is asking it as the substance of a new amendment, is it not?

Coun. LINEHAN—I have no objection.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan, what purpose does the gentleman have?

Coun. LINEHAN—I don't need it, Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose, I ask the gentleman?

Coun. LINEHAN—I need for a question.

President KELLY—Just one minute.

Coun. CHASE—One question.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—Isn't it true that the City Council has had power of appointment, removal and re-appoint and re-removal of contractors?

Coun. LINEHAN—I believe we have jurisdiction over the expenditure of all money within the city. It comes under the appropriation, it is so.

Coun. CHASE—Isn't it true under that jurisdiction we have the implied authority of questioning the Mayor, the Public Works Commissioner or any one to do with these contracts in order to determine whether or not the budget should be refused?

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I can hardly say if I was requested for an opinion, if I were Corporation Counsel, I would say they would come within the jurisdiction of the City Council. That is my opinion. I have no to the amendment in the hands of the clerk. Have you got it?

President KELLY—That is right. The clerk will read the amendment.

The clerk read the amendment offered by Councilor Linehan, as follows:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel furnish the City Council with a legal opinion as to whether or not the existing contracts which now extend more than one year pertaining to the collection, removal or disposal of refuse come within section 6 of the City Charter; that the Corporation Counsel furnish the City Council with a legal opinion as to what municipal matters come within the jurisdiction of the Boston City Council in so far as section 7 of the City Charter of Boston provides. These opinions shall be submitted to the City Council within fourteen days from date.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, section 6 of the City Charter says, "and listen to this gentleman."

"No contract for lighting the public streets, parks, or alleys, or for the collection, removal or disposal of refuse, extending over a period of more than one year from the date thereof, shall be valid without the approval of the mayor and the city council after a public hearing, held by the city council, of which at least seven days' notice shall have been given in the City Record."

Now, I am assuming when this contract was originally entered into some time back, it was more than one year ago, and I have asked the City Clerk if that is not so, but he is not sure he thinks it is; I am assuming the year has gone by and we have had on two occasions extensions. I don't know how long the extensions have been, but they were granted so the full period has been over one year. It is my contention as a lawyer, subject to rebuttal by the lawyers in the Law Department with whom I have taken issue before, that that contract now runs and extends for more than a period of one year and that, if that is so, the new existing contracts for the collection of garbage, ashes and what have you are illegal because section 6 has not been complied with. Have I been missing when we had the extensions of the contracts? Have we had such a meeting in the City Council as provided in section 6? I am assuming we did not have any. My order also requests an opinion as to just what comes within the jurisdiction of the City Council, and it is about time some lawyers sitting here advised the members of the City Council what they think comes within the jurisdiction of the City Council. I don't mind getting up here and fighting a losing fight for what I think is for the benefit of the taxpayers, but you get tired when you see so many qualified gentlemen sitting around here who do not get up and at least help as by telling us just what comes or does not come within the City Council's jurisdiction. May I say, in closing, to the gentleman from Brighton, so far I have not seen we should judge your actions by what you have not yet given up your fight. If you cover up your fight in this matter, I for one would not fight against you because you have not submitted any evidence, but I am assuming you will produce evidence either through your own witnesses or through the representatives of other departments within the jurisdiction of the Public Works Committee. I realize certain statistics are being put out only from the lips of the Public Works Committee, and I don't think it is fair to judge me because that will give me a bad name. I am presenting these questions to the Mayor, and I am compelled to do so. It is a fact. I am not making a writ of mandamus to compel the Mayor to do what is giving me the satisfaction of fighting. If he does not, and if he does not want to, he might issue against him. That is the opinion and of course the Corporation Counsel might not agree. In conclusion, I might say, councilor, in order for you to prove so-called graft, you have to go to section 8, down in the middle, which reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for the mayor or for any member of the city council or for any officer or employee of the city or of the county of Suffolk or for a member of the finance commission—directly or indirectly to make a contract with the city or with the county of Suffolk, or to receive any commission, discount, bonus, gift, contribution or reward from or any share in the profits of any person or corporation making or performing such contract, unless such mayor, member of the city council, officer or employee or member of the finance commission immediately upon learning of the existence of such contract or that such contract is proposed, shall notify in writing the mayor, city council, and finance commission of such contract and of the nature of his interest in such contract and shall abstain from doing any official act on behalf of the city in reference thereto."

I say, councilor from Ward 22, that is where your case lies as to whether or not Commissioner Curley should be removed or at least if it be suggested he be removed by the Mayor.

President KELLY—The question first comes on the amendment. Councilor Russo.—not having spoken.

Coun. RUSSO—There has been much discussion here today, and I state I agree with some, and with some I don't agree, and in so far as the first instance with Councilor Madden, that the Council did not cooperate, I would like to state that I, for one, as a councilor, have cooperated to the extent of seeing that the proper committee was given his order and, therefore, up to the present time I have cooperated, and if there is anything which is not within the rights of the Public Works Commissioner or his Honor the Mayor, we naturally ought to do something about it. There has been much talk today, and it seems a person to belong to the City Council and to be elected to the City Council must be a person of high learning and a person who has gone through law school. I, for one, am not an attorney, and I don't intend to imply by my remarks that I desire to take away knowledge from the attorneys or the schooling they might have received. I have stated time and time again on the Council floor that I thank God only that He gave me common sense, and I hope and pray that He shall continue to guide me, to make my decisions on common sense. Section 6 of our charter has been read which specifically states, and I quote, "No contract for lighting the public streets, parks or alleys, or for the collection, removal, or disposal of refuse, extending over—mind you, extending over, and I emphasize that—"a period of more than one year from the date thereof, shall be valid without the approval of the mayor and the city council after a public hearing, held by the city council, of which at least seven days' notice shall have been given in the City Record."

I say in regard to this, as an ordinary layman, that the Public Works Commissioner and his Honor the Mayor—and I have not up to this date defended his Honor the Mayor, and I don't intend to defend him when he is wrong in my opinion; neither do I intend to accuse him when I don't believe he should be accused—I contend section 6 of our City Charter specifically states as to any contract given over a period of one year. Therefore, it is my contention, and I hope the City Clerk will inform me if I am right or wrong, they have the power by the City Charter to give a contract up to one year and not over one year without the approval of the City Council and without public bidding. I mean, the fault lies on the Legislature not to change the City Charter. I have contended from the first day that I have had the honor and privilege of serving in this Body that certainly the City Charter ought to be changed to give the Council its proper rights and jurisdiction, and the only way we can receive that—and look back in the record year after year—is to petition the Legislature to give the City Council its proper power, and that is, the veto power over the Mayor. That is the only way that the Council will have its proper place and its proper authority. As I stated before, I am not an attorney. Of course, whether I am glad I am not or sorry I am not does not enter into the discussion. This is for the benefit of the younger members who have been in the Council only for a year. I recall that we went to Providence to inspect incinerators there and it was the opinion of the City Council at that time that that would be a good thing for the City of Boston to dispose of our refuse and garbage. Of course, I, as an ordinary layman, cannot judge whether that will be a saving, but I have to depend upon individuals' information who are qualified to give the Council the information required. Therefore, judging by the information given us at that time, it was thought the incinerators would be a saving and a quicker way of disposal of our garbage and refuse, and at the same time eliminate the individual contractor that has the city by the throat. We cannot dump in specific places because they own that land themselves and they are deriving year after year countless thousands of dollars that have to be met by other individuals of the City of Boston who own a piece of property. So I say, regardless of what we do here, we as a Body are only a body of men making suggestions. We have no power whatsoever. The only power we have is to deduct from the budget, reduce the budget and then to what extent? You have to the extent that you have to cut, not on any specific item you don't like to see go into the budget, but rather on the overall budget. What will happen then? That perhaps your city workers might be on your neck and say it was your fault that they have not been paid, and there are many other things that enter into it. For God's sake, let us stop kidding ourselves. Surely this order is perfectly all right to go through the City Council. It will go down to his Honor the Mayor, and his Honor the Mayor, after he reads it there is only one thing he will do, throw it in the wastebasket, and what other recourse have you? None whatsoever. I challenged his Honor the Mayor previous to this here when I stated, why doesn't he make a public statement to abolish the Boston City Council as it is only his Honor the Mayor who runs the City of Boston, and if the Council has no power or authority? But I say to you that the fault lies with the Legislature. They have to see to it that our City Charter is changed, and I don't mean changed to the Plan E system. I don't believe in it. I believe the Plan E system will not give to the City of Boston or to the citizens of Boston proper representation of the people. The people will lose it and by their personal contacts with the city fathers. We can do just as well as a Council of twenty-two directing the duties and responsibilities placed upon us if we have the legal power in the same manner and better, perhaps, than a Council of nine. So I say, Councilor Madden, I respect you not only as a person but as a councilor. Also, I feel that he has the highest ability and in so far as I am concerned and in so far as the Council is concerned, we have done everything up to the present time to go along with him to prove his facts.

President KELLY—Councilor Cook, not having spoken. Do you ask for the floor, councilor?

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, I would like to point out, as much as I would like to agree with Councilor Linehan, I am afraid I can't in view of the provisions in the first paragraph of section 8 which is the paragraph that takes away all the power they seem to give us in sections 6 and 7 of the City Charter. If you read it,—

"Neither the city council, nor any member or committee, officer or employee thereof shall, except as otherwise provided in this act, directly or indirectly on behalf of the city or the county of Suffolk take part in"—we will skip some of the things—making of contracts, appointment or removal of any municipal or county employee; nor in the expenditure of public money except such as may be necessary for the contingent and incidental expenses of the city council. They say the error is not in the Council but in the power it should have to see to it that city affairs are checked and double checked as the Council would like to do.

President KELLY—The question is on the amendment. Councilor Madden.

Coun. MADDEN—I would like to have a few minutes to answer my distinguished friend, Councilor Kinsella. The councilor will read a great deal because I have and intend to shield the source of my information. If Leo was an attorney, he would know there are times when there are certain confidential communications between client and counsel that have no occasion to be aired except in a court of law, but if need be, I can produce him. I suggest, gentlemen, in further answering Leo's questions, what I said could not have been half truths. It was at least three-quarters truth or two-thirds truth, because I said the cost to the city was excessive by some 700,000 odd dollars. By the Mayor's own action this past week in announcing he is going to put in incinerators right away and effect a saving of a half million dollars, the Mayor by implication said, "Madden is at least two-thirds correct."

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella,—for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. KINSELLA—I would like the councilor from Ward 22 to yield for a question.

Coun. MADDEN—Yes.

Coun. CHASE—A point of order.

President KELLY—Will you state your point of order?

Coun. CHASE—They are not talking relative to the amendment. The amendment is pertaining to the request from Councilor Linehan asking the Corporation Counsel whether or not the City Council has certain powers.

President KELLY—I think the gentleman is leading up to it, or rather, leading up to that part of it. Councilor Kinsella, I have ruled Councilor Madden in order. Councilor Kinsella, your question?

Coun. MADDEN—We are talking on Councilor Chase's order.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella, your question?

Coun. KINSELLA—I would like to ask Councilor Madden a question.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase,—a point of order?

Coun. CHASE—Both gentlemen are out of order, sir, and I would suggest you ask the City Clerk whether the point is well taken.

President KELLY—I have ruled Councilor Madden is talking on the amendment. He is leading to what is in his mind and he has yielded to a question. Councilor Madden is the one to yield. Councilor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I would like to ask Councilor Madden if he would as an attorney go into court with two-thirds of his case prepared or with implications?

President KELLY—Councilor Madden.

Coun. MADDEN—When I go to court, the Council can rest assured my powder is dry. I am just suggesting by implication the Mayor himself admitted Madden was pretty accurate. I will go on to answer some more of the questions by Leo. He takes exception to the technique used by this new councilor from Ward 22. Well, probably my technique does lack the smooth, suave finesse of the technique that you fellows have, but that is the way we punched them that is the way we knocked them out of the foxholes all over Europe. I expect that punch is too fast. Probably later on we will use a different technique.

President KELLY—Councilor Cook,—for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. COOK—I think Councilor Madden is saying something the Council should hear, and I doubt the presence of a quorum.

President KELLY—The clerk will call the roll.

Coun. BAYLEY—What is the point?

President KELLY—A quorum is in doubt.

The roll was called, and the following members responded as present:

Councilors Bayley, Cantwell, Carey, Chase, Cook, Fish, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Linehan, Madden, McCormack, Russo, Sullivan.—14

President KELLY—A quorum is in attendance. Continue, Councilor Madden.

Coun. MADDEN—I would say, apparently the distinguished councilor from Charlestown takes issue with my statement that was a positive monopoly. Gentlemen, if this handing out of contracts promiscuously year after year to the same contractors is not a monopoly, I would like to know what it is. It is certainly discriminating against the thousands and thousands.—

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella,—for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. KINSELLA—I would like to observe I made no reference to a monopoly so Councilor Madden's references.—

President KELLY—Councilor Madden.

Coun. MADDEN—I believe the councilor mentioned something about half-truths, and I am trying to suggest that some of the things I said were not half-truths but 99 1/2 per cent truth. Certainly, there can be no question but that there are thousands and thousands of veterans who have just gotten out of the service, thousands and thousands of men who were not in the service, just as equally competent for handling this refuse work as the men who now have the contracts, and my chief quarrel with the Public Works Commissioner is the handing out of these contracts without giving the veterans and other people an opportunity to bid on them. As I said the other day, if there is any question, if need be, I can introduce a man who would be willing to take over the Brighton or any other contract at 25 per cent less than the city is giving today. I don't think the Public Works Commissioner has been duly solicitous of the city welfare when he suggests raise after raise year after year. Perhaps it would not be necessary to give the contractors additional rates and raise the cost of this business from $400,000 in 1941 to $1,600,000 today if the bids were let out at public auction. So I might go on answering many questions. Councilor Kinsella contends this huge payment of a million some odd dollars over and above any actual cost does not constitute graft. Perhaps it does not, but I say this to you, any man who will give me a sizable sum of money over and above the actual cost of something, I would be only too happy to split the difference with him. Probably it is not called graft but maybe friendship. So while he differs with the technique used by a more amateur politician who probably does not punch that way and while there may be some of you fellows who may have your own reasons for being silent, to me it does not look on the up and up. As for witnesses, gentlemen, all I can suggest is this: as you know, I have been battling this thing all year long, and it does not take any fellow very long to start a fight in any direction before the disgruntled people on the other side come to you and say, "I see you are leading the fight against this. I work for this contractor, and let me give you this information, run this down." And after a few months, you have quite a bit of ammunition if need be. If the Mayor had not taken this action as I asked him to, I can assure Councilor Kinsella that it would not have been any trouble at all for myself and my associates to have gone into court with sufficient witnesses and filed a subpoena duces tecum. That is a subpoena whereby the witnesses must bring books and records. It would take a long time to prove the case, but I think it can probably be proved that if there was no graft, there was more or less overpayment of money, hundreds of thousands of dollars.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella,—talking on the amendment.

Coun. KINSELLA—My thoughts have been scattered because of some of the confusing statements made. All I ask the other councilor to do is give us proof since he laid his charges before us and then, I am certain, he would have cooperation in accomplishing this purpose. If my memory is not playing me tricks, Councilor Madden last Monday stated among other things that the best price quoted for truck hire was $3.50 an hour, and on the basis of a 40-hour week, that was $126, and I don't care what the trouble is. If he is a friend of mine, I will do my utmost to take care of him. That is what we do, that is what the Mayor will do, and that is what Governor Bradford will do, and that is what the President will do. The President had the guts to visit Pendergast when he was in jail, and I would do the same thing for my friends. Some may ask, "You are going to visit a man in Charles Street Jail?" I would say, "Yes." For the love of Mike, who the hell is above anybody else in this world. I want to know. There is nobody better than I am, and I am no better than anybody else, and thank God, I have the common sense to know I am no better than anybody else, not a bit better. The Finance Commission has admitted for years they have been investigating and they have nothing. If they did, you know what would happen. The members of the Council would not get a notice from them, you would read it in the press. After you read it in the press,—they always give it out on a Sunday—you would come in here the following day and they would tell you what happened. Four years ago the Finance Commission issued a statement to the press stating that the members of the Boston City Council hampered the work of the Public Works Department by putting trucks to work and by demanding the Public Works Commissioner put our friends on the pay roll. There were four or five of us, including the President of the Council, who took the floor and demanded that the Finance Commission come here and tell us who the councilors were who put these men to work or demanded that the Public Works Commissioner put trucks to work for them. They did not have the guts to come and they had no proof whatsoever on it. I can say without fear of contradiction that I have not asked to get a truck in Bob Curley's department since I have been in office, never asked him to put a truck on, and never will, and I don't want to do anything in his department. The only thing I am sore about is, we have to have the Finance Commission investigate, and now we have the Attorney-General. Why the hell doesn't the Attorney-General stop the bookies? They have supported him. I will give him names, if he wants them. After he investigates the bookies and the rest of the rackets, then he can come down to City Hall and investigate us here. First of all, let him start in the State House, with the boys who gave themselves salaries but put ours on the referendum; those who created jobs in City Hall without the permission and consent of the Boston City Council; the boys who created departments in the City of Boston without our sanction, without permission from us, without permissive legislation, without approval, without sending it to us, but sending it downstairs. His signature was enough to create department after department in the City of Boston, and at the same time they are screaming economy and hollering Plan E. Fred Willis wants Plan E for Boston, and Plan E for Saugus. Their tax rate is higher than ours. Still, they want Plan E for Boston. As far as I am concerned, personally, I don't give a damn if we have Plan E or not. If I run for office again, I don't care whether I run as a member for East Boston or as a member on a city-wide basis. But I don't want any city manager appointed that is going to come from the Back Bay of Boston where they say to these garbage trucks, "You can't come in until after eight o'clock in the morning. You can't wake our people so early. Our cats and dogs are not used to getting up until nine or ten o'clock in the morning. We don't want you rolling ash barrels before eight o'clock in the morning. You can't drive a truck over our streets. We don't want the trucks in our streets, but take them out to the rest of Boston. Don't come here where the blue bloods live. Don't bring any trucks on our streets, or peddlers. Yes, peddlers. Don't come on our streets to sell your wares. We don't want you on our streets. Go around the other streets if you have anything to sell, but don't come into our district and sell anything." Last year under Mayor Curley the councilor from Ward 4 (Councilor Chase) never came in and voted but sat out there at the telephone all the time calling up people and saying, "Hello, Johnnie. It has gone through, everything is all right."

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. CHASE—The gentleman is out of order. He is not talking on the order.

President KELLY—I think he is leading up to a statement, councilor.

Coun. COFFEY—Now, I have led up to the statement, and have said about all I wanted to. What is the difference if it is Curley or Kerrigan? We will even go back to Tobin, and then let us go back to the sanctimonious Mansfield, the man who would not touch anything, the man who was "God-like" when he had a drink or two in him, and the man who had the biggest scandal in Boston, but when it was brought out in evidence he was found not guilty because he was elected by the blue bloods, picked up by the blue bloods, supported by the blue bloods, head of the Bar Association because the blue bloods control it. He was friendly with those on Beacon Hill at the time. Any other man like a little pal of mine, George E. Ashe, he would be investigated, he would be condemned, he would be crucified and sent to jail. What would happen? They would sit back and say, "One more Democrat we shouted out of office, and one more Democratic city in the next election." When the Democrats get up there, they don't know how to do it. We have to pay the Police Commissioner who is appointed by the Governor. We give him his salary. We have no jurisdiction over the Police Commissioner but we have to pay him, sure, because he was appointed by the Governor. Not one of the Democrats up there had common sense enough to give us home rule for Boston. Then we have councilors getting up here and kicking, "Curley is this and Curley is that. What the hell is it going to get you, anyway? I have fought a lone fight and this you must admit. I never asked any member to go along and give me a vote on anything, never once have I done it. I kept up a lone fight and I did all right, making that lone fight, too. The only thing that gets me is, just because it is Curley, just because it is Curley. How the hell are you going to condemn a man who has been indicted? Thirty years ago he was indicted and half a dozen years ago, and sentenced to jail. He comes back and says, 'I want to be Congressman.' So he is Congressman. He does not live in the district, but he says, 'I want to be Congressman again.' He does not live in the district, but he is Congressman. He throws his hat in the ring, and a million dollars has been spent against him, but 114,000 votes elect him Mayor of Boston. What are you going to do, fight him? As the fellow says when playing cards and he does not get a good hand, 'What are you going to do? Fight City Hall?'

The order was passed, under suspension of the rule.

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENTS.

The following appointments by the Mayor were ordered taken from the Committee on Constables and Confirmations, viz.:

Report on appointment by the Mayor (referred December 30 of Thomas Joseph Riley, 17 Mt. Vernon street, Charlestown, as constable for term ending April 30, 1947, authorized to serve civil process upon filing of bond.

Report on appointment by the Mayor (referred December 23 of Leo G. Grappocci, 47 Auburn street, to be constable without power to serve civil process, and to serve without bond for term ending April 30, 1947.

Report on appointment by the Mayor (referred December 23 of Benjamin Shulman, 112 Selden street, Dorchester, to be a Weigher of Coal for term ending April 30, 1947.

The question came on confirmation. Committee, Councilors Coffey and Russo. Whole number of ballots 12, yeas 12, and the appointments were confirmed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON INSPECTION OF PRISONS.

The report of the Committee on Inspection of Prisons was taken from the committee, and submitted, as follows:

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 126 of the General Laws, the Committee on Inspection of Prisons submits herewith its annual report.

The customary semi-annual inspections of the Suffolk County Jail and the House of Correction at Deer Island were made by your committee and conditions in both institutions were found very satisfactory. Both institutions are in need of minor improvements, but due to the difficulty in obtaining essential materials at this time, this work will have to be done at a later date.

Attached herewith are reports showing the number of commitments, discharges, transfers, etc., at the Suffolk County Jail and House of Correction during the year 1946.

CLEARING OF WARD 3 STREETS.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take immediate action to clear all of the streets in Ward 3 of the accumulated ice and snow and especially in the market district of this ward where the accumulated snow and ice has hindered the merchants trying to do business.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, very briefly I do hope the Public Works Commissioner will see to it the ice and snow is removed in the vicinity of all churches and schools and synagogues in my district because last Sunday it was very deplorable no matter where you went. In the market section, some of the peddlers were unable to do business because they had no place where they could put their pushcarts to sell their vegetables and fruits; therefore, I do hope by this order it will all be removed.

The order was passed under suspension of the rules.

TEMPORARY REINSTATEMENT OF JOHN M. DEVER.

Coun. KEENAN offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston hereby favors the enactment of legislation entitled, "An Act Authorizing the Temporary Reinstatement, for Retirement Purposes only, of John M. Dever as a Member of the Police Department of the City of Boston," provided such legislation includes a referendum to the Mayor and City Council.

Coun. KEENAN—I have introduced this at the request of the representative from South Boston. The bill is now before the Legislature, but we would like to have the order passed here by the City Council, and we ask for the suspension of the rules.

President KELLY—Counselor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—It seems to me we ought to have a chance to take a look at the bill to find out what it is about rather than passing it under suspension of the rules. I move this go into Executive.

President KELLY—Counselor Muchnick moves it go into Executive.

Coun. KEENAN—I asked Representative Kelly with regard to the bill, and he informed me the police officer was suspended and reinstated and now he is looking for retirement.

President KELLY—Do you withdraw your motion?

Coun. MUCHNICK—No, Mr. President, particularly now having heard some explanation, I would like to hear more.

President KELLY—Counselor Muchnick makes a motion that this be referred to the Executive Session.

The Chair being in doubt asked for a rising vote, and the motion was lost. The order was passed under suspension of the rules.

RULES OF COUNCIL FOR 1947.

Coun. BAYLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That a committee of five members be appointed by the President to prepare and report rules to govern the proceedings of the City Council of 1947.

Coun. BAYLEY—I hope this will be passed, and I hope the committee when appointed will adopt a new rule this year which will limit the members to five minutes debate, with the possible exception of ten minutes for the man introducing the order. I think the Council has lost caste by long and endless debates, and endless reiteration. I hope the members hereafter, with the exception of the proposer, will limit themselves to five minutes in debate so that business will be transacted efficiently, and we will have no more meetings lasting to nine or ten o'clock, which is bad in the view of the public.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Counselor Muchnick,—for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—I move that this be referred to the Committee on Rules when organized.

President KELLY—That is what I was going to do.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Counselor Coffey,—for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. COFFEY—Talking on the order. This is ridiculous. If a councillor wants to get up here and holler and yell for an hour or two hours, he should be entitled to. The only way you can do anything is fighting on the floor. I give the councillors a lot of credit. I never walk out on them purposely. I have sat here and listened to them, and I tried to pay attention to what they have had to say. The only time I would leave here is when I had business on the outside. That is the only way we can get a reasonable explanation of things, to thresh them out right here. That is what we are here for. The councillor got publicity on an order similar to this a few months ago, and also publicity on the fact that the councillors were eating the taxpayers' money. He never refused the food up here, he ate as much as I did, if not more, and I don't eat too much. He is looking for a front page story, and he probably will get it, but it won't do any good in the section where he comes from. Seven dollars or eight dollars for a meal because we go into session at two o'clock and stay here until nine, and sometimes till midnight. Aren't we entitled to a bite to eat? Does the Governor spend thousands and thousands of dollars on foreigners whom he entertains? Every Governor does it, every Mayor does it. Why aren't we getting something? We are getting a $200 reduction in salaries, starting today. It wouldn't hurt his pocket if he bought the meal. If I had the money he has, I would buy the eats. I think the order ought to be killed. The only way you can reach an opinion and reach a just conclusion is to argue all night, if necessary. That is the only way. If a man has something on his mind, he might not be able to say it in five minutes. He might want to take the floor fifteen different times, and he is entitled to every time. As long as I have been in the Council, I have never moved the previous question to shut off debate. I don't think anybody else has done it with the exception of one or two, and that generally was done after everybody had their talk and everybody was satisfied. Let us talk the matter over and let us discuss them. Something may be important, and it cannot be threshed out in ten minutes, especially when it takes a few months to decide, like what the budget should be. I hope this order is killed.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I don't think such an order as that ought to be entertained by the Body in view of the fact that the sponsor of the order had to be chastised by the Chair during the last World Series when he was running in and out, while we were debating city business, and announcing the scores to various members.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of order. I think he is discussing the order, not the motion to refer it to the Rules Committee.

President KELLY—You made the statement you thought this order should be sent to the Committee on Rules. I have let two or three talk, and I will let Counselor Kinsella talk.

Coun. BAYLEY—A point of information. Will you ask the clerk to read the order?

President KELLY—The Chair will make the statement we have the rules here for 1946 and 1947. They are in effect now, and I think the new Rules Committee when appointed will submit a new series of rules to the members of the City Council. These rules are in effect as of 1946 and 1947, therefore, the order will go to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. BAYLEY—May the clerk read the order? It is similar to that passed last year at this time.

President KELLY—Just a minute. Counselor, I can clear up your mind on that. The order was passed last year because every two years we do submit a new set of rules.

Coun. KINSELLA—I want to conclude by saying on that day at least he prolonged the proceedings of the Council by his constant excursions into the room with notice of the latest score. If I remember correctly, Counselor Coffey asked Counselor Bayley to refrain from running in and out of the room while we were attempting to debate. The opening and closing of the door allowed the sounds of a blaring radio to come into the room, disrupting our contemplations. I don't think such an order as this ought to be passed by this Body, especially when the sponsor of it has contributed to a long session as he has.

President KELLY—It is referred to the Committee on Rules.

Adjourned, on motion of Counselor Bryan, at 6 p. m., to meet on Monday, January 13, 1947, at 2 p. m.

STATE FISCAL AIDS TO CITIES AND TOWNS FOR PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

State aid to municipalities for public elementary and secondary education amounts annually in Massachusetts to six million dollars. This aid constitutes almost one tenth of the total annual expenditures for public education, and thus it is of considerable importance to municipal finance. The funds come from three sources: Over four fifths from income tax proceeds, the remainder from the General Fund and from the income of the Massachusetts School Fund. This aid for elementary and secondary education is in seven forms, which can be classified under three headings: General aid to every city and town, aid to equalize the financial burden of education among the cities and towns, and special aid to small towns. In all cases the aid is in the form of reimbursement, i. e., partly based on expenditures by the municipality.

AIDS PAID TO ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS FROM INCOME TAX REVENUES.

Only since 1919 has the state participated widely in the financing of elementary and secondary schools. Before that time state aid to municipalities was less than 2 per cent of the total cost of education, and was granted only to a limited group of towns. In 1919, however, provision was made for payments from the proceeds of the newly enacted personal income tax to every city and town which met certain teacher salary and qualification standards. Except for slight modifications the program is still the same as that established in 1919 (chapter 363, Acts of 1919). Every city and town is paid a fixed amount for every teacher employed (primary reimbursements), and some municipalities with low valuation per pupil receive additional grants (supplementary reimbursements).

POLICE DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL.

The police personnel of the department on November 30, 1945, consisted of 1 superintendent, 5 deputy superintendents, 28 captains, 63 lieutenants, 1 lieutenant-inspector, 185 sergeants, 1,867 patrolmen, 15 patrolwomen, 94 provisional temporary patrolmen and 1 provisional temporary patrolwoman; total, 2,260.

On November 30, 1945, there was a total of 2,502 persons, including civilian employees, on the rolls of the department.

During the year in General Orders, officers were commended as follows:

Captain, 1; lieutenants, 6; sergeants, 8; patrolmen, 34; department as a whole, 1.

POLICE EXPENDITURES.

During the twelve months ending November 30, 1945, the total expenses of the Boston Police Department amounted to $6,426,363.77. This included the pay of the police and employees, pensions, supplies, expense of listing ($68,253.96, the annual listing on January 1 of all residents twenty years of age or over), and the maintenance of the Police Signal Service.

In the corresponding period of 1944, expenditures totaled $6,202,557.44.

REPORT OF EDWARD J. WALL, SUPERVISOR, HEALTH EDUCATION AND SAFETY EDUCATION, ON ATTENDANCE AT NATIONAL SAFETY CONGRESS AND EXPOSITION AT CHICAGO, OCTOBER 7 TO 11, 1946.

The following is the report of Edward J. Wall, Supervisor of Health Education, on attendance at the Thirty-fourth Annual Safety Congress and Exposition sponsored by the National Safety Council, October 7-11, 1946:

The Thirty-fourth Annual Safety Congress and Exposition, sponsored by the National Safety Council, was held in Chicago on October 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11, 1946. Attending the congress and exposition were more than 5,000 delegates representing every state in the union and every phase of the elaborately organized and well-coordinated national safety program. The gathering was notable, this being the first nation-wide conference of its kind since the close of the war era.

As section meetings ran into the hundreds, it is immediately apparent that the opportunity of the individual delegate to participate in any large percentage of conferences was limited. But the scope of a national gathering of this kind is of itself stimulating in the extreme and raises the hope that the day of efficient living from the point of view of safety is near at hand.

On the first day of the congress, and following registration, I attended the opening session of the School and College Division. An over-all report of the National Conference of Safety Education, "Mobilizing for Safety Education," was presented, followed by division reports on the work of the headquarters staff of the special division.

Following the preliminary section, I participated in a conference on student accident reporting. Here were presented suggested reporting forms and procedures. It gave me considerable pleasure to be able to distribute at the time copies of the recently adopted Boston forms, which, in the opinion of many, are among the outstanding contributions to this particular safety area. This is particularly true of our unique follow-up reporting blank. On the evening of the first day I attended the showing of safety films.

Teacher Education for Safety.

On Tuesday morning a session was held on improving teacher education for safety. Main topics of discussion included: teaching protective measures for specific hazards in the local area; discovering out-of-school activities involving hazards; determining levels at which specific items of safety should be considered; safety responsibilities to be delegated to boys and girls; securing parental cooperation in safety education; problems of community cooperation; significant developments in your school system during the past year; maintaining the safe school environment. Brief visits were made also to group meetings on safety problems of the physical education and home economics classes.

On Tuesday evening a general meeting of the school and college groups was held and discussion centered on "What the Report of the President's Highway Safety Conference Means to the Classroom Teacher." This meeting was of considerable interest due to the fact that I attended the conference in Washington last May and also because the Boston schools are at present working out a practical and progressive approach to the driver education program. The responsibility of the schools in promoting safe procedures was stressed. It is recognized that attitude rather than manipulative skill is the focal point in education. It is also recommended that a continuing program of safety education should be maintained throughout the school life of the child. Community cooperation and support are essential.

Special studies have been conducted on a national scale during the past two years. Much information has been provided by the Boston School Department. Results of studies were presented and discussed at a special group meeting on Wednesday morning. Opportunities for stimulating safety education at the secondary level were considered from the point of view of (a) student organization, (b) integration with various courses, (c) introduction of the special course. A later meeting on Wednesday morning considered problems relating to safety education programs in school shops. The need for teacher training courses was particularly emphasized. A recent shop appraisal blank developed in the Boston School Department in cooperation with the National Safety Council was discussed.

On Wednesday afternoon I visited a group session of traffic engineers, and in the evening attended the congress dinner at which a new safety problem, "Atomic Energy," was discussed.

REPORT OF EDWARD J. WALL, SUPERVISOR OF HEALTH EDUCATION, ON ATTENDANCE AT THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL SAFETY CONGRESS AND EXPOSITION.

DRIVER EDUCATION.

On Thursday morning two very interesting sessions were held. The first, on driver education and driver training, again emphasized the need for stimulating the interest of school administrators in these particular safety areas. Current obstacles to the introduction of driver education and driver-training programs include the following: crowded high school curriculum; educational inertia; lack of community support; lack of trained personnel; so-called false economy; lack of equipment. The second session, on safety in the elementary school, emphasized the need for a continuing coordinated program under the direction of adequately prepared teaching personnel, with the school setting the proper example, with home and community co-operating, and with material presented on the basis of pupil interests and concerns.

The general meeting of safety education supervisors and directors, held on Thursday afternoon, was a real down-to-earth session during which practical everyday problems of administration were presented and discussed. It was interesting to note the similarity of problems, the general agreement as to solutions, and the difficulties involved in bringing education procedures up to date.

On Friday I attended a session on industrial health. Major topics discussed were: "Minimum Requirements for an Industrial Health Program"; "New Health Hazards in Industry." This was an interesting session in view of the fact that the Boston School Department has recently completed a revision of The Promotion of Safety in School Shops for Girls and is about to publish the revised The Promotion of Safety in School Shops for Boys Manual.

This year the exposition was of high order. It included a comprehensive display of the latest equipment in the fields of industrial health and safety. With approximately 150 display booths and with experts in attendance, the exposition offered delegates and representatives unlimited opportunities for information and inspiration.

On Saturday I took advantage of the many opportunities for interchange of ideas and suggestions and attended several previously arranged conferences in the special field.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD J. WALL, *Supervisor,
Health Education and Safety Education, Boston Public Schools.*

Ballots will be furnished the members containing the names of candidates who are duly nominated.

Nomination papers may be obtained at the office of the Boston Retirement Board, Room 65, City Hall, after January 22, 1947.

Any member of the State-Boston System may become a candidate by filing with the Boston Retirement Board official nomination papers signed by 100 or more members of the State-Boston System and containing the name, residence, and department of each signer. The names of candidates, who are duly nominated, will be printed on the ballot, and the members voting will mark an X against the name of their choice, or may write in an additional name and mark an X against it. If more than one name is marked the ballot will be invalidated.

The ballot must be signed by the voter and filled out with his residence and department, and with further information, so far as available, from members of the following departments:

JAMES M. CURLEY,

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 1.

CITY OF BOSTON.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, January 15, 1947.

To the Heads of All Departments.

GENTLEMEN.—The Annual Intergovernmental Ball will be held at the Boston Garden on January 31, 1947. It is my earnest desire that all department heads submit the cooperation of the members of their departments to aid in making this the success which it truly deserves to be.

In order that a greater return may be realized this year in our intergovernmental ball, which has been the savings of our country for so long, the price of tickets will include tax. Whereas in past years the tax has been over and above the ticket price. In this way, it is hoped that many who did not subscribe in past years but who now realize the worthiness of this cause will contribute this year. By so doing they will help to make this drive, in 1947, an outstanding one in order that the savings of intergovernmental ball be increased to a greater amount than in past years.

The following changes in the number, rating and compensation of the city employees have been made:

STATE FISCAL AIDS TO CITIES AND TOWNS FOR PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

State aid to municipalities for public elementary and secondary education amounts annually in Massachusetts to six million dollars. This aid constitutes almost one tenth of the total annual expenditures for public education, and thus it is of considerable importance to municipal finance. The funds come from three sources: Over four fifths from income tax proceeds, the remainder from the General Fund and from the income of the Massachusetts School Fund. This aid for elementary and secondary education is in seven forms, which can be classified under three headings: General aid to every city and town, aid to equalize the financial burden of education among the cities and towns, and special aid to small towns. In all cases the aid is in the form of reimbursement, i. e., partly based on expenditures by the municipality.

AIDS PAID TO ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS FROM INCOME TAX REVENUES.

Only since 1919 has the state participated widely in the financing of elementary and secondary schools. Before that time state aid to municipalities was less than 2 per cent of the total cost of education, and was granted only to a limited group of towns. In 1919, however, provision was made for payments from the proceeds of the newly enacted personal income tax to every city and town which met certain teacher salary and qualification standards. Except for slight modifications the program is still the same as that established in 1919 (chapter 363, Acts of 1919). Every city and town is paid a fixed amount for every teacher employed (primary reimbursements), and some municipalities with low valuation per pupil receive additional grants (supplementary reimbursements).

POLICE DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL.

The police personnel of the department on November 30, 1945, consisted of 1 superintendent, 5 deputy superintendents, 28 captains, 63 lieutenants, 1 lieutenant-inspector, 185 sergeants, 1,867 patrolmen, 15 patrolwomen, 94 provisional temporary patrolmen and 1 provisional temporary patrolwoman; total, 2,260.

On November 30, 1945, there was a total of 2,502 persons, including civilian employees, on the rolls of the department.

During the year in General Orders, officers were commended as follows:

Captain, 1; lieutenants, 6; sergeants, 8; patrolmen, 34; department as a whole, 1.

POLICE EXPENDITURES.

During the twelve months ending November 30, 1945, the total expenses of the Boston Police Department amounted to $6,426,363.77. At a meeting of the Board of Trustees held on December 23, 1946, it was voted that the graduate nurses at the Boston City Hospital be given a $200 increase, in addition to the Emergency Compensation Allotment of $200 and the contemplated $200 increase proposed by you for 1947.

COMPENSATION TO PARENTS OF CHARLES G. SULLIVAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 13, 1947.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Law Department in connection with your order, dated July 22, 1946, relative to the matter of compensation to the parents of Charles G. Sullivan, who died as a result of being hit by a golf ball while caddying at the George Wright Municipal Golf Course.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Law Department,
Boston, January 7, 1947.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir.—As a direct result of being struck by a golf ball while working as a caddy at the George Wright Municipal Golf Course in Hyde Park, Charles G. Sullivan, 485 Poplar street, Roslindale, died on the seventh of July, 1946. The City Council on the twenty-second of July, 1946, passed an order requesting the Law Department to take "the necessary steps to compensate the parents of the late Charles G. Sullivan." You have requested me to consider and report on this matter.

From a review of the facts and the pertinent provisions of law there appears to be considerable doubt that Charles Sullivan could be found to be an employee of the City of Boston within the meaning of section 69, chapter 152, of the General Laws. However, his parents may, under section 31 of chapter 152, file a claim for compensation and if the claim is resolved in their favor, they would be entitled to a maximum of $2,500 under this section, and an additional $250 for funeral expenses under section 33 of the same chapter.

The only certain method to secure compensation for the parents of Charles Sullivan would be by Act of the General Court authorizing the city to pay a stated amount to discharge the moral obligations in this case.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH A. SCOLPONETTI,
Corporation Counsel.

COVERING ELEVATED THIRD RAIL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 13, 1947.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I am transmitting herewith a communication received from the President and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway Company in connection with your order dated December 30, 1946, regarding the covering of the third rail of the El, together with inclosure mentioned therein.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Boston Elevated Railway Company,
Boston, January 9, 1947.

Mr. J. Joseph Connors,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.
Dear Sir, In reply to your letter of January 6, with copy of order of the City Council requesting that the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway make immediate plans to cover the third rail of the El for the protection of life, and to insure continuous service in icy weather, I would say that many studies have been made as to the feasibility of covering the third rail but a wholly satisfactory covering for the third rail has not yet been found.

I inclose copy of letter dated April 4, 1946, written by our Vice-President and General Attorney to members of the Committee on Public Safety of the Boston City Council, with regard to the most recent study for covering the third rail in the Cambridge Subway, Dorchester Tunnel and Dorchester Rapid Transit Extension, which is self-explanatory.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
President and General Manager.

Boston Elevated Railway Company,
Boston, April 4, 1946.

To the Committee on Public Safety,
Boston City Council.

Re: Covering of Third Rail on Rapid Transit Lines.
Gentlemen,—The Boston Elevated Railway Company having complied with your request of January 31, 1946, made during the meeting of your committee in the Executive Chamber, City Hall, Boston, that the Company make a study of the question of covering the third rail on the Rapid Transit Lines, herewith reports that a study has been made by the Railway's engineering staff, by our technicians, and by our experienced keymen who are fully qualified to make such a study.

In the first place, it is believed that there can be no question but that the lines being considered exist in a private right of way within the limits of which the general public, as such, is legally excluded.

It should be borne in mind that the portion of the Cambridge-Dorchester Tunnel, known as the Dorchester Rapid Transit Extension, was built by the City of Boston and that the rails and equipment therein are the property of the City of Boston. Any changes such as have been suggested would require the joint action of the Department of Public Utilities, the Transit Department of the City of Boston and the Railway.

It should also be kept in mind that any proposed changes would have to cover the entire Cambridge-Dorchester line and not just the open section known as the Dorchester Rapid Transit Extension. The reason for this is relatively simple. To provide a covering for the third rail, this rail would have to be removed farther away from the nearest track rail than it is at present, and a new type of third rail shoe would have to be installed on the cars to contact the third rail in its new location. It would be impossible to operate cars on the Dorchester Rapid Transit Extension with a part of the line equipped with a covered third rail and leave the remainder of the line with the present third rail, for the reason that the third rail shoe on the cars would not contact both the covered third rail in its new location and the present third rail.

To cover the third rail as was suggested at the hearing would require an estimated expenditure of nine hundred and sixty-one thousand (961,000) dollars.

A breakdown of this estimated expenditure is as follows:

- (a) For changes in roadbed and third rail—$751,000.
- (b) For changes in power equipment—$160,000.
- (c) For changes in rolling stock—$50,000.

In these figures is included the sum of $50,000 for relocating the fence on the West Boston Bridge. It should be noted that:

1. The suggested change involves 20.6 miles of single track.
2. The reconstruction could not be made without stopping the operation of train service and it is impossible to measure the extent of the inconvenience that would result to the public who use this service.
3. The best estimate of the time that would be required to do the work is eleven (11) days.
4. The change would make it unsafe for anyone to use the present footwalk of the West Boston Bridge.
5. The work would necessitate the moving of fences and poles out into the roadway. This might require legislative action.
6. When the work was completed it would have reduced the margin of safety for employees and inspectors who have to go on the line, because of the projection of the shoes on the opposite side of the footwalk.
7. It would not be possible to provide a protected third rail on the Dorchester Rapid Transit Extension without changing the contact shoes on all cars, and changing certain apparatus under the cars; fixed structures, such as conduits, air pipes, etc., would have to be moved to clear the path of the contact shoes on either side of the train.

It is our understanding that a wholly satisfactory covering for a third rail has not yet been found—one, surely, that is not foolproof, and no such device can be depended upon absolutely to prevent accidents.

It is worthy of note that a recent, careful check up of our records for a period of twenty years, shows but five fatalities to trespassers due to the third rail. Of these, three were children, ages respectively, two of them seven years and one ten years; the other two were adults.

As you know, in the Dorchester Extension private right of way, there are no intersections, no crossings or footpaths, which may be used to cross tracks, the whole right of way being fenced in by a seven-foot three-inch chain link fence. This fence is so close to the ground that it is not possible for a child, or anyone else, to get under it. Police Officer Palombo testified at the hearing (page 29 of the transcript), in answer to a suggestion that most of the boys burrow under, that "It is almost impossible to get under. It (fence) has a concrete base all the way over and I tried to pick up the fence and it is impossible to even move it two or three inches." Although a daring or venturesome child or adult might summon up sufficient courage to climb over it, to increase the height of this fence for any reasonable distance would probably not prevent some person from climbing over it.

Now, with reference to illumination of the right of way. The Company has been experimenting for many years with 1,000-foot silhouette lighting at Field's Corner Station on the Clayton street curve. Our studies showed that a headlight of sufficient capacity to illuminate the roadbed would be objectionable for the following reasons—blinding the motormen of trains on the opposite track and throwing the powerful lights on the private property adjoining the right of way. But the principal objection was that it would not illuminate the roadbed on curves, as the light would be fixed in a permanent position, suitable only for tangent tracks. Engineers found that the most practical solution of this entire matter might be to extend this silhouette illumination, which would require ninety-five additional units at a cost of about thirty thousand (30,000) dollars. The Railway is prepared to cooperate with the Transit Department of the City of Boston in effecting the installation of these additional lighting units.

May I be permitted to express my appreciation for the courteous consideration extended to me and the other representatives of the Railway at the hearing before your Committee.

Very truly yours,

CHARLES A. MCCARRON,
Vice-President and General Attorney.

Re: City Council order, December 16, 1946, to establish a standard form of application for abatement.

Dear Sir,—The right to establish any form of an application for abatement is contained in chapter 58 of the General Laws and is entirely governed by legislation.

Chapter 59, section 59, reads as follows:

Pursuant to the above section of the General Laws, the Board of Assessors has no authority to establish any form of an application for abatement inconsistent thereto.

APPROPRIATION RE VETERANS' DISCHARGES AND MORTGAGE PAPERS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 13, 1947.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the City Clerk in which a special appropriation is requested to meet the costs of recording and binding veterans' discharges and mortgage papers.

I am informed that the present appropriation for this purpose is nearly exhausted and needs replenishment immediately in order to keep pace with the great influx of recorded papers in the City Clerk's office.

Accordingly, I submit herewith an order for a special appropriation of ten thousand dollars and respectfully request its passage prior to the submission of the annual budget.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Office of the City Clerk, January 10, 1947.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I respectfully request a special appropriation in the amount of $10,000 be allowed this department for Recording and Binding of Veterans' Discharges and Mortgage Papers, etc.

This appropriation is made necessary in order to properly record a backlog of some 2,100 mortgages, and keep pace with the abnormal number of mortgages filed in this office for recording.

It is hoped that with the addition of three new employees provided for in the budget, plus a continuance of overtime work chargeable to the special appropriation, it will be possible to reduce the number of uncopied mortgages to a reasonable figure.

In view of the fact that the special appropriation of 1946 is nearly exhausted, I respectfully request that the appropriation as herein requested be submitted in advance of the budget, to the City Council.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, City Clerk.

Ordered. That the sum of ten thousand dollars be, and hereby is, appropriated to be expended by the City Clerk as hereinafter specified, said sum to be raised by taxes on the polls and estates in the City of Boston and that all orders hereafter passed by the City Council relating to appropriations, taxes and the interest thereon apply to the appropriations and taxes herein provided for Recording and Binding of Veterans' Discharges and Mortgage Papers, etc., $10,000.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION RE GARBAGE DISPOSAL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Finance Commission, January 8, 1947.
To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

The Finance Commission would like to make plain its position in the present situation with regard to the city contracts for the collection and disposal of refuse. That position is now, as it has been for many years past, simply this. The Commission is convinced that the separation of the collection of refuse from the disposal of it, in city contracts, and the disposal of refuse in modern incinerators is the most scientific and the most economical method. It is the accepted method in all the large cities of the country and in a great many of the smaller municipalities. Furthermore, it is the only method by which Boston will release itself from the control which a few contractors now exercise over the business of picking up and disposing of household refuse and the refuse collected from the business centers. Therefore, as stated many times in formal reports and in conferences with public works commissioners and with mayors, the Commission believes Boston should adopt incineration. When incinerators are provided there will be no excuse for awarding contracts for collection of refuse without advertising. Competition, even without incineration, could have been obtained for the 1947 contracts had the effort to obtain such been started at the right time.

The present control over the contracts for this work by a small group of contractors has resulted in charges having skyrocketed within the past few years. A comparison of prices paid in 1941 with prices paid in 1946 and the contract prices for 1947 reveals the extent of the increase in cost of this service. This comparison follows:

DISTRICT.	1941.	1946.	1947.
South Boston.	*$46,680	$100,932	$115,100

* South Boston became a contract district in 1942; figure used is that of 1942.

† This figure includes three months of year 1947.

$10,000; nine months at $37,000 per month. In a similar manner, the disposal charge of $3.00 per month for two months in 1947 the disposal charge would be $6.00 per month for twelve months.

The cost of disposal of refuse and garbage by separate contract to the central business area and adjacent residential areas has also strikingly increased. Comparison follows:

1941.	1946.	1947.
$320,000	$414,000	$488,320

Contractors' control of refuse collection is a development which in large measure, came with the war. During this period the prosecution of the war had first call on all services and no contractor not then engaged in refuse collection was interested in it to the extent that he would try to obtain any of the work. Equipment available for it was limited to that then in such actual use because—due to war demands—many contractors could employ their equipment in other lines and preferred it; labor was scarce, and a new contractor in the field would have found it difficult to obtain the necessary manpower to perform the service. Finally, it would have been difficult for contractors not then engaged in this work to have found satisfactory dumping places, because those then holding the contracts had what seemed to be a monopoly of the right to use the only dumps available. These conditions were enough to keep the number of those who might seek the contracts to the small number who already had them.

The contract-making authorities contend despite the present greater volume of available equipment, that there has been no change in these wartime conditions. They add, in defense of award without advertised competition, that the present contractors give adequate service and, for that reason alone, it is best to continue to give them the work. Moreover, the contract-making authorities seem to feel positively that no acceptable competition is obtainable; that no other contractor would dare submit a bid; that no other contractor could get a foothold in the work. Apparently what they mean is that the present group of contractors, by one means or another, would make it impossible for any other to carry on the work successfully.

So long as city officials follow that philosophy, there is little hope of changing the situation. Nevertheless, there are many—including contractors—who claim that equipment is now available to many other contractors, and that access to dumping places can now be arranged by any who obtain the contracts. They point to the Brighton-Alston situation where it is now the city, not the contractor, which provides the dumping place. Yet the present Brighton-Alston contractor has alone been given consideration in the award of the contract for that district on the assumption that he had exclusive use of the only local dump available.

Whether or not it has been possible to obtain competition for these contracts, no serious effort has been made to obtain it. In fact, the course followed by the city contract-making authorities makes real competition practically impossible, which can be readily shown. Each year end when the old contract is about to expire, the contractor presents his demand for carrying on the work in the coming year. If the award is to be by negotiation between the city agent and the contractor, this demand is presented in a conference which takes place between the middle and the end of December. The contracts begin January 1. If, on the other hand, the city advertises for bids for the work, the advertisement will appear usually about the first week in December. It has often been later.

The result in either case is that the city receives only what amounts to an ultimatum from the contractors. In negotiations, the contractor in effect informs the city, "Pay us ——— dollars, or we won't work." In response to advertising for bids, the price offered will be the same. The reason is that when this demand is made, the city has made no plans to take over the work by any other method if it considers the demands unreasonable. It has been observed that the contractors never reduce their original demands. Sometimes there may be several conferences, but eventually—often on New Year's eve—the city accepts each contractor's ultimatum.

In other words, at the time of the award, there is nothing which the contract-making authorities can do but yield to the contractors. Collection of refuse must be continuous, and the old contract is expiring on December 31; and if the city is to have January collection, it must be arranged for by the only method and price then obtainable which is the acceptance of the contractor's price.

If the city is to try seriously to obtain the best price for this work, it must start to obtain it several weeks earlier than is the custom. In September or October is not too early. There would then be plenty of time to plan another method to follow if the contractors' prices are unsatisfactory. By delaying determination of the awards until the latter part of December, the city, in this respect, is at the mercy of a few contractors. The city must accept their demands or there will be no arranged collections on and after January 1.

Many times in the past decade the Finance Commission has advocated abandonment of the ancient contract disposal method. The Commission has recommended the substitution of disposal by incineration, preferably under city auspices. This method can then reduce collection costs, but only if the city will seek competition for the collection contracts. Many contractors now have, or can obtain, the trucks and labor necessary for collection only. Any contractor with equipment can pick up the refuse and truck it to an incinerator. The "old bogey" about dumps being controlled will no longer exist.

Incineration will be less harmful to the health of the people and no more costly than dumping refuse on land. The dumps in Boston are few and, such as they are, they are not far enough away from residences to be proof against complaint that they are menaces to the public health. There is no such objection to incinerators. Furthermore, one big incinerator in the South End of the city can become a source of profit by intelligent use of its by-products.

Recently the Finance Commission has been informed by the Public Works Commissioning that he has received instructions to advertise immediately for bids for the construction of an incinerator in Brighton. The appropriation for it has been available for months. This would be the first of a number (4 or 5) which the Finance Commission recommended be constructed on the perimeter of the city. The Commission has also been informed by the Public Works Commissioner that he was instructed by the Mayor to take necessary steps immediately for an incinerator on Southampton street, in the vicinity of the City Hospital. (The Finance Commission originally suggested as the site city-owned land on Albany street but has no objection to the Southampton street site instead.)

Simultaneously the newspapers carried an announcement from the Mayor that he would recommend to the Council the appropriation of $2,000,000 to be used in this incinerator building program.

Because of these representations by the Public Works Commissioner and the Mayor, the Finance Commission assumes that at last the abandonment of disposal by contractors in land dumps and the substitution thereof of disposal by incineration is in sight.

A lower cost of this important public service and a scientific disposal method are not the only good to which the citizens can look forward as a result of this decision. It may be and can well be that the city has seen and heard the last of the annual New Year's eve clamor about the contracts for the disposal of city refuse.

Respectfully submitted,

LEO J. DUNN,

PAYMENT TO WIDOW OF JOHN J. MAGNER.

Coun. KINSELLA offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council in meeting assembled go on record as approving legislation that will permit the payment of an annuity to the widow of John J. Magner, late member of the Boston Fire Department, provided such legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and the City Council of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PRINTING OF MUNICIPAL REGISTER, ETC.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Statistics Department be authorized, under the direction of the Committee on Rules, to prepare and have printed the Municipal Register for the current year; and that the Clerk of Committees be authorized to prepare and have printed a pocket edition of the Organization of the City Government, the expense of said register and organization to be charged to the appropriation for City Documents.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to direct the trustees of the Boston City Hospital to pay to the chief engineer of the City Hospital a salary commensurate with his duties.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to consider the advisability of increasing the pensions paid to all retired city employees.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PEDESTRIAN STAIRS FROM COLUMBIA STATION BRIDGE.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:

Whereas, The Traffic Commission agrees that a hazardous traffic condition dangerous to pedestrians exists on Old Colony avenue, in the vicinity of Lynch's Gasoline Station, Ward 7, it is Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to have plans prepared and funds allocated for the construction of pedestrian stairs leading down from the Columbia Station Bridge to the sidewalk below adjoining the City of Boston Weighing Station so that people living in Old Harbor Village will not have to cross heavily traveled dangerous highways when they are going to and coming from Columbia Station of the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, in filing this order, which is similar to the one I filed about one month ago, in which at that time I requested the Park Commissioner to put enough money in the budget for the stairs leading down to the platform below Columbia Station so that people would not get injured going to and coming from the Old Harbor Village to Columbia Station, at that time I was informed that particular project would come under the supervision of the Park Commissioner, but I found out last week that the Park Commissioner returned a memorandum to the City Council stating through his Honor the Mayor that he thought, after due study was made, that particular project would come under the Public Works Commissioner. So, rather than writing personal letters to the Public Works Commissioner, I am asking the City Council to have this made a matter of record, and I hope the Public Works Commissioner gets on the ball and puts enough money into the budget to have this work done early in the spring.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

DRIVEWAY OPENING, RUTHERFORD AVENUE.

Coun. KINSELLA—I make a motion, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella, what is your motion?

Coun. KINSELLA—I move the matter of the sidewalk opening for Mr. Scheider be taken from the 1946 Committee on Licenses and acted upon by the Body. I would like to speak on the motion, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I am reluctant to do this, in view of the fact that the Chair has announced committees for 1947, but this is a perfunctory matter. Mr. Scheider received permission from the Street Department to construct a one-story lubritorium in Charlestown and as a consequence thereof has filed for sidewalk openings, one to be 15 feet and the other to be extended from 10 feet to 15 feet. In short, he has a 10-foot opening which he wants to increase to 15 feet, and he requires in addition to that, opening another 15-foot opening. I think the members of the Council will recognize this is not controversial, and I do wish the new chairman were here, but Councilor Seannell, the chairman for last year, agreed he would advance the motion to the Body, and since I do not see either Councilor Seannell or Coffey here, and we are holding up this man, and since it is a routine, perfunctory matter, I would like to ask the Body to vote that approval so that Scheider can get going with his business.

President KELLY—How long has that been in committee, councilor?

Coun. KINSELLA—Some time early in December, Mr. President, I have not checked, but I will check it.

President KELLY—It is a difference between 12 and 15 votes. If it is early in December, it is 12; later on it is 15. That is why I ask.

Coun. KINSELLA—I will ask the Chair to suspend action to get the facts which are reliable.

President KELLY—Thank you, councilor.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, a point of order.

President KELLY—Councilor Hannon.

Coun. HANNON—How is it in any committee? The committees were abolished. We agreed on that at the last meeting that the committees were abolished, and everything in there abolished with them. I think the matter is before us now unless it is again referred to committee.

President KELLY—The matter is still in committee, but last week we did not have any members of the committee so they could not function last week. We have now new committees. We have named a new committee today.

Coun. HANNON—The matter was referred to the old committee, and the old committee was abolished. I can't see how any matter can stay with the committee unless it is referred to the committee.

President KELLY—The matter will stay in the committee, councilor, and when the new committee comes in, it can take whatever action it so desires to take.

Coun. HANNON—I raise a point of order, Mr. President. Everything in the committees is referred to the Body. It is to be referred again by the Body to the committee.

President KELLY—I am sorry. The point of order is not well taken. It is still in committee, and the new committees were appointed today and they can take whatever action they want and see fit to take on what is left with the committees.

Coun. HANNON—I will make an order later to take care of it.

President KELLY—Any further orders, motions or resolutions? Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—State the point of information.

Coun. LINEHAN—It seems to me the list of committees is getting longer and longer every year, and this would probably be a good time that the Committee on Post-War Planning be abolished because the war is over, unless we are thinking of the next war which might come in the near future. I wonder if we ought to have that committee showing at all.

President KELLY—The Chair will entertain a motion to abolish any committee when there are fifteen members of the Council present. Any further motions, orders and resolutions?

Coun. HANNON—What good is the Committee on Voting Machines? As a point of curiosity, we found last year we had no function.

President KELLY—If there is a motion to abolish when fifteen members are present, it will be considered. Councilor Cantwell moves we now take a recess for the purpose of going into Executive Session.

RECESS.

On motion of Councilor Cantwell, the Council voted to take a recess at 2:35 p. m. The members reassembled and were called to order by President Kelly at 3:05 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) for appropriation of $10,000 to be expended by the City Clerk for recording and binding of veterans' discharges and mortgage papers, etc.—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order. The order was passed, yeas 15, nays 0.

Yeas—Councilors Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Chase, Cook, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Linehan, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Sullivan—15.
Nays—0.

LOAN IN ANTICIPATION OF TAXES.

By direction of President Kelly, the Council took up No. 2 on the calendar, under unfinished business, viz.:

Order for temporary loan of $40,000,000 in anticipation of taxes.

On January 6, 1947, the said order was read once and passed, yeas 19, nays 0.

The order was given its second reading and passage, yeas 15, nays 0.

Yeas—Councilors Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Chase, Cook, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Linehan, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Sullivan—15.

Nays—0.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella?

Coun. KINSELLA—I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my motion made a short while back on the Scheider sidewalk opening in deference to the absence of the chairman and vice-chairman.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella asks unanimous consent to withdraw his motion in reference to the Scheider sidewalk opening. Hearing no objection—Councilor Russo?

Coun. RUSSO—A point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Russo.

Coun. RUSSO—May I be informed by the Chair, if the chairman and vice-chairman are not present, can the next one in line take action?

President KELLY—If the committee has taken action, any member can make the report. Hearing no objection, Councilor Kinsella's request is granted.

ABOLITION OF CERTAIN COMMITTEES.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—I now move the Committees for Post-War Planning and Voting Machines be dropped from the committees of the Council.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan makes a motion that the Committees on Post-War Planning and Voting Machines be dropped from the committees of the Council.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to add several other committees but, due to the fact that the chairmen of the committees are not here, I do not take it upon myself to make that motion. I have asked the chairmen of the Committees on Post-War Planning and Voting Machines, and they both agree they had just as soon see the committees dropped, due to the fact that there is no work done by these committees, and also, due to the fact that I am a member of them, I think I have probably the right at least to get up and make the motion that they be done away with. There is absolutely no need for the Post-War Planning, the war is over, and we don't look into the future. We do not need it unless there is a war around the corner and we have post-war planning which we did not have during this war. I hope the Council will go along with me on these two committees being dropped. Next week we can move on the Military Affairs, Public Utilities, and any other committee the Council thinks may be abolished.

President KELLY—The Chair will state it takes 15 votes to abolish a committee. Those in favor will please rise. The motion is carried, and the Committees on Post-War Planning and Voting Machines have been abolished.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley.

Coun. BAYLEY—I move the Committee on Military Affairs, of which I am a member, be abolished.

President KELLY—Just a minute, councilor. Is the chairman of that committee present in the Council?

Coun. BAYLEY—He is not.

President KELLY—Don't you think out of courtesy to him you might withdraw your motion until he is present?

Coun. BAYLEY—All right, I will.

President KELLY—Councilor Keenan.

Coun. KEENAN—As a member of the Committee on Military Affairs, I make a motion the committee be abolished.

President KELLY—There is no rule to that effect, counselor. The tellers will kindly proceed with the balloting.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Not until the count of the ballots is through, counselor.

Coun. CHASE—Is it in order to talk on this?

President KELLY—Not now while the process of voting is taking place.

Coun. CHASE—The voting had not started when I had the floor.

President KELLY—The tellers are taking the vote.

Coun. CHASE—They had not started collecting the votes until after I took the floor.

President KELLY—You are not in order to talk on this matter. The vote is being taken.

Whole number of ballots cast 16, yeas 13, nays 3, and the appointments were confirmed.

President KELLY—Counselor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—I move, sir, that we reconsider the vote just taken. Talking on the motion, sir.

President KELLY—Counselor Chase moves that we reconsider the vote just taken. Talking on the motion, Counselor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I take it, sir, that this matter has not been referred to the Committee on Constables and Confirmations.

Mr. President, may I remind you we apparently are voting blindly in approving these constables?

I think, in view of the fact that I have no knowledge whatever as to the character of these men, as to their ability in performing the duties of constable, it is only proper for me to vote against them, and I think, sir, in view of lack of such knowledge apparently on the part of the counselors here, everyone should vote against them. If these matters are not referred to your proper committees, then, sir, I think you should abolish the committees.

The committee apparently was appointed to check on the qualifications of men such as these before they are submitted to your full Body for approval.

Mr. President, I would like to know, sir, who Mr. Edward F. Collins and Mr. James Finigan are.

I would like to know from what districts they come and where his Honor the Mayor proposes to use them. I would like to know, sir, whether or not it is necessary to have these constables on the pay roll of the City of Boston. Many times in the past, sir, the Boston Finance Commission has criticized the fact that so many thousands of dollars annually are spent for constables. I would like to know what their duties are, sir, what the Mayor proposes to do with these men, if they are essential to the proper functioning of our municipal service. To date, sir, nothing has been given to your Council in the way of enlightening us on this matter. We are simply here automatically approving two men whom apparently his Honor the Mayor wants on the public pay rolls, and I don't think, sir, under those conditions we should be approving them. I hope, sir, your Council will refer the matter to the Committee on Constables.

President KELLY—Talking on reconsideration, Counselor Hurley.

Coun. HURLEY—I certainly don't agree with the counselor from Ward 4 (Counselor Chase),

Mr. President. This is my eighth year in the Boston City Council, and I think it is the tenth year of the counselor from Ward 4, and I think probably eight years out of the ten that he has served he has had a constable doing the same type of work these men are doing today, and I have not heard him once in the last eight years say that the constables should not be appointed. I have heard it said here time and time again during this year, under this particular administration, no matter what is proposed, it has to be wrong, but anything that happened in the seven previous years was legitimate, legal, and honorable. I can't imagine, Mr. President, why this terrible turnabout should happen under this administration. The man had not sat down in the chair for a month when he assumed this antagonistic attitude. Everything that was proposed, yes, last January, was wrong, but, as I stated before, there was nothing wrong in the seven or eight previous years that I have been in the Council about the appointment of constables not authorized to serve civil process—meaning that they were getting paid by the City of Boston. It takes a long time for someone to understand the way to get around to thinking that something is wrong.

It is rarely I get up to criticize the counselor from Ward 4 (Counselor Chase) but I don't know, something has happened this year or in the year 1946 that certainly does not go along with my way of thinking. If there is something brought up from downstairs that is right and honorable and constructive, the counselor should get on his feet and say, "That is all right; that is fairly good; I think this is going to turn out all right," but it seems as though as soon as it hits the Council floor it is no good because Curley sent it up. When Kerigan was Mayor and when Governor Tobin was Mayor there was no such opposition, and I for one never heard him utter a word against the appointment of constables until last year. I hope, members, you will go along and not vote reconsideration, but let these appointments stand confirmed.

President KELLY—Counselor Cook.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, in the year I have served here I have learned something about the workings of the City Council, and as a member of your committee I thought it was the function of the committee to do some work and investigate so that they could make a record, so that the Council could act upon it. I am surprised that the Mayor sent up the names of two constables and that they were not referred to the Committee on Constables.

President KELLY—Counselor Cook, let me say when I laid this over under the law for one week there were no committees existing and I could not refer it to the committee.

Coun. COOK—The explanation explains something, but it is not entirely satisfactory. I do not see why it cannot go to the committee.

President KELLY—Counselor Sullivan, for what purpose?

Coun. SULLIVAN—A point of information from the counselor from Ward 12 (Counselor Cook).

President KELLY—Does Counselor Cook yield?

Coun. COOK—Yes.

President KELLY—Counselor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN, Mr. Chairman, if you will refer to page 6 of the minutes of the last meeting, the second column, appointments by the Mayor, the Chair referred these two names to the committee, and knowing the committee would not be appointed until today, which would mean these two names would be held up until the following week. I moved at that time these two names be placed on the table, so that they could be acted upon today and so that these two men would not lose two weeks' pay, and that was voted on unanimously, to lay on the table for one week.

President KELLY—Counselor Cook.

Coun. COOK—That is still another explanation, nice, but not satisfactory. I think the committee —and I notice I am still on it—should have a chance to perform its function. Otherwise, I think the Committee on Constables should be abolished along with the other committees.

President KELLY—Counselor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, last year we had an unfortunate series of instances involving the appointment of constables which led to a lot of criticism and unfavorable comment and publicity, as the result of which it was either passed in the Body or it was decided upon by the Committee on Constables, I am not sure which, that in the future there would be no confirmations until each person appointed by the Mayor's office had been briefed by the committee, and the report sent back to the Council. It was at that time, if I remember correctly, either the week before or at some time, that because of the fact that there had been no reference of any of these appointments to the committee that I resigned as chairman and as member of that committee, feeling it had absolutely no right to exist if it was not going to do anything. We have established the rule that we will take no action on these appointments until there has been an investigation or an interview by the Committee on Constables and Confirmations. It is too bad to deprive people of a week's work; nobody particularly wants to do that, but that by far is the lesser of the two evils if, in order to do that, we have to deprive the Council and the City of Boston of the right to interview and investigate. There has been absolutely nothing in what I say that should be construed by Counselor Hurley as an attempt to discredit these men or the administration or anybody else. There is no attempt on my part to say anybody is doing the wrong thing, but, if we have rules, we should follow them. I imagine these men are average men, of average honesty and average intelligence, and that they will pass the qualifications set up by the committee, but until we have heard the committee's report we should not do a thing about it.

President KELLY—The Chair will again state that the Council voted unanimously that these two names be laid over for a week, under the law, and put on the calendar.

Coun. MUCHNICK—But the Council can do anything it wants this week.

President KELLY—You are right, counselor. Counselor Kinsella, not having spoken.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I want to ask a point of information, through you, of the clerk.

President KELLY—Counselor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Which takes precedence, Mr. President, the rule to put over for a week, or the action of the committee, in view of the fact that the committee is a recent creation? We might say our rule is apparently an old rule, my point being if it goes over for a week it has met the requirements of the rule, at which time the Body can act arbitrarily on it in spite of no action on it.

President KELLY—The Chair will state the law has been complied with when the appointments are not confirmed until at least seven days after they are submitted. Counselor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—A further point of information.

President KELLY—Counselor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Is that by law or ordinance?

President KELLY—That is by law, counselor.

Coun. KINSELLA—In holding the matter one week before confirmation, then we can at the end of that week, despite committee action or no committee action, act upon it as soon as we have met the provision of a week?

President KELLY—That is right, counselor.

Coun. KINSELLA—One further point of information, Mr. President. I would like to ask the clerk through you whether or not we can by parliamentary procedure reverse the vote that has been balloted?

President KELLY—We can reverse the vote by balloting in the same manner.

Coun. KINSELLA—Only by ballot?

President KELLY—Or by roll call. The Chair will ask for a roll call. Counselor Linehan, not having spoken.

Coun. LINEHAN—Thank you, Mr. President. I would like to ask you, Mr. President, does anybody know whether or not these two men are being appointed by the City Councilors and also, the second question, how many constables have we now in the city service? I think if we cannot have an answer to these two questions we ought to wait until next week to take final action on these two names.

President KELLY—Well, I understand that the Mayor's appointments make a total of 55 constables on the pay roll. Counselor Bayley, not having spoken.

Coun. BAYLEY—I think the point of the distinguished counselor (Counselor Linehan) is well taken. Mr. President, when some of us made this vote last week, we did so in the belief that this matter would be referred to the committee. You attempted to refer it to the committee, but there was no such committee.

President KELLY—That is right.

Coun. BAYLEY—Therefore, the matter was laid on the table for one week with my understanding and belief that when that week was up, as soon as the committees came into being, it would be referred to the committee. I see no reason why this has to go through today and that we give up the usual practice we agreed on last year, that this would be referred to the committee. I think this motion should be reconsidered and that it should be sent to the Committee on Constables and Confirmations in accordance with the understanding we had last year.

President KELLY—A member can vote in any way he so desires, counselor. Counselor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, the reason for laying this matter on the table last week, as I said before, was that these two men, and I don't know who they are, would not be penalized a week's pay. It was all right for us to go along last year and change the procedure which we have had in previous years in referring all these confirmations to the Committee on Constables. That committee took upon itself, as I understand, to pry into a man's personal life, namely, if that man had a court record. Who are we in this Body here, or in the committee, to ask any man if he has a court record? Do we go up when we are seeking office and advertise our court records, if we have one? Who are we to ask if a man has a court record? Who are we to judge a man, whether it be one of our own appointees or an appointee of the Mayor? If we had the authority on the approval of department heads to go into their background, then it would be a different story, but these here, along with weighers, who come here before this committee, are the only ones this Council approves, and I don't believe, and I know for one I am not inquiring—that anyone should inquire into a man's background. If any counselor in my seven years' experience had any opposition to an individual coming to this Body for appointment, and it was placed on the floor, then the appointment was held up, but today on these two, and I am saying again I don't know who they are, there is no opposition by any counselor, and I hope the confirmation remains and that reconsideration will not be considered.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—One minute, counselor. Counselor Bayley.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I disagree thoroughly with the counselor from Ward 9

(Counselor Sullivan). I think the Committee on Constables did a fine job when it did investigate the background of men appointed officials of Boston. I want to know the background of the man, that is the point. I want to know if he has a prison record. I am not going to vote confirmation of a man who has been away 25 years in jail. I do not believe he should be appointed a constable. It is our job to see that men with long prison records are not appointed to responsible positions in the city. Our committee has a right to know if they have a court record or a prison record, or what the qualifications for the job may be. We have to draw the line in putting in responsible people to perform the job they are to do, and they have not shown they are fit for such jobs. I am surprised that, being a counselor, he is not interested in the background of the men. I want to know that background, and I want the committee to come in and say, "We recommend this man. He has no court record, he has no prison record; he is a good man." But I am not going to vote blindly.

President KELLY—Counselor Moriarty, not having spoken.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, before aspiring for public office, a good many of my elders oftentimes advised me, "Why don't you keep away from the game? You are nothing but an errand boy; you do the bidding of others in piecemeal affairs." For the past year I have not only come to realize I am an errand boy, but I think some of us seem to be self-appointed police records. But they will go before the court of God, however, to answer for their thievery. So I think we have good and plenty reasons to consider other greater matters than what a man's background is. If he is on the city streets, he certainly has satisfied the authorities he should be there.

President KELLY—Councillor Bryan.

Coun. BRYAN—Mr. President, as chairman of the Committee on Constables and Confirmations, I think in all fairness to the Council and everyone concerned, that this should go through the regular channels and come back in again next week.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councillor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I don't see why we should penalize these two men a week's pay. That is what we are doing. We ourselves would not want to be penalized one day's pay, let alone one week's pay. Answering the gentleman from Ward 5 (Councillor Bayley), you might expect that from the type of people from which he springs in the Back Bay. In the past week we had to take fifty of these constables and to string them along Tremont street. Tremont street on the right-hand side going out is Ward 5 and Ward 4, and on the left-hand side it is Wards 3 and 9; in other words, better known as the other side of the tracks. Fifty of these constables were spread out on Tremont street for the sole purpose of stopping the people from the Back Bay from bringing their rubbish and garbage in to Wards 3 and 9 and depositing this rubbish in our alleyways. The people from which he springs have their money. They gained their money through having a license

President KELLY—Councillor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I don't think we should go into the background of the members of the Body, whether blue blood, black blood or green blood. I move we rule that out of order.

Coun. SULLIVAN—He is going into the background of these men who do not possess possibly blue blood and as long as he has gone into it, I am justified in answering him. Now, he has brought into this discussion — President KELLY—Wait a minute. I allowed Councillor Bayley to go into the background, and I am going to allow the councillor to speak.

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of order, Mr. President.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. LINEHAN—I think it is specifically a point of parliamentary order that you cannot go into the background and personalities of the members of the Body. I do think it is within the City Council's powers to go into the background of employees of the City of Boston before they are appointed, and I wish to have the President rule on that.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, before you answer that, I would like to make a statement.

President KELLY—Councillor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I think, Mr. President, before we go into the background of any city employee we ought to go into the background of our own members.

President KELLY—The Chair will state he is going to rule anybody out of order for the rest of the year who indulges in any kind of personalities as to any members of the Council. According to the rules, you cannot indulge in personalities. Councillor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—A point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Does Councillor Sullivan yield?

Coun. SULLIVAN—Yes.

Coun. KINSELLA—Is the Chair going to make an effort to distinguish between personalities as a result of names and a blanket indictment without the use of names?

President KELLY—The Chair will state it will rule on each case as it arises, councillor. Councillor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—In the history of my seven years up here, the only time an appointment was held up was when some individual councillor had a complaint to make of that individual seeking appointment through this Body. I brought an appointment here one time of my own constable. They asked me if the man had a court record and they wanted a history of him. I told the committee they could go to hell. Who the hell were they or I in this Body here to ask any man his background. The name is good enough if it comes up here because it must have originated on the second floor. If any councillor has any opposition, let him take the floor and oppose the appointment. I don't think we should pin badges on ourselves because it has been proven we are not an investigating body and we have no authority to do so, whether it be the full Body or a committee. I don't see why any man should divulge whether he has a court record or not. Apparently some of those from one section of the city think once you have a court record you are no good. As I said before, Mr. President, if we are going to investigate, let us start with our own members first and see how many stones are thrown. I am opposed to those seeking to look into a man's background because the man might be better than any one of the twenty-two of us up here, and who are we to ask him if he has a court record? I don't believe it should be in the power of the committee, and I know if I have a man for an appointment coming through here, they will get no such information from him or from me. I will fight the appointment out here on the floor. I hope, gentlemen, these two names Finigan and Collins and, as I told you before, I don't know who they are, but I did take the floor last week so these two men would not sacrifice a week's pay, and I asked under the law they be laid over for one week, and I hope they will stay confirmed.

President KELLY—Talking on reconsideration, Councillor Hannon, —not having spoken.

Coun. HANNON—It is too bad, Mr. President, that we cannot have an honest difference of opinion without indulging in personalities. I certainly don't care offhand who the gentlemen are. However, I do care as a member of this Body how this Body functions and how the members of this Body perform their duties. We are elected to do a certain job, and regardless of the fact that sometimes this job might become distasteful and sometimes on this job we might have to exercise a certain amount of courage, at the same time we have a job to do, and if we are not going to do that job they might as well abolish the committees of the whole Body. I don't care who Finigan is or who Collins is. The fact that they have this or that pertaining to their names or characters does not mean anything. They come up here to us as total strangers, but we here on this Council have certain functions to perform, and one of the functions is to have the Committee on Constables and Confirmations which looks over the names referred to us and either recommends that they be approved or recommends that they be not approved. I hope, because I get up here to fight for the proper performance of the functions of the City Councilors, that I am not going to be accused of any disfavor to either Collins or Finigan. I don't know who they are, and I don't care who they are. I don't know what their characters are but, as far as I am concerned, they stand here now just as honest and just as decent as I am or any other member here. We have a Committee on Constables. What have we the committee for? It is not our fault that these names were submitted at the particular time when no committee existed. Why weren't the names sent up a week before? Why weren't they sent up two weeks before? Why aren't they held up until next week? We are not depriving anybody of a week's pay. I certainly am not, but I am here as a member of the Council, and the rules of the Council are that any appointment submitted to us over which we have the power of confirmation shall be referred to the Committee on Constables and Confirmations. We have that committee and that committee has certain rights, and I don't think that I or any other member of the Council should deprive a committee of the rights which we have given it. What has a court record got to do with it? Nobody here, I dare say, knows whether or not these men have court records, and it gets under your skin when you see how a certain gentleman can misinterpret an opinion or argument, and throw a smoke screen about a court record. What do we care about that? It is up to the committee to determine whether or not these men are properly qualified to be constables of the City of Boston. I have never seen and have nothing against Collins or Finigan, and it would be the last thing in the world I would do to deprive a man of a week's pay. We don't know whether they will get the week's pay because somebody else has to approve it after we get through with it. It might be held up later on. I had a motion downstairs about three weeks before it was confirmed. What was the matter with that? How do we know these names are going to be approved immediately simply because we pass them? I say, gentlemen, it is not a question of supporting them here and now. It is a question of supporting yourself. What are we, men or puppets? If we have any courage, if we have any intelligence, are we going to function as City Councilors or are we merely going to sit here and say "Yes" and have someone say, through the smoke screen, "You vote against this one or that one." If we do, we are not doing our job as City Councilors. Our job in the City Council is to see these matters go to the committee. That committee exists, and the chairman of that committee has stated he wants these matters referred to him. Our first duty is to ourselves as councillors representing the people who sent us here. Our first job is to do our own job well and leave personalities and characteristics out of it. The idea of saying because you are doing this or that you are trying to impugn a man's character. There is no such thing, and I think it is cowardly of any councillor to get up here and holler merely because a man has guts enough or courage enough to follow his own convictions. Some councillors try to take advantage and say, "You are voting against the Mayor or the character represented by the name on the paper here." None of us know these men, but each one of us know the functions of the Boston City Council. Our function is to proceed in an orderly fashion. That orderly fashion demands that these names go to the committee for approval. I am voting along with the Council rules, and I am voting with the chairman of the Committee on Constables and Confirmations. I am voting for reconsideration so this matter may be referred to the proper committee.

President KELLY—Councillor Keenan, —not having spoken.

Coun. KEENAN—I would like a point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—What information?

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, I want information of Finigan and Collins.

President KELLY—The clerk will give the addresses.

The CLERK—Edward F. Collins, 10 Park Avenue, James Finigan, 10 B. R. Jamaica Plain.

President KELLY—Councillor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I would like to ask through the Chair a question of the Committee on Constables and Confirmations.

President KELLY—Councillor Bryan is the chairman.

Coun. KINSELLA—Would you be good enough to tell the Body what questions you ask of these candidates who come before you and how closely you scrutinize them?

Coun. BRYAN—Councillor Kinsella, in answering your question, we call each applicant in and check with the residence, what work he has done before, and sometimes we do ask if they have a court record, and any information we think would be helpful in the position, they are going to take.

President KELLY—Councillor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—One more question I would like to ask the chairman. I can't remember myself any rejections they have ever recommended, but does the Chair remember rejecting anybody and for what reason during the past year, 1946?

President KELLY—Councillor Bryan.

Coun. BRYAN—Mr. President there were no rejections.

President KELLY—Councillor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Addressing another question. Even in the case of those with police records?

Coun. BRYAN—We did not have anyone with police records last year, Mr. President.

Coun. KINSELLA—I don't want to be tied up in this, but it seems to me it might be all right to impose certain obligations on people who are at our mercy, provided our own conduct is above reproach. Mr. President, I can see some merit in the suggestion of Councillor Bayley. I can see a great deal more merit in exhibiting a little Christian charity for people who have hit an economic rock bottom and who have to come almost on their hands and knees begging for patronage work at the hands of the Mayor or some councillor who might see fit to sponsor them. I challenge any member of this Council or any person now present in this Chamber to go out on the streets and pick at random anyone of whom it can be said that he, the councillor, is better than that person; or, taking the other tack, that the other person is better than himself, in both instances in the moral sense. I don't want to go too far, because I have a great regard for the attention and courtesy that is paid me when I speak here, because all the members know I am speaking my opinion, and I want to extend that courtesy and regard to others regardless of the diametrically opposite views of that person. I will go straight to the hit in saying any requirement that a person coming in here be as pure as driven snow should provide that those who make the rule are without sin and without guile. In your secret heart, Mr. President, and I address the membership through you, examine yourself and ask if you ever had your just deserts at any time in your life for anything you ever did which broke some rule of God or man, and ask yourself how you would like to have it follow you down the long corridor of time, so that every move you make toward ultimate responsible employment is going to be flouted by the hypocritical, sanctimonious, psalm-singing attitude of someone who probably is not fit to polish your shoes. Make your rule apply to yourself first, and see that you live up to the rule. We have had evidences in this state not too long ago of moral turpitude of people who shielded that turpitude until they were elected—mind you, not appointed, elected—into exalted positions, and shrewdly enough and wisely enough they did not show the other sides of their faces until they came into their positions, from which they began to break into malfeasance, nonfeasance, and misfeasance in office—men with far more prominence than any constable of the City of Boston will attain, men who came into the service of the people by their background, social, financial, economic, and political. The average constable wants the price of his week's expenses; in brief, wants a job. Why do we have to torture these people with references to police records that represent not a great amount of inquiry but represent the stupidity of having been caught? The State House today is hung with portraits of people who inherited money that was made in the rum and the slave trade, and when you tell them that, mister, you smile. Now, we have two obscure little people out of three-quarters of a million, neither one of whom is known to me, but neither one of whom would I shun, and we will hence, out of an opportunity to put them to work at once because there may be buried away in the oblivion of the past some little delinquency of the type of which we ourselves are guilty every day. What rotten stinking hypocrisy! Let him who is without sin cast the first stone, and no man did. What a mistake was made that we did not come from the house on the hill, but had to be content to be born in the house in the bow-lows, and a smug, self-satisfied smile can be seen around the lips of a man who says, if not nobody, at least to himself, "I will take their sin when I need it, but they have nothing to hope for from me but intolerance when they are at my mercy." We have had a lot this particular one go into committee. I come from South Boston and I number many people among my friends who have been wrong on more than one occasion with society. I have found people where, you might say, they have served their time and have come out good members of the community and who since then are working in honest employment and doing a good job, and I dare say men such as they are could be put on the job of constable and do a good job for the city. I feel as though that can be done right in the City Council if we vote for men who might have had a record some years back. I certainly don't think we would be doing wrong to give him a further chance to make good in society. I don't think anybody here is putting a stigma on any of these men or any other constable appointed. I don't feel as though, when I get up to take issue, not you might say with an act of a member of the Council but on a principle, the President of the Council or a member, on adopting a policy of certain items without giving them to the proper committees; I don't think I should be chastised because we say they should go to the committee. If they don't, let us abolish all the committees. The other thing to be considered—I can well remember the first of last year we were told, and we read in the newspapers and were also told by his Honor the Mayor, that we did not need any more than 20 or 25 constables. I took issue at that time because I thought we needed more. Now I am informed by the President of the Council at the present time we have 55 constables. I would like to know how that corresponds with six months ago. Is it going up or is it going down? Last year I can also remember when I asked the department heads "How many employees do you have in the city service?", we could not get the answer because it was not in our jurisdiction. Before these things get without our jurisdiction, and this is within our jurisdiction, it seems to me we can ask, "How many constables do you have working for the city?" Last year, each and every councilor, if I remember correctly, lost one of his two constables. We sacrificed for the benefit of the taxpayers. We sacrificed patronage. Frankly, that is the only patronage I received all year. In a way I am kind of glad of it because I think it is a good example that we are not clamoring for more jobs in the City Council. I don't think it gives the taxpayer a chance to say the City Council is building up a pay roll for themselves. If that is the way we feel about it, we should not let his Honor the Mayor build up the pay roll of the City of Boston, and if that is what is being done in the case of the constables, I think we ought to call a halt because he is merely putting these men back whom he knocked off, appointed for our so-called benefit, personal constables, and when I say personal, they were approved by the councilor and approved by the Mayor after we recommended their names. I hope during this year that we can have good healthy debate without councilors getting personally mad at each other. I can truthfully say that I have fought as hard as anybody in this Council for what I thought was right, and not on any one occasion did I cast aspersions on any member of this Council. I don't think I impugn the character or motives of any councilor in this Body, and I hope to keep that attitude during 1947, and that is the way all councilors should act for the benefit of all of us, because if we keep carrying on, attacking each other along personal lines, you are going to have Plan E in 1950, and I predict before 1947 is out you might have a different form of government unless the City Councilors get up here and act as a business unit looking out for the interest of the taxpayers of Boston and not building up the pay roll, you might say, with a number of employees, for the gentleman downstairs or anybody else. If the councilors are stating the truth, they are not getting any patronage downstairs, and without watching we will build it up for his Honor the Mayor downstairs. That is the question before you, I think. I say this: If these gentlemen, Mr. Collins and Mr. Finigan, are recommended by the committee, I will go along and vote for the appointment of Collins and Finigan. I am trusting our committee will do a good job with the gentleman from West Roxbury as chairman, because I think he is conscientious and has been conscientious in every good for the City Council, and I sincerely hope I can be as conscientious and as sincere. I hope we give his committee a chance to act on every matter that comes up from downstairs in the future, for the year 1947, so that we can say this Body is improving and not deteriorating.

President KELLY—This Chair will make a statement. If you will turn to page 6 of last week's Record, where it says "Appointments by the Mayor," you will notice that I as President referred the order to the Committee on Constables and Confirmations. Councilor Sullivan asked for the floor and asked, "Is the committee standing?" I answered, "The committee stands, but no members have been appointed. What do you have in mind?" Councilor Sullivan then said, "If we are not going to appoint them today, it will be delayed, and I move you take it back from the committee and lay it on the table."

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan makes a motion that this matter lie on the table for a week, and be carried on the calendar at the next meeting.

Coun. RUSSO—I wonder if I am in order. Realizing that you have not appointed new committees, could the old committees stand temporarily until you select such committees or appoint such committees?

President KELLY—I am sorry, councilor, the old committees went out of existence. All those in favor say 'aye,' those opposed 'no.' It is a vote and so ordered.

It was unanimously agreed that the matter be laid on the table to appear on the next Monday's calendar. That is how the appointments appeared on the calendar today. The President referred them to the committee, but it was voted unanimously that the matter be laid on the table. That is how it appears on today's calendar.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President. President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Is there anything wrong, now they are on today's calendar, in sending it to the committee?

President KELLY—I am explaining, in deference to the Chair, because of the statements made by the gentleman on the floor that committees are not being recognized. The two names were sent to the committee last week according to law, and on the motion of Councilor Sullivan they were taken from the committee and laid over for one week and the Council voted unanimously.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I am sure the majority, if not the full membership of this Body, has no fault to find with your action of last week.

President KELLY—I am answering to protect myself. Councilor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—Speaking on my motion, Mr. President. As a member of your Body for the past ten years, I want to state right here and now I have never seen a perfectly legitimate matter subjected to such ridiculous arguments. There were many personalities cast today, Mr. President, by the opponents of this order by many speakers with flowery language casting reflections on several members of your Body.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick. Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a point of order.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick. Coun. MUCHNICK—Don't the rules limit a speaker to ten minutes only, one speech?

President KELLY—The limit of ten minutes, but not only one speech. He can take ten minutes as long as he has not had them. He does not have to take it all at one time.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I think you should take judicial notice that the councilor from Ward 4 has spoken before and exhausted his debate of ten minutes already.

President KELLY—I disagree with you. He went on for about six minutes, and he has about four more. Councilor Chase, we will watch you.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I enjoy the opportunity sometimes to see the Democratic members of this Council in the same position your two Republican members are in. Mr. President, it is ordinarily —

Coun. MADDEN—Which two Republicans is he talking about?

President KELLY—Councilor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—It is easy for a man to get up and inject personalities into a debate. It is very easy to criticize and ridicule one's background and his family background. I for one, sir, —

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick, — for what purpose?

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I think the motion is to reconsider the vote and not to discuss family backgrounds.

President KELLY—That is right, your point of order is well taken. Will you kindly talk on the reconsideration, Councilor Chase?

Coun. CHASE—There has been considerable discussion about Back Bay blue bloods, court records, skeletons in closets, innuendoes of all sorts went across the floor, and I assume, sir, at least the courtesy will be extended to one who, apparently, has been the subject of those innuendoes. I would like today to make clear once and for all that I am not a blue blood.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—The color of Councilor Chase's blood is not an issue.

President KELLY—He has about two minutes more to talk. He may lead up to the reconsideration in the last minute.

Coun. MUCHNICK—If he wants to use his time in a bloody discussion.

President KELLY—He has about two minutes to go. Councilor Chase, continue.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I would like to make a speech undisturbed. I take issue when you say I have two minutes more.

President KELLY—You have only two minutes left.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, before I go on, I have been the subject of criticism, and I believe you at least will give me the opportunity to answer the one-sided criticism which the members of your Body —

President KELLY—Wait a minute. Councilor Chase. I am here to uphold the rules of the members of the City Council. You made the rules, you were a member of the Rules Committee last year, and you said one member could speak no more than ten minutes on reconsideration, and you have spoken six minutes and you have just now spoken two minutes and fifteen seconds. I am helping you to live up to the rules which you yourself made.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I have talked so long on this matter —

President KELLY—That is all right.

Coun. CHASE—I repeat that I have talked so long on this matter —

President KELLY—Continue.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I would like to make my speech. I would like to make my speech.

President KELLY—I am granting myself to watch, councilor. I have to be the judge.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I will refer you to the minutes of the first special meeting.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase, continue. You have one minute and thirty seconds. I am going to help you live up to the rules you made last year, and I will see you live up to them, Councilor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I was not prepared to make a speech, but I think I can do a pretty good job in a minute and a half. Why should this motion pass? This motion should pass because the citizens of Boston do not expect the City Council to be puppets of the Mayor. We have on too many occasions, sir, been following blindly the Mayor and this is a case, sir, where we should exert ourselves and vote as good, honest councilors should vote. I warn you, sir, in the event his Honor the Mayor goes to jail, we will not rule the City of Boston, nor will you. We will have a commission form of government, because you will have —

President KELLY—You are out of order, Councilor Chase. The question is on reconsideration. For what purpose does the gentleman rise, Councilor Bayley?

Coun. BAYLEY—On reconsideration. President KELLY—One minute. I think I checked your time.

Coun. BAYLEY—I have used up nine and a half minutes, I suppose?

President KELLY—The councilor will be in order, but you let the Chair decide how many minutes you have.

Coun. BAYLEY—I want the decision to be fair. President KELLY—I will be fair.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley, you talked three minutes. You have seven minutes to go. For what purpose does the gentleman rise, Councilor Muchnick?

Coun. MUCHNICK—It seems to me from what I remember of his speech that you probably need a new watch.

President KELLY—That is right. I will probably before they get through.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I think he went seven minutes.

President KELLY—No, Councilor Bayley talks very fast. Councilor Bayley.

Coun. BAYLEY—Thank you, Mr. President. That is very fair.

President KELLY—Thank you.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I want to clear up what I had to say. I believe we have a right as members of the City Council to refer such a matter as this to the appropriate committee to investigate whether we feel the men are the men qualified for the office they seek to hold. It is unfortunate any record was brought up. I did not mean to do so, Mr. President, with any motive in mind beyond the idea that the members of the committee should decide if the man is qualified to be constable of the City of Boston. If they say he is, then we should vote him in. If they say he is not, then we should vote that he is not. The qualifications are a wide range of matter. I say to you, gentlemen, we are going to uphold the rules of the Council; we are going to do what is right. If we put these two men through—and I never heard of Finigan or Collins until I read their names on the agenda today—if we are going to put men through like this without at least a cursory examination, and I think the committee will give more than a cursory examination, then we are not doing ourselves any good or the City Council any good, Mr. President, and I am sure we are not holding ourselves up to the fine esteem of the public. We are being watched quite closely by the citizens to see what we do. If we take up time in endless debate—I am almost through—if we are going to jam through appointments without investigation, then I agree with the councilor from Ward 4 (Councilor Chase) that the commission form of government is on the way, and I hope it comes quickly.

President KELLY—Councilor McCormack.

Coun. MCCORMACK—Councilor Russo asked me a question some minutes ago, and I said I did not know either of these gentlemen. I just talked with Representative Connelly, and I find out now I do know Mr. Finigan. He is about sixty years of age and for some years has been running a garage on Summer street.

Coun. RUSSO—I would like to have a little quiet here.

Coun. MCCORMACK—For the past 20 years, and his son was killed in this war and was killed not long ago. Mr. Collins I don't know.

President KELLY—The question comes on reconsideration. The clerk will call the roll.

The clerk called the roll, and reconsideration was carried, yeas 12, nays 5.

Yeas—Councilors Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Chase, Cook, Hession, Linnahan, Madden, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo—12.

Nays—Councilors Fish, Hurley, Kelly, McCormack, Sullivan—5.

President KELLY—What is the pleasure of the body now?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Counselor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I move this matter be sent to the Committee on Constables and Confirmations.

President KELLY—Counselor Muchnick moves this matter be sent to the Committee on Constables and Confirmations. All those in favor, say "aye," those opposed "no," and the motion is carried. There was another matter coming in today for constables which was laid over for one week. If there is no objection, the Chair will also refer that matter to the Committee on Constables and Confirmations. There was another matter here laid over under the law for one week, two appointments to the Housing Authority. If there is no objection, the Chair will refer them to the Committee on Constables and Confirmations.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

Report on petition of Evelyn Sullivan (referred October 14, 1946) to be paid annuity on account of death of her husband, Joseph R. Sullivan, late member of the Fire Department, recommending passage of accompanying order, viz.:

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 89 of chapter 32 of the General Laws, an annuity of fifteen hundred and twenty dollars be allowed and paid to Evelyn Sullivan, widow of Joseph R. Sullivan, a member of the Fire Department who died on September 9, 1946, on account of injuries received in the performance of his duty; said annuity being made up of allowances as follows:

For the widow, Evelyn Sullivan, so long as she remains unmarried—$1,000;

For each of the following-named children during such time as they are under the age of eighteen or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning—$260 per annum;

Robert J. Sullivan, born March 9, 1942, Edward Sullivan, born November 20, 1945; the payments to date from September 9, 1946, and to be charged to the appropriation for Fire Department, Pensions and Annuities.

Report on petition of Henrietta W. Ryan (referred September 23, 1946) to be paid annuity on account of death of her husband, Arthur F. Ryan, late member of the Fire Department—recommending passage of accompanying order, viz.:

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 89 of chapter 32 of the General Laws, an annuity of twelve hundred and sixty dollars be allowed and paid to Henrietta W. Ryan, widow of Arthur F. Ryan, a member of the Fire Department who died on July 22, 1946, on account of injuries received in the performance of his duty; said annuity being made up of allowances as follows:

For the widow, Henrietta W. Ryan, so long as she remains unmarried—$1,000 per annum;

For the following-named child during such time as she is under the age of eighteen or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning—$260 per annum;

Maralyn P. Ryan, born June 8, 1930; the payments to date from July 22, 1946, and to be charged to the appropriation for Fire Department, Pensions and Annuities.

President KELLY—The question is on the passage of the orders.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I would like to find out if that is the Executive Committee report.

President KELLY—Yes, it is.

Coun. RUSSO—Was that discussed today?

President KELLY—It is approved by the Retirement Board, counselor.

The reports were accepted, and the orders were severally passed.

POLICE BADGES FOR COUNCIL MEMBERS.

Coun. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Messenger be requested to confer with the Police Commissioner to obtain from him twenty-two police badges for the members of the Boston City Council.

Coun. COOK—Is that going to be referred to the committee?

President KELLY—I intend to, yes, to refer it to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. HANNON—What kind of badges are those?

President KELLY—Police badges, counselor.

The order was referred to the Committee on Rules.

REMOVAL OF ICE AND SNOW.

Coun. COOK and SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be ordered by his Honor the Mayor to remove all ice and snow still existing in the streets and crosswalks of the City of Boston.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, I think I speak on behalf of all members of the Council, not in the spirit of criticizing something not done right, but in the spirit of getting something done right away. As far as I am concerned, and I think I am backed up by everybody from every district, the City of Boston could be used by the Boston Bruins for ice skating and practice, they need it, but the citizens don't need it. We have at least from one to six inches of ice and snow still existing in all our streets. This calls for a request, but for an order that the City of Boston remove all the ice and snow that still exists on the streets and on the crosswalks throughout the whole city. There have been accidents and complaints, and the Fire Department has been held up in going to fires because of skidding. Something should be done right away, and the only thing I know of is by directing an order of the Mayor to the Public Works Commissioner to get the ice and snow off the streets immediately.

President KELLY—Counselor Keenan, talking on the order.

Coun. KEENAN—I want to commend Counselor Cook's order. I intended to put in a similar order today. I think the fault lies with the persons in charge of plowing the streets. I know up in my ward it is a disgrace on every street, not only the main thoroughfares but the side streets. I intended today to introduce an order to hold up the payment of the snow contractors plowing the streets. They have been going around with the plow up about a foot instead of having the ice and snow removed. The fault lies with those responsible for plowing the streets. I want to congratulate the counselor on his order.

President KELLY—Counselor Russo, talking on the order.

Coun. RUSSO—I heartily agree with the order because I put in a similar order last week asking that the streets in my particular district be cleared of ice and snow. However, I would like to recommend also that the Police Department see to it that notifications are given to the property owners in order to have them clear off the sidewalks just as well. It has been very hazardous to walk even on the sidewalks. I find we must have the cooperation of the real estate owners just as well as have the City of Boston do its part. I hope both will do their part to clear the ice and snow off.

The order was passed under suspension of the rules.

USE OF PROFANITY DURING DEBATE.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That the use of profanity and (or) vulgarity by any member during debate on the floor of the Council shall force the Chair to immediately declare the speaker out of order, and the speaker shall be forced to immediately yield the floor.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, many times, of course —

President KELLY—Counselor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order, counselor.

Coun. MUCHNICK—That this be referred forthwith to the Rules Committee.

President KELLY—Not forthwith, but after Counselor Hannon talks.

Coun. HANNON—What I was really going to say is I think sometimes vulgarity is excusable, but I think it is getting to be the sign of smartness and, instead of being curtailed, I think other orators are taking it up. I think we should give the Chair some definite backing so that those who do use it can be curtailed.

President KELLY—I agree with the counselor. It is referred to the Committee on Rules.

The order was referred to the Committee on Rules.

Adjourned at 5 p. m., on motion of Counselor McCormack, to meet on Monday, January 20, 1947, at 2 p. m.

MAYOR REPLIES TO REVEREND J. WHITCOMB BROUGHER ON CHARGES OF VICE BEING RAMPANT IN CITY OF BOSTON—DISCLOSES THAT MINISTER SOUGHT POLICE ESCORT FOR TOUR LAST FALL AND PRESENTS POLICE COMMISSIONER THOMAS F. SULLIVAN'S REPLY TO THAT REQUEST—CALLS ATTENTION THAT AVERAGE OF MORAL STANDARDS HERE APPEAR TO BE IN CAPABLE HANDS IN POLICE, CHURCH, AND OTHER AGENCIES.

In answer to the charges of vice conditions in Boston by Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, Mayor Curley, on January 27, issued the following statement:

My attention has been directed to the statement appearing in the public press, emanating from Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, whose publicity in this direction in other cities has, apparently, been extremely profitable. I beg to state that early in October I received a call at the office of the Mayor from Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, who desired that a police prowl car and an officer be assigned to him to investigate for the purpose of securing material so that morals might be improved.

At that time I directed a letter to the Police Commissioner, Thomas F. Sullivan, directing his attention to the request of Rev. Mr. Brougher, and received from him the following reply, which in my judgment sums up the situation admirably and convinces me that Rev. Mr. Brougher's efforts would be productive of more good in some city where moral high standards do not attain in the same degree as that found in Boston:

BOSTON, October 16, 1946.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—I most respectfully decline to accede to your request of October 14 to have a police officer in a prowl car assigned to Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher to visit places in the city "for the purpose of getting material so that morals may be improved."

It is my understanding that the Reverend Mr. Brougher was here for a number of years in Tremont Temple; therefore, he must be fairly familiar with all parts of the city that he might care to visit and I believe that he could accomplish his objective without publicizing his intentions, which would be the case if he were permitted to ride around in a police car.

If the reverend gentleman is attempting to locate bawdy houses or red light districts in Boston, I can only reply that we have no such places. This statement can be borne out by the official reports of the Federal agencies, Army, Navy, etc., who reported during the war that Boston was outstanding in its freedom from commercialized vice.

I am sure your Honor is very familiar with the fact that the fine clergymen, under the leadership of Archbishop Cushing, Bishop Sherrill and others who have been devoting their lives to maintaining high moral standards in our city, are amply qualified to continue their good work in the unobtrusive manner which they have followed successfully for years.

And I am certain that as long as your Honor is Mayor of the city, nothing will be permitted which has a tendency to ruin morals or destroy faith.

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

SALARY ADJUSTMENTS FOR FIREMEN.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Fire Commissioner:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR.—Under date of April 23, 1946, your Honor approved of my recommendation to grant salary adjustments to military substitute firemen and provisional firemen who had to resign from the Fire Department because of induction into the armed forces of the United States and who subsequently were appointed as permanent firemen from a Civil Service eligible list while in the military or naval service.

Subject to your Honor's approval, therefore, I will grant the following increase in salary to the fireman named below who comes within this category:

Clarence X. Frost, from $2,400 to $2,700 a year.

The salary of the above-named is being increased to the amount which he would have received if his services in the Fire Department had not been interrupted by induction into the military service.

We now have in the department permanent firemen who were originally appointed either as military substitutes or provisional military substitutes and who were not called to serve in the armed forces. Subsequently they were appointed as permanent firemen but their annual sliding-scale increases in salary dated from their original appointments as military substitutes or provisional firemen. Therefore, it seems only just that Fireman Frost, who was forced to resign because of induction into the armed forces, should receive the same benefits as those firemen who enjoyed uninterrupted service.

Respectfully yours,

RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.,
Fire Commissioner.

On Monday, January 27, the March of Dimes started its final week. In keeping with this most worthy cause, the City of Boston sponsored an outdoor rally in City Hall Plaza, where the Pontiac car to be given away at the Infantile Paralysis Ball was on display.

His Honor the Mayor, members of the Infantile Paralysis Committees, and several prominent stars were present. Among the speakers were Phil Regan, star of stage and screen currently appearing at the Copley-Plaza, and the eminent piano virtuoso, Liberace, currently appearing at the Statler Hotel.

INVITATION TELEGRAM.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor,
City Hall, Boston.

GREEK WAR RELIEF ASSOCIATION WITH HERBERT HOOVER AS NATIONAL CHAIRMAN AND HAROLD S. VANDERBILT AS HONORARY CHAIRMAN ABOUT TO LAUNCH TWELVE MILLION DOLLAR NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN. GREEK WAR RELIEF ASSOCIATION IS ONLY ORGANIZATION WORKING FOR GREECE THAT WAS INCLUDED IN NATIONAL WAR FUND AND FUNCTIONED WITH APPROVAL OF PRESIDENT'S WAR RELIEF CONTROL BOARD THAT CAN OR WILL DISTRIBUTE RELIEF EQUITABLY TO ALL NEEDY PERSONS. FOUR YEARS OF WAR AND OCCUPATION HAS LEFT GREECE WITH HER AGRICULTURE WIPE OUT —

1,500	TOWNS REDUCED TO RUINS
1,300,000	PERSONS LEFT HOMELESS
375,000	WANDERING ORPHANS
2,000,000	CHILDREN STUNTED AND DEFORMED
50,000	WAR VETERANS WHO LOST LIMBS AND EYESIGHT
500,000	TUBERCULARS THAT ONLY HOSPITALIZATION WILL SAVE
2,000,000	VICTIMS OF CHRONIC MALARIA.

GREECE CANNOT SURVIVE AND COMBAT ALONE THE FAMINE AND MISERY SHOWN ABOVE. THE EPIC STAND MADE BY THESE HEROIC PEOPLE AGAINST OUR COMMON ENEMY PRESERVED THE VERY FOUNDATION OF DEMOCRACY THAT WE LATER FOUGHT A GLOBAL WAR TO MAINTAIN. THEY DID NOT FAIL US THEN — WE, AS AMERICANS, MUST NOT FAIL THEM NOW. YOUR LOCAL COMMITTEE NEEDS YOUR HELP AS HONORARY CHAIRMAN. PLEASE ADVISE BY LETTER OR WIRE YOUR WILLINGNESS TO SERVE.

Regional Director.

MAYOR CURLEY ACCEPTS.

January 23, 1947.

MR. THOMAS A. PAPPAS, Regional Director,
Greek War Relief Association, 607
Boylston Street, Boston, Mass.

DEAR MR. PAPPAS,—I am very happy to accept your invitation to become Honorary Chairman of a local committee of the Greek War Relief Association.

Throughout my life I have always held the highest admiration for the people of Ancient and Modern Greece. Their culture, refinement and fundamental ideals of the democratic way of life have been an inspiration to all mankind.

Greece made a magnificent contribution to the cause of freedom and justice during the crucial phases of World War II. Out of that effort has come an aftermath of famine, suffering and misery.

All America must now help these heroic people to survive, for they cannot combat the overwhelming forces of disaster which face them, by themselves alone.

I am sure that the good citizens of Boston will respond generously to your appeal for help in a dire hour of necessity.

Yours sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DIRECTOR PAPPAS REPLIES.

January 24, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—Accept my sincere thanks for your willingness to help the 1947 Greek War Relief Association Campaign by accepting the Honorary Chairmanship for Boston.

No country in Europe suffered greater devastation than Greece, and none has entered the reconstruction era with scantier resources. In this crisis the Greek War Relief Association is the chief hope of the Greek nation, and in order that these great people shall not face years of continued suffering and misery, our efforts now in their behalf must be successful.

Your response is most reassuring and I know that we can count on the people of Boston to do their part in this humanitarian cause.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS A. PAPPAS,
New England Regional Director.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, January 22, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I respectfully request your Honor's approval to purchase of Elevator Liability Insurance with a $50,000-$100,000 coverage for the period from January 1, 1947, to January 1, 1950.

This policy provides protection for the use of twenty-two (22) passenger elevators, six (6) freight elevators and two (2) book lifts located in various school buildings.

The cost of this policy for the three-year period is $1,699.26 and the quotation furnished by the Maryland Casualty Company, 87 Kilby street, Boston, Mass., is based upon a uniform rate charged by insurance companies for this type of coverage.

As I believe that the City of Boston would derive no benefit from publicly advertising and, whereas, I believe that the best interests of the city will be served by purchasing this insurance from the Maryland Casualty Company, your approval to make this expenditure is requested.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, December 7, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Attached is list of bids on proposals for furnishing maintenance equipment to the Public Works Department which were publicly opened and read at this office under date of October 21, 1946.

The Public Works Commissioner has notified this department that the essential items in this bid are Item 1 and Item 3. I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award a contract for Item 1, calling for six Hough tractor shovels, complete with Buckler Model H L A, at a price of $5,725 each, total, $34,350, to the Clark-Wilcox Company.

I also respectfully request permission to award a contract on Item 3, calling for one Standard No. 4812 Gar Wood crane, or equal, complete with boom jacks, as per specifications, to the Sandberg Equipment Company, at a price of $3,775 delivered.

In view of the fact that the other items on this proposal have been eliminated at the request of the Public Works Commissioner, I would respectfully request that the above awards be made without further advertisement.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, December 11, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your approval is requested for the emergency purchase of a barge load of bituminous coal, approximately 500 tons, from the Snider Fuel Corporation.

The price is $11.63 per net ton delivered into the bins at Long Island Hospital, which is an increase of 89 cents per net ton over the current contract price.

This was an emergency purchase made during the recent coal strike.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

EAST BOSTON DISTRICT COURT.

BOSTON, January 15, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In accordance with chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939 which requires contracts for work or purchases exceeding one thousand dollars to be advertised, I hereby request that this court be exempt from compliance with that provision of Item B-4 in the budget of this court relative to the transportation of persons to and from correctional institutions.

Very truly yours,

CHARLES J. BROWN,
Justice.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF DORCHESTER.

BOSTON, January 8, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In accordance with chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939 which requires contracts for work or purchases exceeding one thousand dollars to be advertised, I hereby request that this court be exempt from compliance with that provision of Item B-4 in the budget of this court relative to the transportation of persons to and from correctional institutions.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM G. LYNCH,
Justice.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF ROXBURY.

BOSTON, January 15, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—In past years the various Mayors have granted us permission to expend sums of money under Items B-4, Transportation, and D-1, Office Supplies, Stationery, Printed Forms, etc., without advertising. The reason for this, of course, has been explained and has been satisfactory, namely:

The transportation is done on a trip payment basis, i.e., some days we may have four or five trips and other days, none. By arrangement with the auditor, the price per trip has been agreed upon. The stationery and the forms are items that we cannot anticipate, and as a general rule, are awarded to the lowest bidder—instructions being to get three bids on each job, unless it is an emergency. Of course, if the City Printing Plant were the lowest, under ordinary circumstances, we should be only too happy to give them the work, but it seldom happens that they are. The transportation work has always been done to our complete satisfaction, as has the printing.

So, I request of you written permission to expend the sums for Items B-4, Transportation, and D-1, Office Supplies, etc., for the year 1947, without advertising for bids.

Cordially and respectfully,

FRANKLAND W. L. MILES,
Justice.

REGISTRY OF PROBATE.

BOSTON, January 13, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—As you are aware it is necessary for me to purchase supplies for the Registry of Probate and the Probate Court under Item D-1 in the budget. The principal expenditures from this item are for the purchase of blank forms of which we have approximately three hundred kinds. With such a variety it is very difficult, if not impossible, to anticipate the needs of the Bar, the public and the office in that connection and very often we find it necessary to order some items for quick delivery, so that we cannot wait until our needs would amount to one thousand dollars.

We do not usually expend as much as one thousand dollars at any one time for the purchase of such blank forms and other supplies. I believe that if we were required to build up our orders to the one thousand dollar mark and advertise for bids such action would be likely to result (no matter how unintentionally) in over purchasing.

In the light of the foregoing, I respectfully request authority to dispense with advertising for bids for the purchase of supplies under budget Item D-1. This request is made under the provisions of chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939.

Respectfully yours,

ARTHUR W. SULLIVAN,
Register.

ADDITIONS AND DEDUCTIONS TO CONTRACT.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

Burgess & Blacher Company, 18 Eustis Street, Roxbury, Mass., has been ordered to make the following changes and deductions in the contract for repairs to roof at Cabot Street Bath, Roxbury, Mass., signed November 6, 1946.

On roofs where it is specified to lay asphalt shingles, furnish and lay heavy butt asphalt strip shingles to be laid four (4) inches to the weather instead of individual 12-inch by 16-inch asphalt shingles, weighing 324 pounds to the square, laid five (5) inches to the weather. For substituting strip shingles instead of using individual shingles, the sum of sixty-five dollars ($65) will be deducted from the contract price.

Where specified in contract for flashings, cleats, roof, etc., that are specified to be of copper, substitute 16-ounce copper, instead of 18-ounce copper, as now specified in contract. For this change in the weight of the copper to be used the sum of thirty-four dollars ($34) will be deducted from the contract price.

Summary of Deductions: Change in type of asphalt shingles, $65; change in weight of copper to be used, $34; total, $99. Contract price, $5,660; deduction as per this order, $99; contract as standing, $5,561.

ADDITIONS TO CONTRACT.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Approval has been given for the following additions to the contract of James S. Kelliher, dated October 8, 1946, for alterations and additions to fire station, Engine No. 22, Warren avenue, South End.

Furnish labor and material for the following: Two one-half-inch conduits from patrol desk to small door; relocate main floor switches; additional lighting, rear, main floor; pilot light for cellar; additional cellar light; additional receptacle; additional lamp bank; wiring for heat lights; seven duplex receptacles; additional junction box on basement column; additional telephone conduit; exterior lights over two main doors; two wall brackets at patrol desk; emergency lights in officers' rooms; duplex receptacles in officers' rooms; emergency lights on third floor; three telephone outlets; additional one-inch conduit in watch room; cutting and patching of walls, floors, etc.

Total additions to contract, $1,260.60; original contract, $38,491; total contract with foregoing additions $39,751.60.

At the time the contract was awarded to James S. Kelliher the Civilian Production Administration would not allow necessary additions and changes in the electrical work in connection with the fire alarm signal and lighting systems in this fire station. However, permission was granted by the Civilian Production Administration on December 3, 1946, to perform the foregoing necessary work. In as much as James S. Kelliher is now performing extensive alterations and additions at Engine No. 22, no advantage would accrue to the city by giving the work to some other contractor.

INCREASES IN SALARY.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Soldiers' Relief Commissioner:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Approval is requested to amend the budget of the Soldiers' Relief Department, A-1, Personal Service. It is my desire to make two changes which would not cause any increase in the budget appropriation for this department.

I request that the salary for the position of Deputy Commissioner, 2 at $3,200 a year be amended to 2 at $3,700. This change would enable me to recommend an increase in salary for John D. Connors and Albert L. Fish, deputy commissioners.

John D. Connors, 47 Burrell street, Roxbury, has been an employee of the City of Boston since February 7, 1913, and has been an employee of this department since September 3, 1914. He has been deputy commissioner since September 1, 1931, and has had no increase in salary since December 6, 1943. In the absence of the commissioner, Mr. Connors is the acting commissioner.

Albert L. Fish, 4 Rundel park, Dorchester, has been an employee of this department since January 17, 1936, and was permanently appointed to deputy commissioner on April 3, 1936. He has had no increase in salary since December 6, 1943. Mr. Fish has complete charge of the determining of legal settlement of all applicants for soldiers' relief.

Very truly yours,

DAVID J. BRICKLEY,
Commissioner.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

I. JOHN T. MURPHY.

It is with deep regret that the Fire Commissioner announces the death on January 24, 1947, of Ladderman John T. Murphy of Ladder Company 16. Ladderman Murphy was appointed to the department on January 11, 1918.

The funeral was held from his late home, 129 Poplar street, Roslindale, at 8.30 a. m., Monday, January 27, 1947, followed by services at the Sacred Heart Church, Cummins Highway, at 9 a. m.

The chief of department made the customary detail to act as funeral escort, and the members of Ladder Company 16 were excused from duty to attend the services.

II. RETIREMENT.

The following retirement which will become effective at 8 a. m., Thursday, January 30, 1947, is hereby announced: Repairer and Lineman John A. Fraser, Fire Alarm Division.

Lineman Fraser was appointed to the department March 25, 1903, and leaves the department with the best wishes of his associates.

III. RESIGNATIONS.

Provisional Fireman Robert S. Mahoney of Ladder Company 13, who was appointed to this department on January 22, 1947, resigned at 8 a. m., January 24, 1947.

Provisional Fireman Walter J. Olszak of Ladder Company 2, who was appointed to this department on January 22, 1947, resigned at 8 a. m., January 25, 1947.

IV. HIGH COMMENDATION.

At 8.29½ p. m., January 11, 1947, the department responded to an alarm from Box 2226 for a fire in the dwelling house at 22 Weston street, Roxbury.

Upon arrival of the apparatus, members of this department were informed that there were a woman and a child trapped in the first floor, which was heavily involved in fire, heat, and smoke. Ladderman Louis J. Civitarese of Ladder Company 26, detailed to Ladder Company 12, entered the building through the front door, forced an entrance to the first floor, crawled along a short hallway into a front room, and found a child, age 4, who was unconscious on the floor. He removed the child to the street, where members of Rescue Company 2 administered first aid.

Because of the great risk to which Ladderman Civitarese exposed himself in making this rescue, the Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend him highly, and his case is referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

By order of Fire Commissioner
RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.

NAPEEN BOUTILIER,

VETO OF PAYMENT TO WIDOW OF JOHN J. MAGNER.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, January 20, 1947.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my signature and disapproved, the resolution of your Honorable Body adopted January 13, 1947, favoring legislation to enable the city to pay an annuity to the widow of John J. Magner, a member of the Fire Department, who died in 1940.

The statute authorizing the granting of such annuities requires that the medical board of the city shall certify that the death of the fireman or policeman involved was the natural and proximate result of an accident occurring, or of undergoing a hazard peculiar to his employment, while in the performance of his duty.

The medical board certified on the petition of Mrs. Magner in 1941 that her husband's death was not due to the conditions required above and has disapproved similar petitions initiated by Mrs. Magner in 1942, 1943, and 1944.

In the last ten years, the medical board has taken up approximately 140 similar cases and has approved 60 and disapproved 80. I have every sympathy with the widows who have sought annuities in those 80 disapproved cases, and have reason to know from personal contacts that they and their friends disagree with the verdict of the medical board.

The fact remains that a highly qualified medical board has certified in these cases that the fireman's or policeman's death was not the result of an accident or hazard, and under the statute the widow in question is no more entitled to an annuity than the widow of any other policeman or fireman who dies from natural causes.

The resolution before me, if approved, would establish a precedent and would amount to an invitation in every disapproved case to seek special legislation from the General Court, and I am not disposed to involve the city in any such situation.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, may I ask the clerk, through you, if that is an answer to the resolution I filed last Monday?

President KELLY—Yes, sir.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Hannon.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, I would like to suggest copies of that be made and given to each councilor. I think that covers a very contentious point. Many times people think we are the ones who deprive them of annuities.

President KELLY—The clerk will kindly make copies of the reply from his Honor the Mayor and distribute them to the councilors.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE MAYOR.

Subject to confirmation by the Council, the Mayor submitted the following appointments:

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councillor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Will someone please enlighten the Body on what subjects come before that committee?

CONTRACTS FOR HOUSING PROGRAM FOR VETERANS.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the members of the Boston Housing Authority, when administering the City of Boston's $10,000,000 housing program for veterans of World War II, to let out contracts under said program as provided under section No. 30 of the City Charter of Boston, which reads as follows:

"Every officer or board in charge of a department in said city and every officer, board or official of the county of Suffolk having power to incur obligations on behalf of said county in cases where said obligations are to be paid for wholly from the treasury of said city, when authorized to erect a new building or to make structural changes in an existing building, shall make contracts therefor, not exceeding five, each contract to be subject to the approval of the mayor; and when about to do any work or to make any purchase the estimated cost of which alone, or in conjunction with other similar work or purchase might properly be included in the same contract, amounts to or exceeds one thousand dollars, shall, unless the mayor gives written authority to do otherwise, invite proposals therefor by advertisements in the City Record. Such advertisements shall state the time and place for opening the proposals in answer to said advertisement, and shall reserve the right to the officer, board or official to reject any or all proposals. No authority to dispense with advertising shall be given by the mayor unless the said officer, board or official furnishes him with a signed statement which shall be published in the City Record giving in detail the reasons for not inviting bids by advertisement."

Be it further

Ordered, to request the Corporation Counsel through his Honor the Mayor to render a legal opinion to the City Council as to whether or not the aforementioned matter comes within section 30 of the City Charter.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, this is another one of those housing matters which from time to time have been spoken about. Under the present setup, relative to our $10,000,000 veterans' housing program, the law states in chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946 as follows, in section 8: "In carrying out the provisions of this act, any city or town in which a housing authority has been organized under sections 26L and 26M of chapter 121 of the General Laws shall use such housing authority as its agent and all moneys appropriated under this act or received by such city or town for the purpose of this act from any source shall be paid by the treasurer of the authority and shall be disbursed by him subject to section 26EE of said chapter." Looking back, I ask how moneys can be given under our $10,000,000. I am a little bit at sea about it. It would seem to me that the Boston Housing Authority apparently has been appointed agent of the City of Boston by the Legislature, and it seems they should come within the provisions of section 30 of the City Charter, which provides as read by the City Clerk advertising for contracts which expend more than $1,000. Going into chapter 372, section 8, it specifically mentions the authority will be subject to section 26EE of said chapter. Looking at section 26LE of said chapter, I don't find any matter there with reference to contracts. It mentions many things such as sell, convey or lease any of its interest in any property—or grant easements, licenses, etc. It talks about "cause parks, playgrounds at schools—or any other public improvement which as otherwise authorized to undertake to be laid out, constructed or furnished adjacent to or in connection with a housing project." It goes on along to other subdivisions, but none of them are relative to contracts. So it seems to me there is a little doubt as to whether or not the Boston Housing Authority can let out contracts at the present time. Under the present setup in the Boston Housing Authority, as I understand it, the Boston Housing Authority can let out a contract to the lowest bidder if it so desires after notifying a select group of contractors that they want a certain job done. That certain group of contractors can be taken at the whim of the Housing Authority, and up to now I think they have been in most cases, you might say, substantial contractors. But, of course, we all understand that there is always a danger that once in a while you might not get substantial contractors from this so-called select list. As I said before, I am not saying the Boston Housing Authority up to now has put bad ones on the list, but it is very possible, and I know as a matter of fact there have been very many substantial contractors left off the list. I personally think that is bad. You can imagine how it would be in the City of Boston. Of course, we have had complaints recently on the disposal of garbage and ashes and so on, but at least the Commissioner of Public Works did have to go through a regular procedure of getting the permission of the Mayor after written request that advertising be dispensed with. Under the administration of this act, chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946, there is nothing definite other than the fact that it says that the Boston Housing Authority shall be its agent. The thought in my mind is, does that mean for all intents and purposes it shall be the agent, and if it is the agent of the City of Boston in the administration of this $10,000,000 for housing for veterans, it seems to me the same provisions in section 30 should apply to the Boston Housing Authority on that particular project, the $10,000,000 veterans' housing program being paid for by the taxpayers of Boston. The low-cost housing project gave authority to borrow money for low-income housing, but that is different. There is nothing to stop the Boston Housing Authority from taking 10 contractors and saying, "Here, we have a job we want you to bid on," and selecting the most reputable one, whichever one it might be, to do the job. But what about the other 10 or 15 or 20 or 25 equipped to do the job? They don't have an opportunity to bid. I have no complaint against what has been done up to now by the Boston Housing Authority because they have been within the law. The law says they can let out their jobs of low-income housing. They can have a select list of contractors, but there is a question in my mind as to whether they have the authority to do the same thing with our $10,000,000 which will be expended for veterans' housing. I for one hope that it will not be administered in the way the low-income housing contracts were let out, because I don't doubt in the old days—you might even have the situation today—you might have a large project such as the one in the Cathedral site which would require a large contractor to bid on that job or those jobs. But on contracts for building of houses for veterans, it is possible you might have 10 two-family houses in one location, and you certainly don't need big contractors to bid on those. We might save money for the City of Boston if we have a lot of small contractors bidding on it. It is not a question of letting them bid on it, but it seems to me that we should be fair and let all contractors bid and let the Boston Housing Authority, as the agent for the City of Boston decide which are the most reputable concerns to do the job. It seems logical to me we can save a lot of money for the city if it is done that way. Under the setup, then, as I say, under chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946, it refers to the fact that the Housing Authority shall be the agent of the City of Boston, but it further goes on to say in reference to the expenditure of money by the Boston Housing Authority "all moneys appropriated under this act—or that is, the act which gave us the $10,000,000 for housing of veterans"—so received by such city or town for the purpose of this act from any source shall be paid to the treasurer of the Authority and shall be disbursed by him subject to section 26EE of said chapter." If it is strictly our agent, it seems to me section 30 of the City Charter, which provides for the proper giving out of contracts, should be adhered to by the Boston Housing Authority so that the taxpayers of Boston would be sure of protection, but, as I say, it goes on to say, as far as I can make out here, it provides for nothing relative to contracts given out by the Boston Housing Authority other than this: Under this section between a city or town and the Federal Government or between a city and town and Housing Authority contracts shall not be subject to any provision of law relating to publication or advertising for bids. That gave the Boston Housing Authority the right, as I see it, not to have to go out and advertise for bids on contracts under the low-income housing project. It is very possible some lawyer at the Boston Housing Authority might say that chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946 says that we shall be subject in the disbursing of those funds to section 26EE of said chapter, and they might say to the members of the Boston Housing Authority, "We do not think you have to advertise for public bids," and they might give as authority section 26EE at the end of subdivision J, and I just read it to you where it dispenses with the advertising by the public housing authority. As one of the members of the City Council that appropriated this $10,000,000, I hope something has been done relative to this program up to now. I know several weeks ago the Boston Housing Authority did start to draw money out of the $10,000,000. They have received $300,000 and have started to administer, but I don't know how they have administered, that $300,000 up to now, and I don't know that the Law Department has been requested by the Boston Housing Authority—whether the Boston Housing Authority as agents of the City of Boston has asked them whether or not they come under section 30 of our charter, or whether or not it simply comes under section 26EE, subdivision J. But I certainly think the fact that it is the city's money—and it says in the act the Boston Housing Authority shall be the agent of the City of Boston—as our agent, they should come within the provisions of the City Charter, because the city itself has got to live up to the City Charter. Up to now I contend there have been occasions when the City of Boston has not lived within the charter but, unfortunately, we have not gone to the courts to decide just what comes within the jurisdiction of the City Council. I think there have been several matters this year that properly should have gone to the courts to find out what does come within the jurisdiction of the City Council. I think for the benefit of the taxpayers as a whole this matter should be administered as I suggest, and I think the councilors as a whole will agree with me that they should advertise openly and let all contractors bid on the jobs which are given out on this $10,000,000 veterans' housing program. After all, it is the City of Boston's money, it is not money being raised by the Housing Authority as it does relative to its low-income housing developments. That is, the City of Boston does not give the money for the construction of low-income housing developments, but we have given them the $10,000,000, and they have already received some of the money, as I said, several weeks ago. They drew out $300,000. I hope at the start of this program the Boston Housing Authority comes without exception within section 30 of the charter, so that we have no aspersions cast on, you might say, the contractor who receives contracts from the Boston Housing Authority relative to the veterans' housing program. If nothing else, I want a good job done on veterans' housing, I want an honest job done, and I want veterans, if they have a contracting firm and are able to build a development of 10 houses going up, to have a chance. I want the small guy to be able to get a chance to do the job if he can bid lower than the big fellow. The small fellow is entitled to a shot at the job, and that is why I am up on my feet here today. I might conclude by saying I think the members of the Housing Authority will do an honest job, but we can never be sure of an outright honest job unless they come within section 30 of the City Charter. In any event, you won't have talk of "special lists" and "select lists" of contractors administering the city's money. If they say they don't come within the City Charter, then the Boston Housing Authority can select any contractors they desire to bid on the different jobs. That will be a bad situation. I sincerely hope his Honor the Mayor will have enough interest in this matter to request the Corporation Counsel to rule as suggested on this order. But even if the Corporation Counsel rules in his judgment it does not come within the City Charter, it would seem to me good policy on the part of the Boston Housing Authority to live up to section 30 of the City Charter. I sincerely hope this order will be passed under suspension of the rules.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councillor Scannell, talking on the order.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, I certainly hope Councillor Linehan's order passes because of the activities of the Housing Authority in building some of these temporary veterans' housing projects in the South Boston and Dorchester area. I am referring to the housing development in South Boston. I don't know how much it cost, but I am trying to get figures on how much it cost to build these tinkerboxes in Camp McKay in South Boston. I think it is one of the worst things that ever happened in this city when they went in and built those tinkerboxes for returning veterans, and I mean tinkerboxes because that is all they are, tinkerboxes. I will refer to the remarks made a few weeks ago when a woman walking into a new apartment put one of her heels through the floor of this apartment. I also refer to the location of these temporary housing units, such as Camp McKay in South Boston, built on nothing but a dump with rodents running wild in that section of South Boston. This is a terrible indictment against whoever is responsible in putting that type of house in that section. Imagine putting a returned veteran there—building tinkerboxes for veterans' housing on a dump. This I want to know, who is the favorite contractor who built it, and I am going to find out in the very near future, and also how much these apartments cost. Can you imagine bringing small children up on a dump within 150 or 250 feet from where Coleman Brothers are dumping refuse and swill? I don't know why the Health Department does not get after them. This is something that should be stopped, and I hope in the future that they are going to spend the $10,000,000 in a proper manner, that they are not going to use any of that money to build tinkerboxes such as are out in Camp McKay. I hope they are not going to use the other part of Old Colony dump for veterans' housing. I think it is a disgrace to whoever is responsible for it. I understand the Boston Housing Authority is not responsible, but the Federal Housing Authority is. I think the contractor who built these projects got it as a "pet" job, and I hope they don't use any of the $10,000,000 that we members of the City Council and the Mayor through the order of the Council were responsible for getting. I hope they don't have any more favorite contractors, and I hope every small building contractor will have a crack at some of this work. I further emphasize that I am going to find out who is responsible for Camp McKay and how much it cost.

President KELLY—Councillor Russo, talking on the order.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I heartily agree with the order. It brings to my mind after listening to the various councilors on some of these temporary homes that have been built that the Housing Authority should not consent to the building of these houses for veterans in any one particular section. I don't believe it is fair that $10,000,000 should be spent in one section of the City of Boston. I believe the $10,000,000 ought to be spent in the 22 sections of our city. There is no particular section of our city where the boys of the city did not contribute their share. I feel that there is no particular section in the city that contributed more than any other section of the city. Having in mind also that these homes after a period of time will be sold to these veterans, I feel it would be an injustice if we segregate them in one particular section. I feel that we have land in the whole 22 wards of our city that should be developed as such so as to give an opportunity to some of our young men who gave their all in order to make our country free, that we ought to respect the sections that they left when they went to war, and give them a decent home in the very same section to which they came back. I do hope the authorities who have the power of spending this money will see to it that a just proportion of homes are distributed and built in all sections of our city. In regard to the chapter and the act the councilor has just outlined and, as he stated very well, if it does not come within the scope of the City Charter, I hope the Housing Authority consents to giving it to public bid to give an opportunity to everyone to bid on these homes. We will then have the opportunity of building better homes throughout the city when they are scattered around than to give it to one or two contractors to build. Therefore, I hope this order will pass and that a ruling will be given which shall be that it comes within the scope of our City Charter because it is the City of Boston which has given the $10,000,000, and that amount of money should come within the scope of our charter.

President KELLY—Councillor Linehan?

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I suggest if any member of the City Council knows of any fairly large site in his particular district which might be owned by the city or purchased at a very low cost, that he might, say, file an order in the City Council requesting the members of the Boston Housing Authority to consider whichever site is mentioned in his particular whereabouts. I sincerely hope some of the City Councilors, and I know several of them have large sites in their districts, will file orders requesting the Boston Housing Authority to consider these sites to give every City Councilor a chance. To be honest, I am going to find it hard to find a site in Ward 7, but it seems to me every other councilor in the city should be given the opportunity to build up his district with good one and two-family homes. Today is a good time to start the ball rolling before the contracts are let out and before the sites have all been taken. I suggest that time is of the essence and you start on it today.

President KELLY—Councillor Kinsella, talking on the order.

Coun. KINSELLA—I would like to ask Councillor Linehan two questions.

President KELLY—Councillor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Yes.

Coun. KINSELLA—First, I would like to ask the councilor if chapter 372 gives any authority for spending any of that money for site clearance and for the purchase of land.

President KELLY—Councillor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—I think the Boston Housing Authority can do anything under 372 which the City of Boston itself can do, because it says specifically in chapter 372 that under this particular subdivision of 372 the city housing authority will be its agent; therefore, I say the Boston Housing Authority can do what you ask.

President KELLY—Councillor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—That is clear enough, but I would like to observe I would not want to see any substantial part of the $10,000,000 going for the purchase of old shacks and thereby cutting into the number of new homes that could be put up. The second question is, does chapter 372 provide for any other type of house but permanent housing?

Coun. LINEHAN—Answering your question, councilor, chapter 372 covers different things which the city itself can do, although in this particular instance it is only making available to the Boston Housing Authority $10,000,000 to be spent on a subdivision of the act, one of the provisions listed in chapter 372, which is the building of one and two-family homes. But there are other things such as taking, you might say, homes taken for taxes; the city can take them and build them up under another provision of chapter 372, but up to now the City of Boston has not appropriated money for such purposes. It is merely under the section which provides for the construction of new one and two-family homes, not for renovation of old ones.

Coun. KINSELLA—I think Councillor Linehan will agree we did not contemplate other than permanent construction out of this loan money.

Coun. LINEHAN—As I said, that is all that can be built today, the construction of one and two-family homes under this $10,000,000 project. There is nothing to stop the City of Boston from appropriating money to take advantage of other sections of 372, such as I said a while ago, taking old homes and renovating them, and so forth. We can buy land and sell the land to private contractors, and so forth. There are many other things, too. I could read the whole act, but it would take too long. I will go through any questions you ask on the subject.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

EMPLOYMENT OF TEMPORARY ASSISTANT, CITY COUNCIL DEPARTMENTS.

Coun. HURLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the President hereby be authorized to employ a temporary assistant to dispose of the accumulated and emergency work of the City Council departments; the expense to be charged to the appropriate item in the City Council appropriations.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

HAZARDS IN KEEPING OF DANGEROUS WEAPONS.

Coun. HANNON and MORIARTY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to arrange a conference with the Police Commissioner, the editors of Boston newspapers, the heads of military organizations, and other leaders in public life, to consider measures which might be adopted to educate the public relative to the hazard of keeping in their homes, or on their person, guns, knives, or other dangerous weapons, which might fall into the hands of less scrupulous, or non-law abiding individuals and become the instrument of crime.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, practically every day now we are astounded in picking up the paper and reading of the killing or the abuse of some human being. Not only that, but we are confronted with the fact that practically every day crimes of all sorts are being committed in which dangerous weapons are involved. Now, I know the control of dangerous weapons has been the subject of discussion, and I think we have reached the stage now, Mr. President, where something really has to be done to educate the public to the hazard of maintaining in their homes or on their persons these dangerous weapons. It cannot be done by one or two. It cannot be done in the schools. It has to be done through the public, through the newspapers, and I think where we are having drives for various purposes we might well have a drive for the abolishment of means of assault or means of robbery, the abolishment of firearms and dangerous weapons. Once the war is over, the Government itself gets rid of big battleships, gets rid of the means it has taken to conduct the war, and I think the Veterans of Foreign Wars and other military organizations might well instruct members that those guns and revolvers and knives that have been brought back might better be turned over to the organization and might even better be destroyed. Nine times out of ten it is not the fellow conversant with the use of these guns and who uses them for legal purposes; it is somebody else into whose hands they fall. You can walk down the street and you see pawnshops and hock shops with all sorts of guns in the windows. Sometimes in the big stores you have a display of all sorts of knives which might be the implement of death in the hands of someone who did not know how to use them. I think in a campaign of education we have to fight to show the people the dangers of the use and particularly the abuse of these implements. I know full well a person might be attached to some souvenir he brought back from a foreign shore, yet that very person would probably be heartbroken if that souvenir he brought back and which meant so much to him was stolen or was delivered into the hands of some other person who used it for unlawful means. Look at the kids stealing automobiles nowadays. In practically every stolen car apprehended we find a gun or two on the back seat. I don't believe even the police are checking up enough on these automatics and revolvers that are in the hands of persons, some of whom have licenses to use them, and why, I don't know. I remember a man who worked with me who had a permit to carry a gun. I don't know why he needed it. He didn't need a gun any more than the rest of us, but he had a permit, and every year he renewed that permit. I think the police might well check up on anybody who has a permit to find out how many bullets were purchased for that gun and to make him account for the balance. I think much good could be accomplished if the Mayor and the Police Commissioner and the heads of the Legion and the heads of Veterans of Foreign Wars sat down and talked this thing over. Instead of a drive for newspapers or other valuables, why not have a drive for old metal—not scrap metal—but old metal which might be the means of death and robbery; yes, might be the means of other more hideous crimes. I think much good can be accomplished if we set about showing these boys who came back from overseas that though the gun means a lot to them, it still is an implement of torture, an instrument of death in the hands of somebody else to whom it would mean nothing but robbery and plunder. I am sure public-spirited citizens will be happy to cooperate. I think something could be accomplished through legislation, but I think more can be accomplished primarily through education. We should crack down on the prevalence of guns and knives in the hands of people who have no right to them and don't know how to use them. Only the other evening on Stuart street a man carried a six-inch knife and he merely had to press a button and a six-inch blade came out. He gets a few highballs in him and he scares four or five people. It can happen more often than once every day in the week, and the only thing we can do to curb it is through education. Maybe it would be better to take these implements of war and destroy them. Perhaps it would be better if the Legion or the Veterans of Foreign Wars asked the individual members to turn over to the post any guns of any sort they possess. At least, let us not sit by and see these dastardly crimes increase day after day. Let us see if we cannot through education show the people that these souvenirs as they are sometimes called are still implements of warfare.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, as Councilor Hannon says, through a program of education we ought to be able to instruct these returned GIs who might have the so-called souvenirs or implements of warfare, to dispose of them. It is a theme I believe the public press could feature, it is a problem they could expose, and it would do some good. Educate the kid who has a gun he can show off to his friends as booty from warfare; educate him that it is not smart to be carrying that around, that it could get into the hands of someone who could do real violence. I say the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the various other military organizations through their periodicals as well as the public press should carry on a campaign of instruction and take these souvenirs away, or permit them where they might do the least harm.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, what is the order?

President KELLY—The clerk will read the order. (The order was read.)

The order was passed under suspension of the rules.

ERECTION OF SOUTH END AND SOUTH BOSTON HOUSING PROJECTS.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Housing Authority be directed by his Honor the Mayor to proceed with negotiations for the erection of the South End and South Boston housing projects.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, following along the theme of the councilor from South Boston (Councilor Linehan), I think we here in the Council should never lose sight of the fact that these so-called temporary homes erected at Camp McKay and Franklin Field and other places are but temporary homes. Many times we seem to be self-satisfied as long as we are rid of these people who are seeking apartments. Let sleeping dogs lie. I think the main purpose of the Housing Authority is to provide not temporary housing but permanent housing. I don't care whether it is a one- or two-family house, or what it is, but these houses at Camp McKay are only temporary, and we should not lose sight of that fact. A few months ago we had much ado here about the fact that the South Boston and South End projects were not being rushed to completion. Camp McKay was opening, and since that has been opened a matter of a few months, nobody has said a word about the South End project or the South Boston project. I would like to see these projects carried through to completion. The other day in conversation with the chairman of the Housing Authority he told me the only hitch was the interpretation of the statute governing the Housing Authority, whether the building could be built for this sum of money or that sum of money. He said it hinged on the interpretation of one phrase in the statute. If that is so, it seems to me that we here in Boston should get on the ball and have somebody in Washington—we certainly have authority down there and power enough down there, or so it would appear—interpret that statute either pro or con, and to let us know where we stand. My position is this: those houses in Camp McKay which, by the way are in my district, are merely temporary and makeshift homes. I don't want to be a party to the fact that there are veterans in there, and now, don't let us forget the permanent housing projects in the South End and South Boston. I say, let us get on the ball, construct these places in the South End and in South Boston, and move these people out of these chicken houses or temporary homes, or whatever one might wish to call them.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I don't know if the gentleman was present several weeks ago when I filed an order requesting his Honor the Mayor and the Boston representatives in Congress to get on the ball relative to the construction of low-income housing developments on the Cathedral and South Boston sites. At that time I simply asked his Honor the Mayor, and the following week he sent a letter which was read, that he would do everything in his power to get after the two particular projects immediately. At that time I also filed an order as going on record and having the Council go on record for the building of more projects which can be done under the Taft-Wagner-Ellender bill. That was several weeks ago. I can't say from my own knowledge it does hinge on whether or not the Boston Housing Authority can get more money to meet the so-called bids submitted by the contractors for the completion of the low-income housing projects in the South Boston area and on the Cathedral sites. Several weeks ago I gave that information to the councilors, and there is no question in my mind we have to wait for action from Congress. The present housing act was construed by the Attorney General last year, and he says that we cannot appropriate any more than so much per apartment and, of course, contractors are bidding more than that amount of money, so it is a question of the Boston Housing Authority not having enough money to build the projects; that they have so much but not enough. In order for them to get more, they have to have an amendment made by Congress; not the Housing Authority and not the Legislature, but it is in the lap, you might say, of Congress. We sincerely hope the veterans' organizations and their representatives in Washington get on the ball and do something with regard to the Taft-Wagner-Ellender bill. Last year it was pigeonholed. It passed one of the houses, and it was pigeonholed in the other. The chances are, and it is the consensus of opinion of experts, that it is going to be pigeonholed again. I don't know whether that is going to be the present action of the leadership in Washington, but that seems to be the opinion of leading writers for business magazines. I sincerely hope the writers are incorrect.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, I would like to point out for the benefit of the councilors, when Mr. Carroll appeared before the Committee on Confirmations, he explained they could go ahead with the construction, but that it depended on the interpretation as to whether they could spend $1,200 per room, whereas, the Federal Housing Authority said they were limited to $5,000 per dwelling unit. Mr. Carroll contests, and I think he is right, in multiple dwellings that they are allowed to contract at $1,200 a room. It is in the lap of the Attorney General. Mr. Carroll has contacted our Congressmen, and they said a decision would be rendered very shortly. He also pointed out—relative to the remarks by the councilor from Ward 13 (Councilor Hannon)—that these temporary houses are not only not what the veterans desire, but in many instances they are fire hazards. The dwelling units at Franklin Field seem to be in difficulty now as between the Federal authority and the state authorities and the city authorities as to the heating of these units. They have to keep barrels of oil outside of wooden buildings, and I doubt whether any fire department would issue a permit if the law was strictly observed. It is very important that these permanent dwelling projects be high pressured from every branch of the government, from the sponsor on down. I hope we get some action on this order.

Coun. RUSSO—May we have the clerk read the order again?

President KELLY—The clerk will please read the order.

(The order was read.)

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I believe it is on record what I said on this question when it came up before us some time ago. However, I would like to touch upon the Taft-Wagner-Ellender bill as I believe that bill concerns the sections in the north, west, and south of Boston, and particularly of building in Boston. I do hope the men will not lose sight of the fact that these sections which I represent, the North, West and South Ends, happen to be in the heart of the city. They happen to be the first homes erected in our city, and we have homes there which are about 300 years old and over. They still are in existence today, but they should be condemned and done away with. We must also realize in my district we have not the homes that some of the other sections of the city enjoy today. We are paying taxes just as well as any other section of our city. We talk so much about building Boston and still, what has been done in order to build Boston? In order to build Boston you must do away with all these homes that are unfit, yes, unfit to live in. I feel that unless the Federal government, the state government and the city government combined get together to do something about it, we cannot expect private enterprise is going to take care of the whole burden. The Taft-Wagner-Ellender bill would give the people of my section an opportunity to have these low-cost housing projects in my section, they have been clamoring for them for the past ten years or more. I have done everything within my power, even to speaking with the chairman of the Housing Authority at Washington some time ago, about six years ago. They all agreed that something ought to be done, and still the powers that be do not do anything about it. I am getting sick and tired of hearing "Build up Boston." I believe the only way we can build up Boston is to drop an egg bomb, and let's all roll up our sleeves and get to work to rebuild Boston. I do hope the representatives in Washington will do something about it and give the people something to which we are entitled, and that is, better housing conditions. Let us start on it. I hope the Senators of our state and the Congressmen of our city will do something in order to see something is done to eliminate the bad housing conditions that exist in our city today.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

"ON-THE-JOB" TRAINING FOR VETERANS.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to direct the head of every city department to immediately make arrangements for "On-The-Job" training for veterans.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, a few weeks ago the gentleman from Ward 11 (Councilor Moriarty) introduced an order asking the city to take advantage of the "On-The-Job" training regulations of the Federal government. At that time I had not received any particular requests from veterans seeking this training, but in the course of the last few weeks I have had three veterans who have come to me and asked if it is possible to get jobs in the city on this program. Upon checking up, I find out the city has employed two employees under this act. I wrote a letter to the Park Commissioner asking him about the employment of veterans, and I received the following reply:

"Referring to your letter of recent date regarding employment of Thomas F. Conklin, I have written him and explained to him he would have to register at civil service as a tree surgeon or tree climber. If he is a veteran and his service can be obtained; that is, if he can be certified by civil service, I will be only too glad to take care of him."

I don't know if that is the tenor of each department head, but if they are certified by civil service, they can be taken care of, anyway, and they don't come under the G I Bill of Rights. I would like to find out whether or not we are going to take advantage of this act, and if we are not, let us be honest and tell the kids we are not; if we are going to take advantage of it, let us be honest enough to give every councilor an opportunity to do it. You get sick and tired of getting these letters back from department heads saying if his name is certified by civil service, of course, I will employ him. Of course, he will, we know that. I don't want to let any kid be given the runaround by having a department head tell him to go to civil service and if his name comes down, he will employ him. If these department heads had to be certified by civil service, I wonder how many of them would be employed. I would like to get this straightened out: Is the City of Boston going to take advantage of this "On-The-Job" training bill or is it not? That question, it seems to me, might be answered "yes" or "no," and no poor veteran would be given the runaround.

Coun. MUCHNICK—It seems to me this is something which might require an interpretation from the Law Department as to whether we have the right under our civil service setup to employ veterans on a non-civil service basis even if we get an allotment for their services from the government. Under those circumstances, I move this go to Executive, and that the Law Department be asked to give an opinion.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

SCIENTIFIC SURVEY OF ELEVATED.

Coun. MUCHNICK offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company to engage the services of a competent firm of industrial engineers for the purpose of having said engineers conduct a scientific survey of the management and operation of the Boston Elevated Railway Company with a view towards eliminating such wasteful practices, inefficiencies and unnecessary costs as may be found to exist.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, in a letter published in the Boston Traveler on Saturday, January 11, 1947, Mr. Edward Dana, President and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway, wrote the following:

Legislature Makes El Pay Dividends.

People's Editor:

I wish to reply to a recent correspondent of your column in order that the facts may be clearly stated.

First: A specific act of the Legislature defines the procedure in operating the Elevated system and that act comprises a contract between the Commonwealth and the private owners, which contract includes as part of it the payment of $5 dividends per share on the outstanding stock.

Second: 39 per cent. of the riders use the system during the four rush hours of the day and 61 per cent. during the remaining non-rush hours. Reducing the fare of any substantial number of these non-rush hour riders, as suggested, would mean a loss of gross income.

During 1946, income failed to meet total costs of service by more than $2,000,000 and, consequently, this deficit will be imposed upon the tax payers under the act. In order to correct this situation, the trustees, acting under the provisions of the law, increased local fares to secure additional revenue and attempt to relieve the tax payer of this burden. The income received since this change indicates that had it been in effect during 1946 there would not be a deficit to impose upon the tax payers.

Third: In 1919, when the first flat 10 cent fare was placed in effect, the total cost of service was less than $32,000,000, whereas in 1946, under present inflationary costs of all items, it is estimated to be $42,000,000. Fares, therefore, needed to be adjusted upwards to pay the increased costs that must be met out of fares received.

EDWARD DANA,
President and General Manager,
Boston Elevated Railway.

Boston.

There are many answers to Mr. Dana's letter, but a full and complete answer was given in 1940 by the late Justice Brandeis, who as counsel for the shippers argued against the railroad rate increases, before the Interstate Commerce Commission. During the course of the hearing of that case, Mr. Justice Brandeis stated and I quote, "It would be a most serious danger to establish the principle that if, according to present conditions, they (the railroads) need more money, they raise rates instead of doing what in every competitive business it is necessary to do, namely, to consider whether you cannot make more money by reducing your cost."

If we are to travel in the vicious circle of meeting higher costs by ever higher costs, if the burden of increased rates and other burdens are to come upon the community, then where is the limit? During the course of that hearing, Mr. Justice Brandeis demonstrated fully how the railroads, who were then seeking increased rates because of increased costs, did not need authorization for said increases, but could accomplish the desired result of making profits by eliminating waste and introducing scientific management in the operation of the railroads. There are many firms of competent industrial engineers who engage only in the business of making scientific studies of plants, factories, industries, and everything connected with the operation and management of any business, regardless of its size or kind. I do not know when the Elevated last had such a survey made or whether they ever had such a survey made. I assume that there are certain persons in the employ of the Elevated whose function it is to do what they can towards eliminating waste and installing scientific methods of operation in the different departments of the company. I do not know how far they do go in this matter or how far they can go, but I am convinced that an outside firm, composed of people who are complete strangers to the method of operation of the Elevated and who are complete strangers to the officers and employees of the Elevated, can do a good job in eliminating waste, reducing costs and rendering the Elevated more efficient. I am convinced that such a firm by putting into play the experience it will have gained in other scientific surveys it may have made with other similar companies or drawing upon its general experience, can do a job that must result in savings.

Such a scientific survey is essential, particularly in view of the fact that the Elevated is at present constituted as a monopoly in the transportation field of Greater Boston. As is well known, there are many evil features connected with monopoly. I will not go into all of these at present, but will discuss only three. In the first place, monopoly implies lack of competition. This lack of competition breeds inertia, death of inventions, sluggishness and security on the part of the monopolies and resulting inefficiency, which in turn must lead to a reduced return to the consumer at an increased cost to the consumer—in this instance, inadequate transportation at increased cost to the traveler. In the second place, monopoly inevitably leads to growth of the monopoly usually to such an ungainly and unwieldy size that it becomes impossible eventually to operate efficiently and economically. It is a well-established rule of business management that after a certain point, increased growth becomes uneconomical and inadvisable. The Elevated may well have reached the point that an added growth of ten (10%) per cent may result in only five (5%) per cent return at a twenty (20%) cost. I don't say that the Elevated has reached this point in its growth, but I feel that no one can argue that point one way or the other until some scientific data has been produced to establish the fact one way or the other. In the third place, the security of a monopoly can and very often does lead to the establishment of "irresponsible power" in the hands of a few. This power and security inevitably breeds a lack of regard for the consuming public. Thus, of course, contains many bad potentials for the community. A scientific study might show that it would be more economical and more beneficial for the public to limit the growth of the Elevated and the area covered by the Elevated and to establish another transportation company to service certain areas.

It is obvious that Mr. Dana's letter is not an answer to the problem. This letter clearly does not solve the problem because it attempts only to pass on to the consuming public the inefficiency and waste of a smug, secure monopoly, sure of its legal protection. The letter states in part as follows and I repeat: "In order to correct this situation, the trustees, acting under the provisions of the law, increased local fares to secure additional revenue and attempt to relieve the tax payer of this burden." Fares, therefore, needed to be adjusted upwards to pay the increased costs that must be met out of fares received. That is not a proper answer to the problem. The real answer is a reduction of unnecessary costs by elimination of waste and establishment of economies under improved plans of scientific management. This must result if properly done, in my opinion, with improved service for the consumer at a reduced cost. It seems to me that the final result would necessarily be no deficiency for the taxpayers, lower rates, better service and increased dividends to stockholders.

The trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway are members of the public, who are appointed for the purpose of protecting the interests of the public. It seems to me that it is clearly in the public interest for the trustees to employ a firm of industrial engineers as suggested in the order and pay them a reasonable fee to see what can be done. Forty-two million dollars was spent by the Elevated in 1946. More than two million dollars of this is a deficit, which is imposed upon the taxpayers of Greater Boston. In an attempt to save this two million dollars and more, if possible, the trustees in my opinion owe a duty to the public to take this suggestion, which seems reasonable, of hiring a competent firm of industrial engineers. There should be no question raised as to the potential expense involved in the conduct of this survey, because this expense, if the survey for some reason proved unsuccessful, would be borne by the taxpayer if it resulted in a deficit. But, I am convinced that the taxpayers of Greater Boston would be willing to spend the money required for a survey to learn if this deficit can be avoided and whether service can be improved and fares reduced rather than be kept ignorant of the facts. I am quite sure that the trustees will see the logic of the request contained in the order and will proceed to arrange for the survey.

I ask for the suspension of the rule, and the passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LICENSES.

Coun. SCANNELL, for the Committee on Licenses, submitted the following:

Report on petition of Howard Cosgrove (referred December 9, 1946) for driveway opening at 122 Seaver street, Ward 12—recommending that permit be granted on usual conditions.

President KELLY—The question first comes on the acceptance of the report of the committee. All those in favor say "aye," those opposed "no," and the report is accepted. The question now comes on the granting of the license.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, I am opposed to the granting of this license. I oppose the change of zoning restrictions and the issuance of the Street Commissioners' permit. I understand the Mayor's office has insisted all the way through that it go through. I am opposed to it now.

President KELLY—The question now comes on the granting of the license. All those in favor say "aye," those opposed "no," and it is ordered.

VOLUNTEER HOSPITAL SERVICE BY CITY EMPLOYEES.

Coun. SCANNELL offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to ask city employees, both male and female, to volunteer their services a few hours each day or night in alleviating conditions at the City Hospital; also that his Honor the Mayor and trustees of the hospital make an all-out effort to bring back all the nurses who have left the institution and to do everything possible to restore the School of Nursing to its former high standard.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, from a message from his Honor the Mayor in the past week, at least it would seem we are starting to do something about conditions in the City Hospital where the trustees and the Mayor have O. K.'d a $600 pay rise which was initiated by the members of the City Council who know of the conditions at this institution. I think it is a step further ahead to alleviate the conditions at that institution which, God knows, are really deplorable.

Anybody who goes into that institution as I have in the past six or seven years and who sees it degraded the way it is through lack of help would certainly do everything possible to see that the City Hospital does not become a ghost hospital as it may be if these conditions continue to exist. We have a number of female employees in the city, such as school teachers and library workers who, through their charity, should give so many hours a day or night to see if they can help some of the conditions at that institution because, after all, that hospital is theirs, and it is mine. If there is any charity in the hearts of city employees, I think they should use it at this institution. We are on the right track now; at least, the trustees of the hospital are listening to men who know the conditions at that hospital, and we have trustees who have a little guts to listen. Some have not, I am sorry to admit, but as far as I am concerned, I am going to work, and work hard to see that conditions at this institution are improved. I don't see any reason why the Mayor should not request some of the school teachers or the employees at the Hall here to go up there to see if they can help some of the nurses do the work. I am going to try to contact every nurse who has left the hospital in the past year and a half and ask them to come back for the sake of that hospital. It is a great institution, and big men come here to give their services three or four hours a day. Some of the doctors and surgeons of this city are some of the biggest men we have, and they come in and give their services, so I think at least the city employees or anybody who has any charity in his heart for the sick and the poor who mostly go to that hospital, I say they should give a couple of hours a day. Getting back to the School of Nursing, this is the situation: There has to be a lot of study on it. I think there should be some changes made at that hospital as far as the School of Nursing is concerned. The heads of the School of Nursing have let the School of Nursing go down into a deplorable condition, and that is why the School of Nursing today is in a very bad way. I think if we had contributions of money or an appropriation or an all-out drive for that great institution, we might get some place with it. Now, as I said before, gentlemen, we are getting a little cooperation. We are getting at least to see that these men who had been lacking in business sense and saying "We cannot spend this and that," are interested; they are starting to get interested in the hospital. I dare say I could say some things on this floor today which would make you shudder at the conditions at the hospital. Can you imagine people going four or five or six days without having their beds changed? Poor old people 12 or 14 people in a little small room and probably 30 in another big ward with one nurse trying to take care of them. These conditions cannot go on. I think it is up to each and every one of us to see that at least some of these people get taken care of. Today at the City Hospital there is only one thing a nurse can do, and that is to give medication and give a diet. Can you imagine a poor soul operated on at the hospital, the operation is a success, but when they come down, they just lie in their beds, and I have seen them there dying, one, two or three, without any assistance from any nurse. They are trying to take care of people who might get well. These are conditions that can be alleviated by cooperation. We have thousands of employees in the city, and the teachers get through, some at 2:30 in the afternoon. It wouldn't be much for them to get up there for two or three or four hours a day to help. If they have any charity in their hearts, they can help in one way or another. I know I have done everything possible to see what we can do to help that institution, and I maintain if we do not do something from now on, that hospital will be nothing but a shambles, a ghost hospital. As far as the nursing situation is concerned, that is going to be improved, but if we can give those nurses aid by having the Mayor ask that the male and female employees go up there to assist them for a couple of hours a day, it would be a great help. In the meantime, the trustees of the hospital and the head of the School of Nursing and the supervisors will get together and see if they cannot have an all-out drive to bring back the School of Nursing to what it has been in the past years. It has gone down to a very low ebb. I say this today, that some of the big colleges in this country in the next year won't send men internes to that hospital if the conditions do not improve. I think it is through the work of the members of this Council that this condition has been brought to the attention at least of some of the new trustees at that hospital who have the hospital at heart and nothing else. I know we have trustees up there we can't talk to, and I say if we cannot talk to these trustees let us get rid of them. I know there was one trustee who, although he might be a great doctor, is not a good executive. I know one man up there who said a nurse who was getting $1,600 a year was getting enough. That is not the type of man we want at that institution. He might be a good doctor, so let him take care of the doctor's end of the hospital, but let us put men who are humanitarians as trustees in the executive end of it to run it. I think we are on the way to do a good job at the institution, and I think we are forging ahead a little bit. It was through the cooperation of what was presented here that they were forced—not forced, but at least they concurred with our order. Things are better up there. I think we might have an all-out campaign to contribute money to build a School of Nursing and to bring back the nurses. I think we are doing a good job. I move the suspension of the rules and the passage of the order.

Coun. LINAHAN—I read an article this week in reference to a committee hearing at which Dr. Frank Lahey of the Lahey Clinic spoke relative to the training of nurses. To me it was very illuminating. I remember during the past eight or ten years I have been in politics, on many occasions I went to the School of Nursing and also to Dr. Manary, asking to intercede for this person or that person to go into training in the City Hospital to be a nurse. In most cases I found we were unable to get the girl in, due to the fact that she did not have a high school education or its equivalent. At this meeting Dr. Frank Lahey said that it was about time we had less emphasis on education and more emphasis on taking care of the sick. I think up to this time the great handicap is due to the fact that we have been too fussy relative to educational requirements. I think it is about time we let people into our nursing school who, due to no fault of their own, have not sufficient education to meet the present requirements set up but who have a heart and want to treat the patients who are suffering because of lack of hospital care in the Boston City Hospital. I might say Dr. Frank Lahey is positively one of the finest surgeons of the world. He is recognized as such, and if a gentleman like that says you don't necessarily need people with a great education, but need people who like people, people who will treat the sick, that is what he is interested in. If Dr. Frank Lahey says that, that is the kind we need, and I think it is about time the trustees adopt a program where a poor girl who has not had sufficient education to meet the requirements now be admitted to the School of Nursing so that we will have sufficient to take care of the sick four or five years from now.

Coun. SCANNELL—Another word on the order, Mr. President. I have some statistics here in regard to the teachers in Boston. There are 3,853 teachers in Boston. These teachers do a good day's work, I grant you that, but, as I said before, if there is only 15 per cent of them who would get together, if they have any consideration for the welfare of the sick people in this city, to help or volunteer at the hospital, they would be doing a good job and, furthermore, Mr. President, might I say, we have a lot of trained nurses in the Health Department who are visiting nurses. I think it could be arranged by the Mayor to see that these nurses could go into the hospital four hours and be out four hours, making a full day of it, to see if we cannot take care of the institution and the people in that institution. If we do not do something about it and do it right quick, then, as I said before, it is going to be a ghost hospital. You heard the trustees of the hospital and Dr. Manary say they will take nothing but emergency cases. God knows, I can't understand how he is going to take care of the people there at the present time if he is going to take care of emergency cases going in there. Again I would like to say I think the teachers of the city can contribute greatly to the welfare of some of the poor sick people at the hospital, and they certainly will contribute a great deal to this city if they will spend a few hours a day at the institution.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

STATUS OF PATRICK J. O'ROURKE.

Coun. KELLY offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston favors the enactment of legislation entitled "An Act Relative to the Status of Patrick J. O'Rourke as a Member of the Police Department of the City of Boston." Said Patrick J. O'Rourke being a member of the Police Department of the City of Boston who was reinstated therein, under chapter 141 of the Acts of 1938, shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of membership in said department to the extent as if his term of service had not been interrupted during the period prior to his reinstatement as aforesaid; and further, that this Act shall take effect upon its passage by the Legislature, provided that such legislation includes a referendum to the Mayor and the City Council.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SALARY OF CITY TREASURER.

Coun. SCANNELL offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to increase the salary of the City Treasurer so that he will receive the same amount as the City Auditor.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CLEARING OF STREETS OF ICE AND SNOW.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to clear all streets of the City of Boston and in particular the streets of Ward 3 of all ice and snow that has been accumulated since the last snowstorm.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I believe this is the third order I have put in this Council making the same request since the last snowfall we had in our city. I believe that if we look back in the record it would show that I have never been opposed to any expenditure that will give a child or a person the opportunity for higher education or proper education. Neither have I opposed any expenditures that would bring about the elimination of hazards contributing to the loss of lives or injuries. Neither have I opposed expenditure for anyone who needs medical attention in any of our institutions. But, lo and behold, Mr. President, it seems to me by reading some of the newspapers of our city and by seeing some of the pictures taken and printed in our newspapers, we give the impression that God Almighty above put a canopy over the rest of the city or the state and left the poor North End alone when this last snowfall came about. I don't know, Mr. President, where the fault lies. However, I do agree with some of the people who have made complaints, and I sympathize with them very heartily. Some of them have stated they have small children and, naturally, I know what it means to have small children and to have them walk in the streets of our city in the condition they have been in the last few weeks. I certainly sympathize with the motorists on the condition of the streets that have brought about broken springs and other things, because, thank God, I am able to have an automobile and I drive through the streets. Only ten days ago I had to spend $146 for that. I don't know, Mr. President, where the fault lies, whether it lies with his Honor the Mayor or whether it may lie with the Public Works Commissioner, or whether it may lie with the men who are working for the City of Boston. But I maintain if it is economy, if it lies on economy, I say it is false economy. I believe that the streets of our City of Boston should be cleared of all ice and snow, and I believe it is unfair for any newspaper or any one to single out one particular section of our city to try to impress upon the public that there was a canopy lifted up on the rest of the city when the snow fell and left the poor North End with all its burden. I sympathize, Mr. President, with the people over there because of the fact that we do have narrow streets, and again I come back to when we are going to build the City of Boston. The only way you can build the City of Boston is by the elimination of such streets which to my mind are still cowpaths. I do hope that his Honor the Mayor will do everything within his power to see to it that the ice and snow is removed, especially now when we have been blessed by God above with some rain. It will not be too difficult to take away from the streets the snow and ice that has accumulated there. By doing that, I believe that we will be eliminating the accidents that have mounted in the past few weeks and we will be preserving the health and the limbs of others. So, Mr. President, I do hope that the Public Works Commissioner and his Honor the Mayor will see to it that these streets are cleared of ice and snow, and also again I reiterate that property owners ought also to be instructed by the Police Department to clear their sidewalks, and especially some of the garages and some of the real estate that they never clear; their sidewalks are always covered with ice. I strongly urge the Police Department to take notice.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

TAKING OF EASEMENT BY METROPOLITAN DISTRICT COMMISSION.

Coun. FISH offered the following:

Whereas, The Metropolitan District Commission on the ninth day of January, 1947, did take certain rights and easements referred to and described in an order of taking, a copy of which has been submitted, which land lies in the City of Boston and County of Suffolk and is shown on a plan entitled "Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Metropolitan District Commission, Parks Division, Old Colony Parkway, Boston (Dorchester District), Taking of easement for drain east of Tenean Street near Pope's Hill Bridge, October 30, 1946, Benj. R. Davis, Director of Park Engineering," being plan accession number 27405-V.T.;

Ordered, That the City Council of the City of Boston in conformity with section 80 of chapter 92 of the General Laws, hereby concurs with said Metropolitan District Commission in said taking and in every act, matter and thing connected therewith.

Referred to Executive Committee.

PAYMENT OF SALARIED EMPLOYEES FOR OVERTIME.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be directed, through his Honor the Mayor, to include sufficient funds in this year's budget to pay salaried employees for overtime work.

Coun. CAREY—Speaking on Councilor McCormack's order. I had in mind introducing a similar order today, Mr. President, so I want to congratulate the councilor from Ward 19 on his introduction of it. I have had several complaints recently, particularly regarding men who worked all day Sunday in the last ten days, and from a man in my district who worked Saturday night, worked through all day Sunday as well as Sunday night, and was simply told by his boss he would get time off. I have had this matter before the Council many times, and it has well been brought out by members of the Council and myself that it does the average city employee no good whatsoever to get time off during the winter months to compensate him for extra work and extra hours spent at his job. Where in the name of heaven can the average city employee go in the wintertime on that time off? He can do nothing but stay at home and twiddle his fingers. There is only one fair way to handle the situation, and that is by paying these men for the extra time they put in, and paying them at the rate of time and a half as most laboring people are paid. I can't understand the obstinacy on the part of the city or of department heads—where it seems to me to be the fault. If a man gives up the companionship of home and family for a stretch of 21 hours or 18 hours or 14 hours, whatever it might be, to see the city function, and I have in mind an engineer in the employ of the city who, if he walked off the job, God knows what might happen to the city plant, and all the boss says is, "I will give you the time off." Compensate the men who stand by and do the work. The city should stand by him and compensate him at the rate of time and a half for the extra hours he puts into his work.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I think that is a very worthy order. Just recently, on one of the cold nights we had, I observed the city men and the contractors under the guidance of Mr. Malloy of the local yard in Charlestown remove snow. I called Mr. Malloy upstairs and asked him if he wanted a cup of coffee. He said no, and I don't think anything would have done him any good. He was white and blue by turns with cold. I said, "What do you get for this, Joe?" He said, "Only my hire and a dollar every four hours for meals." Twenty-five cents an hour spent to see the city money is wisely and properly spent! It is rather late in the day to think of a legislative act, and I don't think we can do it by any other means, but there are several things that are faulty in the manner in which we pay our city employees, and I am speaking now of the men who die at a time when they have not exhausted the leave they accumulated and which they had not taken at the time of death. The rule has been that time dies with him, so the heirs in many instances, a wife and children, cannot be paid at the daily rate of pay for the number of days accumulated which were not taken when death set in. It has been ruled the accumulated time dies with the person who has it. I have been informed that legislative action is the only way by which those situations can be corrected. Councilor McCormack is to be commended for thinking of his fellows. It does not mean some of us do not think about them, but some of the older men are tired of putting in seasonal orders, year after year, and finding nothing can prevail. Now, if it is a matter of legislative action, we should ask that the Mayor instruct the Law Department to draw legislation designed to enable the City of Boston, regardless of what other cities and towns may do, to pay salaried employees for overtime. A laborer or a truck driver is paid after eight hours, but a salaried man may work until one or two o'clock in the morning after half-past four in the afternoon when his day normally ends, but for that eight-hour period receives $2, which, as I said at the outset, is a dollar every four hours for his meals. I think what we are actually doing is welshing on our obligations to the men who have over long periods of years because of their ability become members of the supervisory force of the city. Because we do have a fairly reasonable salary for supervisors, we should not stint in the matter of decent overtime money. I hope, Mr. President, that the order has some effect downstairs on Mayor Curley and that he will initiate the necessary steps towards the proper payment of these men who in my opinion are worthy of this consideration and have proven their worthiness in public actions in the past in watching the welfare of the city when the rest of us are safely home, warm and comfortable, and enjoying the fruits of their efforts.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, it will necessitate an act of the Legislature. I move the order of Councilor McCormack be worded to that effect.

President KELLY—The Chair will rule it does not require an act of the Legislature. The order is in good form.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

PURCHASE OF LAND ON BRUCE STREET FOR PLAYGROUND.

Coun. BRYAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the possibility of purchasing the lot of land adjoining the present accepted location for a small playground on Bruce street, the lot having 7,447 square feet.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

MOTION TO ABOLISH SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON MILITARY AFFAIRS.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I move the Special Committee on Military Affairs be abolished.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley moves the special committee on Military Affairs be abolished. All those in favor please rise. It is not a vote.

NAMING OF MISSION HILL VETERANS MEMORIAL CIRCLE.

Coun. CAREY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface the island which is located on Huntington avenue, at the intersection of Francis street, with colored flagstones, and to provide a flagpole and new benches thereon; and be it further Ordered, That this island be named Mission Hill Veterans Memorial Circle.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

CONSTRUCTION OF UNDERPASS ON HUNTINGTON AVENUE.

Coun. CAREY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to draft a bill for presentation to the Legislature providing for the construction of an underpass on Huntington avenue, from Longwood avenue to the Brookline Line.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I realize perhaps that is a large order, but something has to be done to safeguard the life of pedestrians and to expedite the flow of traffic on Huntington avenue. As we all know, Huntington avenue now has become nothing but a state highway from the Brookline Line right into the intersection of Boylston street. I have asked this underpass be considered from Longwood avenue to the Brookline Line, principally having in mind the dangers to life and limb which exist because of the large amount of vehicular traffic which moves along Huntington avenue. We have Teachers College at the corner of Longwood and Huntington. Further up the street, on Huntington avenue we have the Martin School. Further along we have the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, and a little further along Huntington avenue we have the Farragut School. Along with that, we have thousands of people, parishioners of the Mission Church, who must cross Huntington avenue in getting from that area on the western side of Huntington avenue to the Mission Church. We have a sum total of thousands and thousands of people who traverse Huntington avenue daily and during the night on foot with no protection. There have been numerous accidents there, and something must be done. I fully realize this will cost money; nevertheless, we are hearing nothing nowadays but what must be done and what can be done to improve the flow of traffic throughout the city. If anyone visits the Huntington avenue section any time of the day, from half-past seven in the morning until eleven o'clock at night, they will observe a constant flow of heavy traffic along the avenue. In the first place, the lives of pedestrians must be protected. In the second place, there are unnecessary traffic tie-ups along Huntington avenue in that section because of the intersection of Brigham Circle and the various streets along the highway. I believe the town of Brookline is considering some underpass from the Brookline Line along Boylston street in order to eliminate the traffic delays. But something must be done within the City of Boston itself. I sincerely hope the Mayor will give to this order the attention I feel it deserves. I have been beset by the residents of the district to do something to eliminate the dangers to the pedestrians, and I think this is the best way to eliminate the present situation. Traffic lights and traffic circles will do no good. Something has to be done to get most of these automobiles off the surface that the traveling public must use. I therefore move the suspension of the rule and the passage of this order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

INFORMATION RE TAX ABATEMENTS.

Coun. CHASE offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Assessors be requested through his Honor the Mayor to promptly submit a list of the names and addresses and amounts of tax abatements over $20,000 granted for the year 1946.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, in the near future, sir, his Honor the Mayor will be submitting the annual municipal budget which will probably approach close to $50,000,000. I feel, Mr. President, in view of our task of either paring the budget or passing it, we are entitled to all information which directly or indirectly causes the city to spend so many millions of dollars and directly and indirectly causes the taxes. Mr. President, we know this year there will be a tremendous increase in the tax rate, and I think, sir, the property owners throughout the city are entitled to all the information they can receive pertaining to the management of their city government because, Mr. President, they are the ones who are paying for the cost of service rendered by the municipal government. I say to you, sir, that the small home owner in West Roxbury or Hyde Park or Jamaica Plain, or in the Back Bay, in every ward of the city, will be confronted this year probably with paying $6 or $7 additional to the city treasury because his Honor the Mayor has seen fit to grant million-dollar abatements. Mr. President, do the members of your Council realize that if the Board of Assessors are granting anywhere from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 annually in tax abatements that those abatements reflect in your taxes, probably $6 or $7 to the small home owner in the city. Somebody might get a $40,000 cut on his assessment but your small home owner and other taxpayers are called upon to make up the deficit caused by that abatement. So, Mr. President, due to the fact that other taxpayers are called upon to make up these deficits, I think that the taxpayers paying the taxes for such deficits are entitled to know what is going on behind the curtain. You and I don't know, Mr. President, what is going on in the Board of Assessors. Yet, sir, we are part of the city government. I think, sir, in view of the fact that several months ago we passed an order asking his Honor the Mayor to submit to us all the abatements over $20,000 granted for the year 1946 and in view of the fact that list has not to date been submitted to us, I am justified in again requesting that information. I don't know what his Honor the Mayor proposes to do in assessing the various properties in our city this year but, sir, I do recall last year he made a big hullabaloo about the underassessed valuations of properties in the downtown area. We all know he caused to be printed because of his news releases big stories in the various newspapers telling the taxpaying public in general that all the downtown property had been underassessed and that he had caused big increases amounting to millions of dollars. But we do know, sir, in many cases for the year 1946 his Honor the Mayor has seen fit to grant tremendous abatements on the very properties which he said last year were underassessed. Now, sir, there are rumors throughout the Hall from different people that large abatements have been granted this year. I understand, sir, that there is a petition for an abatement of 2½ million dollars. That, sir, means somebody is going to get $90,000 return on his taxes. That means, sir, other taxpayers in the city will be called upon to make up the difference of that $90,000. God only knows how many of these tremendous abatements are going on. We are not given any record but probably three or four years from now the public at large will be enlightened. In the meantime, sir, a select few are able somehow to reach his Honor the Mayor and the Board of Assessors and convince them their taxes are too high, that their property is overassessed, that their property should be given an abatement. Personally, I feel, sir, in most cases abatements granted by his Honor the Mayor and the Board of Assessors are unjustified, and many of them would stand an investigation by the Boston Finance Commission. I believe, sir, if we had the record here before us today, we would find many millions of dollars granted in tax abatements. It is one of the most lucrative pieces of graft in municipal government, to grant abatements. The boys who are in are the boys who are making tremendous sums of money at the cost of smaller taxpayers and all taxpayers in general. I know, sir, that your Honorable Body will agree with me that the public at large is entitled to a true picture of what is going on in the Board of Assessors' office, and I trust, sir, the Council will adopt the order under the suspension of rules, and I so move.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, will he please give me the gist of the order, or he might answer, is it relative to the publication of a list of tax abatements?

President KELLY—Will you repeat the question?

Coun. LINEHAN—If the clerk will please read the order.

President KELLY—The clerk will please read the order.

(The order is read.)

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I would like to ask the clerk, through you, is there anything in the City Charter which shows the City Council has the right to demand such figures of the members of the Board of Assessors? I looked at the City Charter but I can't see it.

President KELLY—There is nothing in the City Charter. The order is not demanding the information; it is a request, and they can do as they see fit.

Coun. COOK—I would like to inform the councilor it is against the law to demand it. If the man refuses, there is nothing in the law that may be called into effect to force him to show these figures.

President KELLY—The Chair feels the same way, but it is a request, councilor.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I move that it be amended by including the year 1945.

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan moves the order be amended to include the year 1945.

Coun. KEENAN—May I have the order read, Mr. President?

President KELLY—The clerk will read the order.

(The order is read.)

The question came on the amendment, and the amendment to include the year 1945 was adopted.

President KELLY—The question now comes on the order with the amendment.

The order as amended was passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

On motion of Councilor Sullivan, the Council voted at 4.35 to take a recess, subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by Chairman Kelly at 6.12 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on order (referred today) concurring with Metropolitan District Commission in taking of easement for drain east of Tenean street near Popes Hill bridge—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted and the order was passed, yeas 15, nays 0.

Yeas—Councilor Bryan, Cantwell, Carey, Chase, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, Linehan, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo—15.

Nays—0.

BOSTON WATERWAYS, INC., PETITION.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—State your point of inquiry, Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, at this time I would like to make a point of parliamentary inquiry.

President KELLY—State your point of parliamentary inquiry.

Coun. LINEHAN—I was wondering how many votes it would require on a measure on the petition of the Boston Waterways. I am asking this question due to the fact that the gentleman who is trying to get this license is agreeable to $10,000 per person with reference to liability. That is the reason why I am asking how many votes. I make that motion, that it be increased to $10,000 per person.

President KELLY—I am informed, councilor—

Coun. LINEHAN—A further point of parliamentary inquiry. Could we adjourn for two minutes to have the Executive Committee act on the question with the proviso of the $10,000 amendment on it?

President KELLY—I don't think we could, councilor. A motion would be in order to take it from the Executive Committee.

Coun. LINEHAN—How many votes do you need?

President KELLY—Fifteen votes.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Wait a minute until I clear my own mind. I am wrong, councilor. It will take 12 votes to remove it from the Executive Session.

Coun. LINEHAN—I now make that motion, Mr. President, with the understanding that I will make a motion to increase the policy to $10,000 per person and ten times the number twenty-one.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan makes the motion that it be taken from the Executive Session with the proviso he will increase that to $210,000. Councilor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, where it has been laid on the Executive table for a specified time of one week, can it be taken from the Executive Committee at this time?

President KELLY—That is up to the Body, councilor. They can take it from the Executive Committee on 12 votes. Councilor Cook.

Coun. COOK—I think when an order has been referred to the committee and has been there a certain length of time, 30 days, it does not take 12 votes but the majority vote of the Council. I would like that clarified.

President KELLY—Just a minute. Fifteen votes within 30 days and 12 votes over 30 days, the majority vote.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, to clear up the matter, I can always make the motion we recess for the purpose of going into Executive.

President KELLY—Just one minute, councilor. I am ruling on that motion. Yes, it is a majority vote, which would be 12 votes. Councilor Russo.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I wish the Council would not act on this favorably at this time, due to the fact that, as I stated in the Executive Meeting, it will be an unfair attack on the councilor in the district where this waterway would be. Not being present, I believe that we would not be treating our fellow member right by trying to rush this through today without giving him an opportunity to express himself either one way or the other. I believe that we owe ourselves some courtesy so that we may be able to explain to our constituents that if a member is not present and something affects his district it is not fair for the Council to take such action without giving him an opportunity to be recorded one way or the other. On that I am asking each and every one of you this because I know if it was in my district I would resent it, and I am sure if it was in any one of your districts and any one of you could not be here, if a motion of that kind was entertained and passed, I believe it would be an injustice to yourself. Place yourself in the same position that Councilor Coffey is in at the present time. I don't care how he feels about it. I don't care how you vote when he is present, but I do care to protect his interests as a fellow member while he is not here in this meeting. I believe we ought to pay him that courtesy, to postpone it for one week, when we have agreed in the Executive Session to lay it over for one week so that he will be given an opportunity to come in and be heard. On that I am asking each and every one to treat him as you would want to be treated if it was in your own district.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I made this motion due to the fact that it seemed the majority of the people who voted to keep it on the table inside, the majority, it seemed to me, wanted the insurance policy upped another $5,000. One wanted under $10,000, but he did make a motion along with the gentleman from Charlestown, and I am not sure who the other gentleman was, to make it $10,000 per person, $210,000. It is all right to talk about courtesy to one another, but the gentleman from East Boston was here last week. If he is not here today, it certainly is not a responsibility of ours. I think we owe a responsibility to the people who come before us. If we don't act faster on matters that come before us, it is not going to help us as a Body. Is it a question of whether we are going to consider the Body or just one member? This is not a vital matter which affects his district alone but to my way of thinking it helps his district because it takes automobiles away from East Boston. If I was from East Boston, that is the reason I would vote for it, because it means less automobiles on the streets. I don't think the gentleman from Ward 3 (Councillor Russo) has given a good argument. The question is, shall we or shall we not give a license to a gentleman who is trying to start a business that nobody else has the courage to start? I think he has started off with a very good start when he agrees to the $10,000 per passenger. The gentleman is in here and he has agreed to it, and I thought that was what the Council was interested in. For the life of me, I can't understand why every councillor should not agree. I agree the gentleman from Roxbury has a good argument with reference to the tax. To my way of thinking, if he had a lot of his district opposed, he should properly vote against it, but I have not had one come before me, not one, so I have to use my own discretion and my own God-given intelligence, what little it is. It seems to me this is for the best interests of the city and for the taxpayers and the community as a whole and also the people of East Boston whose children will have a few less automobiles to contend with on the streets. I say the more cabs we take off the streets of East Boston and other streets, the better off we will be as far as traffic is concerned.

President KELLY—The Chair will make a statement. As I understand, Councillor Coffey of Ward 1 has pleurisy and that is why he is not able to attend this meeting. Councillor Russo.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I would like to remind the councillor from Ward 7 (Councillor Linehan) that on the petition for a license it specifically states that he has taken sufficient time to start this operation by stating if it is not in operation within one year then the license will be void. I don't know, Mr. President, what another week's delay is going to do in regard to the operation of this waterway. I am not taking the position, Mr. President, in the statement I made that I am for it or against it. I still have an open mind but I do resent the fact, Mr. President, when any one councillor is not here to act on a matter vital to his district. I respect his opinion in so far as he is concerned, but I do think we should state the councillor from Ward 1 should vote in the affirmative because it is for the best interests of his district. I believe that is primarily the jurisdiction of each councillor, to cast his vote one way or the other. I say to you, Mr. President, and to you members, that I earnestly believe we owe a certain amount of courtesy to each other and respect to each other. As far as I am concerned, it is not any motive of delay because I am ready to cast my vote one way or the other, and I have never been afraid to cast my vote one way or the other, but I do feel that if this is forced upon me to vote today I cannot give a justified vote, because I feel it would be doing an injustice to one of my colleagues to whom I owe a certain amount of respect at least. Let him be here and let him be heard, and let him cast his vote one way or the other. Mr. President, if it comes on the floor today I am forced and compelled to vote against it.

President KELLY—The question comes on taking the matter from the Executive Session. Councillor Cook.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, the hour is late, and I would like to point out in Executive we had a majority of the councillors defeat the motion that would have been the end of the license; a discussion was had about a $10,000 insurance policy per passenger, $210,000 for accident, and I think, if it had come up before, it would have passed. The answer to the argument of a week's delay not being important is this: The one obtaining the license must give orders for his boats to be built, and anyone here who has been in business and giving orders for certain materials and equipment knows the longer you delay the more difficulty you may have in getting going in your business. I am of the opinion the councillor in that district should have the respect and backing of the Council when it comes to a matter within his district, but I don't think this comes within the province of any single district in this city.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, will he yield for a question?

Coun. COOK—Yes.

Coun. RUSSO—Councillor, do you recall the statement made by the petitioner, when he would have in operation this waterways service, what month? Did he state how long it would take to have the boats built, councillor?

Coun. COOK—Councillor, my best memory seems to be he said he would have it done in two or three months, when he got the license. Before he can get them ready, he has to have a license so that he can order the boats and get ready for the business. I don't care to yield any more.

Coun. RUSSO—That is not answering the question.

President KELLY—Councillor Cook.

Coun. COOK—I am sorry if I did not answer the question. I thought I did. If it does not satisfy the councillor, that is my misfortune.

Coun. RUSSO—It is all right if you don't want to yield.

Coun. COOK—I want to close by saying we ought to vote on this now as a matter affecting all Citizens in Boston and not particularly one district.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, all I wanted to say was I think the gentleman from Ward 3 (Councillor Russo) would be right if we were voting on something which would affect that district alone. I don't know that Councillor Coffey has voted against any bus line in the past. This will take traffic away from his district, as a matter of fact.

President KELLY—The question comes on taking this from the Executive Session. All those in favor please rise. It is not a vote.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I now move we go into Executive Session.

Coun. RUSSO—A point of order.

President KELLY—Will the councillor please state his point of order?

Coun. RUSSO—Was the gentleman recognized by the Chair before he made that motion?

Coun. LINEHAN—Yes, I was.

President KELLY—Yes, I recognized Councillor Linehan. Councillor Linehan moves we go into Executive Session.

Coun. BRYAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councillor Bryan.

Coun. BRYAN—Will the President please ring the bell for everybody to be here?

President KELLY—Everybody is here. Talking on the motion, Councillor Russo.

Coun. RUSSO—Are we delaying this call?

President KELLY—I am ringing the bell to see if any more councillors are coming. Everybody is present. Councillor Russo.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, a point of order.

President KELLY—Will you state your point of order, Councillor Russo?

Coun. RUSSO—Are we now in Executive?

President KELLY—No, sir. Councillor Linehan has made a motion to go into Executive Session. Talking on the motion, Councillor Russo.

Coun. RUSSO—As I stated before, there is no intent on my part to try to delay either the passage or the rejection of this petition for a license for the Waterways, Inc. It is not that I am opposed to the $10,000 insurance for every passenger who will ride the waterways, or to the $210,000 insurance in one action. It is merely because, Mr. President, as I stated before, I don't believe we as members should take it upon ourselves to justify the vote one way or the other of a councillor who is not present. I believe that should be left to the councillor himself to decide, and if he were here I would be very glad to entertain the motion to pass it or reject it. I will cast my vote accordingly. I feel that it is unfair to any one of us if he is not here. It would be unfair today while Councillor Bayley is not present if there was a certain order in a certain committee which would affect his district; it would be unfair and I would have to speak in the same tone and in the same manner in regard to Councillor Bayley if he were not here.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, will the gentleman yield for a question?

President KELLY—Will Councillor Russo yield for a question?

Coun. RUSSO—Yes.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to ask you, if I refuse to vote on this matter, would you vote on it in order to make up the lack of Councillor Coffey's vote in Executive Session?

Coun. RUSSO—Will you state that again? I don't understand that question.

Coun. LINEHAN—I will refrain from voting in the Executive Session on this matter if you will vote on it, to make up the loss of Councillor Coffey's vote, who I think might be against it from the way you are talking.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President.

Coun. LINEHAN—Would that satisfy your desire?

Coun. RUSSO—It would not satisfy my desire because I would be casting a vote not knowing what the councillor feels one way or the other and not giving him an opportunity to say how he feels. I say at least I owe that respect to him to have him express himself one way or the other, and then I am ready to cast my vote one way or the other. That does not mean regardless of how he votes that I can't vote against his wishes.

President KELLY—The motion is to refer this matter to the Executive Session. The motion is to go into Executive Session. Speaking on the motion, Councillor Hurley.

Coun. HURLEY—I thought it was agreed as a result of Councillor Russo's talk about the councillor from the East Boston district, one of the terminals where this Waterways Company is going to land in his ward. I thought it was agreed it was an act of courtesy to lay this on the table for a week to give him the right to come in late and express his opinion how he and the people in his district felt about this thing. This is an unusual procedure here today, to come in late after agreeing to lay it on the table for a week, and ask to have it taken from Executive Session, and then when they have not got the vote to take it from Executive Session, and move to go back where a majority can report it out. I don't think it is fair, and I think that the councillor was very unsportsmanlike after that proposition put up by Councillor Russo. They will come out here on the floor and through some trick of parliamentary procedure defeat the purpose, which was to lay it on the table.

Coun. LINEHAN—Will the gentleman yield for a question?

President KELLY—Does Councillor Hurley yield?

Coun. LINEHAN—Does the gentleman from Roxbury remember how legitimately a member got up and voted to lay a matter on the table when they did not have sufficient votes when they came up on the floor? Nobody said that was a twist of parliamentary procedure.

Coun. HURLEY—There is a different procedure operating here today. There was an agreement as the result of the statement of the councillor from Ward 3 in deference, as he thought, to the wishes of the councillor from Ward 1, that is anything pertaining to our district it is better to state our opinion on it, either for or against it. I thought when that vote was placed it was placed as a result of Councillor Russo's plea to let this lie on the table. It was not going to hurt anyone, and one week was not going to hurt the petitioner. When we come out here in the Chamber, we find out there is a new parliamentary twist to throw it back in Executive and come up with a majority of votes. Probably that is the right way to do it. I don't know, but I don't think it is right, and I don't think it is fair and just. If it was a matter pertaining to my district, I would want to be present. I can well remember the past couple of weeks when the Governor's fight was in full swing, every cab I got into, the driver said, "Tobin is this, that or the other thing. He was a son of a gun," and a lot worse. I never solicited their advice as to whether he was depriving them of work at the airport. I say we are depriving the taxi drivers of work, and they are the greatest political workers in the entire city. You have to give them credit for that. If a cab driver is hurt, he makes sure everyone in his district will know he has been wronged. I think it is only fair, Mr. President, with all these things in mind and especially the plea made by Councillor Russo that this matter lay over for a week. I hope, Mr. President, that the members will not vote to go back into Executive.

Coun. CANTWELL—Mr. President, I have listened to this petition and certainly Councillor Coffey has had plenty of opportunity to make up his mind one way or the other. As I remember, Councillor Coffey was not here last week, he is not here this week, and what assurance have we he will be here next week. This thing is getting to be a joke. It is about time we got to business. When somebody is out sick, are we going to close the door? Let us get wise to ourselves and vote now one way or the other, either pass it or throw it out.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I quite agree that this is not strictly a Ward 1 matter, but I am also mindful, too, of the fact that among such a small number as 22 men it should be comparatively easy for the 21 to defer to the wishes of one. I don't want to take a scab off of a sore, but I can recite instances where a councillor was thought to be so lacking in integrity and so lacking in his appeal to his fellow councillors that in spite of his wishes they did something that worked a hardship either politically or personally. They had scanty, if any, consideration for his feelings in the matter, and I will leave it to the judgment of the members of the Body, 22 of us, that the satisfaction of your pride has as much to do as the satisfaction of material wishes. By that elaboration I mean only this: I recognize that East Boston is one small part of the city, but I would not want Coffey or any other member of this Body—and I could name any one, including myself—I would not want the sting and scorn of the action of fellow members. I had to feel it when it hurt the most, and though I was present in the Chamber that did not lessen the blow. Now, he is absent. In all likelihood he would oppose it, and I am not putting words in his mouth or ideas into his head; but let him say, let him say so for the record, and if by some change of heart he wants to support it, let him say so himself. I don't know from a practical business point of view how this line would pan out. I have in mind that there was a speedboat service across the harbor from Congress street or some one of the bridges down there some years back when the air service was just beginning to catch on, so to speak, in Boston. It is obvious a permit must have been issued to the operators of that speedboat service at that time. Since there is no councillor here now who was in the Body when that line was operating, I would very much like to ask the assistance of the City Clerk through you, Mr. President, if he was then in the clerk's office, and, if he was, can he tell this Body something about the conditions that governed the permit of that old speedboat line in the days when the airport was coming into being?

President KELLY—He was not in office at that time, councilor.

Coun. KINSELLA—I believe if he were he might give us valuable information. Proportionately the line should be just as profitable now as then. It is not so much the people who are using it, because to handle all the extra people the investment must be greater.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. SCANNELL—For the purpose of giving the gentleman from Ward 2 information.

President KELLY—Will you yield to Councilor Scannell?

Coun. KINSELLA—I will yield if he gives the information to the whole Council.

President KELLY—Councilor Scannell.

Coun. SCANNELL—I believe some years back the Rawding Waterways had a permit from Congress Street bridge to the airport. I believe it was about twelve years ago. I don't know whether it is outlawed yet.

Coun. KINSELLA—Thank you, councilor. Well, it is not a vital and pertinent point to make since the air service over there has increased immeasurably. By comparison the service across the harbor will have to be increased immeasurably together with the proportionate share of those who want to travel that way. I am not going to advise Mr. Fairbank one way or the other. I am not in a position to do that, nor am I going to throw obstacles in his way, not purposely. I may do it unwittingly, and if it ever can be shown to me, I will remove the obstacle. But I certainly think if we are going to get along in peace and harmony, paying attention, for instance, to certain orders filed here last Monday in good faith whose object was to sharpen and brighten up our conduct toward each other individually and collectively, it seems to me we ought to start off with just common courtesy as the spur. We are not a law-making body and you gentlemen in the Body who have been in the Legislature know from experience how frequently a measure that is laid over for report in the House or the Senate will be delayed and held up at the request until they can be present. You gentlemen know that.

Coun. LINEHAN—Will you yield?

President KELLY—Do you yield to Councilor Linehan?

Coun. SCANNELL—Yes.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—I might say after the matter has been heard, the member is contacted by phone or whatever way it might be; but regardless of whether the man wishes it or not, the order still goes before the House or Senate for action.

Coun. KINSELLA—I may well answer that in the same spirit and return to Councilor Linehan some information he has lost sight of. Many times when it is printed on the daily list and a man cannot be present, or if he goes up in the morning and he knows he is not going to be present in the afternoon, he can ask to have it postponed until the next day. So that on that day it is not reported in the sense of being reported. There are things done because of good fellowship between the members of this and other bodies. If anybody's rights are infringed because of doing a fellow councilor a favor, that is unfortunate. I did not mean to tie up this project into a hopeless snarl for the purpose of doing one man a favor, but under the same circumstances and the opinions of the members present now, my remarks would have taken the same form and voice as they have taken here. Are we going to accept the pattern regardless of the interests of each one of us in his ward, though a small portion of the ward in this case is concerned, just the tie-up point? If we are going to take the attitude that it does not matter, then we are going to have a free-for-all all year round without regarding the wishes or will of those who have to go back to the people and seek their support. We like few, if any, obstacles thrown in our way when we are concerned with the return of the electorate. I don't know what else to say. I would not want Councilor Coffey to feel what I have had occasion to feel, and what another councilor has felt when he told me of his woes when the Body, in spite of his presence and in spite of his interest, saw fit to rule against him. That is a poor form of courtesy to take among twenty-two, a small body, which should be very wieldy, one that ought to be a pattern for all active bodies in the state. However, it is up to the individual members to vote yes or no. I know what I will do.

President KELLY—The question comes on the question of taking a recess for the purpose of going into Executive Session. All those in favor say "aye," those opposed "no." The Chair is in doubt. I will ask for a standing vote. All those in favor, please rise.

(Nine members arose.)

President KELLY—Those opposed, please rise.

(Six members arose.)

President KELLY—Nine to six. We are in Executive Session.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—We are in Executive Session.

Coun. LINEHAN—Do you want to appoint somebody chairman?

President KELLY—The Chair will appoint Councilor Sullivan chairman of the Executive Session.

RECESS.

On motion of Councilor Linehan the Council took a recess at 6:50 p. m., subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by President Kelly at 7 p. m.

President KELLY—The report of the Executive Committee.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. SULLIVAN, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

Report on petition of Boston Waterways, Inc., recommending passage of order granting license to operate ferry service, Congress street to airport.

The report of the committee was accepted.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I doubt the presence of a quorum.

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan doubts the presence of a quorum, so the clerk will call the roll.

The clerk called the roll, and the following responded as present: Councilors Bryan, Cantwell, Carey, Chase, Cook, Hannon, Keenan, Kelly, Lane, Linehan, Moriarty—11.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of inquiry.

President KELLY—Wait a minute.

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Wait a minute while the clerk calls the roll.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—There is a ballot going on.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Just a minute.

Coun. CHASE—Here.

Coun. HANNON—A point of parliamentary inquiry.

President KELLY—Wait a minute while the balloting is going on.

Coun. HANNON—A point of order. The rule states if a gentleman is present he must be recorded either one way or the other. There is a gentleman present not recorded. I move Councilor Sullivan be recorded.

President KELLY—One minute. The Chair has rung the bell. Every councilor present in the Chamber shall record present when his name is called.

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of parliamentary inquiry. This gentleman who made the motion is not present to vote.

President KELLY—He was present when the motion was made.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry.

President KELLY—State your point of parliamentary inquiry.

Coun. KEENAN—I would like to go unrecorded.

Coun. HANNON—A point of order.

President KELLY—Councilor Lane, not having spoken.

Coun. LANE—Am I recorded?

President KELLY—Yes.

Coun. HANNON—A point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. HANNON—The rule states every member present must be recorded one way or the other unless excused by the President.

President KELLY—That is right; every member in the Chamber has been recorded.

Coun. HANNON—No. I think the councilor from Ward 9 (Councilor Sullivan) has not been recorded.

President KELLY—The councilor from Ward 9 is not present. The clerk will announce the balloting.

The clerk announced the presence of 11 councilors in the Chamber.

President KELLY—The meeting is adjourned.

Adjourned at 7:05 p. m., to meet on Monday, January 27, 1947, at 2 p. m.

SUPERVISION OF DAY NURSERIES.

During the past year the medical inspectors made 173 visits to day nurseries to make the facilities of the Health Department available to these nurseries. This includes physical examinations, immunization against diphtheria, vaccination against smallpox, and inspection for communicable diseases. The increasing employment of mothers in war industries added to the attendance in the day nurseries and other homes established to care for children during this period.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Jan. 6, 1947.

The meeting for organization of the School Committee of the City of Boston for the current municipal year was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street at 12:45 o'clock P. M.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Joseph C. White, the senior member.

Mr. White: Under the provisions of Chapter 479 of the Acts of 1924—An Act Providing for Biennial Elections in the City of Boston, etc.—the membership of the School Committee for the year 1947 is the same as that for the year 1946; namely, Dr. Patrick J. Foley, Mr. Daniel J. McDevitt, Mr. Clement A. Norton, Mr. Michael J. Ward, and Mr. Joseph C. White.

The first meeting of the year of the School Committee is held for the purpose of organization of the body. I am presiding as Chairman pro tempore, being the member whose original election is of the earliest date. The first business before the Committee will be the election of a Chairman.

ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN

The Committee proceeded to the election of a Chairman, and the Secretary was directed to call the roll.

On roll call, the members respectively voted as follows:

For DANIEL J. McDEVITT—Messrs. Foley, Norton, Ward and White—4.

NOT VOTING—Mr. McDevitt—1.

On motion of Mr. White, the election of Mr. McDevitt as Chairman of the School Committee was declared unanimous, and Mr. McDevitt assumed the Chair.

Mr. Norton: It has been the rule of this Committee to rotate the office of Chairman, and in conformity with that rule Mr. McDevitt has been elected this year. I trust that this rotation system will continue when each of us has had two years. I believe that in the history of the School Department there never has been less discussion over the election of a Chairman. The idea of rotation in office is a splendid one and it is followed in all successful business organizations.

Chairman: I wish to thank the members of the Committee for the confidence vested in me.

BUSINESS MANAGER

Dr. Foley: I would like to hear a word from our new Business Manager, Mr. Smith, since this is his first meeting.

Mr. White: I would like to express my delight in seeing Mr. Smith here today.

Business Manager: Gentlemen, I left here about seven years ago today and outside of appearing here last June at a hearing in which I appeared as the President of the English High School Association, this is really the first day I have been back in this room. I was sitting at the other end of the table when I left here and I had the gavel in my hand. I enjoyed thoroughly my four years as a member, and also as chairman of the Committee. In fact it was one of the main motives which prompted me to accept the Superintendent's invitation to come back as Business Manager, as well as the recollections of those happy days here and the fine group at 15 Beacon Street and throughout the school system. They have always been very kind to me and I have enjoyed my work on the Committee thoroughly. I know I am going to enjoy just as much if not more so my work as Business Manager.

I am succeeding a fine character, as you all know, Mr. Alexander M. Sullivan. I had a tremendous amount of respect for him as everyone had. His shoes are going to be difficult to fill, and if I am able to do half as good a job as Mr. Sullivan, I know it will be a job satisfactorily done.

I want to take this occasion publicly to thank the Superintendent and the members of the School Committee for their confidence in me in appointing me to this job. I feel certain none of you will have any regrets for your choice.

MERCHANT SHIP PRODUCTION.

Merchant vessels built in the United States in 1943 numbered 1,896 with a total deadweight tonnage of 19,239,626, according to a report by Admiral Land, chairman of the Maritime Commission and administrator of the War Shipping Administration. Of these 208, aggregating 2,044,238 deadweight tons, were completed in December. Of the 1943 production, 1,238 vessels were Liberty ships; 70 C-1 cargo ships, 53 C-2 cargo ships; 39 C-3 cargo ships; 5 C-4 cargo ships; 167 tankers; 28 coastal tankers; 57 Liberty tankers; 3 passenger-cargo vessels; 33 coastal cargo ships, including two concrete ships; 16 ore carriers; 27 concrete barges; 46 seagoing tugs; 114 military types, not transports; 53 special types and a considerable number of smaller types, including tugs, barges, etc. Late in 1943, Admiral Land said 2,900 ships were under control of the War Shipping Administration, operated by some 76 general agents of the W. S. A.

FIRE DEFENSES OF FORTY-FOUR CITIES SURVEYED IN 1944, TEN CHANGE CLASS.

During the year 1944 five cities of more than 10,000 population were placed in a better fire insurance classification, and five other cities were put into a poorer class as the result of new surveys made by the National Board of Fire Underwriters or by state rating organizations.

At the end of 1944 a total of 28 cities over 25,000 population were in class 2, 104 cities in class 3, 128 in class 4, and the remaining cities in classes 5 and 6, with none in class 1.

The fire insurance classification of a city is determined through the use of the grading schedule of the National Board of Fire Underwriters in making an engineering appraisal of fire protection facilities.

MODEL FOR BLACKOUT ORDINANCES.

The National Institute of Municipal Law Officers has prepared a blackout ordinance, approved by the Office of Civilian Defense; it delegates reasonable administrative powers to the proper executive officer and contemplates both actual air raid conditions and those of practice blackouts. Several state leagues of municipalities have also prepared model ordinances.

The first city to enact a blackout ordinance was Seattle, Washington, early last year. Many others have done so more recently, the ordinances ranging in character from the type that delegates all authority to the mayor or city manager to those providing no delegation of power but outlining completely the rules for civilian conduct during blackouts. In some cases, at least, the city is declared not liable for damage to persons or property resulting from an authorized blackout.—Municipal Review.

FORECAST OF EXPENDITURES IN 1945.

A total of $308,840,000 is forecast as the expenditures of the transit industry in 1945 for new equipment and maintenance of existing property and equipment. This sum is $25,000,000 more than the forecast for 1944 made at this time last year, and is $40,000,000 more than the expenditure ultimately made in 1944.

Total expenditures in 1945 for new equipment are expected to reach $101,100,000 which compares with $65,592,000 in 1944. New rolling stock will absorb most of the additional money with $61,000,000 being allocated to new buses, $12,000,000 to new cars and $5,000,000 to new trolley coaches. However, it is estimated that $20,000,000 will be spent on ways and structures, which is nearly $5,000,000 more than was spent in 1944. In the power and line departments capital expenditures are forecast at $3,100,000, which is slightly less than was spent in 1944, but is more than double the amount that was forecast for 1944 at this time last year.

Only moderate increases in maintenance expenditures are forecast for 1945. For maintenance materials the total for 1945 is put at $78,340,000, which compares with $76,561,000 spent in 1944. Maintenance labor costs are placed at $129,400,000 for 1945 compared with $126,343,000 in 1944.

STATE FISCAL AIDS TO CITIES AND TOWNS FOR PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

State aid to municipalities for public elementary and secondary education amounts annually in Massachusetts to six million dollars. This aid constitutes almost one tenth of the total annual expenditures for public education, and thus it is of considerable importance to municipal finance. The funds come from three sources: Over four fifths from income tax proceeds, the remainder from the General Fund and from the income of the Massachusetts School Fund. This aid for elementary and secondary education is in seven forms, which can be classified under three headings: General aid to every city and town, aid to equalize the financial burden of education among the cities and towns, and special aid to small towns. In all cases the aid is in the form of reimbursement, i. e., partly based on expenditures by the municipality.

AIDS PAID TO ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS FROM INCOME TAX REVENUES.

Only since 1919 has the state participated widely in the financing of elementary and secondary schools. Before that time state aid to municipalities was less than 2 per cent of the total cost of education, and was granted only to a limited group of towns. In 1919, however, provision was made for payments from the proceeds of the newly enacted personal income tax to every city and town which met certain teacher salary and qualification standards. Except for slight modifications the program is still the same as that established in 1919 (chapter 363, Acts of 1919). Every city and town is paid a fixed amount for every teacher employed (primary reimbursements), and some municipalities with low valuation per pupil receive additional grants (supplementary reimbursements).

POLICE DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL.

The police personnel of the department on November 30, 1945, consisted of 1 superintendent, 5 deputy superintendents, 28 captains, 63 lieutenants, 1 lieutenant-inspector, 185 sergeants, 1,867 patrolmen, 15 patrolwomen, 94 provisional temporary patrolmen and 1 provisional temporary patrolwoman; total, 2,260.

On November 30, 1945, there was a total of 2,502 persons, including civilian employees, on the rolls of the department.

During the year in General Orders, officers were commended as follows:

Captain, 1; lieutenants, 6; sergeants, 8; patrolmen, 34; department as a whole, 1.

POLICE EXPENDITURES.

During the twelve months ending November 30, 1945, the total expenses of the Boston Police Department amounted to $6,426,363.77. This included the pay of the police and employees, pensions, supplies, expense of listing ($68,253.96, the annual listing on January 1 of all residents twenty years of age or over), and the maintenance of the Police Signal Service.

In the corresponding period of 1944, expenditures totaled $6,202,557.44.

MAYOR THANKED FOR AID TO JEWISH TUBERCULOSIS SANATORIUM.

The following letter was received by his Honor the Mayor on January 31, from Dr. Arthur I. Shain, President, Men's Group, Jewish Tuberculosis Sanatorium:

MY DEAR MAYOR,—Please accept my sincere gratitude for the cordial interview you accorded me yesterday through my good friend, Irving Lewis, Commissioner of Real Estate, regarding the purchase of land on Parker Hill, Roxbury, for the erection of a charitable hospital to be known as the Jewish Tuberculosis Sanatorium which will be maintained and financed by the Jewish community.

No doubt, your Honor must be well aware of the fact that tuberculosis has of late come again to the forefront as an increasing and dangerous disease. The other night at the meeting of the Norfolk District Medical Society, of which I am a member, Doctor Gettings, State Commissioner of Health, stated that there are now between 1,200 to 1,500 tuberculosis patients cared for at home who should be in sanatoria. Unlike any other chronic disease, tuberculosis patients are a menace and source of danger to their families and to the community at large. Therefore, the erection of this sanatorium will somewhat relieve this distressing situation.

Another and very important consideration is the financial savings that will accrue to the City of Boston because it will be relieved of the expense of the care and maintenance of these patients admitted to our sanatorium. This saving to the city may amount to between $50,000 to $100,000 annually.

I therefore hope that your Honor will grant our petition and sell to the Jewish Tuberculosis Sanatorium at a very reasonable price three to four acres of land on Parker Hill, Roxbury. As President of the Men's Group of this association, I have been authorized to negotiate with the City of Boston for the purchase of this land.

Trusting that you will act favorably upon our petition, I remain,

Very gratefully yours,

DR. ARTHUR I. SHAIN,
President, Men's Group,
Jewish Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

LOCATION OF STREETS.

The Mayor has approved the following vote of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Voted, That the location, direction, width and grade of the following private ways, in the West Roxbury district, as shown on plans approved in writing by the Board of Street Commissioners, and on file in the office of the Street Laying-Out Department, be, and the same hereby are, approved:

Ledgedale road, between Weld street and Buchanan road; Truman road, between Weld street and Buchanan road.

MAYOR CURLEY SUBMITS BUDGET FIGURES FOR 1947 TO CITY COUNCIL—ESTIMATED AT $63,067,000, AN INCREASE OF $6,359,616 OVER PREVIOUS YEAR—JUMP DUE TO SEVERAL FACTORS.

PERSONAL SERVICE.

It is evident from an examination of the foregoing table that the major cause for this year's increase in the city's budget is the increased personal service requirements, which are $5,448,718.97 in excess of the appropriations for 1946. Effective January 1, 1947, the Emergency Compensation payments of 1946 were made a permanent part of the regular salary of employees, and an additional increase of $200 per year was granted to employees generally. This salary adjustment accounts for approximately $4,000,000 of the increase. The provision for an additional 500 privates in the Fire Department and 54 patrolmen in the Police Department, plus an additional allowance for the filling of vacancies in the Police Department to fill the established quota, accounts for $1,150,000. The balance provides for an additional salary increase to the nurses at the Boston City Hospital and the Sanatorium Division, and new positions in the X-Ray and Collecting Divisions of the Boston City Hospital; step rates now in effect for employees; and provision in the Library Department to increase the hourly rate for extended services, to provide for step-rate increases in this department, and to conform with the union regulations in the bindery as to salary and hours of work.

CONTRACTUAL SERVICES.

This group covers services rendered the city by firms, individuals, and corporations outside of the regular personnel of the city, and shows an increase of $696,639.35 over similar appropriations for 1946. The major items included in this increase are as follows:

Contracts for the removal and disposal of waste show an increase of $328,000 over similar contracts of last year, making necessary this additional allowance for the removal of ashes, dirt, and garbage. Plant repairs, which were postponed during the war years, and on which some progress was made last year, require an additional allowance over last year of approximately $90,000 in the Hospital Department, Fire Department, Police Department, Public Buildings Department, and Long Island Hospital. The increase in the rates for the board of children in foster homes, made necessary by the increased cost of living, requires an additional allowance for this purpose in the Child Welfare Department of $25,000. The increase by the Commonwealth in the rate charged the City of Boston for patients confined in the state infirmaries makes necessary an additional allowance of $12,000 over last year. The increased cost of printing by the City Printing Department makes it necessary to increase the allowance for police listing by $17,800. For opening up new sections of Mount Hope, Fairview and Evergreen Cemeteries $25,000 additional has been allowed. An allowance of $45,000 has been provided for the microfilming of veterans' records in the new Department of Veterans Services. The Fire Department rented a garage and repair shop on Blue Hill avenue which requires an allowance of $15,000 for annual rental. Due to the age of the present equipment in the Fire Department, the increased cost of repairs which cannot be made by the department forces makes necessary an additional allowance of $13,000. An increased allowance of approximately $60,000 is necessary this year to provide for the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, the budget of which was charged last year to revenue.

EQUIPMENT.

There have been eliminated from this group allowances in excess of $1,000,000 for motor vehicles and equipment. It is intended to borrow for such equipment a sufficient sum to compensate for these deductions, the major portion of which will be for fire apparatus. Although delivery on fire apparatus probably will not be made this year, it is legally necessary to have an appropriation available in order to make contracts for delivery. The Fire Commissioner is of the opinion that when this apparatus is received his department will be approximately 75 per cent equipped with modern fire-fighting apparatus. The major portion of the balance of this loan will be allocated to the Public Works, Police, and Park Departments.

The Two-Year Budget Comparison Table, as previously shown, shows an increase over 1946 of $357,989.10. This increase over 1946 is, in large measure, due to the availability of urgently needed equipment not previously available for various departments in the city, especially in the hospitals and institutions of the city.

SUPPLIES.

The increase of $488,439.90 in this group is due to the increased cost of food, medical, surgical, and practically all other supplies purchased by the city.

MATERIALS.

The increase of $32,650 in this group is due to the increased cost of paints, lumber, and other miscellaneous materials used in the various departments by departmental forces.

SPECIAL ITEMS.

The appropriations for pensions for employees, not members of the contributory retirement system, have been mounting annually, and this year an additional sum of approximately $135,000 over 1946 will be necessary. The major portion of these pensions is provided in the Fire and Police Department budgets. The Workmen's Compensation item has also increased, and this year will require an additional sum of $10,000. An increase of $100,000 in the relief item of the Veterans Services Department is necessary, due to an increase in the amount paid to veterans and their families, in conformity with state regulations, and for which item the city is reimbursed to the extent of 50 per cent. Welfare items, which are also in this group, have been increased $300,000 over last year, and this increase is attributed to the increase in the average payments to recipients and the increased case load.

SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS.

Although there is a reduction of $417,321.41 in this group, as against 1946, nevertheless allowances have been made as required by chapter 44 of the General Laws for the required payments out of taxes before any borrowing shall occur for the construction of buildings, construction of public ways, purchase of departmental equipment, and construction of sewerage works.

No appropriation for Emergency Compensation Allotment is necessary this year. The Snow Removal allowance is the same as last year.

COUNTY MAINTENANCE.

The following table indicates in comparative form the main points of difference between last year's appropriations and the allowances recommended for the current year for County Maintenance:

TWO-YEAR BUDGET COMPARISON.—COUNTY MAINTENANCE.

	1946 Appropriations.	1947 Allowances.	Increase.
A. Personal Service	$2,742,659 62	$3,186,891 20*	$444,231 58
B. Contractual Services	568,886 70	608,144 50	39,257 80

* Includes $1,048,699 previously appropriated

† Decrease.

PERSONAL SERVICE.

It is evident from an examination of the foregoing table that the major cause for this year's increase in the county budget is the increased personal service requirements, which are $444,231.58 in excess of the appropriations for 1946. Salary adjustments similar to those for city employees account for $329,000; step-rate increases, $15,500; and statutory increases, $105,000.

CONTRACTUAL SERVICES.

The increase of $39,257.80 in the allowances for contractual services is mainly for repairs to the various county buildings and the House of Correction; and also for increases in allowances for jurors' services, and for compensation for masters and auditors in the Superior Court.

EQUIPMENT.

The increase of $27,253.44 in this group is due, in large measure, to the increased cost of clothing, bedding, etc., at the House of Correction, and the availability of urgently needed equipment not previously available for the various county departments.

SUPPLIES.

The increase of $22,855.20 is largely due to the increased cost of food, medical, and other supplies in the correctional institutions of the county.

MATERIALS.

The increase of $2,725 in this group is due to the increased cost of materials used by departmental forces.

SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS.

The increase of $34,200 in this group is due to the increased allowance for plumbing repairs at the House of Correction and an allowance to remodel the Northern Mortuary building.

REVENUE DEPARTMENTS AND ACCOUNTS.

TWO-YEAR BUDGET COMPARISON.

	1946 Appropriations.	1947 Allowances.	Increase.
A. Personal Service	$1,521,526 01	$1,753,283 93*	$231,757 92
B. Contractual Services	740,159 05	561,045 93	179,113 12†

	$2,917,402 90	$3,195,872 75*	$278,469 85

* Includes $578,000 previously appropriated.

The appropriations under this heading are made from revenue for the several departments. However, in the Special Appropriations group, there is an item for the State-Boston Retirement System Pension Fund. The amount appropriated will be refunded in whole or in part from other funds.

I respectfully recommend the adoption of the budget as submitted after early consideration by your Honorable Body.

Very truly yours,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

LONG ISLAND HOSPITAL OF- FICIALS SAVED PATIENTS FROM EPIDEMIC OF IN- TESTINAL DISORDERS.

The following letter was received by his Honor, the Mayor, on January 31, from G. Frank McDonald, Commissioner of Institutions Department:

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I desire to make known to your Honor that during the month of January the Long Island Hospital experienced some intestinal disorders among the patients, employees, and doctors. At the beginning of these disorders we immediately checked on conditions in our kitchen, and held a general conference with our steward, chefs, and kitchen employees and stressed the great importance of carefulness in safeguarding the preparation and handling of food. It is pleasing to report that we received splendid cooperation from these employees.

We are convinced that the disorders did not result from neglect in omission or commission in our dietary schedule or procedure. Doctor Sacchetti, Medical Director, was of the opinion that it was being caused by an infectious virus and prescribed isolation as much as possible.

I can now report that no deaths were attributed to the disorders and that conditions are again normal.

Respectfully yours,

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

CHANGES IN SALARIES—OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

The Mayor has approved the following changes in salaries and ratings in the Welfare Department as requested in the following letter:

BOSTON, November 21, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your approval is respectfully requested to the changes in titles, increases in salary and retroactive salary payments of the employees named in the attached schedule.

The changes in titles are in accordance with the Classification Plan approved by the Director of Civil Service and of appeals from his decisions approved by the Full Board of the Civil Service Commission. The salary ranges are in accordance with the Welfare Compensation Plan approved by the Welfare Compensation Board.

Upon the urging of the Federal Social Security Board, the State Legislature in 1941, enacted chapter 402 of the Acts of 1941, section 4, of which amends the Civil Service laws as follows: "The director shall establish, with the approval of a board consisting of the commissioner of public welfare, the chairman of the civil service commission and the director of accounts, ex officio, a compensation plan for holders of positions referred to in section forty-seven C and made subject to this chapter by said section or otherwise. The director may, with like approval, make rules and regulations providing for the application and administration of said compensation plan. The director, with like approval, may from time to time modify or change said compensation plan or said rules and regulations. Any holder of such a position objecting to any provision of such plan, or any action taken in connection therewith, which affects his office or position, may appeal in writing to said board and shall be entitled to a hearing, after due notice, upon such appeal. The decision of said board shall be final."

The then Civil Service Director, Mr. Lupien, decided at the same time to establish classification plans for welfare departments throughout the state under the provisions of chapter 238 of the Acts of 1939 which added a new section to the Civil Service Law, section 2A. Sub-section (b) of this section provides, "The Director shall establish classification plans for all cities and towns subject to the provisions of this chapter."

The plan was originally put into effect on July 1, 1943.

A substantial number of appeals were made by staff members to their classifications under the classification plan and as a result changes in classifications were granted in many instances.

The question then arose as to whether the persons whose classifications were changed on appeal were entitled to retroactive salary.

The Legislature in chapter 205 of the Acts of 1946 provided the following:

"Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

"SECTION 1. There shall be paid from the treasury of the city of Boston to each employee of said city whose position was classified and salary range established by decision of the director of civil service subsequent to the year nineteen hundred and forty-one, and who appealed from said decision and in consequence of said appeal received a higher classification and salary, an amount equal to the difference between the amount of salary actually received by such employee and the amount which such employee would have received if such higher salary rating had been in effect from the date of said decision of said director to the date of the decision on appeal.

"SECT. 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

[Approved April 11, 1946.]

The Board of Overseers on May 23, 1946, requested an opinion from the Corporation Counsel as to the effect of this act, particularly in relation to retroactive salary payments to the individuals concerned.

On August 28, 1946, Acting Corporation Counsel James W. Kelleher replied as follows:

"In answer to the request of your department dated May 23, it is my opinion that Chapter 205 of the Acts of 1946 by its terms compels the City to pay to each employee whose position was classified by the Director of Civil Service and who subsequently appealed and received a higher classification the difference between the salary actually received and the salary to which he is entitled under such higher classification, computed over the period between the effective date of the original classification and the date of the decision on appeal. Normally, a retroactive increase in salary is open to the objection that it is a mere gratuity. If it be such, it is improper whether attempted by act of the City alone or by act of the Legislature. After full consideration of the classification and compensation plans provided for by General Laws, Chapter 31, as they affect your department, it is my opinion that the adjustments made by those plans were intended by the Legislature to take effect for all purposes on the original date of classification. It follows that further adjustments made by the Civil Service Commission in disposing of appeals from the original classification are intended to be retroactive in effect to the original classification date—that is, the classification ordered by the Civil Service Commission on appeal is intended to have the same effect as if it had been made in the first instance by the Director.

"In view of these considerations, it is my opinion that the retroactive payments provided for by Chapter 205 of the Acts of 1946 do not amount to gratuities within the meaning of the prohibition above discussed. I conclude, therefore, that the directions of that statute are fully binding upon the City."

Effective on January 1, 1945, an amendment to the Welfare Compensation Plan was approved by the Welfare Compensation Board and the then Mayor. This amendment increases the salary of Social Worker from $2,000 per annum basic salary plus $200 E. C. A., to $2,300 per annum basic salary, without E. C. A. Through an inadvertence, due to the fact that she was Acting Social Work Supervisor, the name of Miss Anne Fennessey was not included in the list of changes. Your approval is requested to an increase in her salary from $2,000 plus $200 E. C. A. per annum, to $2,300 per annum, without E. C. A., effective January 1, 1945.

In accordance with the above, the amount in retroactive salary payable to these employees has been computed and each amount appears on the attached schedule beside each staff member's name.

These changes will substantially complete the classification and welfare compensation plans of this department. However, there are four employees for whose positions the Welfare Compensation Board has not yet established salary ranges. Requests for approval in these cases will be submitted to you when the salary ranges are established.

Very truly yours,

MARGARET J. GOOKIN, Chairman.

BOSTON HOUSING AUTHORITY.

BOSTON, January 8, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—On August 28, 1946, your Honor approved a contract between the City of Boston, acting through the Boston Housing Authority, and Baker & Co., Inc., for furnishing and laying water works, sewerage works, paving and other work in Veterans' Temporary Housing Development at Franklin Field, Dorchester. The contract sum is seventy-nine thousand three hundred and twelve (79,312) dollars.

As the job has progressed certain work became necessary which was not contemplated at the time the contract was executed.

A schedule of this work is as follows: Seventeen additional catch-basins (less iron) unit price, $250, total, $4,250; 1,149 linear feet catch-basin connections, including excavation, furnishing and laying pipe and back filling, unit price, $4, total, $4,596; ten connections to existing structures, unit price, $25, total, $250; ninety cubic yards trench rock, unit price, $10, total, $900; two water connections cut through brick sewer, unit price, $100, total, $200; widen existing opening in stone wall and construct new buttress, $100; 180 linear feet additional 10-inch sewer main, unit price, $4, total, $720; 180 linear feet additional 3-inch water main, unit price, $4, total $720; two hydrants relocated and reset, unit price, $75, total, $150; 12 linear feet additional water service, including copper pipe, corp. cork tube and flange box, unit price, $4, total, $48; 12 linear feet additional sewer service connection, unit price, $4, total, $48; one tree removed, 18-inch diameter, $95; 12,190 cubic yards extra excavation below subgrade, unit price, 85 cents, total, $10,361.50; 19,000 tons gravel in place, unit price, $1.25, total, $23,800. Total, $46,818.50.

Due to the presence of his laborers and equipment on the site, the contractor doing the principal job is in a position to do the required work at a low price. It is my judgment that no lower price would be obtained by publicly advertising for proposals.

I deem it in the best interests of the city to amend the contract with Baker & Co., Inc., 1335 Hyde Park avenue, Hyde Park, Mass., so that the above work totaling $46,818.50 can be done.

Very truly yours,

JOHN CARROLL,
Chairman.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, January 28, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your Honor's permission is requested to award the work of removing air raid warning equipment from buildings throughout the city, without advertising, to Robert M. Banks, 26 Perrin street, Roxbury, for the sum of $1,560.

The work to be done is as follows: Remove air raid warning equipment from twenty-six locations; disconnect and remove trumpet horns, rotating units, air compressors, switches, contactors, relays, conduit and wire; dismantle platforms and compressor housing; remove old conduit on roof, patch and repair holes; remove conduits inside of buildings except as designated; all conduit wire, switches and equipment to be delivered to Fire Alarm Shop, 11 Wareham street.

Two other bids were received for doing this work, one from Stearns, Perry & Smith Company, at $1,689, and a verbal bid from the M. B. Foster Electrical Company, in the amount of $1,950.

It is difficult to secure bids for this type of removal work since it would cost a contractor considerable to check the work involved at the twenty-six locations scattered over the city.

The condition of some of these air raid warning units located on roofs of buildings is such that a high wind or wind storm might cause the unit to fall and possibly injure someone.

In my opinion it would be in the best interests of the city to award the contract for doing this work to Robert M. Banks without publicly advertising for bids inasmuch as it is emergency work and his price appears to be lower than that which might be obtained through public advertising for bids.

The equipment was installed during World War II and used for air raid warning purposes. There does not appear to be any further use for the equipment in its present locations; however, many of the horns, switches, air compressors, etc., can be used by the Fire Alarm Division of this department

Respectfully yours,

RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.,
Fire Commissioner.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, November 10, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In connection with the very successful Halloween parties held throughout the city on October 31, 1946, we purchased a quantity of ice cream for the children attending these parties. It was difficult to ascertain just how many children would attend. Therefore, we could not give any one company an order in advance. It was deemed more advisable to have different companies go to the various locations with ice cream and endeavor to learn from the directors in charge how many children were expected to attend each of the parties.

Accordingly, we purchased ice cream from the H. P. Hood Company which amounted to $802.08, the Turner Centre Company, $931.25, and the Neapolitan Ice Cream Company, $878.38. The total purchased from the three companies exceeds $2,000 which, under the city charter, should have been an advertised contract.

In this particular instance it was not possible for us to advertise in advance and we felt, further, that nothing would be gained by advertising as all ice cream prices are standard. Accordingly, the business was split among three companies with no one company obtaining $1,000 worth of business.

I therefore request that you approve the action of this department and allow these bills to go forward for payment as they are all proper and in order in every respect.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, January 7, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—The contract for furnishing X-ray films to the various city institutions for 1946 has expired and proposals for the supply needs during 1947 are being publicly advertised on January 20, 1947.

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Boston City Hospital for the following:

Eighty boxes 14 by 17 X-ray film; eighty boxes 10 by 12 X-ray film; sixty boxes 8 by 10 X-ray film.

All dealers in X-ray equipment were canvassed and the following bids were received:

Item 1. E. M. Parker Company, $46.80 per box; Harper-Wallins Corporation, $46.80 per box.

Item 2. E. M. Parker Company, $23.50 per box; Harper-Wallins Corporation, $23.50 per box.

Item 3. E. M. Parker Company, $15.35 per box; Harper-Wallins Corporation, $15.35 per box.

The Kelly-Koett Manufacturing Company and Picker X-Ray Corporation were also canvassed but no bids were received from either company.

Since the two bidders who submitted quotations offer identical prices, and in view of the emergency which exists, I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award contracts, without public advertisement, to each of the companies for half of the total amount.

The total amounts of the contracts will be: E. M. Parker Company, $3,268.50; Harper-Wallins Corporation, $3,268.50. Total, $6,537.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, January 15, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the Welsbach Street Lighting Company for furnishing gas lamp parts to the Street Lighting Service of the Public Works Department.

This material is for the operation of street gas lights. As the Welsbach Street Lighting Company carry this material in stock and as it is unobtainable from any other source at the present time, it is respectfully requested that you approve the awarding of a contract to the above company.

The total amount of the contract will be $3,007.15, net.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, January 24, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the New England Coke Company for furnishing 200 tons of stove size coke to the House of Correction, Deer Island, at a price of $14.15 per ton delivered with a 2 per cent cash discount for payment in fifteen days.

The above price, which New England Coke Company quoted in their letter of January 20, 1947, is the same as the price of the now existing contract which will be expiring shortly.

This price is subject to change depending on the conditions existing at time of deliveries of coal, but it is my opinion that the best interests of the city will be served by approving the above recommendation.

The approximate amount of the contract will be $2,830.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, January 24, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—This department has made efforts, through the medium of public advertisement, to purchase two (2) ambulances for the Boston City Hospital, but has received no response to such public advertisement.

This office has also made efforts to secure quotations from the various manufacturers and dealers handling ambulance equipment, and as a result of this has obtained the following quotation from the William J. Troy Company, direct agent for the sale of Cadillac coach and ambulance equipment:

One 75-46421 Meteor Cadillac ambulance including the following equipment: front turret roof lights flashing, rear roof lights flashing, spot light, electric fan, rear step, siren under hood, emergency cot and attendant seats, cot, coathooks, mattress, medicine cabinet, grab rail, three dome lights, linoleum floor, leather interior, standard 1947 paint colors optional, one extra wheel and tire and tube, front and rear compartment hot water heaters, dual windshield wipers, two sun visors, rear view mirror, fog lights, heavy duty generator, $5,212.70; delivery charges, $125,—$5,337.70; allowance on 1937 White ambulance, $100; total, $5,237.70.

In view of the above, I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the William J. Troy Company for furnishing to the Boston City Hospital one (1) Meteor Cadillac ambulance on the specifications and at the price shown above. This offer is accepted at the present price subject to adjustment, if any, to price in effect at time of delivery. It is also accepted with the provision that any downward revision in price would accrue to the benefit of the city.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, January 24, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—The Public Welfare Department is using, at the present time, tabulating machine equipment belonging to the International Business Machines, Incorporated. This equipment cannot be purchased outright but is secured through the medium of a rental contract.

The Public Welfare Department has been considering the possibility, for some time, of securing similar equipment from the Remington Rand Corporation from whom it can be purchased outright, but have encountered considerable difficulty in getting the proper equipment from this company. They have notified this department that more time will be needed to adjust this condition and request that a contract be executed with the International Business Machines Corporation for furnishing tabulating machine equipment and services for a period of six months from January 1, 1947.

In view of the above, I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the International Business Machines Corporation for the following on a rental basis:

Printing punch, 10751, $50; printing punch, 10382, $50; horizontal sorter, 12910, $40; horizontal sorter, 12913, $40; electric accounting machine, 11141, $85; bill feed, 10114, $20; alphabetic electric accounting machine, 21184, $305; bill feed, 10827, $20; alphabetic electric accounting machine, 12905, $255; bill feed, 10356, $20; automatic reproducer, 12062, $90; check writing interpreter, 10279, $60; automatic carriage, 19138, $20; multiplying punch, 11267, $155. Total, $1,210.

The city reserves the right to either substitute or add to the equipment listed above provided that the monthly rental charge does not exceed $1,250. Since this equipment can be obtained only from the International Business Machines Corporation no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, January 28, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is respectfully requested to issue an order, without public advertisement, to The Sporting Shoe Company, 39 Chambers street, New York, for furnishing to the Long Island Hospital the following: 1,512 pairs leather slippers at $1 a pair.

Market conditions have made it extremely difficult to secure this type of merchandise. The price and quality of this material is excellent and, in my opinion, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

The total amount of the award will be $1,512.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, January 29, 1947.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—At different times throughout the year, it is necessary to purchase repair parts on an emergency basis for the American LaFrance fire apparatus of the Fire Department. When the Maintenance Division of that department is anticipating major repairs on several pieces of apparatus, the purchase of such parts exceeds $1,000 and is subject to public advertisement for bids and the subsequent public opening, awarding and drawing up of formal contracts.

Since these parts are of special manufacture and can be obtained only from the American LaFrance Foamite Corporation, and since they are usually purchased on an emergency basis, we have found that the formality of publicly advertising for bids serves no purpose insofar as competitive prices are concerned, and results in delay in obtaining the equipment with the inevitable slackening of efficiency of the fire apparatus in question.

Your permission is respectfully requested, therefore, to obtain these parts as they are requisitioned by the Fire Department, dispensing with public advertisement and formal contracts for the year ending December 31, 1947.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

AIDS PAID TO ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS FROM INCOME TAX REVENUES.

Only since 1919 has the state participated widely in the financing of elementary and secondary schools. Before that time state aid to municipalities was less than 2 per cent of the total cost of education, and was granted only to a limited group of towns. In 1919, however, provision was made for payments from the proceeds of the newly enacted personal income tax to every city and town which met certain teacher salary and qualification standards. Except for slight modifications the program is still the same as that established in 1919 (chapter 363, Acts of 1919). Every city and town is paid a fixed amount for every teacher employed (primary reimbursements), and some municipalities with low valuation per pupil receive additional grants (supplementary reimbursements).

In that communication I asked you to reserve the sum of $161.20 for payment to L. C. Smith & Corona Typewriters, Inc., for a typewriter which was ordered on service order No. 54 dated July 1, 1946. The typewriter company now informs me that delivery will be made very shortly but that since the service order was approved the price has increased and instead of $161.20 net it is now $186.30.

I therefore request that for payment of said typewriter $186.30 be carried over into the special reserve account for 1946 unliquidated obligations instead of $161.20 as previously requested. I believe that in Item B-29 I have a sufficient balance to meet the additional $25.10 required and request that you transfer the latter sum to Item C-9 in the Probate Court budget.

Very truly yours,

ARTHUR W. SULLIVAN, Register.

AIDS PAID TO PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS FROM INCOME OF MASSACHUSETTS SCHOOL FUND.

State participation in the financing of education began with the establishment of the Massachusetts School Fund in 1834, the income from which was to be used "for the aid and encouragement of common schools," (chapter 169, Acts of 1834). The principal of this fund is now $5,000,000. The income of the fund has been distributed in many different ways. In 1835, population and the amount raised by local taxation for school support were the determining factors. Many changes followed until the present complex provisions were enacted, mostly in 1919, with some modification in later years.

"An Act Providing for One Day Off in Every Six Days for Police Officers in the City of Boston.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Members of the police department of the city of Boston shall be excused from duty for one day out of every six without loss of pay. The time and manner of excusing members of said police department shall be determined by the police commissioner for said city. Said police commissioner, in case of public emergency, or of any unusual demand for the service of the police in said city, may prevent any member of said department from taking the day off at the time when he is entitled thereto, or at the time assigned therefor; provided, that such day off shall be granted to him as soon thereafter as is practicable. In no case shall the number of such days off be less than sixty in each year and they shall be in addition to the annual vacation now or hereafter allowed to members of said department, and such annual vacation shall not be diminished on account thereof.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance by vote of the city council of said city, subject to the provisions of its charter, but not otherwise."

The future responsibility for traffic control on Sundays in Divisions 1, 2, 3, 4, 14 and 16 shall rest upon the respective commanding officers.

Insofar as is possible, officers of the Traffic Division shall be granted their days of relief on Sundays. Days of relief remaining by reason of the "Day Off in Six" schedule, shall be granted on such other days as approved by the commanding officer.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Dear Mr. Mayor—This is in reply to Council order dated December 9, 1946, which reads as follows:

SUBRELIEF HOSPITAL, JAMAICA PLAIN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 27, 1947.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Health Commissioner relative to your order of December 26, 1946, in connection with the advisability of establishing a subrelief hospital on the old Emerson property, Jamaica Plain.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Health Department, January 7, 1947.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of your letter dated December 30, 1946, enclosing order of the Boston City Council pertaining to the advisability of establishing a subrelief hospital on the old Emerson property, since taken over by the City of Boston, to take care of the residents of Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, West Roxbury, and Hyde Park sections of Boston.

My understanding is that the idea for the establishment of a subrelief station in the Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, Hyde Park section has been stimulated by the fact that the Massachusetts Memorial Hospital has taken over the Forest Hills Hospital and that the Forest Hills Hospital is now operating as a branch of the Massachusetts Memorial Hospital. Because of this fact an adjustment will necessarily be required among the physicians who formerly used the Forest Hills Hospital.

I am very hesitant about recommending a subrelief hospital in the vicinity at present and doubt whether it would offer service to the physicians in that area. In addition, considerable expense would be entailed for the construction of such a proposed hospital. The matter of maintenance and the support of employees for a 24-hour day would also involve additional expense which might not be justified.

In addition to the Forest Hills Hospital, there is situated within a reasonable distance by automobile the Faulkner Hospital, already equipped to operate in a manner to care for any acute emergency. Likewise, in the Dorchester section, St. Margaret's Hospital is available.

Without a prolonged study of other favorable influencing factors, I would be opposed to recommending the establishment of a subrelief station on the old Emerson property until such time as the new management of the Forest Hills Hospital has been placed in operation.

Yours respectfully,

JOHN H. CAULEY, M. D.,
Health Commissioner.

Re: Council Order, December 16, 1946.
Dear Mr. Mayor,—This Authority is in receipt of a copy of an order in City Council relative to retention of jurisdiction by this Authority over, and possible acquisition of, Old Colony and Old Harbor Village developments.

I am pleased to inform you that the Authority has reached an agreement with the Federal Public Housing Authority whereby that agency will negotiate the terms of leases to be entered into by this Authority for these two developments. Pending negotiations, existing leases have been renewed so that this Authority will continue to operate the developments as before.

If at any time the Authority should be in a position to acquire the funds, either by borrowing or by grant, it would be pleased to consider the purchase of both of these developments.

CONTRACTS RE GARBAGE COLLECTIONS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 27, 1947.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication received from the Law Department, relative to your order of January 6, 1947, concerning existing contracts which now extend for more than one year, pertaining to the collection, removal or disposal of refuse.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, January 20, 1947.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.
Dear Mr. Mayor,—You have referred to me the following order passed by the City Council on January 6:

"Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel furnish the City Council with a legal opinion as to whether or not the existing contracts which now extend for more than one year, pertaining to the collection, removal or disposal of refuse comes within section 6 of the City Charter, and to also furnish the City Council with a legal opinion as to what municipal matters come within the jurisdiction of the Boston City Council in so far as section 7 of the City Charter of Boston provides. These opinions shall be submitted to the City Council within fourteen days from date."

Section 6 of the Charter, St. 1909, c. 486, provides as follows:

"SECTION 6. No contract for lighting the public streets, parks, or alleys, or for the collection, removal, or disposal of refuse, extending over a period of more than one year from the date thereof, shall be valid without the approval of the mayor and the city council after a public hearing held by the city council, of which at least seven days' notice shall have been given in the City Record."

I assume that the order of the City Council refers to refuse collection contracts for the current year 1947. I am informed that those contracts were signed by your Honor on January 8, 1947. By their terms, the contracts terminate on December 31, 1947. They do not, therefore, extend "over a period of more than one year from the date thereof" and, accordingly, are not subject to the requirements of section 6.

As stated in several prior opinions, collected in my previous opinion of April 24, 1946, to the City Council, municipal matters within the jurisdiction of the Council, within the meaning of St. 1909, c. 486, s. 7, are matters with respect to which it has power to act. Plainly the Council has no right to inquire as to matters which it is prohibited from dealing with, or which have been placed in the hands of specific boards or officers.

Yours very truly,
JOSEPH A. SCOLAPONETTI,
Corporation Counsel.

ACCEPTANCE OF CHAPTER 179, ACTS OF 1946.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, January 27, 1947.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen.—I submit herewith an order for the acceptance of chapter 179 of the Acts of 1946 which authorizes the city to put into effect the one day-off-in-six provision for members of the police force.

In view of the fact that members of the fire fighting force begin a forty-eight hour week on February 4 of this year, it is my intention, provided your Honorable Body gives approval to the accompanying order, to approve such order on February 4, so that the new working schedule may be operative in both the Police and Fire Departments on the same day.

I am pleased to report to your Body that the Police Commissioner is able to institute this new working schedule in the Police Department by the employment of only fifty-four additional men. The Police Commissioner is deserving of our highest compliments because of the relatively low cost of instituting this new working schedule.

I respectfully recommend passage of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

FERRY SERVICE TO AIRPORT.

The following was received:

Boston Waterways, Inc.,
Room 1119, Old South Building
Boston, January 27, 1947.

To President,
Boston City Council.

Dear Sir,—Recent newspaper articles have called attention to a letter from the Public Works Commissioner to the Boston City Council regarding the application of Boston Waterways, Inc., to operate a passenger ferry service to the Logan Airport, and to his fear that such a service might involve the frequent opening of the Northern avenue drawbridge with resultant traffic tie-ups.

Although since this letter was written this question has been raised and answered at a public hearing before the Executive Committee of the City Council, I would like to take this opportunity to repeat what I said at that hearing; namely, that the proposed service will not require the opening of the bridge at any time.

The fact that the Northern avenue bridge has such a low clearance at high tide was, of course, a major factor in the design of our boats, and one that necessitated considerable research before a satisfactory design was achieved. A study of tide table records indicated, however, that with the use of the resultant boats there will be less than 3 per cent of the time during operating hours when the tide is so unusually high as to raise any question of there being ample clearance.

On those instances when it is not possible to pass under the bridge with ample clearance, landings will be made at a secondary dock north of the bridge. In these cases passengers will, of course, be provided with free transportation from there to the regular landing.

Very truly yours,
B. L. FAIRBANK, President.

The report was accepted, and the order was rejected.

2. Report on order (referred December 30, 1946) relative to children's recreation program—recommending passage of order in the following new draft:

Ordered, That his Honor, the Mayor, be requested to include in the 1947 budget estimates an appropriation of $25,000 for the Board of Recreation, General Administrative Expenses; and to include also a sufficient sum of money in the budget of the Board of Recreation to permit that Board to employ the services of a corps of athletic instructors, in order that adequate athletic supervision may be provided on those playgrounds which are not now so supervised.

President KELLY—The question comes on the acceptance of the report of the committee.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councillor Bayley.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, last Friday

your committee held a hearing in these chambers on the order introduced by Councillor Linehan to provide for a better recreation program for Boston, which hearing was attended by most of the members of the Board of Recreation and the chairman of the Park Commission for awhile, and sports writers. It was brought out at that meeting that the Board of Recreation, which is set up by an act of the Legislature and which is mandatory, is now working without any funds whatever. They meet downstairs when they have a chance to. They have no secretary, they have no money with which to make any report. The committee felt that $25,000 would enable them to have supervisors, as is provided for under the act of the Legislature, and possibly one clerk, which would enable them to present reports similar to the excellent report which they presented to this Council about two months ago. It was also brought out, Mr. President, that many of the playgrounds in Boston are not adequately supervised. There are supposed to be 52 supervisors to supervise the playgrounds, but many of us have not seen the playgrounds as well supervised as we wanted. At least, two of the councillors said that in their districts there were no supervisors at all or no supervision. We have today quite a few playgrounds and parks in Boston, and it seems to me, and I think it does to all members of the committee, that these playgrounds should be used more by the children, but there is nothing to attract them there. In the case where there is adequate equipment—and many of the playgrounds don't have adequate equipment—there is no supervision or program for the children, and the money spent in the past on building up these parks is wasted, when you don't have either equipment or supervision to look after the children and to direct them so that they will not be playing in nearby streets as is the case in one district where, when we go down the street we find them playing there, even though there is a playground alongside which is not used. Mr. President, I hope the members of the council will pass the order and that the $25,000 will be appropriated for the Board of Recreation and such further sums as is necessary to provide supervision of the playgrounds, because there are many of them at this time not adequately supervised. We need a program for the kids of Boston, and I think it is high time we had a program.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, last week we had the meeting as was mentioned by the councillor from Ward 5 (Councillor Bayley). I am sorry to say a lot of the guests that were invited did not show up. I filed an order about two weeks ago in the hope that we might get the newspaper men behind the program for the children of Boston. As many of you councillors know, the President of the United States, through his Attorney General, had a meeting in Washington relative to juvenile delinquency as it exists in the United States. They agreed there that there was plenty of it all over the United States and, of course, as we all know, there is quite a bit of it in Boston. There are many ways by which to combat juvenile delinquency. We might start with the parents, or we might go to the churches and have them investigate religious principles and so forth in order that the children might benefit from the teachings of the church. Also, we might have more adequate juvenile court proceedings set up in our courts. But coming right down to the proposition, it is what can we do as far as the city is concerned? I thought the only thing I could do was to have the Council ask his Honor the Mayor to appropriate a sufficient amount of money so that whatever parks we have in the city would be adequately manned, so that the children would get the benefit of a good, healthy recreational program. We all agree the City of Boston is not very much on recreation for the children of Boston. All the sports writers of the different papers in Boston were invited, due to the fact that the sports writers in Boston attended the Washington conference which was held as a result of the President calling for them through his Attorney General. They were invited, but only one sports writer showed up. The main object of the order was to see if we could get the sports writers behind a recreational program for Boston. Ordinarily, if a politician is looking for votes, it is said that it would be the sports writers' program because I know Bill Cunningham said we needed a recreational program. I thought they would get on the ball but, unfortunately, they were not on the ball last Thursday because they did not show up. I am getting up today, taking a chance I will get my ears boxed in. Now, I don't think the City Councilors can be blamed for the lack of funds because, under Mayor Kerrigan, the councillors went down the line and appropriated plenty of money, but unfortunately the money was taken away from the Board of Recreation and the Park Department. As far as the recreational program was concerned, it would have been administered by the Board of Recreation. I personally felt that the Board was doing a fairly good job until the time they lost all their money. I personally think, and I think all the councillors agree with me, that money spent on ties, but I think before we vote for the facilities we ought to give a sufficient amount of money for the men to supervise the playgrounds. I think the gentleman from East Boston will agree if you put facilities there you have to have supervision, and let me say the gentleman from Roxbury, the gentleman from Ward 11, and also the gentleman from Ward 5 who sat on the committee, when we were told by the Park Commissioner that there were instructors in those playgrounds in their districts, had to tell the Commissioner that was not true. I don't know who was telling the truth, all I know is that several councilors denied there were any instructors in their particular districts. I don't know of any in my district at the present time. There should be year-round instructors. I sincerely hope the order goes through, leaving it to the Mayor to appropriate money for facilities. I have no objection to the amendment if he makes it for facilities and supervision. If the gentleman from East Boston does not mind, I will amend his amendment by making it $225,000 for facilities and supervision. I do that with his consent, if he is willing.

President KELLY—Councillor Coffey.

Coun. COFFEY—Not for supervision.

Coun. LINEHAN—I amend his order without his permission, putting in facilities and adequate supervision.

President KELLY—The question comes on Councillor Linehan's amendment to the amendment. Talking on Councillor Linehan's motion to amend the amendment. Councillor Russo, not having spoken.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—Will you state your point of information?

Coun. RUSSO—May I have the order read?

President KELLY—The original order?

Coun. RUSSO—Yes.

President KELLY—The clerk will kindly read the original order.

(The clerk read the order as originally presented.)

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councillor Bayley.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, do I understand, and this is a point of information, if Councillor Coffey's amendment prevails, the provision in there for $25,000 to the Board of Recreation is completely wiped out, or is that still in there?

President KELLY—That will be wiped out. The only thing left in there is $225,000.

Coun. BAYLEY—Is that not a new order rather than an amendment if everything is wiped out in the original order?

President KELLY—No. The Chair will rule it is an amendment which changes the original order.

Coun. BAYLEY—Will Councillor Linehan include the $25,000 for the Board of Recreation?

President KELLY—Councillor Linehan restored part of the original order. It will include the original order if it passes.

Coun. BAYLEY—Thank you, Mr. President. I hope Councillor Linehan's amendment will pass. I would like to point out that it is provided in the Acts of 1943, chapter 451, accepted December 11, 1944, the following:

"The board shall appoint a superintendent of recreation who shall devote his whole time to such duties as are imposed upon him by this act."

Section 4 reads:

"The board shall study the recreation needs of said city and shall formulate plans for adequately distributed, coordinated and diversified recreational services. Such plans with recommendations of the board, shall be submitted to the departments of said city empowered by law to provide recreational services."

Mr. President, the Legislature by that act gave us the law and told us what it was our duty to do. It is obviously unfair to expect the Board of Recreation to function under its mandatory power to appoint a superintendent to work and devote his entire time to those duties. That $25,000 appropriation should be in there so that they may perform the mandatory duties which are so provided. You gentlemen were privileged three or four weeks ago to get a copy of the annual report, Document 52. I won't take the trouble to read it except to say, in addition to saying what it had done for that year, it made excellent recommendations for 1947. It made certain recommendations which I don't think any of us can dispute, such as trained play instructors for men and boys, and women for girls and small children, are an absolute necessity on every playground if property is to be maintained and the best use gotten out of it. Mr. President, I would like to remind you a year and a half ago we appropriated a million dollars for the Park Commissioner for equipment and for going over the playgrounds, of which he subsequently used about $700,000, some of the money having been taken off and transferred, but approximately $700,000 was utilized. I agree with the distinguished gentleman from Ward 7 (Councillor Linehan) that we are wasting our money if we are going to remake these playgrounds and not have supervision. We need supervision as well as we need equipment. I am going to continue to fight for this because I am fighting for the kids as my distinguished predecessor, Mr. Shattuck, did before me. I am going to keep on fighting for the kids even if you don't. I am going to as long as I am in this Body. I am going to fight for the right of the kids to be brought up in an American way, on playgrounds well-equipped and well-manned. I am going to fight for the American way of living so that they may be made strong and healthy so that we won't have 4F's in the next war. Equipment is part of the answer, but supervision is the other part. I hope Councillor Linehan is going to continue to ask the Mayor to provide sufficient money to carry out the law of the Legislature. We should do a good job for the children of Boston, and if we don't, it is time to change our form of government. It is up to us to do what the Legislature told us to do. I hope this amendment will prevail, and we will take care of the children of Boston.

President KELLY—The question comes on Councillor Linehan's amendment to Councillor Coffey's amendment. Councillor Moriarty.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I would like to offer this suggestion for what it may contribute to the solution of this Board of Recreation conflict. It seems to me there are three controlling bodies or agencies as far as recreation is concerned, in the City of Boston. You have the School Board which has a distinct budget. You have your Park Department which controls both the physical and maintenance part of the park system with supervisory authorities controlling their recreation, and then you have an advisory body appointed by a previous administration which acts in the capacity of contributing ideas in recreation. Now, if Park Commissioner Long says that we have sufficient and adequate supervisors in our park system, it is my suggestion we create a distinct bureau or department known as the Recreation Department apart from the Park Department which will provide physical control of the park system, and that if we have sufficient instructors, let them be a distinct body and thus earmark this $25,000 for equipment in itself. Park Commissioner Long distinctly said the other day we have sufficient instructors as supervisors in our park system; therefore, the $25,000 would not be expended for salaries or administrative purposes because we have them already. Earmark the $25,000 as Councillor Coffey says for equipment and facilities for the kids. It is a suggestion for your consideration that we create or take away from the Park Department their recreational end of it and let them control parks as distinct from the greater park system of recreation.

President KELLY—The question now comes on Councillor Linehan's amendment to Councillor Coffey's amendment. Councillor Fish.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, do I understand Councillor Linehan's motion to amend would permit a certain portion of this money to be spent for salaries?

President KELLY—The amendment is to read $225,000 for equipment and $25,000 for supervision.

Coun. LINEHAN—That is not right, Mr. President.

President KELLY—That is not right?

Coun. LINEHAN—That is right.

President KELLY—Excuse me.

Coun. LINEHAN—The whole $225,000 was for facilities and proper supervision of the facilities.

President KELLY—Facilities and proper supervision. All right, Councillor Fish.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, there is no way of knowing how much of this $225,000 those who administer it would spend for supervision.

President KELLY—That is right, under that amendment.

Coun. FISH—As I see it, and I stand up here with as much interest in the kids as anybody who has previously spoken, but I am also interested in what we hear every week, the poor taxpayer. I am interested in Republican talk of duplication of departments. I think we have gone one better, we are going to have a triple department now. We have the schools who have a certain portion of their money allocated for supervisory work for the children. We have the Park Department budget and a great deal of that has been spent for that. But that is not enough for some of them, and now they want a third one to do it. Still, they say they are interested in the taxpayers. Unless they get together and put it under one head, whether it be the Park Department, the Board of Recreation or the schools, unless any one takes it all, I am forced to vote against any further appropriation until they get together themselves and have one department to handle the money that is appropriated from the schools, to handle the money that is appropriated from the Park Department, and if they need any more, let us give them more, but let them get together and have it under one head.

President KELLY—The question now comes on Councillor Linehan's amendment to Councillor Coffey's amendment. Councillor Coffey.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I hope Councillor Linehan's amendment is not passed because if it is passed, it will give the Board of Recreation $225,000 to spend as they see fit. That is upping it $200,000. To begin with, I opposed the $25,000. I would not care if Councillor Linehan wanted to amend my amendment to read $10,000 to take care of the administrative expenses of the Board of Recreation such as clerks and letters and paper, and so forth, but as far as supervisors are concerned, I would not want the Board of Recreation to spend one cent on supervision. It was brought out here about putting some veterans to work. We have a Park Department which has a list up at the State House of those who have taken examinations to be supervisors in the Park Department which does the very same work as this, and if we have not enough supervisors, it is up to the Park Commissioner to send to the civil service. I am sure as the councillor from Ward 7 (Councillor Linehan) says, that list is pretty well-loaded with veterans. The Park Department could put on another dozen or fifteen or twenty, and they would be all veterans, so that angle is pretty well covered. Another thing the gentleman from Ward 5 (Councillor Bayley) brings out, is the fact that this was an act passed by the Legislature, so we have to stomach it. I wonder if the gentleman realizes nine of us have fought this; we have opposed it right from the beginning, not because the man downstairs vetoed it, but even before Kerrigan was Mayor, nine of us in this Body fought this thing. What do we care what they do up in the Legislature? They have passed a lot of things we did not like, and they have created jobs in the City of Boston for friends of theirs which we did not like. They created an Americanization Bureau for the City of Boston while we had one in the state, and we had then a federal and state. They showed that down our throats. We did not have a vote on it. They created jobs in the city, created the Superintendent of Markets job. The Board of Americanization was deemed permissive legislation, and several other jobs they created at the Legislature came down to us, and we didn't have one word on the matter; we didn't have a vote on it. So let us forget the angle that it is an act of the Legislature and we have to swallow it. We don't have to swallow anything the Legislature does. They do many things we don't like, anyhow. The gentleman from Ward 5 says in a very heated speech, so heated his words overflowed each other, that we don't want any of our kids to grow up to be 4F's. I have to be careful when I mention 4F to anybody. To begin with, I would like the gentleman from Ward 5 to know I have five kids. I brought kids up and I have grandchildren and expect to have two more in two months. Those kids will never be 4F's. One boy was not of age when he joined. He was not a 4F, and I wish to hell sometimes he was; he would be a hell of a lot better off than he is now with a touch of malaria that he is not going to get over. I wish to hell he had stayed around and made money like the 4F's did. Many a time I have hollered about the bookies or 4F's doing things to become 4F's, but nothing ever happened. The Police Commissioner did not see fit to go out and get these bookies, and he has not done it yet, and the chances are he never will. I guess everybody knows that by now. If they don't, there is something wrong, they ought to have their heads examined. All the bookies that were 4F's are still bookies now, and if a kid comes home and wants to open up a little hamburger place or go into a legitimate business, the Police Commissioner turns him down and says, "No, you can't have it." There was a man who got wounded at Okinawa and he wanted to open up a little hamburger and sandwich place on Porter street, and the Police Commissioner and the captain both opposed it, and I had to bring them over there to show them the disabled veteran, but the bookies are running all over town, all of them 4F's. If I was the gentleman from Ward 5, I would go slow with that word 4F's. Some people can't help being 4F's, we know that, and we have them in every section of the country, and that is through no fault of their own. Some of them went through hell to get into the service. The only ones I would classify as 4F's are those I read about in the papers and those I know who did things to stay 4F—lawyers going to work at the Atlantic yard, and doctors and dentists going to work down at Bethlehem Steel, which put them in 3A instead of 1A. Working for what? Forty, fifty, or sixty dollars a week until the war was over, and then going back and taking up their practice again. We had them right in this Body a few years ago. As I said in my opening speech, and I continue to say it now, this is something Henry Shattuck wanted. He had enough influence at Beacon Hill to get it through. I talked to members of that Board and the supervisors said they had no job to go to, they had no assignment. People were appointed from Brooklyn and Newton and Arlington and as far away as New York. They were political appointments. If we need more supervisors, we can get them from the Park Department and from civil service, all veterans. I want to add something about this $25,000 added to my $225,000. That is bad, it is going to give this Board of Recreation an opportunity of spending $225,000 in any way they see fit. If they want to spend $225,000 for equipment they can, and if they want to spend $225,000 on supervision, they can also spend that. I hope Councillor Linehan's amendment is voted down and another amendment put on of $10,000 for administrative expenses of the Board of Recreation, and the other $215,000 be spent for equipment. Once the parks are equipped, the Park Commissioner will have to put on supervisors in those parks if the councilors claim they need supervision. In my ward, I have enough supervision, but I don't know about the other wards. But if there is a ward in the city which does not have supervision, it is up to the commissioner to see they have proper supervision. I hope Councillor Linehan's amendment is killed because I think it is a bad amendment.

President KELLY—Councillor Linehan, talking on his amendment to Councillor Coffey's amendment.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I doubt if this is in defense of a constituent of mine, but may I say that instead of Colonel Sullivan being a puppet, I think he is the most independent public official I know in the City of Boston. I think a puppet is one who can be handled any way that the holder of the puppet wants him to act. I don't think Colonel Sullivan can be handled by any man the way he sees fit. Going back to the gentleman from Roxbury (Councillor Moriarty) who suggested we might have some kind of board to coordinate all the athletic activities, I might say to him why the Board of Recreation was organized. Section 4 of the act which created the board, the Acts of 1943, chapter 451, says:

"The board shall study the recreation needs of said city and shall formulate plans for adequately distributed, coordinated and diversified recreational services. Such plans, with recommendations of the board, shall be submitted to the departments of said city empowered by law to provide recreational services. The board shall encourage the establishment of voluntary committees to advise and cooperate with the board with respect to the operation and supervision of neighborhood play areas. The board may submit recommendations to any licensing authority or authorities."

Section 5 says:

"The board may, from time to time, consult with the park department, school committee, police department, public buildings department, board of street commissioners and traffic commission of said city, and any other departments thereof empowered under any general or special law or any ordinance to provide recreational services or having jurisdiction over premises and facilities which might be used for recreation, in relation to the recreational services or premises and facilities provided by said departments and in relation to plans for recreational services formulated by the board."

Section 6 reads:

"The park department, school committee, police department, public buildings department, board of street commissioners and traffic commission of said city, and any other department thereof empowered under any general or special law or any ordinance to provide recreational services or having jurisdiction over premises and facilities which might be used for recreation may, from time to time, delegate to the board, with the consent of the board, and under such terms, including provisions for the transfer of personnel, as may be agreed upon, the management of any such recreational services or make available to the board premises and facilities under their control."

It simply means this, that the Park Department and any of those other departments mentioned, including the School Committee, may delegate any and all of its personnel having anything to do with recreation and any of its facilities under its jurisdiction and transfer them over to the Board of Recreation. The Board of Recreation in turn will formulate a program and will use the personnel and facilities provided by the different departments in the City of Boston. That is the job of the Board of Recreation, and I contend that is exactly what it will do as far as that request is concerned. You want some board that can coordinate all the different departments so that it is only one board, and that is what the board was created for, to correlate all the different departments so that we know what we are doing. Section 6 says that these different departments may delegate. As I understand it, the order originally was that these different departments throughout the city that have recreational programs and facilities "shall." You might say to give it so-called independence they made it "may," and that is why we have trouble today, because it is "may." The board can now say to the Park division: "Give me some of your employees and recreational facilities so that we can put on a proper recreational program." If the word "shall" was in there, the board could compel Commissioner Long and all the other department heads to provide adequate facilities. But, unfortunately, the way I look at it, the word "shall" was changed to "may." Now, if a department head with the cooperation of the Mayor, does not want to do it, they don't have to, they can tell the Board of Recreation to jump in the river. That is what they have in Boston today. If the word was "shall," I don't believe we would have trouble. Section 7 says:

"The board may provide and may conduct recreational activities and supervise recreational premises and facilities delegated or made available to it by other departments of said city under section six. The board may cooperate with and promote by advice, suggestion and otherwise, such voluntary or amateur organizations for recreation, entertainment, or mutual improvement as shall meet its approval. The board may acquire and utilize recreational supplies and equipment and other supplies and equipment necessary for the conduct of its work."

So that if the different departments cooperate with the Board of Recreation to provide an adequate program for the children, the Board can do so, but if the Mayor of Boston and those other departments don't want to transfer some of their duties and some of their facilities and some of their personnel, this Board of Recreation cannot provide an adequate program for the kiddoes of Boston. There is something of personal jealousy on the part of the different department heads. That is what you have in Boston, and I say to anybody who does not believe that, go around and find out, go around to the different playgrounds and see if they are properly manned, see if the kiddoes in any section are satisfied with the programs. I don't think you will find one section satisfied. The only ones who will be satisfied are those which are being managed by private enterprise such as the Boys' Club and the Boston Lincoln House and all the other different clubs and private agencies. I sincerely hope that the amendment prevails, and I might conclude by saying the Mayor can still throw this order in the wastebasket, whether amended or not. My idea was to get the sports writers to do the job and not the councillors. As I said, the councillors can't do anything until the Mayor appropriates the money, and if he does not appropriate the money, then we have the half-baked program we have had over the years.

President KELLY—Councillor Russo, not having spoken

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I did not intend to speak on this order. However, I could not help but recall the time when this Board was given its power by the state and then when the Council accepted the act, I was one who was very much in favor of this Board and fought for it and now recall even at that time when I asked the members of the Board to inquire into the act where it said they "may," I said at that time, "What will happen if the Park Commissioner or the School Committee or the various other departments you might ask to relinquish their powers and turn them over to you,—what will happen if they don't turn those powers over?" Well, they felt at that time this question would never come up. I suggested, and I still suggest, until such time as the act is revised and the word "may" changed over to "shall," we will be placed in the same predicament we are placed in today. I feel very strongly now as I did at that time. I feel that there should be a separate board to take care of all athletics whereby, when we are called upon in regard to any playground or any schoolyard or various other buildings owned by the City of Boston which could be utilized by the children, we know we will be under one department which will be the Board of Recreation and, therefore, we would not be given the runaround. We know if we called them up and asked them again, we would get an answer one way or the other. As it is today, you call the Park Department or the School Department, and they say, "See the School Department," and they say, "See the School Department." You get the runaround whether you like it or not. I cannot help but look back many, many years ago when I first started to learn how to play a saxophone. Many of you don't know I am a saxophone player, but I had my own band many years ago. However, I can recall the difficulty I had when I bought my first saxophone which cost at that time $220. What good would that saxophone have been to me if I did not have the instructor to teach me to play? So what good are the facilities if you have not got the proper supervision? Let us be fair and frank. All of us from time to time have taken the floor and asked that more supervision be granted in various parks and playgrounds. I would like to see proper supervision and if it is not proper supervision, then I would see to it that the right person would be employed. I like to see proper facilities on the playgrounds because I firmly believe that those proper facilities and good supervision go hand in hand. One cannot do without the other. You must have supervision and you must have facilities. Whether his Honor the Mayor feels that he does not want the Board to operate, that is within his jurisdiction, but I say, whatever money we spend, we ought to make sure that proper supervision should go along with proper facilities.

President KELLY—Councillor Bayley.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I might say that the committee held a meeting of over two hours back last Thursday and heard everybody to be heard on it. We received some fine advice in the matter and went out to lunch and discussed the matter an hour and a half, and came back with a unanimous report. Here we are with one amendment and then another amendment. It is possible some of the councillors did not understand what our report was. One part was that we recommend and we suggest that the Mayor appropriate in the budget $25,000 for the Board of Recreation for purely administrative purposes, no supervision, purely administrative purposes, which is the minimum amount with which they can adequately perform their mandatory duties under the act. That $25,000 would be spent for a superintendent as provided under the act and one or two clerks for office and annual reports which they are required to make. It would have nothing to do with supervision. It is estimated $25,000 is the approximate amount necessary to carry out the minimum duties without regard to supervision. The second part of the order was that the Board of Recreation be given money for supervision of those playgrounds which were not at the present time adequately supervised. If the Park Department says any of those grounds are supervised and there is no need for supervision, there is no necessity for the money to be given to the Board of Recreation. At this time I would like to ask the councillor from Ward 1 if he has any objection to the first part of the order, which was that the Board of Recreation should get $25,000 for purely administrative purposes, which was agreed on by the council.

President KELLY—Councillor Coffey.

Coun. COFFEY—I oppose the Board getting anything.

President KELLY—Councillor Linehan's amendment covers that.

Coun. BAYLEY—Would that include $25,000 for administrative purposes?

President KELLY—That is right. The first question comes on Councillor Linehan's amendment to Councillor Coffey's amendment.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to clear the record, that it means $25,000 for administrative expenses.

Coun. BAYLEY—And $225,000 for facilities and proper supervision?

Coun. LINEHAN—Therefore, Mr. President, it would include $25,000 to the Board of Recreation for administrative purposes.

President KELLY—You amended it that way.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like it to read $25,000 of the $225,000 be spent by the Board of Recreation for administrative purposes.

President KELLY—All right. The first question comes on Councillor Linehan's amendment to Councillor Coffey's amendment.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councillor Russo?

Coun. RUSSO—A point of information.

President KELLY—Will you state your point of information?

Coun. RUSSO—If this amendment is passed and his Honor the Mayor wishes, he can take away the $25,000 from the Board of Recreation for administrative purposes and allow the other to go for supervision and facilities and equipment?

President KELLY—Of course, councillor. The power to initiate appropriations rests solely with the Mayor and not with the City Council. He can do anything he sees fit. The question comes on Councillor Linehan's amendment to Councillor Coffey's amendment. All those in favor say aye. Those opposed no. It is ordered. Now, the question comes on the amendment as amended. Those in favor say aye, those opposed no. It is a vote, and so ordered. Now the question comes on the passage of the order as amended. All those in favor say aye, those opposed no. It is a vote and so ordered.

The order as amended was passed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LICENSES.

Coun. COFFEY, for the Committee on Licenses, submitted the following:

Report on petition of York Realty Corporation (referred Jan. 20) for driveway opening at 137 Lincoln street—recommending that permit be granted.

The report was accepted, and the permit granted under usual conditions.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTABLES AND CONFIRMATIONS.

Coun. BRYAN, for the Committee on Constables and Confirmations, submitted the following:

Report on appointment of Edward F. Collins (referred Jan. 6) to be constable without power to serve civil process and to serve without bond for term ending April 30, 1947—recommending that appointment be confirmed.

Report on appointment of Richard H. Burke (referred January 17) to be constable without power to serve civil process and to serve without bond for term ending April 30, 1947—recommending that appointment be confirmed.

The reports were accepted, and the question came on confirmation of the appointments. Committee, Councillors Russo and Chase. Whole number of ballots 12, yeas 11, nays 1, and the appointments confirmed.

FIVE-DAY WEEK FOR ALL CITY EMPLOYEES.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, go on record as favoring a five-day week for all city employees.

Coun. HANNON Mr. President, there is legislation filed at the State House now for the Commissioner of Banks to allow the banks to close down on Saturdays. We have adopted the same custom of doing this during the summer months, and I think we might well follow the general trend toward the five-day week. I hope this order is adopted.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SALARIES OF REGISTERED NURSES.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with the proper Federal authorities to the end that the salaries of registered nurses be subsidized by federal funds and placed on a nationwide standard in order to equalize the salaries and working hours of registered nurses in all areas and thereby curtail the current loss of nurses to higher paid positions outside of their profession.

Coun. HANNON—As is admitted by every body, Mr. President, one of the greatest shortages we are facing is the shortage of registered nurses. We here in the Council I think have done a very fine job in trying to alleviate some of the difficulties in the Boston City Hospital, but it does seem it is almost impossible to obtain nurses during the hours of three to eleven. During the past week, I have had two requests for nurses. It is hard to obtain them for any hour, but it is practically impossible to obtain nurses to work during the hours of three to eleven. At the various meetings in the City Hospital relative to this shortage, one of the facts that impressed itself upon my mind was the fact that many places are offering nurses much more than the City of Boston is offering. I think the councilor from South Boston has fought long and hard to have this condition alleviated, and I think some steps have been taken toward remedying this situation, and the curing of this discrepancy. However, I think it is not merely a local situation, but that it is a state situation and it is a national problem. It has been written up recently in Chicago and in national magazines, and it is something, I think, the Federal government should interest itself in. I therefore suggest that the Mayor take up with the proper authorities to have the government subsidize nurses so that nurses everywhere will have the same salary and have the same working conditions. That at least will protect them in the City Hospital and various other municipal institutions and state institutions so that they will not be lured away from the state and city hospitals by the thought of obtaining more money in a similar private institution.

President KELLY—Councilor Russo, talking on the order.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I heartily agree with the order, but I would like to bring out, Mr. President, this is not talking so much in regard to the nurses because we all realize that there is a shortage of nurses, but I think something ought to be done about giving the right information at the hospital. Something ought to be done, they should be given the right information as to why there is any shortage. I had occasion to call Dr. Manary about ten days ago and ask why they had discontinued allowing the family, that is, relatives of the sick to stay there during the hours that they were unable to get nurses, from three to 11.30. This particular person I am speaking about had been confined in the hospital for over 22 days, and for 22 days the family had paid for two nurses every day. They had been trying to get the third nurse to take care of the sick, and they had been unable to, so they were alternating between themselves to take care of the sick during those hours. But, lo and behold, they were told by the nurse up there that they could not stay there and do that any more. When I got in touch with Dr. Manary and brought that to his attention, he told me that they were allowed to be there and to inform them in that regard, but I found out the next day, Mr. President, this person was transferred from the room she was in, in a semi-private room, to a ward. I am wondering, are those the tactics that are being used in order to clamp any patient down there that may, in slang, "squawk"? Are those the methods being used in the hospital, or are we trying to do everything in order to bring that hospital to the standing it should have? If these are the tactics, I am wondering how many patients have we in there that just because from fear of speaking do not say anything because they do feel they will get worse treatment. However, I can say this, as far as Dr. Manary's office is concerned, I got in touch with the office and he wasn't there, but I spoke to the lady there, and I was assured the patient would be transferred back. However, this is a week ago and she has not been transferred. I am saying the trustees of the hospital should take notice. I intend to investigate further in this case, and I am wondering how many more cases have we in the hospital that might be in a similar situation, maybe not getting the right treatment, and they are afraid to speak, because if they do some other method will be used upon them that would say to them indirectly, "Shut up or otherwise get out."

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Hurley.

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President, I heartily agree with Councilor Hannon in his order submitted today about the subsidization of nurses. I know an order was introduced by the councilors from South Boston asking for something which in our opinion the people here in the Council who understand the hospital did not think was something extraordinary. Knowing conditions as explained by the councilor from Ward 13 (Councilor Hannon) in the Federal hospitals, and, yes, small private hospitals in Boston, we asked the Mayor and the Board of Trustees to consider granting an increase, and named the sum of $600, not too large a sum we know, but it would do something in getting girls who had graduated in our hospitals and who had gone outside of Boston and who would love to be back working with the girls with whom they trained and graduated, to return if the compensation was nearly comparable with what they are receiving outside the city. Mr. President, I sincerely hope this order will pass, but I would like to call the attention of the Mayor to the fact that the Board of Trustees should get busy now and not wait for subsidization, but to get busy on the order presented by the councilors and grant this $600 increase now. I was at the hospital last night and this morning. Conditions are bad. The service in the hospital is the best, but after the operation we are asking for something that is impossible to get if we ask for nursing care. I would like to take the members of the Council to the hospital some time when we are not supposed to be around, say, at eleven o'clock, and to walk into the Medical Building and find a student nurse in charge of a ward. The ward consists of a big ward with many beds plus many small rooms with two, three, or four beds. You find no one on the floor, and you wait there. The telephone rings, and you wait for a nurse to appear. Finally the nurse comes running up the stairs, and she wants to be excused, because she was running the ward downstairs. She has two wards on two floors. I thought it was bad when I spoke on the Council floor the last time talking about conditions. In the Dowling Surgical Building you have a male and female ward on the same floor, and you have a violation of the city law in that the fire door is open at all times. This nurse working in the female ward would hear the telephone ring in the male ward and she has to answer it. But can you imagine, gentlemen, you go into a building where there is a male and a female ward on two different floors, and you find out one nurse is taking care of the two floors, and this situation is prevalent every night in the Medical Building at the Boston City Hospital. What is the cause of it? The cause is, largely, as the councilors stated on the floor, the lack of graduate nurses, and the cause of the lack of graduate nurses is the lack of compensation for the work they are doing plus, and I state this forcibly, Mr. President, and I want to call it to the attention of the members here that we should rise up and go to the second floor of this building and demand that the Mayor of Boston bring the trustees of the Boston City Hospital in here and ask the Director of Nurses and the Board of Trustees for information. They are coming in here next month with a good sized budget, a record budget, but they are not coming in here and showing us if this money is being well spent in the School of Nursing. I contend without proper management that no business, no organization, is good, and my contention, Mr. President, is that the School of Nursing, directed by Miss Cecilia Knox, is positively not directed to the best interests of our city and our great hospital. You hear of dissatisfaction not alone on salary compensation, but that they are quitting at the City Hospital because of the tactics used by the czarina, Miss Knox, as director. Mr. President, just picture this, girls who have graduated and worked in our institution for 20 years and longer have a just complaint, and they put it in writing, and they direct the letter to their superior, the Director of Nurses, the Director of the School of Nursing, and receive no reply. They follow it up with a second, a third, a fourth, and a fifth letter and receive no reply. And then in desperation they get on the telephone and they ask for her, and when they mention who they are and what their business is, they are insulted by "Don't you dare bother me. I am a busy woman. Don't ever let this happen again that you bother me calling me up and writing me letters." What kind of business is this? What kind of organization is this? Mr. President, when you have to stand here and have complaints from all over the city regarding the lack of nurses and care in the hospital, the nurses in every ward in the hospital will attribute the lack of nurses not alone to money, but on account of conditions in the School of Nursing in the Boston City Hospital. Mr. President, I hope this order passes, but I also hope with the cooperation of the entire membership we will bring it forcibly to the attention of the Mayor that the Board of Trustees should come to his office, and I know if we meet them in his office we will get far better treatment than we did last year when we went to their office and tried to get some facts, some figures, that would be helpful to us in the Boston City Council in helping the hospital to be a great hospital, a greater hospital than it is. We have everything there, Mr. President. There is not a hospital in this section of the country that has the facilities for taking care of the poor as we have in this great city of ours. We have great doctors, the most eminent surgeons and medical men in the entire world located there. But, having all that, if we have not the nurses to take care of the patients after their illnesses have been diagnosed or the operations have been completed, our hospital has to be a failure. I charge, Mr. President, it is not only a question of salary, it is a question of organization, and I lay the blame at the door of the Director of Nurses. This has been before this Council since she assumed the office and has made it the office of a dictatorship. "Don't bother me, don't speak to me, don't write to me." If you get to the place and call on the telephone and wish to see her, she has to be seen by appointment, you are told. You make the appointment a couple of weeks ahead, and then she is out at the State House. Mr. President, I hope this order passes, and I hope also the members of the Body here will all cooperate and wait on the Mayor to see if we cannot bring this to a head. Thank you.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, will the clerk kindly read the order?

President KELLY—The clerk will read the order.

(The clerk read the order.)

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, there must be some truth in what Councilor Hurley said. I don't know Miss Knox, and I don't think that I would care to know her, but I heard as recently as ten o'clock last night from a City Hospital nurse who volunteered the information that Miss Knox—and this is a very serious charge to make—that Miss Knox is the one who has inflamed all the girls up there to seek more money, and, now that the money is granted, Miss Knox has been known to go around inflaming the same girls against the number of patients. In other words, Miss Knox describes many of the patients as the bum friends of the City Councilors. She has persuaded them to believe they are overworked because the councilors can get anybody in there under any conditions or protest, sick or well. I think if there is any truth in the statement made to me last night—and I want to assure you the statement came from a responsible person—if there is any truth in the charge Miss Knox is inflaming those girls into hollering about conditions and the number of patients, I think the City Council here ought to get on a horse and have something to say about the further employment of Miss Knox as Supervisor of Nurses. Mr. President, I would like to ask Councilor Hurley a question.

President KELLY—Councilor Hurley.

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella has a question to ask.

Coun. HURLEY—What is the question?

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President and Councilor Hurley, does Miss Knox hold that position by appointment or by contract with the trustees?

Coun. HURLEY—By appointment of the trustees and she can be removed any time by the Board of Trustees.

Coun. KINSELLA—I suggest she be removed. The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

PAYMENT OF MEMBERS OF BOSTON MEDICAL BOARD.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Clerk be instructed to include in the departmental budget for 1947 an amount sufficient to compensate the members of the Boston Medical Board $25 each for their attendance at Medical Board meetings in consideration of annuity applications.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, the purpose of this order is to try to repay in a small way the leading medical men who give up their time in order to determine whether or not a man has died in the performance of his duties and whether their families should be given an annuity. I don't suppose we can pay them really what they are worth, but it was called to my attention that they are working for nothing. Many times we wonder why these petitions for annuities have been cast aside and are lying around. These men have got each and every week so many petitions presented that they must meet each and every Friday and spend hours considering these matters. I think we ought to pay them at least the menial salary of $25 a day. If we brought a doctor into court, we would have to pay him $50 for his appearance there. The least we might offer these outstanding men is $25 a day. I believe they should be paid something.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

TAKING OF CERTAIN MOUNT HOPE LAND FOR VETERANS HOUSING.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with the Boston Housing Authority with the view of taking by eminent domain the vacant land between the American Legion Highway and Neponset avenue in the Mount Hope section of Ward 18 for veterans housing.

Coun. CANTWELL—Mr. President, that is a section in my district. It is a progressive section and would make an ideal site for veterans housing because there is plenty of transportation into the city. It was taken over, I believe, some time ago by a cemetery, but I think we should make housing for the living instead of the dead; then we would be doing something.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS AT HUMBOLDT AVENUE AND SEAVER STREET.

Coun. COOK offered the following:

Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be directed by his Honor the Mayor to install traffic signal lights at the junction of Humboldt avenue and Seaver street, Roxbury.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

VACATIONS AND SICK LEAVE FOR POLICE.

Coun. HANNON and BRYAN offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council in meeting assembled endorse pending legislation granting to the police of the City of Boston vacations up to 4 weeks and 15 days' sick leave each year up to a total of 90 days.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, the purpose of this order is merely once again to give voice to the thought we expressed a couple of weeks ago when we first adopted the rules and regulations for city employees, granting them pay for 4 weeks' vacation for 20 years of service and up to 90 days' sick leave with a maximum of 15 days for each year of service. At that time we excluded the Police Department because of the fact that there was some question or doubt as to whether the Police Commissioner, being appointed by the Governor, would come under the jurisdiction of the City Council and city ordinances. However, there is now pending before the Legislature a bill which directs the commissioner to grant to police officers the same vacation periods and the same sick leave as other city employees receive. This order is merely voicing our approval of this legislation.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO ALFRED C. HOLLAND.

Coun. KEENAN and FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That Alfred C. Holland, stenographer-clerk, be granted one year's leave of absence, without pay, to take effect January 28, 1947, at 5 p. m.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

CLEANING UP OF BOOKIES.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor confer with the Police Commissioner regarding the cleaning up of bookies in the City of Boston.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, for a long while now I have been debating whether to introduce this order or not, but after the way I have seen things happen between Thanksgiving and Christmas and up to New Year's, I have decided some action should be taken. About an hour ago on the floor I saw fit to call the Boston Police Commissioner a puppet. One of the gentlemen from the same district as the Police Commissioner saw fit to defend him and say he is not a puppet but a very independent man. In other words, I suppose he meant he is a good Police Commissioner and could not be reached by anybody. I heartily disagree with the gentleman from South Boston because the commissioner can be reached, and there is no doubt in my mind that he has already been reached. What has prompted my action against the bookies in East Boston is, during Christmas time, when we were looking for a few baskets, these so-called 4F'er bookies would not contribute one five-cent piece to a collection some of the public-spirited citizens saw fit to take up so that some of the poor over there would get a basket and a few toys for their children on Christmas Day. Not one five-cent piece was contributed by these bookies. About 18 months ago we had a Captain Britt assigned to the East Boston district. I happened to meet him the first day he came over, and we had a short talk that night. He told me that he was over there for one reason—the Police Commissioner had told him to clean up the conditions in East Boston. For the first year, Captain Britt, if I may say so, raised merry hell in East Boston. He was getting an average of four bookies a week. He never could get the dice game being run over there, the dice game at which it is nothing to see a hundred thousand dollars pass hands in one night, and I am not kidding you one bit when I say that. I think the police in this room know it. There is a dice game run in my ward four nights a week where it is nothing to see a hundred thousand dollars in circulation, nothing at all. The captain knows the dice game is operated and claims he does not know where it is operated. I put out a little card all over the district which said, and some of the people in this room saw that card, "The bookies cannot afford to contribute one penny for a basket or for toys for the poor of the district, but they can pay the police sergeant $20 every week for protection." That is what they are doing, and when I took this up with Captain Britt and told him that, he said, "I know it, but what the hell can I do about it? There is nothing I can do about it." In my last talk with the captain, I said to him, "How is it you only make one arrest a month now, whereas you used to average four a week?" He said, "The Police Commissioner told me to lay off." That is what Captain Britt said to me, and I hope I never leave this room if I am not speaking the truth. I hope I don't leave this room alive if I am not speaking the truth, that he said, "You know how it is; the Police Commissioner told me to lay off." For months and months they have raised a fund of money to get the police captain out of there, and for the last five or six months everything is going along good, and the bookies are not interested any more in having Captain Britt removed from the district. They paid money to substantial citizens to go to the Governor, to make contacts to have Captain Britt removed from East Boston. But the last five or six months their efforts have been withdrawn; they don't want him removed now because he is playing ball with them now and he is playing ball because of what I said a few minutes ago, that the Police Commissioner is nothing but a puppet. My words are proved here today by the actions in East Boston in the past five or six months. Go over there, and you will see the record speaks for itself. For a solid year you get an average of four arrests a week, with the bookies being barred out of restaurants and barred out of pool rooms and barred out of barber shops, but within the last five or six months the record will show that there has been an average of one arrest a month, which proves the captain's words were right. The Police Commissioner is his boss, and he has to do as the Police Commissioner tells him. Yet I had to go to a lot of trouble to open a diner in East Boston and to let a disabled veteran sell hamburgers and hot dogs. Mary Driscoll said he did not need a permit, and the Board of Street Commissioners said he did not need a permit. He opened it Saturday morning, and it was closed Saturday afternoon. He opened for two hours, and then the captain closed him. I asked the captain about closing him and allowing the bookies all around the square, but the Police Commissioner himself had to come over there and he was very much put out because he had to reverse his decision, and the captain's decision, and give this young boy an opportunity to make a living for himself. He was very much put out about it that he had to do an about-face. I say the Police Commissioner knows no more about policing the City of Boston than I do, and I am not cut out for the job, and he is not cut out for the job. He is an engineer by trade, and what does he know about police duties? There are bookies right up in police headquarters. They have them everywhere, and everybody knows that. They are in the State House, they are in City Hall, and they are in every public institution, but they will go out and raid the South Boston Yacht Club, and what did they get out of that? A few fellows playing poker. Don't they play poker in the back room of police stations? The bookies can operate and the bookies can run the city and do any damned thing they want. The last time I took to my feet and went after the Police Commissioner was a long time ago. I told about a hall being operated by a bookie, and what happened? About three months later they raided that hall and got over a million dollars of equipment out of the hall and sent the big bookie to State Prison for three to five years. My words were proved then, and they will be proven now. I am going to keep after the Police Commissioner and Captain Britt until he cleans out the 4F bookies if I have to take to my feet every Monday, and if I put ads on the front page of the papers to let the public know the Police Commissioner knows the right people to keep him in there.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan, talking on the order.

Coun. LINEHAN—I rose to the defense of Commissioner Sullivan because of my personal knowledge of the gentleman. I don't know what he does as Police Commissioner, and I don't know all the conditions that exist in South Boston or East Boston, but I do know that most gentlemen who have known Commissioner Sullivan over a period of years may not like the gentleman personally perhaps, but they do commend him for his honesty. I don't know whether what the councilor from East Boston said is true. If it is, I still say Commissioner Sullivan is not a puppet, and I don't think anybody would dictate to him as to what he should do. If he is doing it, he is doing it of his own free will. I think that is the man's reputation. Certainly, if there are bookies, and plenty of them, in East Boston, and if the Police Commissioner won't do anything about it, there is no reason in the world why the gentleman from East Boston cannot get in touch with the District Attorney and, if the condition is that bad, perhaps that is what he should do. I still think Mr. Sullivan is no puppet, because nobody can tell him what to do without his wanting to do it. That is the reason I got up to defend Commissioner Sullivan.

Coun. COFFEY—We can forget the puppet angle of it, but why the hell go up to the District Attorney's office? If they want to put me on as a special investigator at five grand or ten grand like the Police Commissioner gets, I will do a better job than he is doing—I will clean up East Boston. There are enough honest cops who would like to clean it up over there, but the cops know the sergeant is getting 20 bucks a week and they are getting nothing. You bet they are not satisfied. The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

ANNUITY TO DEPENDENTS OF JAMES B. MCCARTHY.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council hereby favors the enactment of legislation for the payment of an annuity to the dependents of James B. McCarthy, late member of the Fire Department, who died from injuries sustained in performance of his duty, provided that said legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and City Council.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PETITION OF BOSTON WATERWAYS, INC.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I move to take No. 1 from the table, under unfinished business, as follows:

1. Petition of Boston Waterways, Inc., for license to operate ferry service, Congress street to East Boston.

On January 20, 1947, the Executive Committee submitted a report recommending that license be granted.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan moves that No. 1 be taken from the table. The question is on the granting of the license.

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President, I know that a week ago today we had a lot of debate here, and I guess we tired the gallery and ourselves out. I was one of the members who was not present at the roll call, and I was not present because I was absent deliberately so that the Body would not be able to use steamroller tactics, something unusual, in going back to Executive session the second time. If I am guilty, I stand guilty before the Chair of leaving the meeting intentionally so that there would not be a quorum.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan, for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. LINEHAN—Does the councilor yield for a question?

Coun. HURLEY—Not right now.

President KELLY—Councilor Hurley.

Coun. HURLEY—I notice in the Boston Traveler, which I don't think all the members have read because very few get the paper in my district, either the Herald or the Traveler. So that when they write damaging editorials, they will have to give them to some other paper sold in my district, because they do not sell the Herald and Traveler there. The headline is "The Council Quibbles."

"Most public-spirited citizens would agree that the Boston Airport is entitled to the best transportation facilities possible."

I will agree with that.

"There is a minority on the City Council, however, which seems much more interested in forensics and political shenanigans than constructive action."

That may be true, too, but I want to say that does not include me.

"To delay judgment on a bona fide petition for the operation of water ferries to the air field, this minority has pulled many tricks out of the juggler's box."

So this must be with reference to the people who stayed here last Monday when they are talking about pulling tricks out of the juggler's box.

"Councilman Hurley tried to refer the ferry bill back to the committee on licenses."

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick, for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of order, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Will you state your point of order?

Coun. MUCHNICK—It seems to me the subject under discussion, Mr. President, is No. 1 on the calendar.

Coun. HURLEY—That is what I am speaking on.

President KELLY—The Chair will rule he is talking on that subject.

Coun. MUCHNICK—This is with reference to the Traveler and not the calendar.

President KELLY—Councilor Hurley.

Coun. HURLEY—That is not true. I did try to have it referred to the Committee on Licenses so that the chairman of the committee who is a resident of the district which is a part of this license would have a chance to be here and defend his district or advocate the granting of the license. It was agreed in Executive Chamber that this would be laid on the table for one week. When it was laid on the table for one week, I took it for granted it was as a result of a speech made by Councilor Russo asking for fair play for the councilor from Ward 1. In my eight years in the Boston City Council, that was the first time we ever left the Chamber to go into Executive Session twice in a day. So probably that is what the Herald is talking about, or the Traveler, when they refer to pulling tricks out of the juggler's box. I used to think when I was a young fellow that when I read an editorial—

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan, for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of order, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Will you state your point of order?

Coun. LINEHAN—I don't think he should be permitted to impugn the motives and actions of his fellow councilors as to what was done. It was all done legitimately.

Coun. HURLEY—I am talking on the order, and I am talking about pressure being used by Boston papers trying to intimidate councilors if they don't go along with the wishes of one man,

Mr. President. I was talking about when I was a youngster reading editorials. I thought, "Gee, this is the will of the people."

President KELLY—The Chair will rule the counselor in order.

Coun. HURLEY—But I have been around a little bit in the last seven or eight years, and I have been into the rooms where certain gentlemen have been writing editorials, and have been in a room where if the light went out you could not see your hand in front of you, and they were voicing their opinions and putting it before the Council—

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—A point of information. President KELLY—Will Councilor Hurley yield for a point of information?

Coun. HURLEY—No.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I am asking of the Chair and not of Councilor Hurley.

President KELLY—Would you state your point of information?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Would the Chair inform me how far one must go before he is out of order?

President KELLY—The Chair will inform the counselor this editorial was written in regard to the subject matter before the Council, and Councilor Hurley is still in order in discussing the editorial. Councilor Hurley.

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President, I always thought, as I stated before, that these writers represented the will of the people in general, but I have since found out this man sits in a little bit of a room and writes his own opinions, trying to influence the people of the city who would read it. What is to stop a man who has an interest in a certain proposition, some business, employed by a Boston paper who wants to influence us, yes, intimidate us: if we don't do his bidding, we will be punished by the voters of our district. Mr. President, I think this was not called for. It is not the will of the people. I think the men here representing the twenty-two wards in Boston represent the will of the people. Not the people from Newton, not the people from Winchester, but the people from our own respective districts, and when the time comes that we don't, we won't be here, some one else will take our place, but I am satisfied on any action I have taken in the Council, it is for the best interests of the people living in my particular section of the city, and as a rule the will of all the people of Boston. We tried to have this thing held up so I made a little study of my own. I was at the Congress Street Bridge yesterday after Mass, and I was at the Fire Engine 44 and then to the Public Works Department. I have spoken to the engineer of the Bridge Division, and he informs me definitely he is opposed to the granting of the license in that particular location. He states that on December 5 he sent a letter to the Boston City Council on Licenses. Here is the letter regarding that matter.

"Re Water Taxi: Airport to Congress Street Bridge.

"In connection with the application for the right to operate a water taxi service across Boston Harbor, between the Logan Airport and the Congress Street Bridge, which you now have under consideration. I wish to advise that if such a license is granted, it should be restricted so that none of our drawbridges will be required to make special openings for this service.

"I am advised that this proposed service is to be to the downstream side of the Congress Street Bridge, that the cruisers to be used are six (6) feet high above the water line, and that the running schedule will be at about twenty-minute intervals.

"On these premises, the only bridge affected would be the draw span of the Northern Avenue Bridge. This structure affords a vertical clearance of only about 7.7 feet above mean high water and as little as four (4) feet or less at extreme high tides. From this data you can readily see that if we were required to make special draw openings for the proposed water taxi service, that this draw span would probably be open continuously for two or more hours whenever the tides are running higher than normal.

"This situation of course would be inconceivable, and the proposed water taxi service, if granted the license requested, should be made to make other arrangements at higher than normal high tides so that no special draw openings will be required."

After getting this information, I went to the Northern Avenue Bridge, and here is what I found out, that at normal high tide it is only seven feet above the water, and that is placid, smooth water through the under structures of the bridge, leaving about a foot and a half between the top of the boat and the bottom of the bridge structure. Any swell at all in the water, anything in the water, would mean even on ordinary high tide that bridge would have to be opened every time a boat left Northern Avenue to go to East Boston and every time a boat left East Boston to come to Northern Avenue. Now, as to the construction of the machinery operating this particular drawbridge—and this discussion on the license I think will be very interesting to all the people of Boston in regard to a safety measure which I will explain now. When this bridge is opened, and a boat passes through, and the bridge is then closed, it takes from 20 minutes to a half-hour to build up the 210 pounds of compressed air necessary for the reopening of the bridge. I brought it to the attention of the Fire Commissioner because they have a boat anchored on the other side of Northern Avenue Bridge. If a freightboat or an American Sugar Refinery Company boat should go through the bridge, and the bridge closed, and a fire broke out in South Boston or in my area, Ward 8, which the fireboat controls, how long would it take for the fireboat to go through the bridge? Well, councilors, a fireboat would sit at the bridge from 20 minutes to a half-hour until we could open the span again. I spoke to the Mayor and said, "This is a dangerous situation, Mr. Mayor, regardless of the taxi service. Any boat going up the harbor, if a fire broke out, and if we had the fireboat equipment at the bridge for half an hour, the place would be in ruins by the time they approached it." All winter, when they are dumping snow and ice into the harbor, the snow and ice rises above the water level, and that would necessitate the opening of the bridge. There is a second letter dated January 23, 1947, to the Committee on Licenses:

"Re Water Taxi: Airport to Congress Street Bridge.

"With reference to my letter to you, dated December 5, 1946, regarding the issuance of a permit for the operation of a water taxi service from the East Boston Airport to the Boston end of the Congress Street Bridge, over Fort Point Channel, I wish to further advise that I have since inquired into the legal effects of restricting the proposed permit by prohibiting the taxi service from requesting special openings of the Northern Avenue Bridge.

"It appears that, according to Government regulations, any vessel can properly demand an opening of any drawbridge, if necessary to permit its passage through the channelway, except at properly authorized so-called closed periods. In effect, this would mean that after the water taxi service has obtained its permit and is in operation, it could properly call for an opening of the bridge if necessary for its passage through the channelway, probably regardless of any restrictions in its permit. Such action, if taken, would result in either swinging the Northern Avenue draw off (closed to vehicular traffic) for long periods at times of high tides, as mentioned in my first letter, or it might lead to complex legal difficulties to cancel a permit because of the permittee exercising his legal rights under Government regulations.

"In consideration of the facts presented in my letter of December 5, 1946, and the possible legal difficulties presented above, I, for the good of the public in general, most strenuously oppose the issuance of any permit for water taxi service involving special openings of any drawbridge within the city limits.

Very truly yours,
ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works."

I think that in itself, Mr. President, would necessitate the laying of this matter on the table or referring it back to the Committee on Licenses, so that they may bring Commissioner Curley, the engineer in charge of the bridges, and someone connected with the Bureau of Navigation, United States Government, and also speak with the men at the bridge and the Traffic Commissioner. They tell me now that Deputy Henchy many times has gone down there trying to rush the operation of the bridge when Atlantic Avenue and Congress Street have been tied up into a snarl after a boat has passed through, and that it has taken hours to untangle the traffic snarl created through the city as the result of this opening. Mr. President, as a result of this information, I think everyone, no matter how much they may be interested in the granting of this permit, will be fair enough to order this thing back to the Committee on Licenses and specify that it have a hearing no later than this week. I understand that there have been delays, and a lot of times we have delayed unnecessarily on matters of this kind, but I will make a motion that this matter be referred back to the Committee on Licenses with the provision that the parties interested be so notified and appear before this committee no later than Friday of this week.

President KELLY—Councilor Hurley makes a motion that this matter be referred to the Committee on Licenses and the parties interested be notified of a meeting to be held no later than Friday of this week. Talking on the motion, Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I suppose the reason for the postponement is to find out whether or not we can grant this license without opening up the bridge and, if the gentleman from Ward 8 (Councilor Hurley) does not desire to introduce an amendment, I will introduce an amendment which will say, "No drawbridge shall be opened to permit the boats of the licensee to go under the bridge at any time," so that, if that is the big reason why he is objecting to the consideration of this today, that will clear that up. I think the other councilors will vote for that amendment, which means that this licensee will agree as a condition in the license not to ask for the opening of any bridge in the City of Boston to permit passage of his boats at any time. There is no question, it seems to me, that if this is made part of the license granted, he would have to live within it, because if he does not there is nothing to stop the City of Boston from saying he is not living within the license granted. I would like to know from the clerk, through you, Mr. President —

President KELLY—Councilor Hurley, for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. LINEHAN—I will be glad to yield to the gentleman.

Coun. HURLEY—I would like to ask the gentleman a question.

President KELLY—Does the gentleman yield?

Coun. LINEHAN—I yield for the question.

Coun. HURLEY—I would like to ask him to read this.

Coun. LINEHAN—I have read it.

Coun. HURLEY—It states for any boat with a license they have to open the drawbridge regardless of any stipulation in the license or permit. They have to do it.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Muchnick, for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—I thought Councilor Linehan had yielded to Councilor Hurley.

President KELLY—He did. Councilor Linehan still has the floor.

Coun. LINEHAN—I yielded for a question.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—For many months now we have listened to the arguments for and against this particular license. Last year there were many of us in the so-called militant minority who were defeated week after week trying to get more information on a matter involving the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars, and time after time we were defeated. Of course, we did not use any roughshod tactics because, if anybody was roughshod, it was not the so-called minority. Thank God, we can still smile after defeat. Some day we might win, and we can smile a little wider. It is pretty good when you can smile when you lose day after day. I hope all the councilors do the same thing if they occasionally have a loss. To my way of thinking, if this matter goes to a vote today, it is going to be a very, very close vote. I wouldn't bet it would get by or get defeated, but I for one would like to see this thing voted on today. I am getting pretty sick and tired of it. Naturally it was put over last week because we did not have a sufficient number of councilors to vote on its passage. Probably it would have passed last week if we had a vote on it, but it is before us again, and it seems to me we have listened to all the merits and demerits in this matter, and I should think the licensee by now would like to get the damned thing over with, one way or the other. I know I would like to see it beaten or passed. If the licensee agrees, and I believe he will, not to have the drawbridge opened up at any time for the passage of his boats, it can be put in as a condition in the license, and I think that overcomes the objection raised by the councilor from Ward 8 (Councilor Hurley). There is no doubt the gentleman can get other spots to start at just prior to reaching the Northern Avenue Bridge. There are other spots, two or three, from which he can select, so that when we come to the point where the tide is extremely high and if, as the councilor from Ward 8 said, the boats will be unable to pass under the bridge without its opening, the licensee can then stop at this substation or whatever you call it. It seems to me that objection is overcome. The gentleman from Ward 8 can introduce it, or I can make the motion if he so desires. Probably looking out for the interests of the city, I myself, will file it after the motion is voted on as to whether or not this should go back to the Committee on Licenses. We have listened to the distinguished councilor from Ward 8 read the several letters from the distinguished Commissioner of Public Works and, by the way, I am sorry he did not send the members copies of it. It seems to me we are entitled to the information on it. Now, we have heard the contents of the letters read, and we know what we are going to vote on because that information is before us. As I say, I, for one, if the councilor from Ward 8 does not introduce the amendment, will introduce it. I think it should read, whereby the licensee will not be permitted to request that the bridge be opened at any time for the passage of his boats. Naturally, this gentleman has to comply with whatever the wishes of the Council are with reference to the granting of this license, but God help us and save us, I have never seen a man looking for a license who had to sit and to listen to so many amendments tacked on to a license. The poor gentleman is patient, I suppose, and some of us councilors are patient to have listened to so many amendments. The one amendment which was passed, I think, is the amendment relative to the insurance stipulation which provides $10,000 for each passenger or $210,000 for a boatload. We have overcome the objection of insurance, and I think if we put on that amendment, that overcomes the objection as to whether or not we will open up the drawbridge for the passage of the boats. Are there any other things we want to discuss about it? If there are, I think we should do it right in open Council.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President. President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. SULLIVAN—If he yields, I will give him a good reason.

Coun. LINEHAN—I yield for a question.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I will give him a good reason.

Coun. LINEHAN—I will yield for an answer.

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—The gentleman asked a question of all the members, if there are any further objections to it, and I have, and I have voiced them ever since this thing came in here, and not one word of my objections has ever appeared in the Boston papers. If he wants to let me continue, I will give them right out here on the floor.

Coun. LINEHAN—I refuse to yield.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan, so that you may understand the Chair, if you yield for an answer from Councilor Sullivan, you yield the floor to him.

Coun. LINEHAN—After his half question, I think I should continue.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—I forgot to mention the question of taking business or depriving taxicab drivers of fares was raised in the committee. That is not a new question, that was the first question raised, so I don't think I was in error in not mentioning it. I asked if there was any new question, any new ones.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I still have a new one, and the gentleman knows it.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan, will you yield for an answer? Wait a minute.

Coun. LINEHAN—May I say, Mr. President, as long as I have the floor, I don't know of any other, but when he takes the floor he can tell me.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Tell him not to ask those questions.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, will you tell the gentleman I will debate as long as I see fit and as long as I am within the rules of parliamentary procedure, and as long as I am within parliamentary procedure neither he nor anybody else can force me into sitting down.

President KELLY—Just live up to the rules of the Council.

Coun. LINEHAN—Which I have done ever since I have been a member of the Council, and I challenge any member to say I have not lived up to the rules of the Council. I think it is about time we voted on this matter one way or the other. We all know the arguments for and against. I, for one, hope it is either passed or defeated today. I don't want to see it go into committee and waste more time. On many occasions last year I asked for very important matters to go into Executive Session for more information and we were defeated time after time. Let us get the darned thing over with one way or the other. If it is killed, it is killed. If the gentleman from Ward 8 does not introduce the amendment about the passage of the boats, I will introduce it.

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Hurley, you have spoken.

Coun. HURLEY—I want to answer about the amendment. It won't take me a second.

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan or Councilor Bayley, neither one having spoken. Councilor Sullivan.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, up to now we have heard some of the objections, and one of the objections I have raised, and have raised ever since this petition has come into this Body has been the revenue, because it is vitally going to affect the city treasury. I think it is the best of all reasons why this petition should not be granted. I don't know why, when I heard my name was mentioned in the editorial—

President KELLY—Councilor Keenan, for what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. KEENAN—I doubt the presence of a quorum.

President KELLY—The clerk will call the roll. The roll was called, and the following members responded:

Councilors Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Carey, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Linehan, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Scannell, Sullivan—17.

President KELLY—There are seventeen members present.

Coun. CHASE—Here.

President KELLY—Eighteen members present, and a quorum is in attendance. Continue.

Coun. SULLIVAN—When I saw or was informed my name appeared in the Boston Traveler, I knew it was not good because never to my knowledge would a Sullivan get a good comment in the editorial column of the Boston Traveler. I don't know why this editorial was written or whether the man who wrote it received all the information about what went on here last Monday. They can call me what they may, but I think I am right, I will use any parliamentary trick in the book, and I used it last Monday to a fare-thee-well. I doubted a quorum last Monday, and I so told the members, and I walked out of the hearing. Today I made the quorum by walking in here. Ever since this petition has been in here, I have opposed it on one ground, that it was going to vitally affect the Sumner tunnel. Ever since the Sumner tunnel has been in operation, since 1934, they have had a deficit, from 1934 to 1944—they have only shown a surplus in 1945 and 1946. There was $111,363.74 in 1934, and in order to make that up, that deficit was added on to the tax rate here in the City of Boston. In order not to take up too much time, gentlemen, the current total from 1934 through 1945 was a total deficit of $3,155,464.84. Towards this, the state from 1940 to 1945 has contributed to the city $600,000, thus leaving a grand deficit of $2,555,464.15, which the taxpayers of Boston have paid over the past ten or fifteen years in tax rates. Now, taking the word of the petitioner himself that he will have to carry at least 300 passengers a day in order to make the thing go, and being very conservative, I am only taking one-third of that figure, and one hundred, —100 taxicabs will be stopped from going through the Sumner tunnel, and entering the tunnel means they must return, that deprives the city of 40 cents a cab. A hundred cabs a day is $40 a day net loss to the City of Boston, and that is not money that is due next week or next year or when you catch up to me, it is cash on the line. Gentlemen, from there, only taking 300 days of operating and giving the benefit of the doubt, taking 300 operating days, 300 days at $40 is $12,000 a year conservatively, a very conservative figure that the city will lose in the granting of this permit, and I might add a net loss of $12,000 against all we can get from this gentleman on this petition, $20 a year. Compare $20 on the one hand for the granting of this permit and on the other hand that we are going to lose at least $12,000, and that is a very low figure. How are these gentlemen who have to go to the state and ask the state to reimburse the City of Boston for the money going to explain that for $20 a year they will take $12,000 revenue away from the Sumner tunnel?

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. LINEHAN—Will the gentleman yield for a short question?

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan, do you yield for a short question?

Coun. SULLIVAN—No.

President KELLY—He does not wish to yield, councilor.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I think, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Council, that that is a good reason and a reason that has not appeared in the paper. The editorial here in one paper leads the people to believe that Sullivan is stopping progress. Sullivan thinks he is right regardless of the newspapers, and Sullivan is going to fight on his own two feet, he is not going to be dictated to. This is not the first editorial, and it is a fair question to ask, "What interest has the Boston Traveler in this Waterways?" It was not very long ago, gentlemen, that they condemned seventeen men in this Body and approved five for being honest. Look around, gentlemen. Who are the five and who are the ones that are trying to push this thing through? Were their names mentioned?

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of order, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan, will you state your point of order?

Coun. LINEHAN—I don't think the gentleman should be permitted to impugn the motives of any councilor by saying he is pushing anything through. I have not pushed anything in eleven or twelve or thirteen months except housing.

President KELLY—The reference to councilor's honesty is out of order. Councilor Sullivan, continue.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I am going to fight this one way or another until it is defeated or by some means the city will be reimbursed for the money being lost in the granting of the permit, money which we will lose directly at the Sumner tunnel.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley, not having spoken.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, in answer to some of the arguments that have been raised, it is a pleasure to have some gentleman think of the tax rate and the expenditures of the City of Boston. I hope they have the same regard when the budget comes before us in another month or a month and a half, and join me in the fight to end unnecessary expenditures. I will be looking forward to that. Mr. President, answering the gentleman from Ward 8 (Councilor Hurley) regarding the opening of the drawbridge, I would like to read from a letter of the Boston Waterways:

"The fact that the Northern avenue bridge has such a low clearance at high tide was, of course, a major factor in the design of our boats, and one which necessitated considerable research before a satisfactory design was achieved. A study of tide records indicates, however, that with the use of the resultant boats there will be less than 3 per cent of the time during operating hours when the tide is so unusually high as to raise any question of there being ample clearance."

"On those instances when it is not possible to pass under the bridge with ample clearance, landings will be made at a secondary dock north of the bridge. In these cases, of course, passengers will be provided with free transportation from there to the regular landing."

Mr. President, that shows very well that landings may be made above the bridge. I have no objection to Councilor Linehan's proposed amendment, that the drawbridge will not be opened. When it is impossible to pass under the bridge, the petitioner has stated he is willing to have landings at the secondary dock north of the bridge and not ask that the bridge be opened. I also don't agree the taxicab operators are strongly opposed to this matter. We have heard from one or two representatives, but since the matter has been raised, I have talked to some of the taxicab operators, and a great many of them feel that it is a long jaunt over to East Boston, anyhow, and they could do just as good business in Boston Proper. They don't feel one way or the other regarding the license. The big problem is whether this will benefit the City of Boston. I believe it will. It is true there will be some loss of revenue on the matter, though. I think it is questionable, but definitely we need to help the airport in the City of Boston to provide an easier way or another way for people who live in Boston to get across to the airport. At the present time, there are many traffic stoppages at Sumner tunnel, and possibly this will end in getting across. The people who wish to go from the South Station on that district across the water have a right to have the transportation they wish. If we can make it easier for them to use the airport, and easier for the people who come into the airport to get into the center of Boston, we should do it. I hope we defeat the motion to refer it to the committee and that we vote yes or no today without further delay. Let us see where each member stands, and vote today without further delay.

President KELLY—Councilor Cook.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, talking on the motion to refer the matter back to the Committee on Licenses, it seems to me the petitioner has met practically every condition that has been voiced by the opponents of this license. In fact, I was the one who brought up the loss of revenue by way of Sumner tunnel. We received an opinion from the Corporation Counsel that we could not put a toll charge on it. I think if this taxi service is put into effect and the number of passengers throughout the year indicates to the authorities at least $12,000 or more revenue could be added through the Sumner tunnel, a bill could be passed through the Legislature. There was talk last week to refer this to the Committee on Licenses out of deference to the chairman of the committee to find out his views. It was very easy to find out his views because he was on record as against the license. We asked that the petitioner for the license increase his insurance from $5,000 per passenger to $10,000 per passenger and to $210,000 per accident. He is agreeable to that. He would like to get this license so that he can order his boats and get them in time to try out this taxi service. The fact that one of the newspapers, or more than one, has seen fit to write editorials is nothing new. I have been commented on in the past and have never seen fit to try to argue with them. I don't think by getting up and arguing with them you show them courage one way or another. We must not mistake noise for reason, or gall for courage. Parliamentary tactics are allowed. If they were not allowed, we would not have them. There is nothing wrong in any body ruled by parliamentary procedure to take advantage of everything in the book to gain their purpose. However, we have had enough meetings upon a petition by a sincere veteran who wishes to go into business. We have heard all the arguments, and we have had all the facts. Last Monday we learned from a letter that was dated in December that there is a question of clearance of a bridge. In answer to that, the petitioner says that he will not ask that the bridge be opened. I don't know what more we can ask of him. Let us decide with the Council assembled whether we think it is to the best interest of the city to give this license to try out this taxi service, which taxi service I don't think exists in any other great city. I would like to see it tried out, and certainly if it proves to be a good business, it will benefit. I think, even those who oppose it, the taxi men. I think the taxi men have expressed themselves by saying they would rather have a short haul to this taxi, this water taxi, at the bridge, than taking a long haul from Boston through the tunnel to the airport where, in most cases, they don't get a fare back. If they do not wish to go through the Sumner tunnel from the airport, they can go around another way and not pay the 20 cents. I don't think we ought to have innuendoes and personalities. Those who think it is bad for the city have their reasons, and some of their reasons have good merit. Those of us who favor it have our reasons, and we think our reasons are better. The main point is, what is best for the city? That balances the disadvantage that may be had by the loss of, say, $12,000 of revenue to the Sumner tunnel which is operating at a deficit. May I call your attention to the fact that there are plans and bills in the Legislature for highway expansion and improvement which call not only for an arterial highway but for a second tunnel, and I assure you the gentlemen of the Legislature, in view of their experience with the deficit that exists today from the single Sumner tunnel with the well-known traffic jams and the poor traffic management that results because there is only one tunnel, will see to it that the city will not bear the burden of any further deficits. I think I can safely say that the State House and the Legislature have come to the conclusion that what benefits Boston benefits the state, and if Boston loses the state loses, and because the state as a state has a great stake at interest in the finances of the City of Boston, they will see to it that any burden that might arise through the Sumner tunnel as it exists today, or a second one, will be borne in fair proportion by the state itself.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Does the gentleman yield?

Coun. COOK—Yes.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to tell the gentleman from Ward 12 (Councillor Cook) and the gentleman from Ward 9 (Councillor Sullivan) that I don't know whether they realize it, but for 1946 the Summer tunnel, I remember distinctly, is operating on quite a profit.

President KELLY—Councillor Cook.

Coun. COOK—That bolsters my argument. What will happen if you send this back to the committee? If they have a private hearing, and they can, and there is nothing wrong with it, we will come back next Monday and those councillors not present at the hearing will have to argue again. If they have a public hearing it will be the same as the hearing that we had plus a few more editorials—and the editorials have not, so far as I have seen, dissuaded or persuaded any of the councillors. Sometimes editorials talk good sense, and sometimes we disagree with them heartily. Sometimes I have fought a measure in spite of the fact that an editorial is for it. The question is, will we get any more valuable information? I don't think we shall. I think we have had everything pertaining to this subject before us. We have the Council here, and I think we ought to vote on it today one way or the other. I hope that the motion to refer it to the Committee on Licenses is defeated, and I hope that the petitioner gets this license with the condition and the amendment as suggested by the councillor from Ward 7 (Councillor Linehan). Incidentally, the point brought out that we cannot control conditions affecting Federal highways, namely, the sea, is true but, as the councillor from Ward 7 pointed out, we still have the power to give the license and we still have the power to take away the license if the conditions we add on it are not obeyed.

President KELLY—The question comes on referring the matter back to the Committee on Licenses. Councillor Coffey.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I would like to have the matter referred back to the Committee on Licenses. I want to be very fair on this thing. It is the wish of the majority that it does not go back, it does not affect me in any way. Still and all, this letter did not come to light, and I knew nothing about it until I read it in the Boston papers, about the Public Works Commissioner making the statement that the drawbridge would have to be opened too often, and the second letter following it which says any boat has the right to blow its whistle and the attendants at the drawbridge have to open that bridge. The second good reason is the argument Danny Sullivan has been giving right along, the traffic revenue and the loss. The third good reason is that taxicab owners have opposed this from the beginning. Regardless of what statements were made here today, I know the taxicab operators are still opposed to this. I make it my business to visit the East Boston airport at least once a day, and sometimes I am down there twice a day, and if you don't believe it you can verify that. If I am not here, they can get me at the airport and they usually call and get me there. Every taxicab driver I have talked to is opposed to this. I have seen as many as fifty cabbies waiting there at the airport to get a fare. These fellows have families and they have to make a living. We have an argument today about a man looking for a permit to operate a water taxi from South Boston to East Boston. I don't care what your arguments are, I don't care what your reasons are, that is your privilege, and I will do as I darned please. This man happens to come from Cohasset. I made a statement in the Executive Chamber that I tried to locate somebody from Boston who would operate these taxis and who would be glad to go into the business. I ran into a couple of fellows named Burke, both brothers that have the money, that would like to get this petition. They have been in the boat-building business for about eleven years, and they think they could operate this successfully. I didn't influence them in any way whatsoever, but they did ask me if there was any chance of getting it through, and I said, "I don't know, and the chances are I will oppose it." Some day we might find ourselves with a petition before us from the Burke brothers asking permission to operate these water taxis from South Boston to East Boston. I would like to get this back to the committee, and I would like to hold a hearing Friday, whether public or private. First of all, I would like to see the gentlemen who wants this permit. I have not met him as yet, and I wouldn't know him if he walked on the floor here today. I would like to get his views. Secondly, I would like to get the Traffic Commissioner here to find out what revenue, if any, would be lost through the Summer tunnel. I would also like to get the taxi owners and some of the operators, if I have to bring them over from my district, those who operate exclusively to the airport, and ask their opinion. Something new has been called to my attention in the past few weeks. I found out there are no docking facilities at the East Boston airport. Now, I would like to know if the petitioner is going to build a dock out at East Boston or if he expects the state to build a dock for him. These are the things I would like to find out, and that is why I would like to have this go back to the Committee on Licenses and to hold a meeting Friday for the gentleman who is the petitioner and also for Bob Curley, for his argument on the opening of the drawbridge. Have the Traffic Commissioner there to tell us if this is going to be a loss of revenue, and have the cab operators and owners voice opposition, if any. And most important of all is the docking in East Boston. There are no docking facilities at the East Boston airport at the present time. I would like to know who is going to build it, Mr. Fairbank, the petitioner, or the state. I don't care about the Herald-Traveler. Mullins, who is the Traveler and Fairbank, in my opinion are the same. Otherwise, why have so much space? I would like to have it go back to the committee to find out what they are going to do about the docks at the airport.

President KELLY—Councillor Carey.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I think it would be well for the petitioner here if this matter were voted on today. He has worked hard on it. He is in the gallery here today, I see. He is a man of responsibility and ability, and he is no doubt sincere in his desire to give the patrons of the airport a ready service and decent service. I have been in the minority here not only this year but consistently during the last nine years. I have had to take the bitter with the sweet, but more often the bitter than the sweet, and I believe colleagues of mine for years will attest to that. One cannot but be nauseated at the editorials that will appear in the papers condemning the City Council at times for their actions. As far as I am concerned, editorials will never change me one way or the other. I might be with the minority today, and, as I said a moment ago, I have most always been. There are times when I have been with the majority but when I do vote here, I try to vote in fairness to all concerned. It is unfortunate, as the councillor from Ward 12 (Councillor Cook) indicated, that sometimes one is persuaded to vote against a matter simply because an editorial writer, who is only an individual, sees fit to take a City Council or any other legislative body to task for delaying tactics. There have been, however, points raised during the last week that I think the Council should well delve into. It is well for Mr. Fairbank to say that he will at no time request that the bridge be raised. That we have not had an established fact because the line has not run and he has not had an opportunity to demonstrate whether or not there will be occasions to open up the drawbridge. It is reasonable to assume most of the traffic on this waterways will be between the hours of four and six in the afternoon when, first of all, we all know traffic in and out of Boston is at its heaviest. Regardless of what Mr. Fairbank says, it would be most unfortunate if that bridge were raised three or four times or a dozen times within those hours and add to an already jammed traffic situation. What is wrong in delving into this for the purpose of getting more information? Personally, I perhaps would use the service often and I would like to see it running. I feel it is safe to say it would benefit me, and so perhaps I am prejudiced, if one was to look at it that way from that standpoint. It is much easier to jump in a ferry at Atlantic Avenue instead of going through heavy traffic, through the tunnel, and more heavy traffic. Once you jump into the ferry you land practically at the wings of the plane. But if we are to consider it might create a more serious condition, the time to consider that is right now at the hearing on this petition. There was no evidence given us by the Commissioner of Public Works or navigation officials, by the Traffic Commissioner or the Police Commissioner or anybody else who could tell us about the condition that concerns us and is being written up in the newspapers day and night, the traffic situation. True, Mr. Fairbank says that if there will be this condition created because of the opening of and closing of the bridge, he would have a second landing to eliminate that, but the time actually to determine that, whether that is true, is now. I have indicated I am in favor of this petition, and if the matter had been voted on last Monday I would have voted for it, perhaps regretfully so today, in view of the information that has come into the possession of the Council during the past week. Now, the service is not running yet, and a week's delay will not be too serious and nobody can be bluffed into believing that. The matter deserves, as a matter of fact demands, that when we vote for it, if we vote for it as something good for the city, we want to have that definitely determined ahead of time. There is no immediate necessity as I can see, regardless of the amendment of Councillor Linehan, which he is going to attach to the order and I think, as a matter of fact he wants to be fair, but that does not prove to us that the drawbridge never will have to be raised. We don't know what tides we might get, regardless of what Mr. Fairbank says, and I am inclined to believe that particular part of his agreement much as he wants to be honest about it that we won't have to open up the drawbridge, and he says if it is opened, it won't be at the time of day that might create some hazard throughout the city. What difference does a week's delay make?

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councillor Linehan. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of information.

President KELLY—Will the gentleman yield for a point of information?

Coun. CAREY—I will be glad to.

Coun. LINEHAN—In my amendment, councillor, I say the licensee will not, under penalty of revocation of this license, require any drawbridge to be opened in the operation of the ferry service.

President KELLY—Councillor Carey.

Coun. CAREY—That is a fine gesture on the part of Councillor Linehan, but it is sort of a case of standing up to a man and saying, "You son of a gun, I am going to give you the license, but I don't know whether you can survive or not." Why give the man the license in the first place if there is going to be danger of any penalty ensuing later on? For the love of Pete, we are all over seven years of age. I want to vote for this thing, but why give it to him and let him go out and think everything is hunky-dory and next week have us say, "I am sorry, we didn't mean that, you can't live up to this or that. We are going to revoke it." This should be delayed until next week, and when he gets the license, let him go and make his plans, whatever plans he wants to make, with no conditions attached which will be necessary, as I see it, at the present time. I want to be honest with Mr. Fairbank and with myself and with the people of Boston. As Councillor Sullivan has brought out, there is going to be a lessening of the revenue because of the lessening of traffic through the tunnel. However, that can be offset in some other way. As we have this thing so far, and particularly with the revelations of the past week, I think we certainly are entitled—regardless of what the Boston Traveler or any other paper has to say by way of admonition—we certainly are entitled to more time. We can then send the man away feeling there are no conditions attached to the license. I feel it should be sent back to the committee in order to satisfy ourselves in regard to the information received which is so pertinent.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councillor Linehan. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. LINEHAN—A point of information, Mr. President.

President KELLY—Will Councillor Linehan state his point of information?

Coun. LINEHAN—Is there anything to stop the petitioner for the license from asking for this license next Monday if he loses this Monday?

President KELLY—No, he can apply any time he wants.

Coun. LINEHAN—I therefore hope the matter comes to a vote today, but if it is lost he can come in next Monday.

President KELLY—The question is on referring the matter back to the committee. Councillor Moriarty.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I believe the fact that Councillor Linehan wants this to come to a definite vote one way or the other precludes us from the information Councillor Carey has asked for. We should get expert and authoritative information from the Public Works Commissioner who since yesterday morning has published the fact that he is against this thing. Therefore, I believe it should come before the Committee on Licenses in order that we may have available all of this so-called expert information.

President KELLY—The question is on referring this back to the Committee on Licenses. Councillor Muchnick.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I will try not to be too long because we have been at this much longer than necessary already. But there is one thing I would like to have made clear. Councillor Carey suggested we were all over seven. That age limitation includes Mr. Fairbank, the president of the petitioning company, as well as it includes us. If Mr. Fairbank is willing to accept a license which prohibits him from using any of the drawbridges under penalty of revocation of the license, he is old enough to realize that, he is over seven, and he knows what he is asking for, and he knows what he is getting. Nobody is stood up against a wall and told, "Here, you son of a gun, take this." We are giving him what he wants, and if he uses those drawbridges we have the penalty clause in there, and then he will suffer the revocation of the license. In view of his willingness to take the license with these conditions, it seems to me rather foolish to call the Public Works Commissioner in and the bridge engineers and all the harbor authorities to see whether or not he can operate without using the drawbridge. He guarantees he won't use it anyway, and all the rest of the discussion becomes purely academic.

President KELLY—The question is on referring this matter back to the Committee on Licenses. All those in favor, say aye, those opposed, no. It is not a vote.

Coun. BAYLEY—I move the passage of the order.

President KELLY—Councillor Coffey doubts the vote. The clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called on referring the matter to the Committee on Licenses, and the motion was carried.

Yeas—Councillors Carey, Coffey, Fish, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo, Seannell, Sullivan—11.

Nays—Councillors Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Chase, Cook, Keenan, Linehan, Muchnick—8.

President KELLY—Eleven in the affirmative and eight in the negative, and the petition is referred back to the Committee on Licenses.

RECESS.

On motion of Councillor Seannell the Council voted to take a recess at 5:45 p. m., subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by President Kelly at 6:05 p. m.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on petition of Agnes L. Welch (referred December 26, 1946) to be paid annuity on account of death of her husband, Matthew J. Welch, late member of the Fire Department—recommending passage of accompanying order, viz.:

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 89 of chapter 32 of the General Laws, an annuity of one thousand dollars be allowed and paid to Agnes L. Welch, widow of Matthew J. Welch, a member of the Fire Department who died on January 29, 1946, on account of injuries received in the performance of his duty, said annuity to continue so long as she remains unmarried; the payments to date from January 29, 1946, and to be charged to the appropriation for Fire Department, Pensions and Annuities.

The report was accepted and the order was passed.

2. Report on resolution (referred today) relative to vacations and sick leave for members of Boston Police Department recommending adoption of the accompanying new draft, viz.:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council in meeting assembled hereby favors the enactment of legislation granting to members of the Police Department of the City of Boston vacations up to four weeks and fifteen days' sick leave each year up to a total of ninety days provided such legislation includes a referendum to the Mayor and City Council.

The report was accepted, and the order was passed.

3. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) accepting chapter 179 of Acts of 1946—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the order was passed.

4. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred Dec. 16, 1946) for payment of $3,200 in settlement of claim of Connors Brothers Company—that same ought not to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. BAYLEY—What is this on, Mr. President?

President KELLY—The payment of the claim to Connors Brothers.

Coun. BAYLEY—And the recommendation is what?

President KELLY—The recommendation is "Ought not to pass." The question is on the passage of the order. The committee's report is accepted, and now the question is on the passage of the order. All those in favor say aye, those opposed no. It is not a vote.

Coun. HURLEY—I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call.

President KELLY—Councilor Hurley doubts the vote and asks for a roll call. The clerk will please call the roll.

The roll was called, and the order was passed, yeas 9, nays 8:

Yeas—Councilors Coffey, Fish, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, McCormack, Muchnick, Russo, Sullivan—9.

Nays—Councilors Bayley, Bryan, Carey, Chase, Cook, Keenan, Linehan, Moriarty—8.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I ask for reconsideration.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley asks for reconsideration.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, the Executive Committee after a hearing recommended the order ought not to pass. We have had this before several times. We had it last year, and again now. It seems to me we should not throw out the report of the committee and act on it hastily when the full Council is not here. If reconsideration prevails, I will ask that it be sent back to the Executive Committee or an appropriate committee for further and complete investigation.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley asks for reconsideration. All those in favor say aye, those opposed, no. It is not a vote.

Coun. BAYLEY—I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call.

President KELLY—Councilor Bayley doubts the vote and asks for a roll call, and other councilors have joined him.

The roll was called, and the motion to reconsider was lost, yeas 8, nays 10:

Yeas—Councilors Bayley, Bryan, Carey, Chase, Cook, Keenan, Linehan, Moriarty—8.

Nays—Councilors Coffey, Fish, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, McCormack, Muchnick, Russo, Scannell, Sullivan—10.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with officials of the Boston Elevated Railway regarding the refusal of the "El" to permit a general use of the transfer privilege upon payment of the ten-cent fare.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I want to say just one word on that order. On the Huntington avenue bus line transfers are being refused to the patrons who want to transfer to the buses going through Dudley or Allston. I understand on the payment of ten cents you are entitled to a transfer, I trust by that order to get the situation remedied on that bus line.
